HORACE EASOM

Horace Easom, native North Carolinian from Smithfield in Johnston County, was educated at Buies Creek Academy (now Campbell College), Wake Forest College, where he was the featured baritone soloist, and the New York School of Music and Arts. He served in World War I and afterwards became director of education and music at Southside Church in Wilmington in 1921. He held a similar position at the First Baptist Church of Asheville before coming to Shelby's First Baptist in 1928. In Asheville he was a pioneer in radio music of the day, being a member of the first WWNC quartet.

He was associated with two great Baptist pastors as music-education director—Dr. George W. Truett at the First Baptist Church of Dallas, Texas, and Dr. Zeno Wall. His association with Dr. Wall at the First Baptist Church of Shelby continued some 17 years until June of 1947 when he was called to lead the Wake Forest Enlargement Campaign to raise $2 million through the state's Baptist churches. Afterwards he became the state's first Brotherhood secretary and secretary of the Baptist Foundation.

In 1941, Gardner-Webb College turned to him to head a campaign to raise $100,000 as the school, then Boiling Springs Junior College, sought accreditation. He was also co-chairman in 1943 of the Memorial Fund Enlargement Campaign which raised $750,000 for Gardner-Webb and again in 1947 he was co-chairman of a special endowment campaign for the college when it was accepted by the Baptist State Convention.

Retiring from State Convention work in 1958, he became public relations director for a Shelby bank, and in 1961 became executive director of the Cleveland County United Fund, enthusiastically leading this drive over the top each year until his death. During this same period he also served at Buffalo Baptist Church and Bethel Baptist Church in Shelby as music director.

He served as a member of the Wake Forest College Board of Trustees, Gardner-Webb College Board of Trustees and the Gardner-Webb Advisory Committee. He has directed music for the Baptist State Convention, the State Evangelistic Conference and for Baptist Assemblies at Ridgecrest and at the State Assembly. He also has served as moderator for the Kings Mountain Baptist Association and was one of the charter members of the Christian Laymen's Witnessing Organization. A member of the Shelby Kiwanis Club, he also served as lieutenant governor of Kiwanis; was named Shelby's "Man of the Year" in 1961; and served as chaplain for the American Legion Post No. 82.

In 1926 he married Margaret Stevens of Clinton, N. C., daughter of Dr. John A. and Lucy Herring Stevens. They had one son, Horace Easom, Jr., who died in infancy, and one daughter, Mrs. Robert Litton. There are three grandchildren, Lu Litton, Robert Litton, Jr., and Margaret Stevens Litton.

The editorial in the Charlotte Observer following Horace Easom's death sums up this man's personality: "Horace Easom was a man who loved to sing and direct singing. His services were ever in demand. It gave a special lift to a man's day to have a few moments on the street or in the office with Horace Easom. No mere back slapper or civic booster, his face, eyes and words expressed his genuine love of life and people and reflected his strong religious faith. Those whose lives were touched by Horace Easom were enriched by the experience."

JOHNSON JAY HAYES

JOHNSON JAY HAYES

He was a man whose life was given to the service of God and his neighbor. He was an unashamed witness to his faith in Jesus Christ as he sought to lead others to Him. He did many things for many people without thought of credit or praise.

Johnson Jay Hayes was born on January 23, 1886, in the New Hope community of Wilkes County. Though his work and service were known and felt far beyond his home community, he remained throughout his life loyal to his beloved "State of Wilkes" and to the basic principles of honesty, industry, charity, and helpfulness, all of which were a part of his upbringing in the foothills of the Blue Ridge.

Judge Hayes lived a life of service to his own church and to the Baptist denomination in North Carolina. He served on the General Board of the State Convention and was for many years a trustee of Wake Forest University.

Everyone knew him as a great jurist and federal judge in the Middle District of North Carolina. Most Baptists in the state knew of his loyalty to Wake Forest and of his strong convictions on a number of issues often expressed on the floor of the Baptist State Convention. Many in northwestern North Carolina knew him as a great Bible teacher whose lessons were broadcast over the radio for many years. Those in his own church, Wilkesboro Baptist, knew of his interest in and dedication to the total life of the Church and his support of all the Baptist institutions and agencies. A narrower segment of those who knew him best knew of the many ways in which he helped so many people. Yet, probably no one knows the completeness of this part of his life. He was indeed a "good and faithful servant" when it came to meeting the needs of the needy.

Judge Hayes has been called the "first citizen" of Wilkes County. He was in the forefront of virtually every progressive movement for the betterment of its people. Climaxing his efforts in this regard was the establishment of the Wilkes Community College of which he was a trustee and which named one of its first buildings after him. He also wrote a definitive history of his native county entitled "The Land Of Wilkes."

Judge Hayes died suddenly on October 22, 1970. His funeral was attended by a multitude of dignitaries and those of his own community who knew him best. And, appropriately, the service was broadcast over the radio station (WKBC) which for many years had carried his Sunday School lessons to a large area of northwestern North Carolina. He was one of God's good servants.

ROBERT LEE HUMBER

It has been said that a life without commitment is only half lived. Robert Lee Humber accepted commitments from his state and nation as a matter of faith. Within every area of human need, he saw an opportunity for service to his fellowman, and to this service he dedicated his life.

Born in Greenville, North Carolina, in 1898, he set his course early toward preparing himself to the fullest for whatever opportunities life might offer. He completed his B.A. and LL.B. at Wake Forest College, and then entered the United States Army, being commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery. The Armistice of November 11, 1918, permitted him to enter Harvard University where he earned his M.A. and tutored in the Department of Government, History and Economics. He was selected soon afterward as a Rhodes Scholar from North Carolina and attended Oxford University, obtaining his B. Litt. degree. Six more years of study toward his Doctorate of Letters at the University of Paris, interspersed with extensive travel and the tutoring of private students, brought him to the year of his marriage in 1929 to Mlle. Lucie Berthier of Paris. Further opportunities revealed themselves in the field of International Law, and he opened his offices in the French capital, which the Nazi invasion forced him to close in June of 1940. While living there, however, he raised the funds, from Richard Harkness and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to permanently endow the pulpit of the American Church in Paris, an interdenominational Protestant congregation which he served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees for many years.

Coming back to Greenville in this fateful year in world events, he was stirred with a deep conviction that the only hope for mankind to learn to live in peace was to establish a World Order, implemented by a World Federal Government. Order, thereby, would be imposed under law, acting upon those individuals who were attempting to destroy international peace, as opposed to taking military action against their entire nation, after the failure of diplomacy. He set forth his ideas in 1940 in a document entitled The Declaration of the Federation of the World and personally gave his time and energies during the next decade persuading sixteen State Legislatures to adopt this principle, working in nearly all the states of the Union toward this end. He had accepted a commitment to take a step toward achieving a lasting worldwide peace, and the North Carolina General Assembly was the first Legislative Body in history to endorse the principle of World Federation. For these efforts, he was awarded, in 1948, the World Government News Medal and the American War Dads Prize for the greatest single contribution to World Peace. This commitment Dr. Humber never renounced, for on the very day of his death, he was writing the preface to a book in which he planned to enlarge upon his ideas and explain the critical urgency which he assigned to this cause.

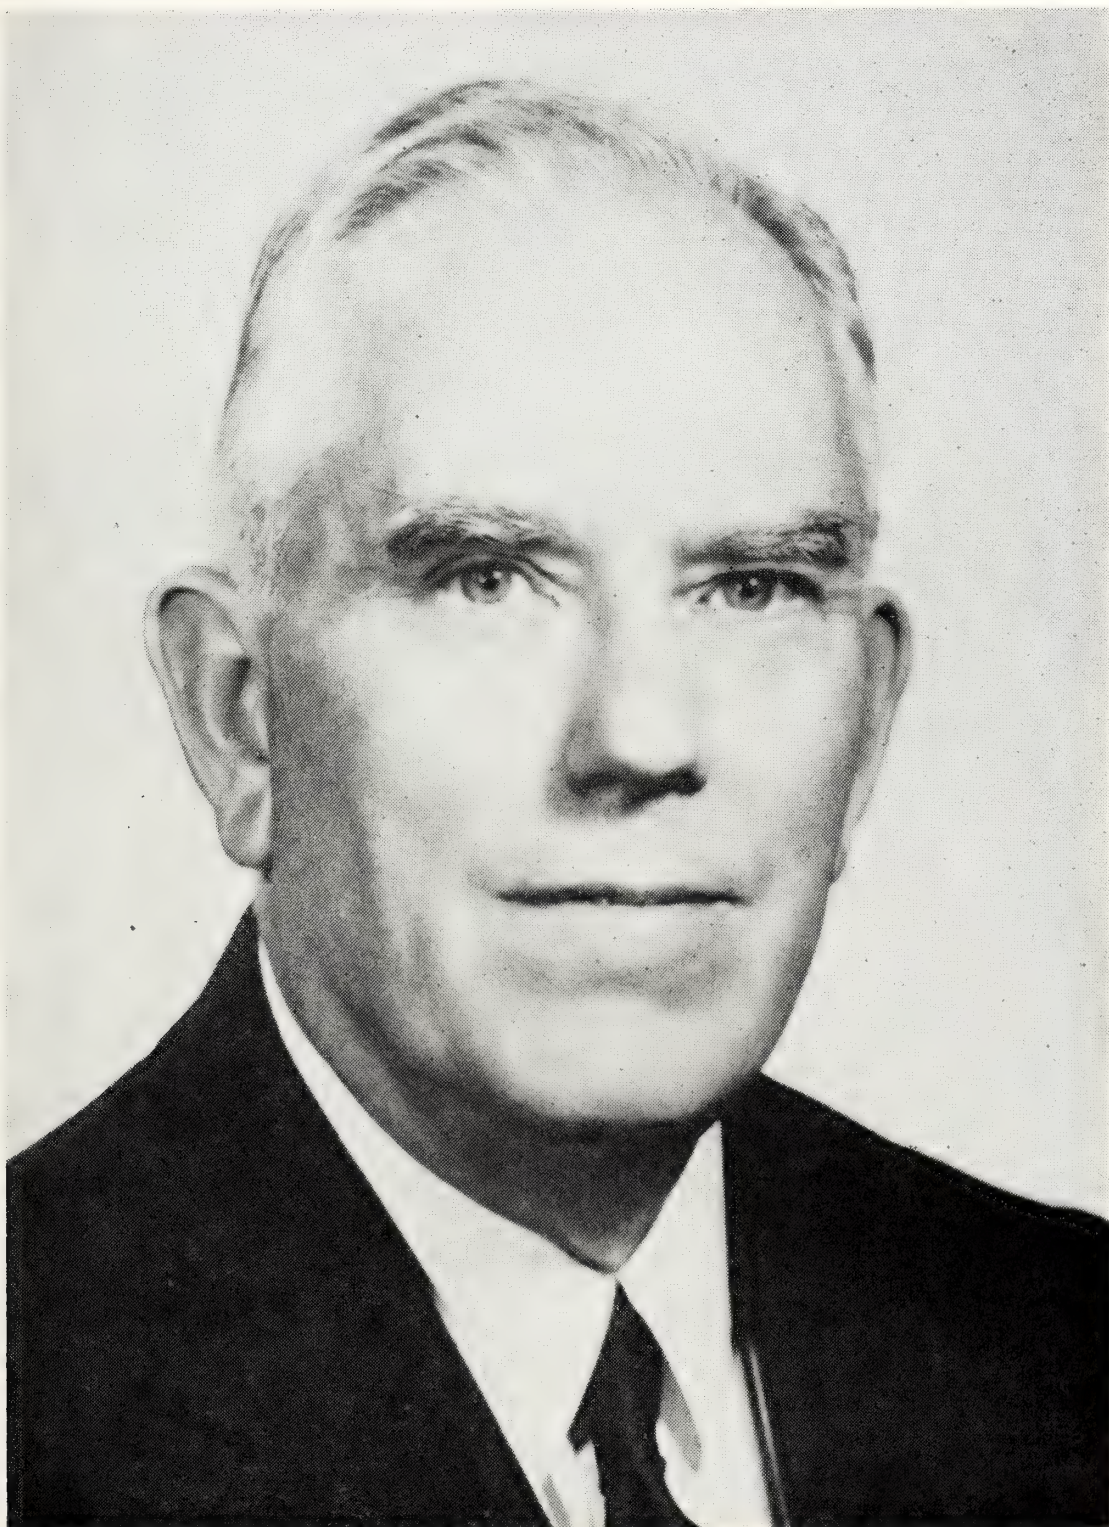

Robert Lee Humber also accepted other commitments as he came face to face with new challenges. He had experienced the inspiration of great art and the remarkable influence it could have upon the human spirit, and he wanted North Carolinians to share in this rich cultural legacy of the past. In 1947 he persuaded the North Carolina General Assembly to appropriate $1,000,000.00 for the purchase of outstanding masterpieces, provided this sum could be matched with a like amount from some private source. The Kress Foundation matched this appropriation, and the North Carolina Museum of Art opened its doors in April of 1956, with Dr. Humber serving as Chairman of its Board of Trustees. This was the first time that a state government had provided such a sum of money for the purchase of art. But Robert Lee Humber also believed that North Carolinians should have the opportunity to buy works of art created by a master, himself, and concerning subjects which were a part of their own Tarheel heritage, as opposed to subjects of European origin. As a consequence, he commissioned a series of fifty etchings to be executed by Louis Orr, one of the greatest etchers of our day. Mr. Orr labored twelve years in completing this task and these etchings have been made available at a modest cost to schools, libraries and individuals throughout North Carolina over the past thirty years.

Robert Lee Humber also believed that to lead means to serve. And, between 1959 and 1963, he served his native Pitt County for three terms in the North Carolina Senate. Among other things, he worked assiduously, as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Higher Education, for the successful adoption of that law which implemented the state-wide system of education beyond the high school—the consolidated system of industrial training centers, technical schools and community colleges. He then returned home to Pitt County and led the efforts for establishing the Pitt Technical Institute. He served this institution untiringly as Chairman of the Board until his death on November 10, 1970, at which time he also was President of the North Carolina Trustees Association of Community Education Institutions. Dr. Humber always maintained a deep commitment to the principle that every human being should be given the maximum opportunity to develop himself to his fullest potential in all areas of achievement. He worked toward this end not only in the North Carolina Senate and at Pitt Technical Institute, but also as a member of the Governor's Study Committee on Vocational Rehabilitation and as a Trustee of Meredith and Wake Forest colleges. His services to numerous other cultural and educational organizations in the state are manifold. In 1968 North Carolina recognized his efforts in behalf of the state and its people by presenting him with the North Carolina Award for Public Service.

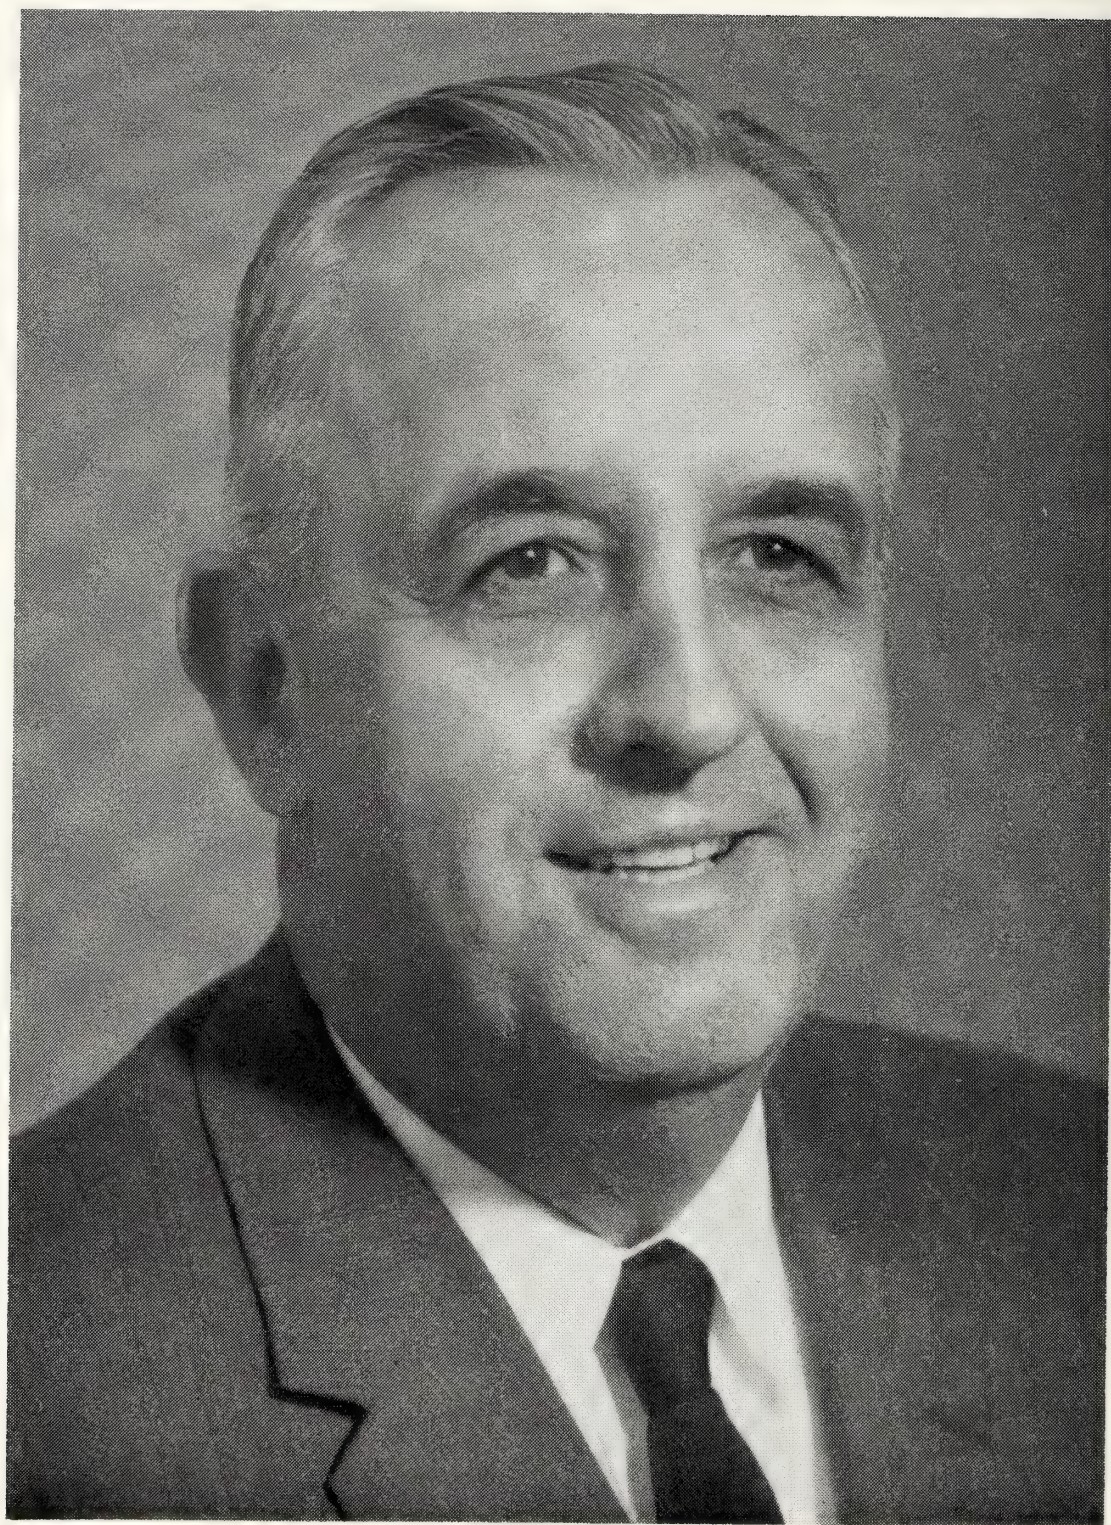

A dedicated Christian layman, Robert Lee Humber was deeply committed to his Church and to his Faith. For over fifteen years he taught the C. J. Ellen Bible Class of adult men at the Memorial Baptist Church in Greenville, and served his Church as a Trustee for over twenty-five years. He was often invited to fill a guest pulpit here in North Carolina, as well as other states and abroad; and, in 1947, he served as Vice-President of the North Carolina State Baptist Convention. He was working on a plan to establish a permanent endowment for all North Carolina Baptist institutions of higher education at the time of his death; and, as Chairman of the Site Acquisition Committee for his own Church, he was deeply involved in its projected building program.

Robert Lee Humber dedicated his life to help create a finer state, nation and world in which mankind might live.

ROGER RAY JACKSON, SR.

ROGER RAY JACKSON, SR.

The regular quarterly meeting of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina convened on the campus of Wingate Junior College on Monday, June 22, 1970 in a cloud of sorrow as it was announced that one of its most beloved members, Roger R. Jackson, Sr., had died on Sunday, June 21, at the age of sixty-four years. Few Baptist pastors were better or more widely known and none were more loved than Roger Jackson. Born in Franklin County in 1905, he was one of seven children of Ira J. and Zena Stainback Jackson. His wife was the former Amanda Kathleen Murphy and their marriage was blessed with four daughters, Mrs. Clarence Lane of Chesapeake, Va., Mrs. Charles Lynam of Greensboro, Mrs. Ted Tyler of Maumee, Ohio and Mrs. Allen Brandon of Winston-Salem, a son, Roger R. Jackson, Jr. of Murfreesboro, and twelve grandchildren.

Following his graduation from Wake Forest College in 1928, Roger served as minister and teacher in various communities in Eastern North Carolina. Among his pastorates he served for nine years at Harrellsville, after which he went to English Street Baptist Church in High Point. At the time of his death he had completed fourteen years, 1956-1970, as pastor of the Yadkinville Baptist Church. In addition to his active leadership as a pastor he served as moderator of his Association, president of his local civic clubs and fraternal organizations, member of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention and its Executive Committee.

But there could be no question by any of those who knew Roger about the happiest years of his long and fruitful Christian ministry. In 1945 he became associated with Wake Forest College in its program of expansion from a college to a university, and remained in this position until 1956 when the college moved to Winston-Salem. In these twelve years he gave himself untiringly in fellowship and productive endeavor with those pastors and alumni he had loved since his student days.

MISS SALLIE McCracken

Miss Sallie McCracken, longtime staff member at Mills Home at Thomasville died Dec. 2, 1969, only 44 days before she would have been 100 years old.

One of the best-loved personalities connected with the Children's Home, she came to Thomasville in 1896 as a teacher and cottage matron. Eventually she became secretary to the General Superintendent and served under several of them in her long period of service. She was a native of Haywood County.

Miss Sallie knew more Mills Home alumni than any other person. This knowledge was accumulated through the years and until her age began to have an effect, she could readily relate information on hundreds of boys and girls who were reared at Mills Home. She taught many of the boys in her junior Sunday school class at the Mills Home Church. Each one of them, along with the girls, received a personally autographed Bible from Miss Sallie at graduation. Among the boys, it was an honor to be Miss Sallie's "office boy." Many of these "boys" are now successful business and professional men.

She served as church treasurer and deacon at the Mills Home Church for more than 40 years.

Miss Sallie was interested in what was going on everywhere — whether it was a moon shot, the world series, or a special mission in Nigeria. No one but Miss Sallie and the good Lord could estimate her total gifts to missions. She preferred to remain anonymous but the Foreign Mission Board in Richmond, if it divulged such information, could reveal some interesting financial statistics.

She delighted in making special gifts to causes in which she had an interest. She took particular delight in providing the lights for such buildings as Mills Home Church, Wait Chapel at Wake Forest University and the chapel at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Truly, she "let her light shine."

In her latter years as historian at Mills Home, Miss Sallie spent much of her time assembling historical materials and records.

It is doubtful if any single individual at the Homes influenced the lives of as many people as Miss Sallie did. The number runs into the thousands.

She was buried in the little cemetery at Mills Home known as God's Acre on Dec. 4.

WESTON C. REED

WESTON C. REED

The story of Weston C. Reed's life was written by his own hand, by his words and by his deeds throughout his lifetime. Born and reared in the mountains of Western North Carolina, his strong character and unfailing confidence in God reflected something of those eternal hills. His life also reflected his love for children and young people, as he taught school in places of great need for inspiring teachers, and in his years of work in the field of child care with the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina.

Weston C. Reed was born in Jackson County, North Carolina, in 1893. His education was received in the public schools of Jackson County, Western Carolina College at Cullowhee and Wake Forest College, Wake Forest, from which he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Mr. Reed spent the next fifteen years in the field of education, during which time he served as principal in Jackson County schools, director of the lab school at Western Carolina, principal of Sylva High School, President of Sylva Collegiate Institute — a mountain mission school — and principal of Ball Creek High School in Catawba County.

Following a one and one-half year pastorate with the First Baptist Church of Maiden, Weston Reed, in 1943, was to begin more than twenty-five fruitful years of his life in the ministry of child care with the Baptist Children's Homes. He labored in the strong tradition of his predecessors and won for the agency regional and national recognition.

From 1943 to 1950, Mr. Reed served as Superintendent of Kennedy Home. Under his leadership the work grew, services were improved, facilities were upgraded and many friends were cultivated in Eastern North Carolina. In 1950, he was elected General Superintendent of the Homes and moved to Thomasville to live and work. During the next eight years, he served most effectively in this capacity, again giving attention to building, upgrading of facilities, expansion and improvement of services.

During retirement, which began in 1958, Mr. Reed continued an active interest in the total program of the Children's Homes. From his retirement home in Kinston, he continued to serve as a consultant, to attend meetings of the Board of Trustees and to participate in special functions of the Homes throughout the State. Much of his time was devoted to writing a history of the Baptist Children's Homes.

No man could accomplish so successfully and joyously what this man did without the loyal love and devotion of a good wife. Soon after college days, Weston Reed and Mellie Parker, likewise of Sylva, were married. She was to grace his home, and with her beautiful Christian spirit was to compliment all that he did, until his death August 30, 1970. To this union was born; one son, Olin Reed of Kinston; two daughters, Mrs. T. L. Huguelet of Cullowhee and Mrs. C. C. Mason of Winston-Salem.

Weston C. Reed gave freely and unselfishly of his time, talents, boundless energy, vision, integrity and courage in an ever-compelling quest for the improvement of the quality and quantity of life of all whom he touched.

THOMAS L. SASSER

It is said that when James A. Garfield, the 20th president of the United States died and was buried, the citizens came and erected a simple shaft on which these words were inscribed:

“Life’s race well run,
Life’s work well done,
Life’s prize well won,
Now comes rest at last.”

Something very similar, if not the same, could be said of Thomas Leo Sasser. On coming to Reidsville 24 years ago I quickly learned the high regard in which the people held their former pastor, and one of the qualities they most admired was the energy with which he went about his work. He pursued his pastoral duties with zeal. No one ever had to put up a “No Loitering” sign near Tom Sasser.

He was a Mississippian by birth and background and many are the tales he could tell of the people of that great state, but his greatest joy was in telling “the old, old story of Jesus and His love.”

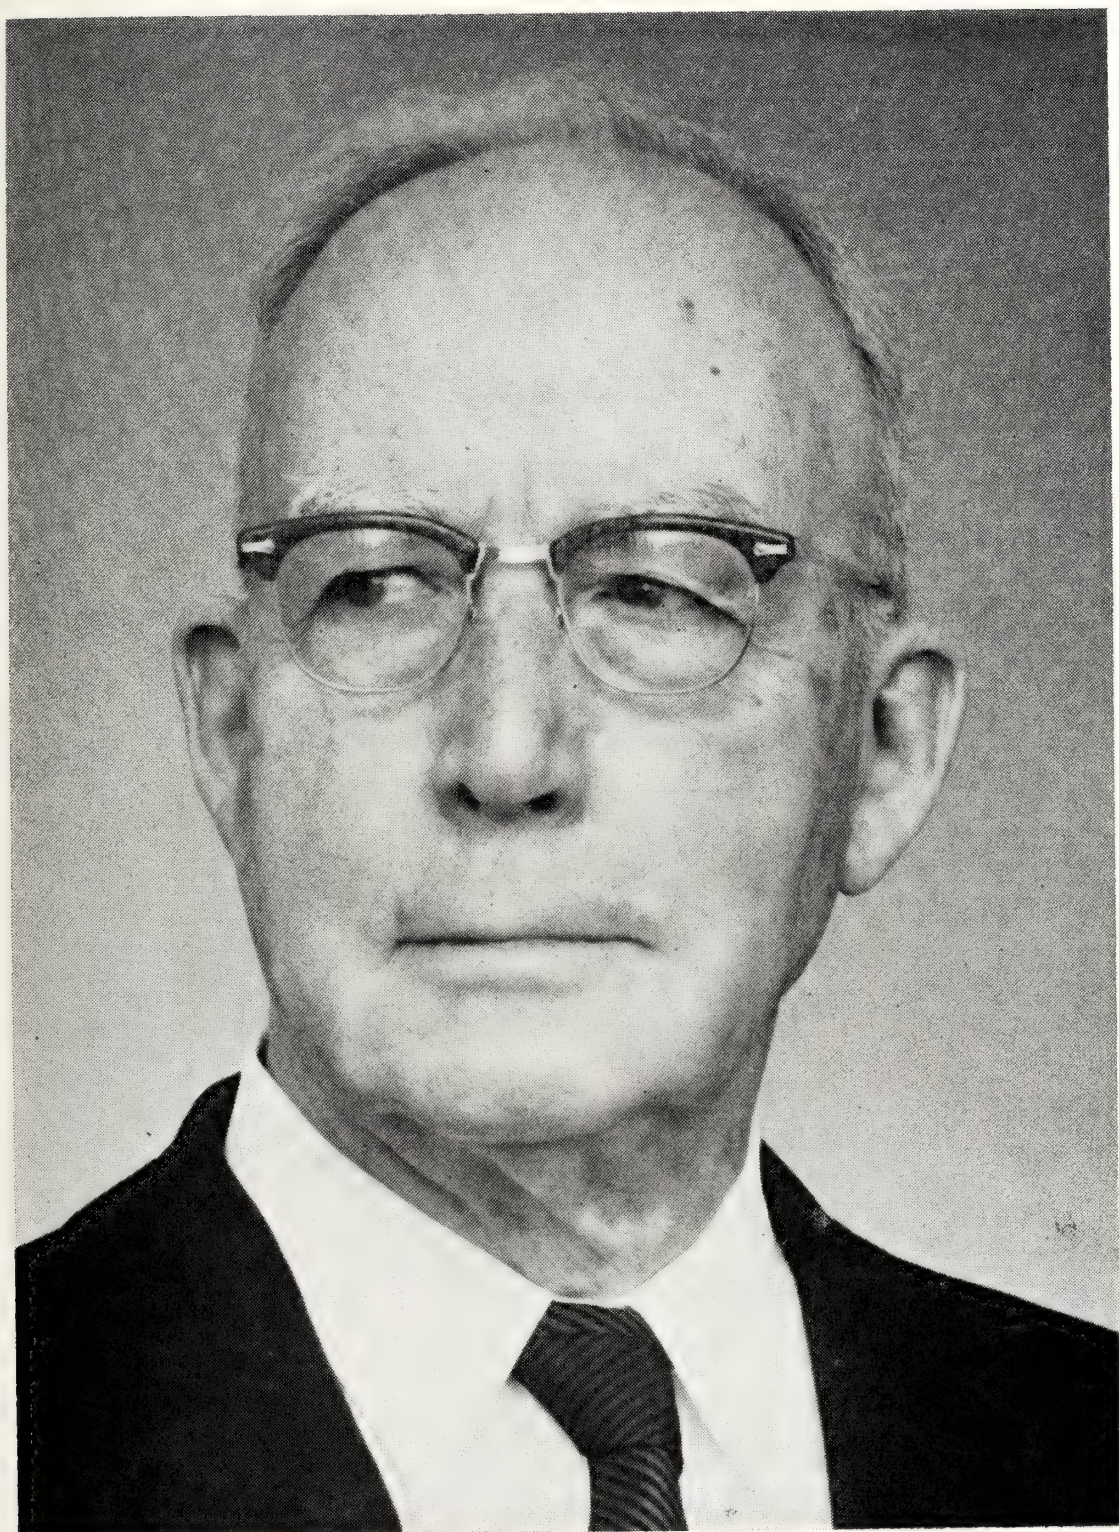

An observing layman in the church wrote this about him: “He began his ministry December 13, 1928, and for 15 years gave himself wholeheartedly to the work of the church. He was preeminently a pastor — a shepherd who knew his flock and found favor in administering to their needs. He possessed to a marked degree the rare faculty of finding friends. He lived with his people, bore their griefs and carried their burdens, and his very presence was healing to the soul and comfort to the sorrowing. He inspired his congregation to labor with him by having them share with him the work that belongs to the pastor.”

His next highly active years were spent as the Superintendent of Missions for the Piedmont Baptist Association. Here again he was to make a needed contribution and to assist many a church to achieve marked progress. During his leadership the Associational Missionary’s home was built and Lakewood, the Piedmont Baptist Associational Camp, was constructed.

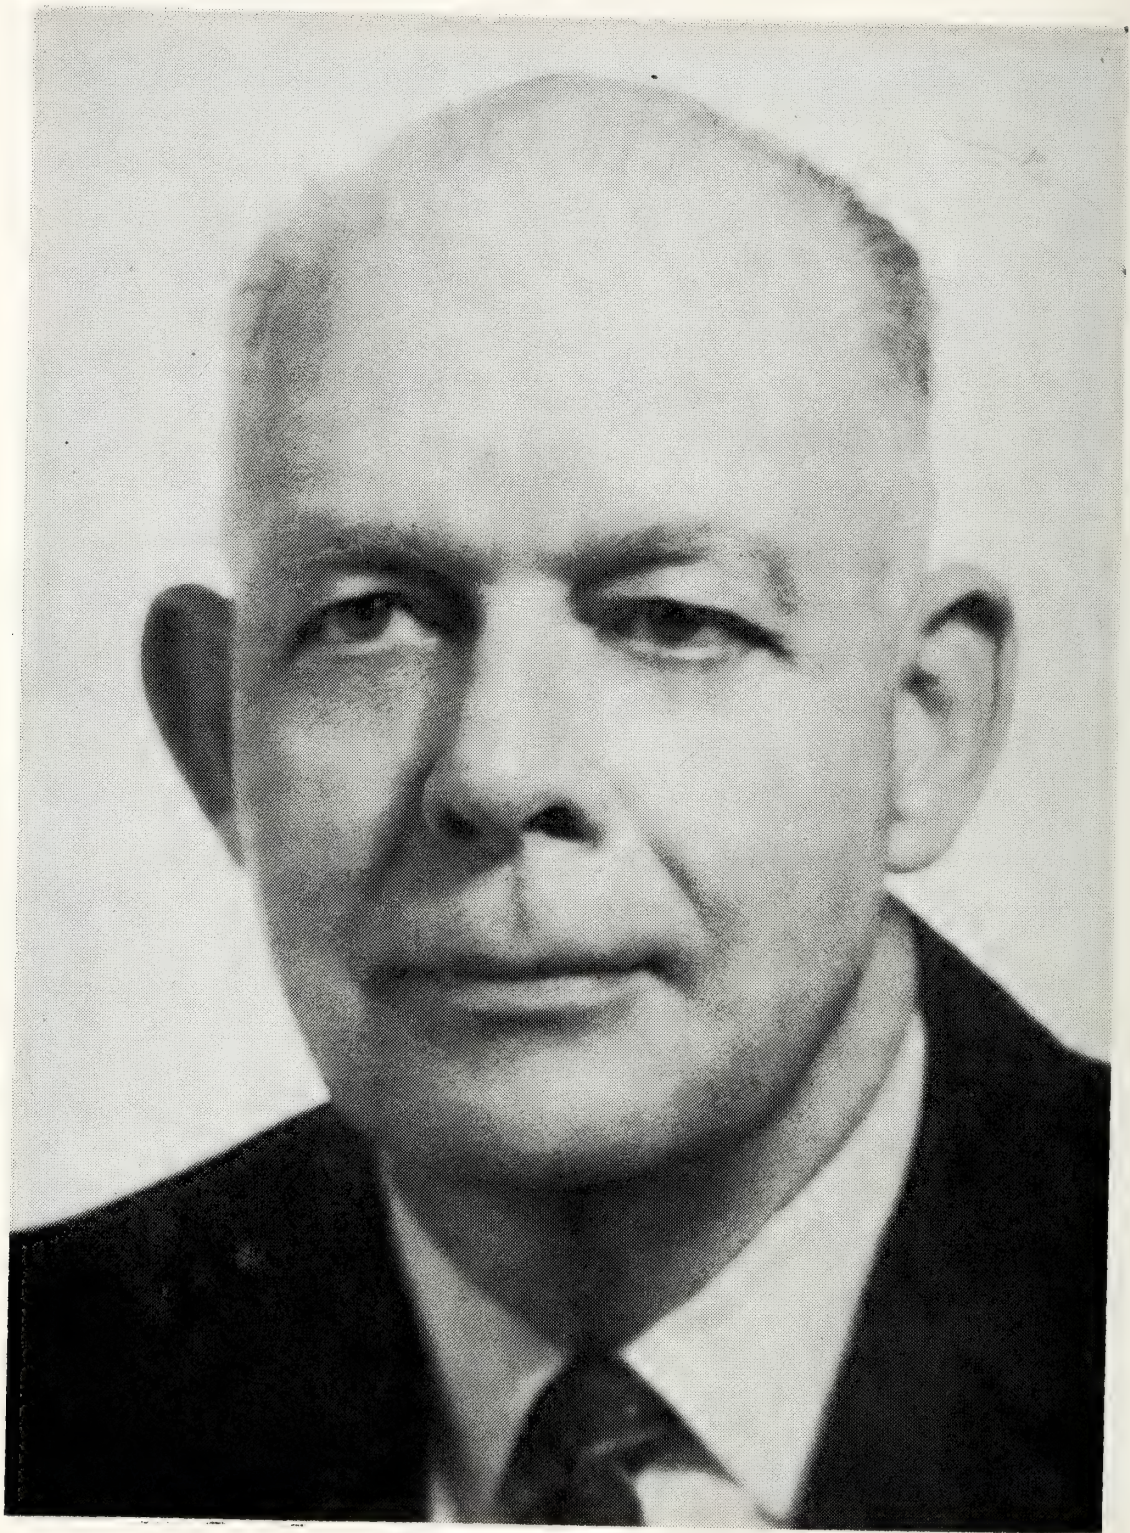

After retirement in 1957, Mr. Sasser was able to render valuable assistance to several churches in their building programs and in other capacities.

Thomas Leo Sasser had won his right to lay his armour down and be at rest for awhile. After 82 years that ruggedly handsome and manly body of his became still, that active mind ceased to function, that valiant and compassionate heart quit its beating, and that bright spirit went home to ever be with the Lord.

ROBERT N. SIMMS, JR.

ROBERT N. SIMMS, JR.

Robert N. Simms, Jr. was born in Raleigh, North Carolina, on April 28, 1910, to Virginia Adelaide Egerton and Robert N. Simms. He was the oldest of six children; four brothers, John M. Simms of Raleigh, Reverend Albert E. Simms of Lynchburg, Virginia, Reverend Stewart B. Simms of Greenville, South Carolina, and William G. Simms of Nashville, Tennessee, and a sister, Mrs. Albert L. Haskins, Jr., of Raleigh.

He attended public schools in the City of Raleigh and received his college training at Wake Forest College, where, in 1930, he received his Bachelor of Arts degree and subsequently, at the same College, his law degree. While pursuing his college training, he received many honors, among them membership in the Golden Bough Honor Society and the fraternity of Omicron Delta Kappa.

After receiving his legal education at Wake Forest College, he returned to his home town of Raleigh, North Carolina, where he practiced law with his father, Robert N. Simms, Sr., a distinguished member of the Wake County and North Carolina Bar, and was later joined in the practice by his younger brother, John N. Simms, the firm name being Simms & Simms. Mr. Simms was also active in civic and governmental affairs, and during the years, 1940 to 1941, was a director of the North Carolina Junior Chamber of Commerce and served also as president of the Raleigh Junior Chamber of Commerce from 1941 to 1942. He was a former president of the Raleigh Kiwanis Club and also former District Lieutenant Governor of the same organization. Later on in his career, he was elected to the North Carolina State Senate from Wake County and served in that capacity from 1947 to 1950.

Robert Simms was extremely active in connection with Bar Association matters and was a member of the Wake County, North Carolina and American Bar Associations and the American Judicature Society. He also served as president of the Wake County Junior Bar Association in 1936. During World War 'I, he answered the call of military duty and was on active service with the United States Marine Corps from 1944 to 1945.

Aside from being an outstanding and distinguished lawyer, Robert Simms was also a dedicated churchman and was an active Baptist layman. At the time of his death, he was a member of the First Baptist Church in Raleigh, where he was serving as chairman of trustees. He had also served two terms as chairman of Deacons. He had served on the General Board of the Baptist State Convention. In this connection, it is also appropriate to note that at the time of his death, he was attending the Baptist State Convention in Greensboro, North Carolina. Robert Simms is survived by his wife, the former Florence Briggs, two daughters, Mrs. Henry Wright and Mrs. Herbert D. Jones, Jr., both of Charlotte, North Carolina, his mother, Mrs. R. N. Simms, Sr., of Raleigh and a sister and four brothers previously referred to, and three grandchildren.

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

For the declaration of its fundamental purposes and the permanent guidance and control of its activities, the body does adopt the following as its Constitution, to wit:

ARTICLE I. Name

The name of this body is the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II. Purposes

The object of this Convention shall be to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature, and to co-operate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE III. Authority

While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organization, association, or Convention.

ARTICLE IV. Composition

The Convention shall be composed of

(1) Two messengers from each co-operating church, and one additional messenger from each church for every hundred members or major fraction thereof, beyond the first one hundred members; provided, that no church shall be entitled to more than ten messengers. No one shall be a messenger who is not a member of a church co-operating with the Convention, and messengers must be duly elected by their churches; a co-operating church shall be one that supports any object of the Convention and which is in friendly cooperation with this Convention and sympathetic with its purpose and work; and (2) The officers of the Convention, the members of the General Board, the editor of the Biblical Recorder, and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union.

ARTICLE V. Meetings

The Convention shall convene annually on Monday after the second Sunday in November at 7:00 p.m. In case of emergency the General Board is empowered to change the time or place of meeting, cancel the sessions of the Convention, or call a special meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present when the vote is taken.

ARTICLE VI. Officers

The officers of the Convention shall be a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, an Assistant Recording Secretary, a General Secretary-Treasurer, three Trustees, and a Parliamentarian. The terms of the President, the Vice-Presidents, Recording Secretary, Assistant Recording Secretary, Trustees and the Parliamentarian shall commence at the conclusion of the annual session at which they are elected and continue until the close of the next annual session of the Convention. The President and Vice-Presidents may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms. The election of all officers subject to annual election shall be on the afternoon of the first full day of the annual Convention, but the elections may be completed, if necessary, on the morning of the second full day. A vacancy in any of the above-mentioned offices, except that of President, occurring between sessions of the Convention may be filled by the General Board; such vacancies in the presidency shall be filled by the Vice-Presidents succeeding to the office in order of their rank.

a. In case of a vacancy in the office of General Secretary-Treasurer, the General Board shall nominate a man to the Convention to fill this office.

b. Opportunity shall be given to receive additional nominations from the floor of the Convention.

c. The man receiving the majority of votes cast shall be declared elected.

Upon election, the General Secretary-Treasurer shall hold office for an indefinite period, with voluntary retirement at age 65. He may continue on a year-by-year basis after review by the Executive Committee, with automatic retirement at age 68; retirement to take effect upon December 31 of the year in which he retires.

d. In case the position of General Secretary-Treasurer becomes vacant between sessions of the Convention, the General Board, upon the recommendation of its Executive Committee, shall name an acting General Secretary-Treasurer to serve until the next regular session of the Convention.

The General Secretary-Treasurer is the chief executive officer of the General Board, the chief administrative and program officer of the General Board staff, the chief budget officer of the General Board staff, the chief professional adviser of the General Board and its committees, the secretary and treasurer of the General Board and the Convention, and one of the denomination's spiritual leaders, providing statewide guidance and inspiration.

The General Secretary-Treasurer and the President of the Convention shall serve ex-officio without voting on all committees and aid by furnishing information, printed materials and needed guidance for the work of the committees.

ARTICLE VII. Trustees of the Convention

The General Board shall nominate three Trustees to be elected by the Convention in annual session. These trustees may succeed themselves, if nominated and elected, and will continue in office until their successors have been elected. The trustees shall hold title to the property of the Convention and convey and use the same as directed by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall execute obligations only in behalf of and as ordered by the Convention. They shall have the powers granted to trustees of religious societies by the laws of the State of North Carolina, but subject always to the limitations imposed by this Constitution and by action of the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall require the Treasurer of the Convention to give suitable bond, with corporate security and in adequate amount as determined by the General Board, and they shall cause such bonds to be safely kept. Failure on the part of the Treasurer to maintain such a bond in force for as long a period as ten days shall authorize the Trustees to remove him from office. The Trustees shall make full, detailed reports to the annual session of the Convention and at other times if requested by the General Board. They shall safely keep the seal of the Convention and affix it only as authorized by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. The seal shall be circular in form and shall bear the words:

The Trustees shall keep full minutes of all their meetings and preserve the same in permanent forms. They shall elect their own Chairman and Secretary. Any vacancy occurring in their membership between sessions of the Convention shall be filled by the General Board.

ARTICLE VIII. The General Board

A. Membership

1. One member shall be elected from the area of each District Association; one additional member from each District Association with a membership of 20,000 to 40,000; and one additional member from any District Association with a membership of more than 40,000; ten members-at-large to be elected, one from each region of the state, these ten to be nominated by the convention nominating committee; with a limit of one member from any church and three members from any association.

2. The President and First and Second Vice-Presidents of the Convention shall be ex-officio voting members of the General Board and its Executive Committee. These members, selected by virtue of their Convention offices, shall not be used in determining the number of members from a District Association or church.

3. The General Secretary-Treasurer, the Recording Secretary, the State Woman's Missionary Union President, and the State Brotherhood President shall be ex-officio non voting members.

4. Members of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, from the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina who are not then serving as elected members of the General Board shall be non-voting, ex-officio members of the General Board.

5. No one who is employed by any institution or agency of the convention, whether the salary be total or supplemental, shall be eligible for membership on the General Board except as an ex-officio member.

6. In the event a member moves from the association or region from which he was elected, his membership shall immediately terminate.

The membership of those moving from the state shall be terminated upon the date of the move from the state.

In the event a member fails to attend at least one meeting of the General Board in a calendar year, without giving due notice of his absence, his membership shall immediately terminate.

7. Any vacancy on the General Board occurring between annual sessions of the Convention may be filled by action of the Executive Committee. Those elected shall serve through the remainder of the calendar year. The Convention shall at its next regular annual session fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

B. Election

1. The Nominating Committee, as directed by the By-Laws of the Convention and in keeping with Baptist policies and practices, shall present to the annual session a slate of nominees for election, and after opportunity for further nominations from the floor is given, the members shall be elected by the Convention in session.

2. Board members shall be elected for a term of four years with, as nearly as may be possible, one-fourth of the membership being elected at each annual session, provided, however, that any such board member who shall have been elected to fill a vacancy of less than two years, shall be eligible to be re-elected to a full term of his own.

C. Powers and Functions

Except as specifically limited by the constitution, the General Board shall have the power to act for the Convention in the interim between sessions, and shall have general supervision of all agencies and institutions fostered and supported by the Convention.

ARTICLE IX. Institutions and Agencies of the Convention

A. Trustees and directors of the Convention's Agencies and Institutions.

The charter of every institution owned or supported in whole or in part by the Convention shall contain the following provisions:

1. The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina shall elect the trustees and directors of said corporation for terms of four years, except that the Directors of the Baptist Foundation shall be elected for terms of five years. At the first election by the Convention one-fourth of the board of trustees or directors shall be elected to serve for one year, one-fourth for two years, one-fourth for three years, and the remaining one-fourth for four years. At each subsequent regular annual session of the Convention one-fourth of the Board of Trustees or Directors of said corporation shall be elected by the Convention to succeed the members of said Board retiring.

2. The trustees and directors shall be responsible to the Convention for the operation of its institutions in accordance with Baptist principles; report of work done and undertaken shall be made annually to the Convention; any change in the charter of any institution which would affect, alter or change the purpose of the institution or the relationship of the institution or its board of trustees to the Convention shall have the prior approval of the Convention. No change of policy shall be made without securing the prior approval of the Convention or its General Board; no program shall be inaugurated which might involve the Convention directly or indirectly in a debt, without securing the prior approval of the Convention.

3. The members of the Board of Trustees or Directors of said corporation shall be residents of the State of North Carolina and members of churches co-operating with the Convention.

4. Removal of a member of a Board of Trustees or Directors.

If for any reason a member of a Board shall cease to be a member of a church co-operating with the Convention or shall remove his residence from the State, his membership on any Board shall be thereby terminated. Any vacancy on a Board shall be filled by the remaining members until the next regular annual session of the Convention, and the Convention shall at its next regular annual session fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The Board of Trustees or Directors of said corporation by affirmative vote of three-fourths of the entire membership given in regular annual meeting or in a special meeting called for the purpose, shall have the power to remove from office any trustee or director of such corporation for cause considered sufficient by such Board, but only after reasonable notice to such trustee or director and opportunity to be heard by the Board. The Convention shall have the right to remove any trustee or director for cause considered sufficient by the Convention, but only after reasonable notice to such trustee or director, and opportunity for him to be heard by the Convention. Notice of such contemplated action and hearing by the Convention may be given by the Executive Committee of the General Board of the Convention.

5. The trustees or directors of the institutions and agencies of the Convention shall be elected by the Convention after receiving nominations from the Convention's Nominating Committee or from the floor. The trustees and directors of all institutions owned and supported by the Convention shall make an annual report to the above committee of all vacancies to be filled.

B. Baptist Foundation

The Baptist Foundation shall be operated by fifteen directors who shall serve for five-year terms. One-fifth of the directors shall be elected annually by the Convention. The purposes of the Foundation shall be to receive, hold and administer donations of money and property which charitable-minded persons may leave to it from time to time.

C. Council on Christian Higher Education

1. The Council shall be composed of the members of the General Board comprising the Christian Higher Education Committee, together with the President, Dean, and chairman of the trustees of each of the colleges receiving funds from the Convention, and as ex-officio members: the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, the President of the Convention, the President of the General Board, the President of the Woman's Missionary Union, and the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education. The Chairman of the General Board Committee on Christian Higher Education shall be president of the Council. The duties and powers of the Council shall be fixed by the By-Laws of the Convention.

2. Representatives on the Council from the colleges will not have voting power in the allocation of funds. No member of the Council who occupies a salaried position with the Convention or its institutions or its auxiliary shall have a vote on appropriations that may be made to the institutions; and all appropriations agreed upon shall be subject to the approval of the General Board.

D. Council on Christian Social Services

1. The Council shall be composed of the members of the Christian Social Services Committee of the General Board; the President of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated; the Superintendent of North Carolina Baptist Homes, Incorporated; the President of the North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated; the Presidents of the Boards of Trustees of these institutions; the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention, the President of the General Board, the President of the Woman's Missionary Union, and the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Social Services. The Chairman of the General Board Committee on Christian Social Services shall be President of the Council. The duties and powers of the Council shall be fixed by the By-Laws of the Convention.

2. Representatives on the Council from the institutions will not have voting power in the allocation of funds. No member of the Council who occupies a salaried position with the Convention or its institutions or its auxiliary shall have a vote on appropriations that may be made to the institutions; and all appropriations agreed upon shall be subject to the approval of the General Board.

E. Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs

1. The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall be composed of the members of the Christian Life and Public Affairs committee of the General Board. Eight members-at-large to be suggested by the Committee on Nominations and four ex-officio members as follows: Chairman of the General Board, General Secretary-Treasurer, Editor of the Biblical Recorder, Editor of Charity and Children, and the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. The Chairman of the General Board Committee on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall be a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board and President of the Council. The duties and powers of the Council shall be fixed by the By-Laws of the Convention.

2. Members-at-large on the Council and ex-offiico members will not have voting powers on the allocation of funds. All budget funds shall be handled by the Committee on Christian Life and Public Affairs of the General Board. All appropriations agreed upon shall be subject to the approval of the Executive Committee and the General Board.

ARTICLE X. Concerning Debts

All borrowing by the Convention for its own use, or for its institutions or agencies, or borrowings by any institution or agency of the Convention, the payment of which would require an extension of time beyond the close of the subsequent fiscal year, shall be authorized only on the following terms and conditions.

A. The General Board shall have authority to borrow money in anticipation of current revenue, provided that any unpaid balance of such borrowing at the end of the current fiscal year shall be provided for in and made a part of the budget for the subsequent fiscal year.

B. No institution or agency of the Convention shall encumber its property or change its status with respect to the Convention without authority from the Convention. Institutions and agencies of the Convention, subject to the approval of the General Board, shall have authority to borrow money in anticipation of current revenue, provided that any unpaid balance of such borrowing at the end of the current fiscal year shall be provided for in and made a part of the budget for the subsequent current year.

C. Any and all resolutions which propose the borrowing of money shall set forth all pertinent facts and a definite schedule for repayment. Such requests shall be sent to the Executive Committee or General Board by October 1 of each year for recommendation to the Convention. These recommendations shall be included in the General Board's report and subject to the rules concerning the adoption of this report.

(1) Notice of any and all contemplated borrowings shall appear in the Biblical Recorder in three separate issues in advance of the meeting of the Convention during which it is proposed that action be taken.

ARTICLE XI. Miscellaneous

A. The Convention's fiscal year shall close on December 31.

B. The members of the boards of trustees and directors of the institutions and agencies of the Convention shall be distributed as widely as practicable. The term of office of a trustee who has not resigned, died, become disqualified, or been removed shall not expire until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

No individual shall serve on any board, institution, or agency, who is at the same time holding membership on any other board, institution, or agency. Not more than three members of any board of any institution or agency supported wholly or in part by the Convention shall be members of the same church.

C. Individuals, churches and associations, or others desiring the assistance and co-operation of the Baptists of the Convention in any work not already fostered by the Convention shall present such project to the agency under which it should be properly placed. If the agency fails or refuses to approve it, it may be presented to the Convention under miscellaneous business or as a special order.

D. Neither the Convention, nor any institution or agency, owned or supported in whole or in part by the Convention, shall accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any gift, grant, or aid from the Federal or State governments or any governmental agency, except for definite and full services rendered by the institution or agency and by and with the approval of the Convention or its General Board.

ARTICLE XII. Woman's Missionary Union

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina is recognized as an auxiliary of this Convention whose accomplishments and potentialities in good works are appreciated as being of immeasurable power to our Christian cause.

ARTICLE XIII. Amendments

This Constitution may be changed or amended on the second full day of any annual session of the Convention by a two-thirds vote of the registered messengers present when the vote is taken, provided that notice of any and all amendments to the Constitution shall appear in the Biblical Recorder in two separate issues in advance of the meeting of the Convention in which the proposed action is to be taken.

ARTICLE XIV. Validate

The adoption of this new Constitution shall not invalidate any action validly taken by or in behalf of the Convention or any of its institutions or agencies prior to the date this new Constitution becomes effective.

BYLAWS

The work of the Convention shall be governed by the following bylaws:

ARTICLE I. Duties of Officers of the Convention

A. The president shall preside over the deliberations of the Convention and discharge such other duties as are imposed upon him by the Convention or as are incumbent on the presiding officer of a deliberative body. He shall in advance of the meeting of the Convention and with the assistance of the Vice-Presidents appoint a Committee on Enrollment consisting of nine members and a Committee on Committees consisting of fifteen members. He may appoint other committees when so directed by the body. He shall also serve ex-officio as a voting member of the General Board and its Executive Committee. He shall also serve as an ex-officio non-voting member of all Convention committees.

B. The Vice-Presidents

1. In the event of the death of the President or his incapacity to serve the Vice-Presidents shall succeed him in the order of their rank; and so succeeding shall have and discharge the duties incumbent upon the President.

2. They shall assist the President in naming those Convention Committees for which he is responsible and shall serve ex-officio as voting members of the General Board and its Executive Committee.

C. The Recording Secretary

The Recording Secretary shall record and preserve the proceedings of the Convention and shall prepare the copy for printing.

The Assistant Recording Secretary will assist the Recording Secretary and in case of illness, or death of the Recording Secretary during a Convention year, he will succeed him to the office of Recording Secretary.

D. The General Secretary-Treasurer

1. The General Secretary of the Convention shall promote the whole program of the Convention, including Missions, Evangelism, Higher Education and Social Service, and may serve as adviser to all the institutions, agencies and committees of the Convention. He shall work under the direction of and be subject to the authority of the General Board; and shall have administrative supervision of such work as shall be assigned to him by the Convention or its General Board.

2. In carrying out the responsibilities of each and all these functions, the General Secretary-Treasurer shall:

a. Co-ordinate and evaluate General Board programs with the help of the General Board and its Executive Committee;

b. Advise and otherwise assist the General Board, the Convention and their committees and subcommittees, including the provision of direct staff help in planning meetings, preparing agenda, presenting analyses, facts, and recommendations;

c. Plan, co-ordinate and supervise the entire budgetary process (formulation, authorization and administration) under the direction of the Executive Committee and, where appropriate, the Convention;

d. Assume responsibility for the administration, co-ordination and direction of General Board staff, including the recommendations of all divisions and department heads, organization of professional staff, development of professional staff position descriptions, and preparation of personnel policies;

e. Encourage staff members to make their fullest contribution to the work of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina;

f. Work on a co-operating basis with the heads of all Boards and Agencies of the Convention;

g. Promote participation in and support for all North Carolina Baptist and Southern Baptist Convention programs and represent the General Board, as appropriate, to the denomination and the public.

3. As Treasurer he shall receive all funds sent him for the objects of the Conventions, and make acknowledgment of the same in the manner as the General Board may determine for the faithful performance of his duties. He shall sign all checks which shall be countersigned by the Business Manager and Comptroller; and both of these officers shall be bonded in such amount as shall be determined by the General Board. He shall forward at least once a month all contributions to their destinations. He shall make an annual report of his receipts and disbursements which shall be published in the minutes of the Convention, and upon retiring from his office, he shall deliver to his successor all money, papers, books and other property belonging thereto.

4. As General Secretary he shall supervise the work of administrative assistants and the Secretary of the Department of Statistics and Survey.

E. The Parliamentarian

The Parliamentarian shall advise and assist the Presiding Officer of the Convention with respect to all matters involving proper parliamentary procedure. The Rules of Order for the Convention shall be those laid down in Robert's "Rules of Order," but in cases where the meaning may not be clear the President shall exercise his discretion, subject to appeal to the Convention.

ARTICLE II. Duties of Committees

Membership on Convention committees shall not bar one from serving as a member of the General Board, or as a director of any agency of the Convention, or as a trustee of any institution of the Convention.

Vacancies occurring in committees between sessions of the Convention shall be filled through appointment of the Convention President.

Nothing contained in reports to the Convention shall be construed as an action of the Convention except the recommendations which are definitely listed and adopted by the Convention.

The committees of the Convention shall be divided into four categories:

A. Those appointed by the President and Vice-Presidents in advance of the meeting of the Convention.

1. The Committee on Enrollment consisting of nine members whose duties it shall be to provide registration cards for messengers and visitors and have them in a suitable place several hours before the meeting of the Convention. This committee shall make a report to the assembled messengers upon the call of the President, and shall serve as a committee on credentials.

2. The Committee on Committees whose duty it shall be to nominate for election by the Convention the committees listed under sections B and C below, and such other committees as may be assigned to it. At least a fair proportion of the members nominated to all committees of the Convention shall come from the rural and urban churches, and no one shall be nominated to serve on more than one committee at the same time.

B. Those to report at the session of the Convention by which they are elected.

1. A Committee on Resolutions consisting of fifteen members. It shall be composed of at least five members from the General Board with at least two of the five from the Executive Committee of the Board.

All resolutions presented to the Convention shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the first or second day of the Convention, the rules may be suspended and a resolution be taken up for immediate consideration.

C. Those to report at the next regular session of the Convention.

1. The Committee on Nominations, consisting of fifteen members, five of whom shall rotate off each year. Their term of office shall begin with the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No member shall be eligible to succeed himself after serving three consecutive years. The committee shall nominate a fair proportion of members from rural and urban churches to the various boards of all agencies and institutions, and shall also nominate members for vacancies on the 8 members-at-large of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs and such other nominations as may be delegated to the Committee of the Convention.

a. It shall have its first meeting not later than July 1 of each calendar year and shall meet again at least once prior to the meeting of the Convention.

b. The Committee shall through its chairman, or other members upon request, invite each agency and institution of the Convention to submit to the Committee in advance of its mid-summer meeting the names of two individuals for each vacancy to occur on their boards, and request that biographical data accompany each name.

The Committee shall request of associational executive committees that the associations submit the names of at least two lay persons and two ministers for each General Board vacancy to occur at the end of the year, and request that biographical data shall accompany each name. These shall be submitted to the Committee before its mid-summer meeting.

The Committee shall, through the Biblical Recorder, invite individual Baptists to submit the names of individuals who would be worthy of consideration for positions on the various boards of institutions and agencies and on the General Board, and request that biographical data accompany each suggested name.

When the Committee meets to do its work it shall give careful consideration to those who have been recommended from the various sources indicated above, but will be free to follow its own best judgment in making nominations to the Convention for the boards of the agencies, institutions and the General Board.

c. It shall publish its full report in the Biblical Recorder at least one week prior to the meeting of the Convention.

2. The Committee on Convention Program, consisting of nine. This committee shall be responsible:

a. for the program for the Annual Meeting.

b. for all other matters in connection with the annual meeting not provided for in the Constitution and Bylaws.

3. Committee on Local Arrangements consisting of nine. This committee shall be responsible for:

a. supervising all arrangements with the local auditorium including the securing of typewriters, telephones, furniture and needed equipment for the session of the Annual Meeting;

b. working with Convention staff, Program Committee and Enrollment Committee of the Convention in arranging for display booths, platform, sound system and other arrangements necessary for session of the Convention.

4. Committee on Memorials consisting of five. This committee shall prepare a report for the annual, including a list of deceased ministers and outstanding lay leaders of the Convention who have passed away during the current year, and call attention to the names of these persons during the annual session of the Convention. In addition, this committee may recommend to the Convention a deceased person or persons to whom the annual of the Convention may be dedicated.

5. The Historical Committee, consisting of twelve members, four of whom shall rotate off each year. A member having served a full three-year term shall not be eligible to succeed himself.

This committee shall recommend appropriate measures for the preservation of Baptist history. It shall seek to preserve the minutes and records of all Baptist bodies, churches, associations, and conventions, historical manuscripts, printed materials, including correspondence, and museum objects. It shall encourage the writing and publication of high-standard histories of individuals, churches, associations, and conventions. It shall recommend what historic sites, including buildings, should be properly marked and preserved when these are related to Baptist history. It shall work in close collaboration with the historical researcher employed jointly by the Baptist State Convention and Wake Forest University, who works directly with the Baptist Collection in the Wake Forest University Library. The committee shall report annually to the Baptist State Convention and shall co-operate with the Historical Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention.

6. The Committee on Place and Preacher consisting of nine members. This committee shall recommend the preacher for the next annual session of the Convention and be responsible for recommending to the Convention a place of meeting for at least two years in advance; and should consider proper accommodations and the size of the auditorium which is available.

7. The Committee on Trustee Orientation, consisting of nine members, three of whom shall rotate off each year. Their terms of office shall begin at the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon the adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No member shall be eligible to succeed himself after serving three consecutive years or one full term.

a. The committee shall be responsible for planning and promoting an annual orientation program for trustees and directors of Convention institutions and agencies.

b. The committee shall prepare a brief manual of instruction for use by trustees and directors of Convention institutions and agencies, and shall, as occasion requires, revise this manual.

8. The Publicity Committee, consisting of six members. Due to the peculiar character of this committee, members may be elected to succeed themselves as often as seems desirable.

It shall be the duty of this committee to plan for proper news coverage of all sessions of the Baptist State Convention, to act as liaison group between the Convention and the press, to formulate and release news items growing out of the sessions of the State Convention, and in general to seek to promote good relations between the denomination and the public press.

D. Special Convention Committees.

When a special committee is called for, the Resolutions Committee shall study the situation to see if there is a committee or group already in existence which could appropriately attend to the matter proposed, and, if there is such a group, it shall, upon recommendation of the Resolutions Committee and vote of the Convention, be referred to them, otherwise the Resolutions Committee may recommend that a special committee be set up by the Convention.

ARTICLE III. Eligibility for Membership on the General Board and on Boards of Trustees and Directors of Agencies and Institutions of the Convention

Members of the General Board and Trustees and Directors of any agency or institution of the Convention shall be members of churches co-operating with the Convention.

The term of office shall begin on January 1, following the meeting of the Convention at which members were elected; and shall end on December 31 following the Convention at which their successors were elected, unless sooner terminated.

In no case shall a member of any board serve a continuous term of more than four years, except the directors of North Carolina Baptist Foundation, in which case the continuous term shall not exceed five years, provided, however, that any such board member who shall have been elected to fill a vacancy of less than two years, shall be eligible to be re-elected to a full term of his own.

A member of a board of any institution or agency of the Convention having completed a full term of office shall not be eligible for re-election to membership on the same board until the lapse of one year, but shall be eligible for immediate election to membership on the board of any other institution or agency of the Convention.

ARTICLE IV. The General BoardA. Powers and Duties of the General Board

1. The General Board shall have charge and control of all work of the Convention in the interim between sessions of the Convention, except those activities committed specifically by charter to the Boards of Trustees of its institutions and agencies. It shall have the power to act for the Convention in the interim between sessions of the Convention; and any action taken during the interim shall be binding on the Convention and reported fully to the Convention at its next session. It shall make and approve all appropriations. It shall have no power to contravene any action of the Convention nor to launch any new institutions. It may provide for the expansion of any phase of work which its income and resources may make possible. It shall have the responsibility of bringing to the Convention for its consideration recommendations concerning any phase of the work that is being done or that should be undertaken in order that the Convention may have an over-all picture of the total program of North Carolina Missionary Baptists.

2. The General Board shall make a report to the Convention of its activities during the year. The Board shall have its report printed and ready for distribution at the first session of the Convention, including reports from Education Institutions, Hospitals, Children's Homes, Homes for the Aging, Baptist Foundation, Christian Higher Education Council, Social Services Council, and all other agencies of the Convention.

3. Allocation of funds. The General Board shall recommend to the Convention the budget allocations of Cooperative Program undesignated gifts for each object of the Convention, and the amount or percentage of Cooperative Program funds to be allocated to Southern Baptist Convention causes.

4. Audit. The General Board shall employ a certified public accountant each year to make a complete audit of the books and accounts of the treasurer and comptroller, and it shall employ or cause to be employed a certified public accountant, or accountants, to make annual audits of all institutions of the Convention.

A copy of the annual audit of the General Board and of each institution receiving funds from the Convention shall be presented to the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention; the audit of the General Board and a summary of the other audits shall be presented to the Recording Secretary not later than thirty days after the close of the fiscal year for inclusion in the Annual of the Convention and, in the discretion of the General Board, in the Biblical Recorder.

The Executive Committee of the General Board and the General Secretary-Treasurer shall have the authority to provide the forms which will indicate what items should appear in said summary.

B. The Organization of the General Board

1. Meetings. The General Board shall meet on Tuesday and Wednesday following the fourth Sunday of January, in the month of June, on Tuesday and Wednesday following the second Sunday of October of each year, and in cases of emergency at the call of the General Secretary-Treasurer and the President of the Board or by request from a majority of the General Board members.

2. Officers. At the January meeting of the Board the following officers shall be elected and they shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified: a President, a Vice-President, and a Recording Secretary. At the same time the Board shall fill vacancies and elect needed new employees and shall fix the compensation of its secretaries and other employees, and all salaried officers of the Convention.

(2) Duties and Responsibilities of the Director of the Division:

(a) He shall be responsible to the General Secretary for the over-all performance of all activities of the Division, and he shall work closely with the General Secretary in the effort to place Evangelism in the forefront of the total Convention program.

(b) In co-operation with all divisions and departments of the Convention he shall study ways and means of getting and maintaining the spirit and practice of evangelism (witnessing unto Christ) in every phase of the total Baptist program in North Carolina.

(c) Work with the Committee on Evangelism of the General Board in promoting a vigorous program of evangelism in North Carolina.

(d) He shall present to the General Secretary-Treasurer and the Budget Committee the budget needs of the Division.

(e) He shall promote the Southern Baptist Program of Evangelism in co-operation with the boards and agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention.

d. Committee on Church Programs.

(1) Function: To work with the Director of this Division in providing the churches with trained educational leadership for the total church membership. Such a program will involve co-operation with the Sunday School Board and other Boards and agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention.

(2) Duties and responsibilities of the Director of this Division:

(a) He shall be responsible to the General Secretary-Treasurer and the General Board for the over-all performance of all Departments and activities of the Division.

(b) Work with the Committee on Church Programs of the General Board in studying the needs of the local church. Through the various departments of his Division, seek to guide in providing programs, literature, and leadership to help meet these needs. This will involve church community surveys and research in church programs, conferences with pastors and church leaders and co-operation with the various departments and facilities of the Sunday School Board and the various mission boards.

(c) Hold regular staff meetings of the department heads and all personnel in the various departments of the Division of Church Programs; correlate the work of church programs in such a way as to strengthen the local church; work with the department heads to prevent overlapping in meetings or emphases; and help create a spirit of team work as each department seeks to do its part in the total development of the local church.

(d) Meet in conference with the various department secretaries to develop a recommended budget for the Division. This recommended budget would then be studied by the General Secretary-Treasurer and presented by him to the Budget Committee for consideration.

(e) Participate in various district and state programs to help inform the people concerning the work of his Division and to help promote the entire Cooperative Program of Baptists.

(f) Work with and supervise the work of the following Departmental Secretaries: Sunday School, Church Training, Student Work, Church Music, Church Building Planning, Brotherhood, Camps and Retreats, North Carolina Baptist Assembly, and Fruitland Baptist Conference Center. In addition, he shall work in close cooperation with Woman's Missionary Union, helping to coordinate and correlate the work of that department with the other church programs, in ways that are mutually agreeable.

(g) Serve as Chairman of the Youth Program Advisory Committee.

(h) Promote the Church Administration Program of the Convention, including the training of Deacons.

(i) Coordinate and promote the Family Life Ministries of the Convention, in cooperation with the Administrative Assistant to the General Secretary-Treasurer, the Division of Christian Social Services, the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, and the Division of Missions.

e. Committee on Christian Higher Education.

(1) Function: To work with the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education in order to provide an effective program for the several Baptist colleges, without in any way hindering the independent operation of any one of them.

(a) He shall serve as Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education.

(b) He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Higher Education, to the General Secretary-Treasurer, and to the General

Board, and shall work in co-operation with all Divisions and Departments of the General Board in an effort to secure full support for the Convention's program of higher education.

(c) He shall, in co-operation with the Business Manager and Comptroller of the General Board, work towards promoting a uniform method of bookkeeping for all the colleges in an effort to understand and interpret all their budget needs.

(d) He shall work towards correlating the programs of the several educational institutions and securing their co-operation, and shall formulate plans for promoting an interest in and support of Christian Higher Education.

f. Committee on Christian Social Services.

(1) Function: To work with the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Social Services in order to provide a well-integrated program for Children's Homes, Homes for Aging and the Hospital, without in any way hindering the independent operation of each.

(2) It shall be the prerogative of this committee to discuss the annual budget needs of each of the three social service institutions with the General Secretary-Treasurer and the Budget Committee of the General Board.

g. Committee on Christian Life and Public Affairs

(1) Function: To work with the entire Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs.

(2) To recommend to the Budget Committee an annual budget for the Council.

h. The Executive Committee

(1) Function: To serve in a dual capacity as the General Board ad interim deciding on routine and emergency matters between sessions of the General Board, and as a survey and policy committee, reviewing, correlating and recommending policies and programs to the General Board. It will initiate and recommend matters concerning business management, budget and finance. The Executive Committee shall receive and act on all recommendations concerning the employment, supervision and retirement of personnel. Personnel may retire voluntary at age 65. They may continue on a year-by-year basis after a review by the Executive Committee with automatic retirement at age 68 as of December 31 of the year in which they retire.

(2) The Committee shall be composed of the President of the General Board, the vice-president of the General Board, the President of the Convention, the first vice-president of the Convention, the second vice-president of the Convention, the chairman of the six major committees, and five members-at-large from the General Board.

The Executive Committee as constituted the year previous shall remain intact until the January meeting of the General Board at which the Executive Committee will be re-constituted.

(3) The Executive Committee shall have three sub-committees to facilitate its work:

(a) Business Management (composed of five members of the Executive Committee) to work with the Business Manager-Comptroller and General Secretary-Treasurer on all routine matters of business in connection with the division of business management. Matters affecting policies, new personnel or new expenditures shall be referred to entire Executive Committee.

(b) Budget and Finance Committee (composed of six members of the Executive Committee) to handle program budget and finance matters and study, formulate and recommend general budget allocations. Final recommendation of budget will come from the full Executive Committee. Since the Executive Committee represents every division of the work of the General Board and all of the institutions and agencies, it is the proper committee to recommend budgets each year.

(c) Denominational Co-operation Committee (composed of the president, first and second vice-presidents of the Convention) to meet at such times as conditions warrant. They shall consider the work of the agencies and institutions of the state and Southern Baptist Conventions and recommend any policies that will improve co-operation with these agencies and institutions and Woman's Missionary Union.

(4) Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held as follows:

(a) Regular meetings at least once per quarter.

(b) Once each year, not later than September, the full Executive Committee shall invite secretaries, department heads and heads of all agencies and institutions of the Convention to present written evaluations of their needs and requests for the next fiscal year. Following this meeting, the Executive Committee shall prepare a budget to be presented to the General Board at the pre-Convention session of the General Board. Any changes caused by Convention action, or later needs may be made at the January meeting of the General Board.

(c) The Executive Committee shall meet in special meeting on call of the General Secretary-Treasurer or the President of the General Board or both.

(5) The President of the General Board shall serve as chairman of the Executive Committee and ex-officio member of its sub-committees.

(6) The Executive Committee shall direct the work of the Business Manager and Comptroller and of the Director of Public Relations, whose duties shall be as follows:

(a) Business Manager and Comptroller

1. Serve as the principal assistant to the General Secretary-Treasurer on all business activities of the General Board and its staff.

2. Supervise and direct all of the bookkeeping and accounting in connection with the Convention treasury and the work of the General Board.

3. In co-operation with the General Secretary-Treasurer execute the financial instructions of the General Board regarding the appropriations of all funds received by the Convention.

4. Supervise the work of the building superintendent, switchboard operator and receptionist, mail clerk, print shop workers, and maids and janitors.

5. Prepare and circulate manuals of administrative policies, procedures and practices to all General Board employees and supervise personnel activities such as length of vacation, sick leave, salaries, and expenses.

6. Prepare periodic financial reports of Convention receipts and expenditures for use of General Secretary-Treasurer, General Board and staff members and heads of institutions and agencies. Present financial reports to each regular meeting of the General Board and the annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention.

7. Be responsible for proper auditing of Convention financial records and for presenting such reports to the Convention and its General Board.

8. Assist the departments of the General Board staff in developing effective and economical procedures for the conduct of their work.

9. Establish and administer procedures to be used by staff members in making purchases of office supplies and equipment.

10. Make himself available to help any agency or institution of the Convention, at its request, to adopt better bookkeeping practices and work toward promoting a uniform method of bookkeeping for all agencies and institutions of the Convention.

(b) Director of Public Relations

1. He shall serve as an assistant to the General Secretary-Treasurer in all matters involving public relations.

2. He shall work in close co-operation with every Division and Department of the Board in the production of printed materials, including promotional literature.

3. He shall represent the General Secretary-Treasurer in attendance upon denominational meetings and others, and shall work in close co-operation with the heads of all institutions and agencies.

4. He shall develop and maintain a close liaison with newspapers, church papers, radio and TV stations and other news channels; and shall be responsible for the release of all publicity in connection with the Convention's annual meeting and the work of the General Board.

ARTICLE V. The Council on Christian Higher Education

A. Duties. The duties of the Council shall be as follows:

1. It shall devise ways and means for the proper correlation of the work and programs in the several educational institutions supported by the Convention.

2. It shall study the needs of the institutions and their ability to meet these needs, and upon the basis of its findings shall recommend to the General Board allocations to the institutions of such funds as may be made available by the Convention or the General Board for Christian Higher Education.

3. It shall examine the budget requests made by each institution and present them to the General Secretary-Treasurer.

4. It shall formulate and promote plans for increasing the interest in and the support of these institutions and shall make reports in detail to the General Board upon all its work and findings.

B. Executive Secretary

(1) The Council on Christian Higher Education in co-operation with the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention shall nominate and the Executive Committee shall elect an Executive Secretary.

(2) Duties and responsibilities of the Executive Secretary of the Council

a. He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Higher Education, to the General Secretary-Treasurer, and to the General Board, and shall work in co-operation with all Divisions and Departments in an effort to secure full support for the Convention's program of higher education.

b. He shall, in co-operation with the Business Manager and Comptroller of the General Board, work toward promoting a uniform method of bookkeeping for all institutions of higher education in an effort to understand and interpret all their budget needs.

c. He shall work towards correlating the programs of the several educational institutions and securing their co-operation, and shall formulate plans for promoting an interest in and support of Christian Higher Education.

C. Meetings.

The Council shall meet at the call of the Chairman at least three times during the Convention year; it may meet in special session at the call of the Chairman and Executive Secretary, or any five members.

ARTICLE VI. The Council on Christian Social Services

A. Duties: The duties of the Council shall be to consider problems common to all of the institutions, and keep the needs of these institutions before the General Board and the Baptist people of North Carolina. The Council shall examine the budget requests made by each of the institutions and present them with recommendations to the General Secretary-Treasurer.

B. Executive Secretary

1. The Council on Christian Social Services in co-operation with the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention shall nominate, and the Executive Committee shall elect, an Executive Secretary. The General Secretary-Treasurer will serve as acting Executive Secretary of the Council until the position is filled or when a vacancy may occur.

2. Duties and Responsibilities of the Executive Secretary of the Council. He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Social Services, to the General Secretary-Treasurer, and to the General Board, and shall co-operate with all the Divisions and Departments in order to create a better understanding of all the problems involved in providing for the needs of these social service institutions.

C. Meetings.

The Council shall meet at the call of the Chairman at least once during the Convention year. It may meet in special session at the call of the Chairman and Secretary, or any five members.

ARTICLE VII. Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs

A. Description of Emphasis and Activities

1. Objective

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall assist North Carolina Baptists in the propagation of the gospel by:

a. Helping North Carolina Baptists to become more aware of the ethical implications of the Christian gospel with regard to such aspects of daily living as family life, human relations, moral issues, economic life and daily work, citizenship, public affairs and related fields; and by

b. Helping them create, with God's leadership and by His grace the kind of moral and social climate in which the North Carolina Baptist witness for Christ will be most effective. This emphasis in the field of applied Christianity is to be pursued with the full awareness that the chief concern of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs is in the area of Christian social ethics which is understood to mean the application of Christian principles in everyday living. Its primary program assignment is in the area of Christian morality development among North Carolina Baptists.

2. Promotion

a. Makes systematic long-range plans for emphasis on Christian social ethics in the life of the North Carolina Baptist Convention and its agencies. These plans may include such things as suggested methods, suggested organizational patterns and suggested themes.

b. Plans and conducts specialized seminars in the field of Christian social ethics. Specifically, these seminars for leadership may deal with such subjects as family life, human relations, moral issues, economic life, daily work and citizenship. These seminars may be both statewide and regional as required by circumstances. Such plans for seminars should take cognizance of other North Carolina Baptist Convention agencies having interest in any of these areas.

c. Plans and conducts a Christian social ethics literature service, including pamphlets, tracts, booklets, posters, etc. This material is to be produced by the Division in co-operation with the Southern Baptist Christian Life Commission and Joint Committee on Public Affairs to assist in the implementation of the program of Christian morality development.

d. Plan and conduct seminars in the dangers of alcohol, provide literature and research and serve as the official channel of the Convention for needed action in reference to legislation or action on the question of sale or use of alcohol among our people.

e. Provide for a liaison committee or person that would work with our General Assembly of North Carolina and our national Congress on legislation on matters that may vitally concern the life and work of our Baptist people.

f. Plans and provides articles, mats, quotes, factual data, pictures and similar material on current pertinent moral and social issues for use by state Baptist papers and other mass media outlets in North Carolina.

3. Information

a. Assembles basic materials such as books, pamphlets, and articles so as to qualify as a source of authentic information on all matters pertaining to the field of Christian social ethics, including alcohol, gambling, pornography and other items.

b. Assists editors, scholars, teachers, writers, and other specialists in need of special information on Christian social ethics for the writing projects in which they are engaged.

c. Provides a mail answering service to North Carolina Baptists and others in search of information on social problems.

4. Study and Research

a. Maintains a program of study covering the field of Christian social ethics in order to provide reliable help to North Carolina Baptists.

b. Provides monographs, papers, and studies for North Carolina Baptist leaders, agencies, and institutions needing service in the field of Christian social ethics.

c. Determines by means of opinion sampling, interviews, etc., the thinking of North Carolina Baptists on moral and social issues so as to be able to render service where the need is greatest. The research survey facilities of existing agencies should be used when possible.

5. Consultative and Advisory

a. Provides associations and churches with ideas by which achievements in Christian social ethics can be measured.

b. Provides counsel as requested in the field of applied Christianity to other North Carolina Baptist agencies and departments.

c. Serves in a liaison capacity with non-North Carolina Baptist groups in the field of social ethics.

(1) Consults with organizations working in alcohol education, public safety, and other areas of social concern.

(2) Presents North Carolina Baptist insights for consideration in the planning of programs by the state government on children and youth, aging, housing, employment, public health, and other matters pertaining to social welfare.

(3) Brings to bear Baptist statements, convictions, and insights in the field of Christian ethics upon important policy making groups, compilers of yearbooks, various welfare organizations, etc.

d. Encourages the inclusion of Christian social ethics in the study programs of various Baptist groups, such as assemblies, encampments, conferences, colleges, or wherever the need may develop. It shall be the duty of this committee to study developments in the area of church-state relations, to be alert to developments within the state and nation which violate or compromise the historic Baptist position of a free church in a free state. It shall attend conferences and seminars where these matters are being discussed. It shall report to the Baptist State Convention on any developments in this area and otherwise keep our people informed. This Council shall recognize that its primary responsibility is to speak to our people rather than for them.

6. Relationships:

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs should work directly as a staff and service agency with the North Carolina Baptist Convention and its agencies. It may work directly with the Southern Baptist Christian Life Commission, the Joint Committee on Public Affairs and with other North Carolina organizations through whom it may render indirect service to the associations and churches and their leaders. Its staff may on invitation, conduct associational and local church conferences in order to validate plans and techniques. The Council may relate its emphasis on Christian social ethics to Baptist Associations, churches, and leaders through printed media. The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall designate nine of its members for nomination for Trustees of the Christian Action League. The Council shall cooperate with the Christian Action League in its efforts to combat alcohol and other social evils.

B. Makeup of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs (16 regular members, 4 Ex-officio)

1. Eight members from the General Board. Chairman of this committee shall be one of the eight members of the General Board, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board and Chairman of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs.

2. Eight additional members elected from over the state on a four-year rotating basis to be named by the Committee on Nominations and elected by the Convention.

At least four from staff or faculty of Southeastern Seminary, North Carolina Baptist Social Service Institutions, and at least four members who have interest and understanding in the field of practical Christian living. Four ex-officio members: Chairman of the General Board, General Secretary-Treasurer, Editor of the Biblical Recorder and Editor of Charity and Children.

3. Representatives on the Council from the institutions will not have voting power in the allocation of funds. No member of the Council who occupies a salaried position with the Convention or its institutions or its auxiliary shall have a vote on appropriations that may be made to the institutions; and all appropriations agreed upon shall be subject to the approval of the General Board.

4. The Council shall have an Executive Committee with authority to carry on the work of the Council between regular sessions. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the Executive Secretary of the Council, the Chairman of the Council, and three members-at-large elected by the Council.

C. Personnel

1. The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs in cooperation with the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention shall nominate, and the Executive Committee of the General Board shall elect an Executive Secretary and other personnel, as needed. The General Secretary-Treasurer will serve as acting Executive Secretary of the Council until the position is filled, or when a vacancy may occur.

2. Duties and responsibilities of the Executive Secretary of the Council. He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, to the General Board, and shall cooperate with all the Divisions and Departments in order to create a better understanding of all the problems involved in providing this Christian ministry.

D. Reports

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall make a full report to the October meeting of the General Board and to the Baptist State Convention in annual session in November.

E. Meetings

The Christian Life Committee of the General Board shall elect its chairman at the January meeting of the General Board. This chairman becomes a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board.

The Council shall hold at least two full meetings during the year, one during the spring months and one prior to the fall Convention. Additional meetings may be called by the Chairman and Executive Secretary of the Council when conditions warrant it.

F. Budget

Budget funds for the work of this Council will be recommended by the Council and approved by the Executive Committee of the General Board. Expenditure of budget funds will be supervised by the committee of the General Board, under the guidance of the General Secretary-Treasurer.

“ARTICLE VIII, THE DISMISSAL OF TRUSTEES OF INSTITUTIONS OR AGENCIES”

In the event that it should become necessary for the Convention to consider removal of a trustee, it shall be done in the following manner:

1. The Convention will automatically refer the matter to the Executive Committee of the General Board for consideration and action.

2. The Executive Committee will first seek to solve the problem through the regular elected Board of Trustees.

3. If it becomes necessary for the Executive Committee to act in behalf of the Convention, the trustee in question shall have charges presented to him in writing, given adequate time for reply, and be allowed counsel. . . .

4. The Executive Committee will report its action in full to the General Board subject to the approval of the Convention in its next annual session.

ARTICLE IX. Amendments to By-Laws

These By-laws may be changed or amended by a majority vote of the messengers present either the first full day or the second full day of the Annual Convention.

Convention Theme: "His Love . . . Our Hope"

MONDAY EVENING

1. The 140th annual session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina assembled in the War Memorial Auditorium of Greensboro on the evening of November 9, 1970, with President John E. Lawrence, Raleigh, presiding. The organ prelude was presented by James Reich, Monroe.

2. President Lawrence called the Convention into session promptly at seven o'clock.

3. Joseph O. Stroud, Secretary of the Department of Church Music of the Baptist State Convention led the Convention in singing "Love Is the Theme."

4. Hubert Dixon, Professor of Mathematics and Sciences of Gardner-Webb College, Boiling Springs, read selected verses from the twelfth chapter of Romans and led the Convention in prayer.

5. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, a member of the Committee on Enrollment reported that there are 948 registered messengers and 144 visitors as of the present moment. He made a motion that the messengers now enrolled and those who shall subsequently be enrolled constitute this Convention. The motion was seconded and carried.

6. President Lawrence expressed appreciation for the Convention's election of him as President in his absence last year. He spoke concerning various gavels used by the President of the Convention, including a new one given to him by the staff of the Forest Hills Baptist Church. He asked members of this church to stand and a sizeable group responded. He also expressed appreciation for the other officers of the Convention.

7. J. Dewey Hobbs, Jr., Marion, Chairman of the Committee on Convention Program, moved that the printed program be the order of business for the Convention, with one change that the Report of the Nominating Committee be changed to 2:30 on Tuesday afternoon, to be followed by Miscellaneous Business. WEDNESDAY EVENING

- 7:00—The First Baptist Church of Greensboro invites the Convention Messengers to share their mid-week prayer service hour with them. The Lord's Supper will be served as the center of this worship hour.*

* Historical Note—In Augusta, Georgia, May, 1845, the Southern Baptist Convention was formed. The Constitution was adopted on Saturday, May 10, and the Convention adjourned until Monday. On Sunday, the members and visitors joined with the First Baptist Church of Augusta in the observance of the Lord's Supper.

—PP. 30-32, THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION
W. W. BARNES

Other members of the Committee on Convention Program are: Randolph L. Gregory, Wilmington; Budd E. Smith, Wingate; Benny E. Pledger, Colerain; Mrs. Hoyle T. Allred, Gastonia; Dale O. Steele, Burlington; Mrs. John E. Lawrence, Raleigh; Raymond B. Brown, Wake Forest; and Edgar E. Ferrell, Jr., Black Mountain.

8. Paul D. Early, Greensboro, Chairman of the Committee on Local Arrangements, welcomed the Convention and spoke concerning the facilities which are available to the messengers. He expressed appreciation to various persons who have helped with various arrangements. Other members of the committee are: Ben W. Cox, Burlington; Al Lineberry, Greensboro; Raymond C. Needham, Mayodan; Mrs. Dorothy Rutledge, High Point; Wilson L. Stewart, Greensboro; E. Coye Still, Winston-Salem; and James R. Thompson, Greensboro.

9. President Lawrence called attention to the newly revised edition of Robert's Rules of Order, and gained common consent of the Convention for this new edition to be the one used at this Convention.

10. Claud B. Bowen, Greensboro, extended the welcome of the City of Greensboro, relaying the greetings of various city officials and church leaders to the Convention. He called attention to the invitation in the printed program for the messengers, following the Convention adjournment on Wednesday afternoon, to remain in Greensboro and to join the First Baptist Church in an observance of the Lord's Supper.

11. The Singing Churchmen, a choral group composed of full-time Ministers of Music, presented a sacred concert under the direction of Charles S. Gatwood, Raleigh, Associate in the Department of Church Music of the Baptist State Convention, with Joseph O. Stroud, Secretary of the Department, as narrator. James Reich, Monroe, was the organist, and Chip Stam, Greensboro, was guitarist. They sang, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" (Martin Luther); "Now Thank We All Our God" (Johann Cruger, arranged by Virgil Fox); "We Praise Thee, O God" (Croft-Handel, edited by Donald Plott); "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" (English Hymn Tune, arranged by Katherine K. Davis); "Poor Wayfaring Stranger" (Traditional Melody, arranged by Bob Burroughs); "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand" (American Folk Hymn, edited by Buryl Red); "At the River" (Hymn Tune, adapted by Aaron Copland); "Psalm 150" (Cesar Franck, arranged by Samuel Gaines).

12. Second Vice-President Carlos Young, Shelby, presided and presented his former pastor, President John E. Lawrence, for the President's Address. He then asked the messengers to join in silent prayer.

13. President John E. Lawrence, Raleigh, delivered his President's Address, beginning with the reading of I Corinthians 13:1-8a and prayer. He stressed, from the Christian perspective, the truth in the title of a popular song, "What the World Needs Now Is Love, Sweet Love." He described his recent visit to the Berlin Wall and spoke of other walls this may symbolize: prejudice, intolerance, pride, and misunderstanding between generations. Such walls cannot be broken down by self-centered denominational programs, however they may be improved, but only by genuine Christian love, aggressively willing to get involved in eradicating the ugly sores of our society. The Corinthian church was divided by party spirit, disturbed over moral questions, denying basic Christian doctrines by word and deed, and disorderly in worship while claiming supernatural gifts—surrounded meanwhile by a pagan city in need of the gospel. In all of these we see our present crisis and we see anew the urgent need of aggressive love in an unloving world. This love expresses itself in self-denial, in going the second mile, and in self-forgetful service. Letting God love through us as Christians is the world's last hope.

14. Jimmy Ringgold, Raleigh, sang "Lord, Make Me an Instrument of Thy Peace." (Olive Dungan, arranged by William Stickles).

15. The benediction for the Monday evening session was pronounced by William E. Poe, Charlotte.

TUESDAY MORNING

16. The organ prelude was presented by James Reich, Monroe.

17. The Convention was called to order by President Lawrence, who asked that the doors be closed during the worship period.

18. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Have Faith in God."

19. Mrs. Robert J. Andrews, Wilmington, read I Corinthians 13:1—14:1 from Phillips translation and led the Convention in prayer.

20. President Lawrence recognized visitors and new pastors in the state since the time of the previous Convention. Upon his invitation, a number of new pastors came to the platform to give their names and places of service.

21. President Lawrence introduced Thomas Corey, Roxobel, and Mike King, Charlotte, who are Royal Ambassadors serving as Pages for the Convention. He also recognized a group of senior citizens from the Green Street Baptist Church of High Point.

22. The time for Miscellaneous Business having arrived President Lawrence announced the appointment of the COMMITTEE ON ENROLLMENT: Ralph L. Cannon, Winston-Salem; Jack Clark, Burlington; W. E. Coates, Reidsville; Robert L. Hughes, Asheboro; Ralph E. Jones, Jr., Graham; Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point; Leonard Rollins, Lexington; John Wesley, Roxboro; Robert Stewart, Greensboro, Chairman.

23. Robert Stewart, Greensboro, Chairman of the Committee on Enrollment, reported that as of nine o'clock this morning there were more than 2,000 messengers.

24. President Lawrence announced the appointment of the COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES, as follows: Mrs. Hoyle Allred, Gastonia; A. T. Ayscue, Pine Level; Allen Bailey, Charlotte; Hugh L. Borders, Spruce Pine; A. B. Bumgarner, Spindale; Robert L. Clegg, Sylva; Ernest G. Holt, Durham; W. Frank Ingram, Graham; W. A. Johnson, Lillington; Billy T. Mobley, Ahoskie; Thomas L. Rich, Jr., Fairmont; Ronda E. Robbins, Apex; Bert Starnes, Asheville; Mrs. C. C. Warren, Charlotte; Joe Lennon, Aberdeen, Chairman.

25. Joe S. Lennon, Aberdeen, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, nominated the following on the COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS: Jack Allen, Charlotte; J. Russell Barbee, Durham; Thomas A. Bland, Wake Forest; Ed Brandon, Raleigh; E. Gordan Conklin, Kinston; C. Douglas Farmer, Wilmington; Sam Hargett, Rutherfordton; Jerry D. Lethco, Bessemer City; Marion W. Powell, Taylorsville; Ted L. Purcell, Cullowhee; Miss Lounelle Selle, Burlington; James C. Stamey, Shelby; R. Hargus Taylor, Murfreesboro; E. T. Vinson, Scotland Neck; Allen Bailey, Charlotte, Chairman. A motion was made that these be elected. The motion was seconded and carried.

26. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, in behalf of himself and five other North Carolina Baptist pastors offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Be it resolved that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina assembled in Greensboro on November 9-11 in 1970:

(1) Express gratitude and support for every measure of real progress the Administration in Washington is making to end the involvement of the United States in the war in Indo China, and strongly urge our government not only to accelerate and complete the ordered withdrawal of all our troops but to cease all bombings of that tragic land and people.

(2) Call upon the leaders of our government to undertake forthwith crucial re-appraisal and re-evaluation of our total foreign relations policies and programs, the philosophy and strategy of our economic aid, the deployment of our special services, the CIA, and other similar agencies of our government in foreign countries, in the light of the universal surge for emancipation and autonomy among all peoples, and in the name of our own principle of the right of every nation to self determination in its political and economic destiny.

(3) Remind the people of the United States that as we are a nation comprising 6 per cent of the world's population and enjoying 60 per cent of the world's wealth we search our hearts whether this unprecedented affluence and splendor is predicated upon the righteousness that exalts the nation, and the special favor of God, or whether through our vast technological structures and military influence we have made haste to become rich at the expense of other peoples around the world, and whether peace may ultimately prevail unless such economic imbalances are changed.

(4) Call upon the United States, as well as other nations, to end the myths and falsities of the Cold War with its continuing massive allocations of national resources to the production of weaponry and the establishment and maintenance of armed might around the world while urgent and dismaying domestic needs are unmet, lest we face the spectre of the inevitable nemesis that no nation can undertake to police the world and avoid a police state at home.

(5) Invite our Baptist People, along with our brethren in other communions and faiths, to give prayerful support, in the name of free conscience, to all who languish in jail, suffer public obloquy, endure hardship and disabilities, or voluntary exile, because of their rejection of war and refusal to kill. As we look toward the end of the current hostilities we would invoke the spirit of our national heritage of malice toward none and charity for all and therefore call for amnesty for all who have made courageous witness to the eternal truth that they who live by the sword shall die by the sword, and who have dedicated their lives to the things that make for peace.

(6) Commit ourselves afresh to the United Nations as the last best hope for international law and order and justice, and to the investing of the United Nations with the full power to keep the peace, acknowledging it as the first and final arbiter for the resolution of the rivalries and conflicts among all nations.

We offer these resolutions in the name and spirit of Jesus Christ Who is our Peace and who, we do deeply believe, is saying to us what He said to Peter of old: "Put up thy sword."

WARREN CARR, Winston Salem

W. W. FINLATOR, Raleigh

ROBERT McCLERNON, Durham

EUGENE OWENS, Charlotte

RICHARD PRICE, Mars Hill

ROBERT SEYMOUR, Chapel Hill

President Lawrence ruled that section 5 is out of order since it involves a matter referred last year to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs and they have not yet reported upon it.

27. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas the First Amendment of the U. S. Constitution forbids the "establishment of religion" in our nation; and

Whereas the principle of the separation of Church and State is a most cherished principle, giving to our nation freedom of religion and a nation wherein all religious bodies stand equal before the law, and

Whereas the President, Richard M. Nixon, has approved a personal envoy to the Vatican, and

Whereas this is a serious act and an act to be viewed with alarm, since it takes the nation in the direction that could lead to "an establishment of religion," contrary to the principle of separation of church and state,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this Convention go on record in opposition to this act of our President of approving a personal representative to the Vatican; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Convention require our President to withdraw this personal envoy to the Vatican.

28. James C. Cammack, Fayetteville, President of the General Board, introduced the Report of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, which is reprinted in full on pages 105-200 of this Annual. He commented on the introductory matters in the opening pages of this document. He pointed out the statement on page 109 that only 13.8 per cent of our total contributions go through the Cooperative Program. He commented, item by item, on the excellent work reported in the section entitled, "Promotional Emphases" on pages 110-112. He then spoke concerning the requests which have come from our various institutions, as found on pages 112-114, including the action of the General Board in granting the request of Mars Hill College to continue participation in Title III program and to initiate the Upward Bound Program, reported on page 121. He then presented the seven Recommendations of the General Board as found on pages 116-120.

29. W. A. Huneycutt, Valdese, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, spoke concerning Recommendation Number 7 having to do with proposed changes in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Convention, as found on pages 116-120 of this Annual. He explained that the procedure concerning "The Dismissal of Trustees of Institutions or Agencies" proposed as a new By-Law VIII [see page 120 of the Annual] comes because it is needed to meet the standards of the accrediting agencies for institutions of higher learning. He stressed that this does not take the matter out of the hands of the Convention since the Convention always has the final authority in any decision of the General Board or its Executive Committee.

30. General Secretary-Treasurer W. Perry Crouch, Raleigh, spoke concerning the administrative work of the Convention and indicated that he would introduce several persons who would present various facets of the work.

31. Leon P. Spencer, Raleigh, Business Manager and Comptroller of the Baptist State Convention, called attention to the "Report of the Business Manager" as found on pages 99-110 of the Report of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

32. General Secretary-Treasurer Crouch spoke of an unexplained decrease in Cooperative Program receipts in October. He stressed that we have no savings accounts for Cooperative Program funds as uninformed persons sometimes say, and urgently need greater support.

33. Howard J. Ford, Raleigh, Director of the Division of Missions, spoke concerning the work of his division and announced a film to be presented tonight. [The printed report of the Division of Missions is found on pages 129-145 of the Annual.]

34. Nathan C. Brooks, Jr., Raleigh, Director of the Division of Church Programs, spoke concerning exciting advances in the field of Church Programs. [The printed report of the Division of Church Programs is found on pages 146-166 of the Annual.]

35. William C. Lamb, Raleigh, Director of the Division of Evangelism, spoke of various activities of the division and made announcements concerning the Conference on Evangelism in Greensboro in February 1971, including a massive Youth Rally on February 2, 1971 in the Greensboro Coliseum with Leighton Ford as speaker.

[The printed report of the Division of Evangelism is found on pages 145-146 of the Annual.]

36. General Secretary-Treasurer Crouch spoke concerning our loss of two division directors during the year: Ottis J. Hagler, Director of the Division of Stewardship and Promotion, who resigned because of illness, and Ben C. Fisher, Director of the Division of Christian Higher Education.

37. R. F. Smith, Jr., Durham, President of the Council on Christian Higher Education spoke concerning the work of the Division of Christian Higher Education, as found on pages 176-191 of the Annual. He read and spoke concerning the paragraph on page 179 entitled "A Live Option."

38. General Secretary-Treasurer Crouch, Raleigh, summarized the work of the entire Convention, with special emphasis on the Cooperative Program and the need for increases in support.

39. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing, "Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory."

40. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, presented representatives of Southern Baptist Convention agencies, as follows: B. J. Chenault, Vice President and Treasurer of the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention; and Chester Russell of the Sunday School Board. Both of these men brought greetings from their respective agencies. Five or six others were mentioned by name, some of whom will appear on the program later.

41. President Lawrence introduced the period of worship and those who are responsible for leading it, requesting that the doors be closed during the worship time.

42. The Convention engaged in a period of worship led by the Singing Churchmen [see Item 11] and including the Convention Sermon. The Singing Churchmen sang a Choral Call to Praise, "O Gracious Lord, Accept Our Praise" (Young). Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Our Lord Christ Hath Risen" (Kirn) and led the Invocation. The Singing Churchmen sang, "Turn Back, O Man" (Holst).

43. Henry E. Turlington, Chapel Hill, alternate to preach the Convention sermon, read I Corinthians 1:23-24; 2:1-13 and led in prayer.

44. Adrian M. Littlejohn, Gastonia, sang "Christ of the Upward Way" (Mueller).

45. A. Douglas Aldrich, Gastonia, preached the Convention sermon on the subject "Christ, the Uniting Center." Our generation is deeply troubled and little inclined to accept well-known slogans, religious or otherwise. Yet there is a depth of reality in the suffering Christ upon the cross and the triumphant Christ of the resurrection, in which one can see revealed what God is like and what man can become. The crucial question is whether we really know him or merely know about him. This question transcends theological labels, for it does not matter whether a man stands on the right hand of Jesus or the left, provided he knows him. This question transcends heated arguments, attempting to define in non-Biblical language how the Bible is inspired, provided men whose views differ have come to a real knowledge of God through the Bible. This question transcends premature announcements of the death of the church or of its irrelevancy to twentieth centuries issues, provided church renewal can take place through a new encounter with the reality of God in Christ. This question transcends the artificial dichotomy between evangelism and social concern, provided we really know the Christ who knew no such division and are willing to be his instruments.

46. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing, "I Need Thee, Precious Jesus," as a hymn of dedication.

47. The benediction for the Tuesday morning session was pronounced by Henry E. Turlington, Chapel Hill, followed by a choral response by the Singing Churchmen, from "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind" (Maker).

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

48. The organ prelude was presented by James Reich, Monroe.

49. The Convention was called to order by First Vice-President Tom M. Freeman, Dunn, who recognized the Fire Marshal of the City of Greensboro for announcements concerning our safety in the auditorium.

50. General Secretary-Treasurer Crouch, Raleigh, introduced Timothy Pennell, who is to speak during the worship period.

51. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Glorious Is Thy Name."

52. Ronald Alexander, Mars Hill, sang, "But This I Know" (Kohlman).

53. Timothy Pennell, Professor of Surgery at Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Winston-Salem, read Ephesians 4:11-12 and spoke concerning growing discontent among pastors, much of it caused by wrong attitudes and actions on the part of laymen. One of the elements in this is the refusal of many laymen to respond to the efforts of many pastors to equip them for Christian ministry which is truly relevant to human need. Another element is unyielding resistance to change in a society in which changing methods of work are essential. A third element in this is a dearth of encouragement of one another and engaging in mutual recrimination. A fourth element is the practice of reducing the pastor to that of an ecclesiastical functionary and thinking of him as a person who has been bought and paid for, or the practice of some pastors who try to make up for poor salaries by becoming moochers.

54. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

55. R. F. Smith, Jr., Durham, Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, assisted by several members of his committee, presented the following nominations:

White, Durham; Region 5: Hoke Coon, Lexington; Region 8: Gene Watterson, Shelby; Region 9: James R. Maples, Waynesville; To fill Terms expiring 1971: Region 7: Allen Laymon, North Wilkesboro; Region 10: Robert Clegg, Sylva; Elkin: Paul Cockrane, Elkin; New Found: E. M. Pettit, Asheville; Union: Robert T. Byrd, Marshville. To fill terms expiring 1972: Alleghany: Wilborn Goodman, Sparta; Region 3: C. Douglas Farmer, Wilmington; Transylvania: W. C. Adams, Pisgah Forest. To fill terms expiring 1973: Johnston: Edward Renfrow, Smithfield; Polk: Theodore Burrell, Tryon. To fill term expiring 1974: Beulah: G. Milton Bettini, Roxboro; Cabarrus: Ernest P. Russell, Concord; Piedmont: Ray Myrick, Greensboro; Surry: Neill Smith, Dobson. [Note: Additional nominations appear in Item 218 below—LJB.]

There being no further nominations from the floor, R. F. Smith, Jr. made a motion that these be elected. This was seconded and carried. Other members of the Committee on Noninations are: Fritz D. Hemphill, Boone; Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn; T. L. Cashwell, Jr., Raleigh; Mrs. Nane Starnes, Asheville; Coit Troutman, Charlotte; Allen Laymon, North Wilkesboro; Billy T. Mobley, Ahsokie;

Charles P. Burchette, Cooleemee; Mrs. Gilmer Cross, Lexington; S. C. Ray, Greensboro; Mrs. Paunee Byrd, Asheville; Earl D. Farthing, Goldsboro; W. T. Harris, Charlotte; Louis Hovis, Buies Creek; and Jerry L. Niswonger, Raleigh.

57. The time for miscellaneous business having arrived, Coy C. Privette, Kannapolis, President of the North Carolina Christian Action League, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas there has been a marked decrease in highway fatalities in North Carolina in the last two years;

Whereas Governor Robert W. Scott and the N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles have promoted Highway Safety Sunday across our State in the past two years;

Whereas the Attorney-General's Office and the State Bureau of Investigation have engaged in a determined effort to abolish drug problems in our State;

Whereas Highway Safety authorities state that at least 50 per cent of highway fatalities are due to driving and drinking;

Whereas there is a continuing effort to secure Liquor-By-The-Drink in North Carolina;

Whereas there is a disturbing trend in our judicial system in N. C. whereby drivers being charged with driving under the influence of alcohol are being allowed by some judges and solicitors to plead guilty to reckless driving or lesser charges;

NOW BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the 140th Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina:

1. Commend Col. Edwin C. Guy, commander of the finest highway patrol in our nation for their diligent efforts in making the highways of our State safer through the arrest of those violating the laws of our State;

2. Commend our Governor and the N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles for their promotion of Highway Safety Sunday and encourage them to make this an annual emphasis;

3. Commend Attorney-General Robert Morgan and his department, and Charles Dunn, Director of State Bureau of Investigation and his staff, for their intensive efforts to curb drug abuse in North Carolina;

4. Request the 1971 N. C. General Assembly to:

- a. Oppose any liberalization of the N. C. Liquor Laws;
- b. Look with favor upon proposed programs dealing with prison improvement, highway safety, drug abuse, and mental health; and

5. Urge the N. C. Judicial System to uphold the laws of our State by giving fair and speedy trials to those who are charged with violating the traffic laws of our State.

58. Troy Hamrick, Winston-Salem, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas in the course of pursuing our nation's policy of military engagement in Southeast Asia, a number of American servicemen have been taken prisoner by the enemy and a number of others listed as missing in action because the enemy refuses to acknowledge whether or not they are prisoners; and

Whereas information has been received by the United States government that our men held as prisoners of war are not being treated in accordance with the Geneva Conference but are being subjected to treatment that Christian nations deplore; and

Whereas it is apparent that North Vietnam is using its prisoner list as a cruel psychological weapon, seeking to impose its will upon our nation by victimizing the grieving and worried families of American men whose fate is uncertain; and

Whereas the North Carolina Baptist State Convention is intimately involved in the prisoner situation because ninety-one families living in our state, many of them members of the Baptist Church, have men known to be prisoners or who are listed as missing in action and may possibly be prisoners; and

Whereas it is the duty of those of us who live in freedom and in Christian love to be concerned and to demand that our citizens who are taken as prisoners of war be treated in accordance with the Geneva Conference; and

Whereas the bond of love unites the followers of Christ throughout the world:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention go on record as advocating that:

- All injured prisoners be released as quickly as possible; and
- All names of all prisoners be published; and
- Prisoners be allowed to exchange mail with their families; and
- Prisoners receive proper diet and medical care; and
- All prisoners be released as soon as possible.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we designate Sunday, November 15, as a Day of Prayer and Concern.

Another similar resolution by William Wallace, Charlotte was handed to the Committee on Resolutions along with the above. It stated:

Be it resolved that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in its 140th annual session in Greensboro, North Carolina, go on record to support all endeavors that will increase the possibility of more humane treatment and the eventual release of American prisoners of war held by the North Vietnamese government. Be it further resolved that we strongly urge all concerned Americans to write to Hanoi requesting that every consideration be given to the earliest possible release of American prisoners.

59. J. David Waugh, Winston-Salem, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas Pastors of churches affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention are called by the individual churches;

Whereas the churches of our denomination are solely autonomous;

Whereas the pastor of a Southern Baptist Church can be dismissed at any time because of his interpretation of the message of the Christian gospel;

Whereas the cost of living is great and getting greater, and the threat of dismissal and loss of salary for an indefinite period of time presents two possible threats to the welfare of the denomination, these being: (1) the loss of ministers of the gospel to non-church related fields, and (2) a minister may feel threatened by the fear of loss of job because of the whims of his congregation in such a way that he will feel the need to lessen the effect of the gospel which the Holy Spirit leads him to speak;

BE IT RESOLVED that the N. C. Baptist State Convention establish an adequate fund to be administered by a committee of ministers and laymen appointed by the nominating committee of this body to provide financial assistance for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days for pastors who lose their pastorate as a result of church action taken against him because of his attempts to preach the gospel of Christ as revealed to him. Qualification for this fund will be determined by the above mentioned committee of ministers and laymen. This ninety (90) day period would provide the minister with the living expenses needed to provide for himself and his family until he has been called by another church. These funds will terminate at any time during this stated period of time when he has found a pastorate or job.

60. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

In remembrance of and in fidelity to our Baptist tradition and witness regarding separation of church and state, and in light of its vital relevance to the issues of our day we, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina here assembled in Greensboro on November 9-11 in 1970:

(1) Call upon our churches to decline the use of their facilities, their contributions, influence, and support, or in any way become the instrument or vehicle or give aid and comfort, in the setting up and maintaining of chapels, academies or private schools to avoid the education of American children together in a free and open society; and we further call upon the Internal Revenue Service to deny tax exemption status to such educational institutions or tax deductions for funds given to support such institutions.

(2) Reaffirm, by the same token, our conviction that the place for prayer and Scripture in worship is our churches, cathedrals, and synagogues, our homes, and the quiet closets of our private lives, rather than in public schools owned and operated by the government and supported by taxes from Protestants, Catholics, Jews, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, agnostics, skeptics, atheists and other Americans.

(3) Express regret that in the revision of the North Carolina Constitution submitted to the people provision was not made to delete the passage requiring the belief in God as a qualification for holding public office and urge the General Assembly to repeal all statutes with similar requirements that in any way favor religion over against non-religion.

(4) Petition the federal government, the courts, the Selective Service, the Administration, and the local draft boards across the nation, to interpret conscientious objection in keeping with church-state separation, honoring all conscience equally regarding war and killing, whether such conscience be formed outside the church or within the church and to cease from inquiring into religious beliefs and practices, or in any way setting up a religious test for conscientious objection that would favor religion as over against non-religion in the matter of human conscience.

Parts 2 and 4 were ruled out of order on the basis that these issues were referred last year to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs and they have not yet reported upon them.

61. Recording Secretary Lamar J. Brooks, Wake Forest, announced that fraternal greetings have been received from Baptists in Georgia and Florida. He then made a motion, which was seconded and carried, authorizing fraternal greetings to be sent to seventeen other Baptist State Conventions meeting simultaneously with ours. [The following message was sent: "North Carolina Baptists, in our 140th annual session, greet you as fellow-servants of Jesus Christ and send to you our Christian love in the spirit of our Convention Theme, 'His Love . . . Our Hope.'"—LBJ.]

62. The time having arrived for the election of officers, the floor was opened for nominations for the office of President. Frank R. Campbell, Statesville, nominated John E. Lawrence. There were no other nominations, and a motion was made, seconded and carried by standing vote that he be elected by acclamation.

63. President Lawrence took over the presiding responsibilities again and expressed his gratitude to the Convention for its confidence.

64. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of

First Vice-President. M. O. Owens, Gastonia, nominated Jack Wilder, Greensboro.

65. James C. Cammack, Fayetteville, nominated Tom M. Freeman, Dunn.

66. There being no further nominations, it was announced that we would proceed to vote by secret ballot.

67. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of Second Vice-President. E. W. Price, Jr., High Point, nominated Carlos Young, Shelby.

68. Max G. Reece, Siler City, nominated Robert M. Tenery, Elkin.

69. There being no further nominations, it was announced that we would proceed to vote by secret ballot.

70. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of Recording Secretary. Clarence Godwin, Oxford, nominated Lamar J. Brooks, Wake Forest. There were no further nominations, and a motion was made, seconded and carried by standing vote, that he be elected by acclamation.

71. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of Assistant Recording Secretary. Dewey Hobbs, Marion, nominated Ted W. Williams. There were no further nominations and a motion was made, seconded and carried by standing vote, that he be elected by acclamation.

72. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of Parliamentarian. Claud B. Bowen, Greensboro, nominated James M. Bulman, Oak Ridge. There were no further nominations, and a motion was made, seconded and carried by standing vote, that he be elected by acclamation.

73. The floor was opened for nominations for Trustees. Leon P. Spencer, Raleigh nominated Emory B. Denny, Raleigh; Claude F. Gaddy, Raleigh; and James W. Reid, Raleigh. There being no further nominations, a motion was made, seconded and carried by standing vote, that they be elected by acclamation.

74. President Lawrence asked Second Vice-President Young to preside over the remaining portion of the afternoon session.

75. Tom Long, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Baptist Hospital, spoke concerning the report of the hospital on pages 193-194. He told of twin girls in the hospital with myasthenia gravis and introduced their mother, Mrs. Mahlon Adams, who spoke warm words of appreciation for what the hospital has meant to her and her family.

76. W. K. McGee, Winston-Salem, Director of Denominational Relations for North Carolina Baptist Hospital, spoke words of appreciation for the support of the Convention.

77. William A. Poole, Winston-Salem, Superintendent of the North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging, spoke concerning the report on pages 192-193 of the Annual.

78. W. R. Wagoner, Thomasville, President of Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, spoke concerning the work of the Children's Home as found on pages 191-192 of the Annual. He introduced a dramatic production entitled "Diamonds and Deeds," tracing the story of how William Lafayette Kennedy and his wife Emily Hardee Kennedy came to the decision to use their many material blessings, including their home and 1,200 acres near Kinston, to establish The Kennedy Memorial Home. The drama, covering the period from the fall of 1912 through the spring of 1918, was written by Mary Ruth Crook, and was revised, adapted and directed by Edith Larson of Chowan College. Roger Williams, Jr., Superintendent of Kennedy Home, served as narrator. The entire presentation was made with great skill and effectiveness, but it was probably the children themselves who will linger longest in the memory of the messengers as a motivation for future beneficence.

79. President Lawrence announced the result of the balloting: Tom M. Freeman has been elected as First Vice-President and Carlos Young as Second Vice-President.

80. The benediction for the Tuesday afternoon session was pronounced by Herb Meadows, Greensboro, who sang as a prayer, "Lord Take My Life."

TUESDAY EVENING

81. The organ prelude was presented by James Reich, Monroe.

82. President John E. Lawrence called the Convention to order.

83. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind."

84. Ralph White, Colerain, read 1 John 4:7-21 and led the Convention in prayer.

85. The time for miscellaneous business having arrived, Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, a member of the Committee on Enrollment, reported that there are at this time 2,417 registered messengers and 307 visitors, for a total of 2,724.

86. Miss Penny Smallwood, Raleigh, President of the Baptist Student Union of North Carolina and a student at Appalachian State University, made a motion as follows:

Concern has been expressed by individuals within the Baptist State Convention of N. C. and the N. C. General Baptist Convention that the two groups hold another joint convention.

Such a program in the past has proved to be beneficial to all participating.

There is a need for co-operation between our two state Baptist Conventions in order to reach a mutual understanding of our common goals.

Therefore, I move that the president of the Baptist State Convention of N. C. make overtures to the General Baptist Convention requesting the planning committees of the two conventions meet together to plan simultaneous meetings in the same locale for the 1971 convention with the inspirational meetings of the two groups being held together.

The motion was seconded. President Lawrence ruled that this motion is in the nature of a resolution and would be referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

87. J. David Waugh, Winston-Salem, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas messengers to the State Convention of North Carolina and committee members of the various state level committees are distributed between ministers and laymen;

Whereas there is a great deal of concern expressed about the need for lay participation in our convention;

Whereas the scheduling of state level activities in the middle of the week presents a financial burden for laymen, especially non-professionals, who desire to attend but cannot;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Committee on Arrangements schedule the Baptist State Convention and the General Board Meetings over week-ends so that laymen can attend without any more inconvenience to them than those that the pastors suffer.

88. First Vice-President Tom M. Freeman, Dunn, made a motion that the 1970 Convention Annual be dedicated to Horace Easom. It was agreed by common consent that this be referred to the Committee on Memorials.

89. Jimmy Morriss, Raleigh, Secretary of the Department of Communications of the Baptist State Convention, spoke concerning the work of this department [see pages 171-173 of the Annual] and then introduced a period of special recognition for the tenth anniversary of the television program, "Light Unto My Path," which is a weekly ministry to the deaf carried on fifteen television channels in several states, including five in North Carolina. Neal Peyton and Jerry Potter were presented to the Convention and the other members of the cast were named.

90. Claude O'Shields, Associate Director of the Radio and Television Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, with special responsibility for the area east of the Mississippi River, spoke words of commendation for the nature of the ministry to the deaf and especially for the program, "Light Unto My Path."

91. In behalf of the Baptists of North Carolina, W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer, Raleigh, presented plaques to representatives of the five television channels in North Carolina which carry the "Light Unto My Path" program at no cost to the Convention. It was pointed out that more than $150,000 worth of telecast time has been involved. Each of the representatives responded with warm words of appreciation for the nature of the program and for the fine work of the staff. The television channels and their representatives are as follows: Fred Barbour, Program Director, WBTB, Charlotte; Dick McKinney, Director of Public Affairs, WNCT, Greenville; William Gietz, General Manager WFMV, Greensboro; William Pfeiffer, Assistant Manager, WLOS, Asheville; and Joel Lawhon, Director of Public Affairs, WRAL, Raleigh.

92. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer, called attention to the fact that a large number of the Convention personnel were seated in a body, and asked them to stand. He then introduced the presentation of the Mission Emphasis entitled "The Gospel of Encounter." It was pointed out that the film production had been accomplished by Jimmy Morriss and the Department of Communications, with the help of many persons throughout the state, and that so much material was prepared that only half of it can be presented tonight, the other half being scheduled to be shown at the Convention of Baptist Women in March. Announcement was made also that the motion picture portion of the presentation would be available soon for use in the churches. The presentation was made on three projection screens, with the large center screen carrying the motion picture and the screens on either side carrying color slides which gave additional glimpses of the various topics being covered in the motion picture. The presentation began with a summary of the great needs of our state and of various groups of persons within the state. It then depicted the many facets of the work of the Division of Missions of the Baptist State Convention, with all its many departments, showing the personnel at work in many different places and in many different types of Christian ministry. It also included words of interpretation and appeal from General Secretary-Treasurer Crouch, from Howard J. Ford, Director of the Division of Missions, and from Arthur B. Rutledge, Executive Secretary of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, which engages in joint sponsorship, along with the Baptist State Convention and local associations, of many of the programs which were presented. [The printed report of the Division of Missions is found on pages 129-145 of the Annual.]

93. The benediction for the Tuesday evening session was pronounced by J. D. Holder, Greensboro.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

94. The organ prelude was presented by James Reich, Monroe.

95. The Convention was called to order by President John E. Lawrence.

96. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing, "Crown Him With Many Crowns."

97. President Lawrence asked that in our worship period we remember in prayer Jerry Buchanan, pastor of the Parkwood Baptist Church of Durham, who suffered a heart attack in last night's session and is in a local hospital.

98. Ronald Alexander, Mars Hill, sang "Higher Ground."

99. Gene Hooks, Director of Athletics of Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, cited the early season predictions that Wake Forest football team would not win any games this year, and now they have an excellent chance to be the conference champions, as an example of the fact that no one has all the answers, that physical, mental and emotional discipline produces excellent results and that unselfish giving of one's talents is the pathway to joy.

100. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "More Like Jesus Would I Be."

101. President Lawrence announced the news that Robert M. Sims of Raleigh died today, that Robert Humber, Greenville died today, and that M. A. Huggins, Raleigh, is critically ill. All of these men have been prominent in the work of the Baptist State Convention.

102. General Secretary-Treasurer Crouch made a motion that messages be sent to the families of Robert Sims and Robert Humber and to M. A. Huggins. It was seconded and carried.

103. President Lawrence led the Convention in prayer for these friends and for Jerry Buchanan [see Item 97 above]. He then spoke concerning the day's program and stressed the invitation of the First Baptist Church of Greensboro for messengers to join them in an observance of the Lord's Supper. He spoke concerning methods of procedure for the parliamentary processes ahead of us.

104. Joe M. Saunders, Shelby made a motion that a three-minute limit be placed on all persons who discuss motions. It was seconded and carried by standing vote.

105. There being no other matters of miscellaneous business, Ed Brandon, Raleigh, Chairman of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, called attention to the report of the Division of Christian Life and Public Affairs as found on pages 173-176 of this Annual. He called attention to the fact that this report includes four recommendations to the churches concerning their youth and recommendations concerning a two-year emphasis on Christian family life in the Convention. Ed Brandon moved that these recommendations be adopted. It was seconded and carried.

106. At the request of President Lawrence, Parliamentarian Bulman read the Finlator resolution referred by the 1969 Convention to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs [see pages 175-176 of the Annual].

107. Ed Brandon, Raleigh, presented the recommendations of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs concerning this matter, as follows:

1. On Baptist support for status of Conscientious Objection on other than religious grounds:

No specific action needed inasmuch as the United States Supreme Court has rendered a decision allowing such status on other than religious grounds.

2. On urging churches to give moral and spiritual guidance to young men facing military services:

The Council reports progress in preparing materials useful to pastors, churches and young men facing the draft for guidance, both for those accepting military service and those seeking classification as conscientious objectors, for conscience's sake. These materials should be available sometime before January 1, 1971. Proper notice will be published in the Biblical Recorder for those requesting such materials.

3. On granting amnesty to those who have chosen prison or exile in lieu of accepting service in the military:

The question of general amnesty, in our judgment, is premature while the nation is still engaged in military conflict. Our study of the subject of amnesty reveals a most complex problem relative to the motives of those so involved, the question of due process of the law as related to violations of the draft laws, and the problem of involving us in a position that sanctions violation of this due process of law. In no way does this lessen our Christian concern and compassion for those who have chosen prison or exile. We are concerned that any action sanctioned by us should be at the proper time and in circumstances that will allow the most propitious commingling of justice and mercy. Our recommendation is that we do not recommend the granting of general amnesty at this time.

108. President Lawrence explained that when the vote comes it will be upon the motion made last year by W. W. Finlator. That motion is now again before us, and Finlator has the floor if he desires.

109. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, objected to the dilution of the first two items in the Council's Recommendations.

110. J. Dewey Hobbs, Jr., Marion, moved that the time be extended 10 minutes. The motion was seconded and carried by a standing vote.

111. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, restated his objection to the effect that the first two items in the Council's Recommendations have been diluted and spoke in favor of his original resolution, appealing especially for support of his statements concerning amnesty.

112. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, a member of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs who has worked especially with this matter in recent months, spoke in favor of the Council's Recommendations, especially stressing the complexity of the problem, and advising persons who bring future resolutions to deal with only one matter at a time so as to avoid confusion.

113. Nane Starnes, Asheville, moved the previous question. It was seconded and carried by standing vote.

114. Warren Carr, Winston-Salem, rose to a point of order, which was answered by President Lawrence.

115. The vote was then taken on the Finlator motion made in the 1969 session, with the result that the motion was lost.

116. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, moved that the substance of the matter be a continuing matter of concern for our Convention and for its Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. It was seconded and carried.

117. J. Dewey Hobbs, Jr., Marion, moved that the time be extended 15 minutes. The motion was seconded and carried by standing vote.

118. At the request of President Lawrence, Parliamentarian Bulman read the Asbury resolution referred by the 1969 Convention to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs [see page 176 of this Annual].

119. Ed Brandon, Raleigh, presented the recommendation of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs concerning this matter, as follows:

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, after a public hearing on April 30, 1970, on the Prayer Resolution presented during the Convention in Fayetteville, November, 1969, and after full debate, unanimously approved the following statement and recommendation to be presented to the Baptist State Convention in session in Greensboro, November 9-11, 1970. The recommendation is printed below.

1. The Resolution as stated asks North Carolina Baptists to approve "Voluntary Prayer in public schools." The language could be taken to mean, (a) approval of Voluntary Prayer in public schools in contradiction to the judgments of the Supreme Court, which it cites, or (b) approval so as to encourage the means whereby Voluntary Prayer in public schools be legalized, such as the proposal by the late Senator Dirksen of Illinois to the effect that the Constitution be thus amended.

The Council is of the opinion that the Supreme Court, in its recent decisions in this regard, is correct in declaring that devotional religious exercises in public schools have been and are in violation of the First Amendment.

It is a matter of common knowledge that within the permissive pattern of perhaps a majority of American communities, during much of our history, great liberty has been taken in the practice of devotional religious exercises within the public schools. It is our custom in this respect which deserves to be reconsidered in the light of tenable constitutional provisions.

2. The Council suggests, therefore, that the practice of maintaining formal devotional religious exercises in public schools is contrary to the First Amendment as indicated by the decisions of the Supreme Court. The constitutional guarantee of the "free exercise of religion" is satisfactory and deserves to be more consistently respected. Therefore, we do not believe that the First Amendment should be changed. We agree with the many who affirm that it would be difficult to improve on the freedoms, which for almost two hundred years, both religion and the state have enjoyed under the provisions of the First Amendment as it was written. To continue to practice devotional religious exercises in the public schools would clearly violate the Baptist tradition of the separation of church and state.

3. The Council is convinced that these historic Baptist traditions are pertinent to these decisions which the Supreme Court has made. We have vigorously insisted upon the separation of church and state; we have disparaged all sectarian aggrandizement under state auspices; we have jealously regarded equity and voluntarism in the practice of religion within a pluralistic society. These principles which we believe have made a notable contribution to the character of our country should prompt us to govern our own conduct in this regard also. Let us confess that in the past much of our practice has not only been in violation of the constitution but it has also been inconsistent with these professions of which we are justly proud.

4. The Council calls attention to the many avenues which are available for making religion a constructive element in the educational experience of students in the public schools. For example, by these means religion may be included in the public school curricula:

- a. The study of sacred writings as literature and history.
- b. The use of sacred writings as reference materials when studying secular subjects.
- c. The study of comparative religions and the history of religion as components in analyzing history and society.
- d. The study of the relation of religion to the advancement of civilization.
- e. The identification of religious elements in national biographies, declarations, and ceremonials.
- f. The study of religious music and art.

The Council is particularly impressed with the spirit of appreciation and encouragement of religion as reflected in the language of some members of the Court as it rendered its decisions in these cases. "Indeed, whether or not the Bible is involved," one member contended, "it would be impossible to teach meaningfully many subjects in the social sciences or the humanities without some mention of religion." In considerable detail they did distinguish carefully between devotional religious exercises, which was the issue under review, and the teaching of religion as literature or history.

The Council agrees with the summary judgment of Justice Denny as expressed in the concluding paragraph of his report of his investigation of the Supreme Court's decisions:

"In my opinion, in the future, if we want our children to participate in religious exercises, consisting of the reading of the Scriptures and the offering of voluntary prayers, we will be compelled to find a forum other than the public schools."

We, therefore, recommend that the Asbury resolution not be approved by this Convention.

120. President Lawrence explained that when the vote comes it will be upon the motion made last year by Claud L. Asbury. That motion is now again before us, and Asbury has the floor if he desires.

121. Claud L. Asbury, Wilmington, spoke in favor of his original motion, stressing the view that the recommendations of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs now for the first time concede that voluntary prayer has indeed been "outlawed," and that in his opinion the line is now clearly drawn to the point that a vote against his resolution would be a vote against voluntary prayer in the public schools and a vote for his resolution would be a vote for voluntary prayer in the public schools.

122. Baxter M. Walker, Fayetteville, spoke in favor of the Asbury motion.

123. William Greenwood, Lexington, spoke in opposition to the Asbury motion, stressing that the real issue is one of the separation of church and state.

124. J. David Waugh, Winston-Salem, spoke against the Asbury motion.

125. Tom Williams, Greensboro, spoke against the Asbury motion.

126. Wendell Davis, Charlotte, spoke against the Asbury motion.

127. Warren Carr, Winston-Salem, moved the previous question. It was seconded and carried by standing vote.

128. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, rose to a point of order to ask for an extension of time so as to discuss with the Parliamentarian the possibility of tabling the entire matter.

129. President Lawrence, after consultation with the Parliamentarian ruled tabling out of order. The vote was then taken on the original Asbury motion, first by voice vote, then by standing, and then by a standing vote counted by the tellers, with the result that the motion carried.

130. The time having come for action on the report of the General Board, James C. Cammack, Fayetteville, President of the General Board, made a preliminary statement concerning the General Board's recommendations.

131. Woodrow W. Hill, Thomasville, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board made a motion that Recommendation Number 1 of the General Board on page 116 of the Annual concerning the Convention Budget for 1971, be adopted. [See pages 121-126 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried.

132. Marion W. Powell, Taylorsville, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion that Recommendation Number 2 of the General Board, on page 116 of the Annual concerning the request of Baptist Hospital, Inc., and Wake Forest University (for Bowman Gray School of Medicine) to borrow $8,500,000.00 and $2,000,000.00 respectively to provide working capital, and to be repaid over a period of ten years, be adopted. [See pages 201-202 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried.

133. R. F. Smith, Jr., Durham, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion that Recommendation Number 3 of the General Board, on page 116 of the Annual, concerning the request of Campbell College to be allowed to borrow $1,900,000.00 from the Federal Housing Urban Development Agency, at three per cent interest, to be repaid over a period of fifty years, be adopted. [See pages 202-204 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried.

134. Ernest G. Holt, Durham, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board made a motion that Recommendation Number 4 of the General Board, on page 116 of the Annual, concerning the request of Chowan College to change its charter to allow the Board of Trustees of the College to be enlarged from 28 to 36, be adopted. [See page 204 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried.

135. W. Amis Daniel, Kernersville, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion that Recommendation Number 5 of the General Board on page 116 of the Annual, concerning the request of Gardner-Webb College to change its charter to allow the Board of Trustees of the College to be enlarged from 28 to 36, be adopted. [See pages 204-205 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried.

136. First Vice-President Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn, made a motion that Recommendation Number 6 of the General Board on page 116 of the Annual giving authority to the Executive Committee to negotiate the purchase of additional property near the Baptist Building, not to exceed $300,000.00 in cost, and empowering the General Secretary-Treasurer to borrow the amount necessary for such purchase, not to exceed $300,000.00 to be repaid over a period of ten years, be adopted. [See page 205 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried.

137. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion that the proposed change in Article VII of the Constitution be adopted. [See page 116 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried by standing vote.

138. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article VIII, Section A, Number 6 of the Constitution be adopted. [See page 116 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried by standing vote.

139. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IX, Section A, Number 2 of the Constitution be adopted. [See page 117 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded.

140. M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia, spoke in opposition to the motion.

141. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, spoke in favor of the motion.

142. J. A. Richardson, Salisbury, spoke in opposition to the motion. The vote was taken by standing and the motion was lost.

143. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IX, Section C, Number 1 (Line 6) be adopted. [See page 117 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried by standing vote.

144. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IX, Section A, Number 4 (Line 16) be adopted. [See page 117 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded.

145. M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia, spoke in opposition to the motion.

146. President Lawrence ruled that since this recommendation and the proposed change in the By-Laws concerning the dismissal of Trustees of institutions or agencies are inter-related, they should be discussed together, though they must then be voted upon separately.

147. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, read and explained the purpose of this proposed change in the By-laws, pointing out that such an established procedure is needed and does not take any power away from the Convention.

148. M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia, spoke against the proposed change in both the Constitution and the By-Laws.

149. R. F. Smith, Jr., Durham, announced his intention to propose at the proper time certain amendments, which he read, to the proposed change to the By-Laws.

150. Vernon McDaniel, Salisbury, inquired as to whether these changes are necessary for continuing accreditation and expressed the view that this may not be important.

151. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, restated the reasons which motivated the General Board to propose these changes.

152. Vernon McDaniel, Salisbury, spoke again in opposition to the proposed changes.

153. Eugene E. Poston, Boiling Springs, President of Gardner-Webb College, spoke concerning the need of the establishment of procedures for "due process" in matters of this kind, and the help this would be in accreditation.

154. Lloyd C. Bost, Shelby, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Gardner-Webb College, spoke in favor of the recommendation.

155. M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia, again spoke against the change of the Constitution, and added that some form of "due process" might then be added.

156. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, agreed with M. O. Owens, Jr., regarding the need for the establishment of "due process."

157. Flake G. Mason, Jonesboro, spoke in opposition to the motion.

158. C. Gene Booker, Robbins, moved the previous question. It was seconded and carried by standing vote. The vote was then taken on the motion [see Item 144 above] by standing, and the President declared the motion carried.

159. M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia, requested a division of the body. The vote was taken by standing, with the result that the motion was lost, having failed to receive the necessary two-thirds majority.

160. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, moved the adoption of the changes in the By-Laws under Article VIII, "The Dismissal of Trustees of Institutions or Agencies." [See page 120 of the Annual.] It was seconded.

161. R. F. Smith, Jr., Durham, made a motion to amend the proposed change by substituting the words “. . . consider the removal of” in the place of “remove” in the opening sentence, and by substituting in Number 4, following the words “General Board” the words “. . . subject to the approval of” in the place of the word “and.” The motion to amend was seconded and carried by standing vote. The vote was then taken upon the original motion, as amended, with the result that it was carried by standing vote.

162. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IX, Section D, Number 1 (Line 7) of the Constitution be adopted. [See page 117 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried by standing vote.

163. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IX, Section E (Line 6) of the Constitution be adopted. [See page 117 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried by voice vote.

164. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IX, Section E, Number 2 (Line 1) of the Constitution be adopted. [See page 118 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried by standing vote.

165. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article I, Section D, Number 4 of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 118 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried by voice vote.

166. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IV, Section B, Number 3e (Line 2) of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 118 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

167. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IV, Section B, Number 3h of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 118 of the Annual.] The motion was seconded and carried by voice vote.

168. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IV, Section B, Number 4, d (2) (f) (Line 5) of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 118 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

169. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IV, Section B, Number 4e (1) of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 118 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

170. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IV, Section B, Number 4e (2) of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 118 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

171. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IV, Section B, Number 4f (Line 1) of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 118 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

172. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article IV, Section B, Number 4g of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 118 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

173. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article V, Section B of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 119 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

174. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article V, Section C (Line 3) of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 119 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

175. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article VI, Sections B and C of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 119 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

176. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article VII, Section B, Number 1 (Line 3) of the By-Laws be adopted. [See pages 119-120 of the Annual.] It was seconded and adopted.

177. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article VII, C, of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 120 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

178. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, made a motion that the proposed change in Article VII E of the By-Laws be adopted. [See page 120 of the Annual.] It was seconded and carried by voice vote.

179. C. Douglas Farmer, Wilmington, a member of the Resolutions Committee, and in behalf of the Chairman, made a motion that the resolution concerning the scheduling of Convention meetings on week-ends, submitted by J. David Waugh [see Item 87 above] be referred to the General Board. The motion was seconded and carried.

180. C. Douglas Farmer, Wilmington, a member of the Committee on Resolutions, made a motion that the resolution concerning a simultaneous meeting of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the North Carolina General Baptist Convention, submitted by Miss Penny Smallwood [see Item 86 above] be referred to the General Board. The motion was seconded and carried.

181. C. Douglas Farmer, Wilmington, a member of the Committee on Resolutions, made a motion that the resolution concerning a fund for pastors who lose their pastorates submitted by J. David Waugh (see Item 59 above) be referred to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs with the request that a recommendation be made next year. The motion was seconded and carried.

182. Marion W. Powell, Taylorsville, a member of the Committee on Resolutions, made a motion to amend the resolution concerning alcohol and drugs submitted by Coy C. Privette [see Item 57 above] by substituting the following in its place:

Whereas there has been a continuing effort to secure Liquor-by-the-Drink in North Carolina;

Whereas the sale and consumption of alcohol has contributed to increased social and moral problems;

Whereas the widespread use of illegal drugs has grown at an alarming rate;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of N. C. at its 140th session meeting in Greensboro, N. C.:

1. Express its appreciation to the Christian Action League of N. C. and to its Executive Director; to the Biblical Recorder and its editor; to those members of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina and others who have worked against the sale and use of alcoholic beverages and for their success in defeating bills that would have legalized the sale of Liquor-by-the-Drink.

2. Be it further resolved that we encourage individuals and churches in each of our local communities to combat illegal drug traffic and further liberalization of liquor laws.

3. Be it further resolved that we encourage individuals and churches to contribute financially through the Christian Action League of N. C., as it attempts to combat the increased flow of alcoholic beverages.

4. That we commend the Attorney General's Office of our State and the N. C. State Bureau of Investigation for their intensive efforts to curb the illegal sale and use of drugs in our state.

5. That we urge the 1971 N. C. General Assembly to:

(a) Oppose any further legislation that would increase the incidence of drinking and its accompanying problems.

(b) Encourage programs of education and rehabilitation that would deal with drug abuse.

The motion was seconded and carried.

183. E. T. Vinson, Scotland Neck, a member of the Committee on Resolutions, made a motion to amend the resolution concerning highway safety, submitted by Coy C. Privette [see Item 57 above] by substituting the following in its place:

Whereas there has been a marked decrease in highway fatalities in North Carolina over the last two years; and

Whereas Governor Robert W. Scott and the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles have promoted Highway Safety Sunday in our state over the same period:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina meeting in Greensboro, November 9-11, 1970:

1. Commend Governor Robert W. Scott and the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles for their promotion of Highway Safety Sunday, and encourage them to make this an annual emphasis;

2. Commend the Highway Patrol for their diligent efforts to make our highways safe;

3. Encourage the 1971 North Carolina General Assembly to look with favor upon proposals and programs dealing with highway safety.

The motion was seconded and carried. [Note: Coy C. Privette introduced only one resolution, which is printed in full under Item 57 above, but the Committee on Resolutions divided the subject matter into two separate resolutions, with two separate motions, as indicated in Items 182 and 183—LJB.]

184. J. Russell Barbee, Durham, a member of the Committee on Resolutions, made a motion to amend the resolution concerning a representative to the Vatican submitted by Woodrow W. Robbins [see Item 27 above] by substituting the following in its place:

Whereas the principle of "Separation of Church and State" is a cherished principle, giving our nation freedom of religion so that all religious bodies stand equal before the law, and

Whereas President Richard M. Nixon has appointed a personal envoy to the Vatican, and

Whereas this act endangers the principle of separation of church and state, and also violates the spirit of the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina meeting in Greensboro, North Carolina, November 11, 1970, go on record as opposing this action by our President in appointing a personal representative to the Vatican, and request our President to recall this personal envoy, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this convention go on record as opposing the appointment of a personal representative to any religious body by the President of the United States.

The motion was seconded and carried.

185. C. Douglas Farmer, Wilmington, a member of the Committee on Resolutions made a motion to amend the resolution concerning prisoners of war submitted by Troy Hamrick [see Item 58 above] by substituting in its place a reaffirmation of the action taken on this issue in the 1969 session. The action taken in the 1969 Session was not re-read to the Convention in session in 1970, but its contents were as follows:

Whereas Article VI of the United States Constitution specifically states that provisions of treaties ratified by the United States Government become the "supreme law of the land," notwithstanding contrary limitations of the Constitution itself; and

Whereas notwithstanding solemn promises ratified at the international conference at Geneva that all prisoners of war captured would be given the respect of humane treatment; that Article 2 of the convention provides that it "shall apply to all cases of declared war or any other armed conflict which may arise between two or more of the High Contracting parties, even if the state of war is not recognized by one of them"; and

Whereas the government of North Vietnam acceded to the convention on June 28, 1957, and the government of South Vietnam acceded to the convention on November 14, 1953, and the government of the United States acceded to the convention on August 2, 1955; no pretense of compliance has been advanced by North Vietnam or the National Liberation Front (Viet Cong) despite the reminder to do so on June 11, 1965, by M. Jacques Freymond, Vice President of the International Committee of the Red Cross, and

Whereas repeated appeals on the part of wives, parents, relatives, and dependents of those unfortunate victims of violence of any power have proven ineffective through the United States Department of State,

BE IT RESOLVED

That we recommend that the United States Department of State vigorously seek to obtain the following:

1. the release of names of prisoners held by North Vietnam and the National Liberation Front (Viet Cong),
2. the immediate release of sick and wounded prisoners,
3. the impartial inspection of prisoner of war facilities,
4. the proper treatment of all prisoners,
5. the regular flow of mail, and
6. the release and freedom from captivity of all American fighting men of this "undeclared" war with North Vietnam.

It is understood that these resolutions apply equally to all other bodies engaged in the Vietnam War.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED

That there be enacted by the Congress of the United States a code of protective legislation similar to the Uniform Code of Military Justice, other than in "declared war" to assure that the full force, authority, and power of the United States of America shall henceforth be publicly committed to the attainment of freedom from captivity of all Americans captured in such military actions, past and future.

The motion was seconded.

186. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, moved to amend the motion by adding the following:

"By the same token we call for similar treatment for North Vietnam's prisoners of war whether captured by U. S. Forces or by South Vietnam's Forces or turned over to the Saigon government by the U. S. Military."

187. Troy V. Hamrick, Winston-Salem, appealed for the adoption of his original resolution.

188. W. S. Caudle, Greensboro, rose to a point of order concerning whether we can now amend something decided last year.

189. C. Douglas Farmer, Wilmington, was asked to read the Hamrick resolution presented yesterday.

190. Henry B. Stokes, Buies Creek, spoke concerning the amendment. The vote was then taken on the amendment, and it was carried. The vote was then taken on the motion as amended, and it was carried.

191. Thomas A. Bland, Wake Forest, a member of the Committee on Resolutions, made a motion to amend the resolution concerning peace submitted by W. W. Finlator [see Item 26 above] by substituting the following in its place:

Whereas the President of the United States has repeatedly stated his intention to decelerate and to end the war in Indochina, to seek to negotiate a just settlement of that conflict, and to withdraw all United States troops from Vietnam at the earliest moment deemed wise from the standpoint of military and political considerations inherent in that complex situation, and

Whereas two national administrations have been engaged in the search for peace through the Paris peace talks and other means of diplomacy; and

Whereas the implementation of decisions by the present national administration has already resulted in a reduction of troops;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we, the messengers of this Convention, express gratitude for achievements to date toward a resolution of this conflict and we pray for the day to come soon when the end of the war is accomplished.

Be it further resolved that we call upon ourselves and our fellow citizens to reappraise our priorities in order to give greater impetus to the deployment of natural, human, and economic resources for the enhancement of humanity's peaceful existence in the common pilgrimage of all people on the face of God's good earth.

Be it further resolved that we shall continue to work for the strengthening of the structures of society that contribute to human dignity, justice, and the pursuit of peace, including the United Nations.

Finally, be it resolved that we, the messengers to this 140th session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, commit ourselves anew to the distinctly Christian contributions to peace, including the evangelization of the lost, the missionary thrust of the Christian gospel, and the persistent efforts, through our personal and corporate expressions of aggressive Christian love to be agents of reconciliation in the name and spirit of Christ our Lord.

The motion was seconded and carried.

192. C. Douglas Farmer, Wilmington, a member of the Committee on Resolutions, made a motion to refer the resolution concerning Church State Separation submitted by W. W. Finlator [see Item 60 above] to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. The motion was seconded and carried.

193. R. Hargus Taylor, Murfreesboro, a member of the Committee on Resolutions presented the following resolutions from the committee:

Whereas the 140th annual session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina—challenged by and committed to the theme, “His Love . . . Our Hope”—approaches the conclusion of a fruitful meeting; and

Whereas we are indebted to the various committees and personalities responsible for planning, arranging, and conducting this 140th session of our Convention; and

Whereas a special word of gratitude is due the citizens of our host city for making available the best in physical facilities, both for our deliberative assembly and for our personal accommodation;

NOW THERE BE IT RESOLVED:

(1) That we offer a prayer of gratitude to God for every evidence of His presence and power among us, and a prayer of hope that His will shall have been furthered through our fellowship and deliberation together,

(2) That we express our appreciation to the Program Committee, the Committee on Arrangements, and all other program personnel of this 140th annual session of the Baptist State Convention for the work each has done towards challenging us to the realization of “His Love . . . Our Hope.”

(3) That we thank the various citizens of Greensboro—and especially the management of the War Memorial Auditorium—both for the provision of adequate and comfortable physical accommodations and for every show of hospitality which have added to our enjoyment and convenience while assembled for this session of our Convention.

It was seconded and carried.

194. President Lawrence expressed appreciation for the fine Christian spirit in which debate has been conducted. He stated that we are only 15 minutes late and announced that the afternoon session would begin at 2:15 instead of two o'clock.

195. The benediction for the Wednesday morning session was pronounced by Wayne Dehart, Hickory.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

196. The organ prelude was presented by James Reich, Monroe.

197. The Convention was called to order by President Lawrence.

198. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing, “Praise to the Lord!” (Hyfrydol).

199. Ronald Alexander, Mars Hill, sang “But Still He Loved Me” (Wyatt).

200. Mrs. F. O. Mixon, Professor of Bible at Chowan College, Murfreesboro, read Philippians 1:9-10 and spoke concerning our youth in relation to the theme of this Convention, “His Love . . . Our Hope.” Our youth are the products of our own homes and of the world order which we have fashioned. The vast majority of our youth are not radicals, but they are passionate, passionate about war, discrimination, and love. They want to change the world, but all of us who have a Christian perspective should want that too. We must teach them how to think more than what to think. Even God does not coerce the free will of man. They cannot fully realize their God-given potential unless they have at least the possibility of stumbling too. We must reason with them, yes, but we must listen to them and love them.

201. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Seal Us, O Holy Spirit."

202. President Lawrence read fraternal greetings from Baptist State Conventions in Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Louisiana, Kentucky, Arizona, Mississippi. [Note: Similar messages arrived later from the Tennessee Baptist Convention and the Hawaii Baptist Convention.—LBJ.] He announced the critical illness of Leslie H. Campbell, Buies Creek.

203. Ernest P. Russell, Concord, moved that a message of love be sent to Leslie H. Campbell. It was seconded and carried.

204. V. E. Duncan, Louisburg, was recognized since he attended his first Baptist State Convention in North Carolina in 1897.

205. President Lawrence called attention to the fact that today is Veterans' Day, and asked the convention to join him in a moment of silent prayer for our nation and those who serve it.

206. Robert Stewart, Greensboro, announced that there are now 2,488 registered messengers, 363 visitors for a total of 2,851. [Note: This was the final report of this committee—LJB.]

207. Michael L. Speer, Director of Stewardship Development, Stewardship Commission, Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville, Tennessee, presented to President Lawrence a gavel made from olive wood in Jerusalem, being sent through the Foreign Mission Board, and then the Stewardship Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. He pointed out that this represents essentially the reverse order from that channel through which Cooperative Program money goes out into the world.

208. First Vice-President Freeman, Dunn, presiding, introduced G. Willis Bennett of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

209. G. Willis Bennett, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, introduced Elmo B. Scoggin and Thomas A. Bland, representing Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and then spoke on the subject of theological education. He spoke concerning the complex issues of today's theological world and the special characteristics of today's student generation. He commented upon three new dimensions of seminary development in the seventies: (1) the new Doctor of Ministries degree now being discussed by the American Association of Theological Schools and by our own six seminaries; (2) "action training" which trains a man to think and preach and live as a man who understands his world and is in touch with its needs; and (3) a stronger emphasis on continuing theological education to help men in the midst of busy careers to re-sharpen their tools and multiply their effectiveness.

210. R. F. Smith, Jr., Durham, President of the Council on Christian Education, presented the following resolution:

Whereas Robert N. Sims, First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina was called from this life to be with God on November 11, 1970.

Whereas Robert N. Sims had throughout his lifetime faithfully served God and had given himself selflessly to the causes of his denomination, particularly the Council on Christian Higher Education, having recently completed a term of service as President, and

Whereas the counsel and service of this outstanding lawyer and Christian layman will be sorely missed,

Be IT RESOLVED the North Carolina Baptist State Convention in session at Greensboro, North Carolina does hereby convey its sympathy to the wife and family of Robert N. Sims and gives prayerful thanks to God for his life.

211. J. Boyce Brooks, Boone, made a motion that the rules be suspended and this resolution be now approved. This was seconded and carried by a standing vote.

212. Budd E. Smith, Wingate, introduced a Student Panel entitled "This Is How It Is. . . ." It was presented by David B. Smith, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Thurman Roundtree, Shaw University, Sheeley G. Coley, Jr., Wingate College, Miss Patsy Johnson, Meredith College, Tony Lyerly, Campbell College, Miss Penny Smallwood, Appalachian State University, and Miss Clara Henley, Appalachian State University. Tony Lyerly expressed appreciation for the personal interest which his teachers at Campbell College have shown toward him as a person. Miss Patsy Johnson spoke concerning the burning desire of the student generation for building a better world and for a freedom which will make this possible in the church and in every other part of "The Establishment." Sheeley G. Coley, Jr., stressed the desire of his professors to help students, especially in the broadening of the education of the average student. Thurman Roundtree said that the problems of radicalism among the young have been caused by a loss of morality on the part of the church, morality interpreted not in terms of protecting property rights and raising big money but in terms of actually treating every man as a brother. David B. Smith said we have been too busy "telling it like it is" (when we should have been "hearing it like it is") to really find out what others are trying to say to us, including what God is saying, when we should have been "living it like it is" in every situation in life. Miss Clara Henley gave a personal testimony showing how several great tragedies in her life have brought her to a renewal of her faith in God, and showing the great value of the Baptist Student Union. Miss Penny Smallwood stressed the need for "aggressive love" of which President Lawrence spoke in the opening session. She questioned whether we are really doing anything about it and expressed the hope that we really will—and that we won't get fired by our churches for doing it. Miss Patsy Johnson concluded the Student Panel by singing, "Here Is My Life" (Bartlette).

213. J. Marse Grant, Raleigh, Editor of the Biblical Recorder, called attention to the report of the Directors of the Biblical Recorder, as found on pages 194-196 of the Annual, but said the real report comes to us through the mail once a week. He called attention to the recent promotion of Toby Druin to the position of Associate Editor. He spoke concerning current political issues and called upon the Convention to use its influence as strongly as possible in the moral issues which will be faced in the next legislature.

214. C. Gordon Maddrey, Raleigh, Director of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation, called attention to the report of the Foundation as found on pages 196-197 of the Annual, and spoke concerning the importance of the Foundation.

215. Allen Burris, Raleigh, Chairman of the Historical Committee, read the report of the committee, as found on pages 198-199 of the Annual. Other members of the Historical Committee are: M. A. Huggins, Raleigh, Leslie Campbell, Raleigh; Henry B. Anderson, Durham, B. E. White, Durham; Robert Rowe, Marion; Mrs. J. W. Moffit, High Point; David Hadley, Winston-Salem; James Blackmore, Wake Forest; Mrs. Sam Gaddy, Wingate; J. A. McLeod, Mars Hill and David Smiley, Winston-Salem.

216. Joe S. Lennon, Aberdeen, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, presented the following nominations in addition to their previous report [see Item 25 above]:

COMMITTEE ON CONVENTION PROGRAM: Miss Elizabeth Campbell, Lenoir; Mrs. Charles Q. Carter, Cherryville; Russell T. Cherry, Lumberton; Robert F. Dills, Ahoskie; James L. Pharr, High Point; Gordon Pope, China Grove; Otto K. Pridgen, Wilmington; Cecil Sherman, Asheville; Frank R. Campbell, Statesville, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS: Wade Hughey, Marshall; Vernon McDaniel, Salisbury; William C. McKinney, Lawndale; John H. Vernon, Jr., Burlington; Raymond H. White, High Point, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON PLACE AND PREACHER: Mrs. R. Homer Andrews, Burlington; Alden Angline, Asheville; J. Ned Beatty, Jacksonville; Mrs. R. Knolan Benfield, Morganton; E. Glenn Holt, Fayetteville; Ben Parker, Pine Level; L. Thad Prevatte, Rich Square; Fred Sandusky, Wake Forest; Joe Burnette, Charlotte, Chairman.

HISTORICAL COMMITTEE: Mrs. Norfleet Gardner, Henderson; Charles L. Paul, Murfreesboro; James D. Sistrunk, Buies Creek; Henry E. Walden, Jr., Lumberton; James H. Blackmore, Wake Forest, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS: Johnny P. Green, Burlington; James E. Langford, Canton; Mrs. A. Leroy Parker, Greensboro; Malbert Smith, Jr., Durham; Thomas C. Womble, Clemmons; Billy T. Mobley, Ahoskie, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON TRUSTEE ORIENTATION: J. Thurman Lewis, Boiling Springs; William A. Poole, Winston-Salem; E. Bruce Heilman, Raleigh, Chairman.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE: Fred Gray, Gastonia; Charles Melton, Spindale; Hubert S. Mumford, Durham; Virgil McBride, Winston-Salem; Claude O'Shields, Wilmington; J. Marse Grant, Raleigh, Chairman.

There being no further nominations from the floor, Gerald Primm, Greensboro, made a motion that these nominees be elected by acclamation. The motion was seconded and carried. [Other members of the Committee on Committees are listed in Item 24 above.]

217. J. Boyce Brooks, Boone, Chairman of the Committee on Place and Preacher, made a motion that Raleigh be the site for the 1974 Convention (it having already been decided a year ago that the Convention will meet in Charlotte in 1971, in Winston-Salem in 1972, and in Asheville in 1973), and that the preacher for the 1971 Convention be James DeLoach, Charlotte with A. B. Bumgarner, Spindale as the alternate. The motion was seconded and carried. Other members of the Committee are: Clyde A. Bearden, Charlotte; Wade McKnight, Lowell; Mrs. C. Gordon Maddrey, Raleigh; W. Foy Martin, Winston-Salem; Dillard A. Mynatte, Forest City; Purnell Swett, Rowland; B. C. Tschudy, Lenoir and Clyde H. Tucker, High Point.

218. R. F. Smith, Jr., Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, presented the following nominations in addition to the previous report of the committee [see Items 55 and 56 above]: For an unexpired term on the General Board from New River Association, expiring 1972, J. N. Beatty, Jacksonville. Additional Trustees for Chowan College:

4 Year — Charlie Whitley, Winston-Salem; Robert C. White, Windsor.

3 Year — Urbin Rogers, Williamston; E. T. Vinson, Scotland Neck. Neck.

2 Year — Joe E. Eagles, Macclesfield; Grover E. Howell, Weldon.

1 Year — Philip P. Godwin, Gatesville; J. J. Harrington, Lewiston.

Additional Trustees for Gardner-Webb College:

4 Year — Henderson Belk, Charlotte; Dr. C. H. Harrill, Lincolnton.

3 Year — Garrie Kendrick, Mount Holly; Mrs. J. C. Hames, Cliffside.

2 Year — Dr. Grady Wilson, Charlotte; Ralph Spangler, Lawndale.

1 Year — Tom C. Wilson, Winston-Salem; Mrs. L. P. Frans, Hickory.

R. F. Smith, Jr., moved that these be elected. It was seconded and carried.

219. J. Wilson Harmon, Waco, Chairman of the Committee on Memorials, presented the report of the committee, as found on page 197 of the Annual. He moved that the 1970 Annual be dedicated to the memory of W. C. Reed, T. L. Sasser, Miss Sallie McCracken, Horace Eason and Johnson J. Hayes. The motion was seconded. Other members of the Committee on Memorials are: Mrs. D. B. Andrews, Chalybeate Springs; W. W. Leathers, Henderson; Charles Neal, High Point; and W. Gattis Perry, Durham.

220. L. D. Holt, Raleigh, moved to amend the motion to add the name of Robert M. Sims. It was seconded and carried.

221. W. K. McGee, Winston-Salem, moved to amend the motion by adding the name of Robert Lee Humber. It was seconded and carried. The motion of J. Wilson Harmon, as amended, was carried.

222. President Lawrence announced that word has come that A. Paul Rogers, Sr., Tabor City, a Director of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation and father of Bill Rogers, the pastor of Ridge Road Baptist Church of Raleigh, has suffered a heart attack. He asked the Convention to remember him in prayer.

223. President Lawrence led the Convention in singing, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," and declared that the 140th Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention was adjourned.

REPORT
GENERAL BOARD
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA

Including Reports of Institutions and Agencies of the Convention, Reports of Standing Committees, and the Report of the Woman's Missionary Union.

TO THE

ONE-HUNDRED FORTIETH ANNUAL SESSION
WAR MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM
GREENSBORO
November 9-11, 1970

I. FOREWORD

The year of 1970 has been a very busy one for our Baptist churches. During the spring months, our staff worked hard to help prepare our leadership for the changes in literature and organizations in the local churches. These changes became effective October 1, 1970. We believe these changes will strengthen the leadership as they seek to teach and develop the membership of our churches in vital Christian living for the decade of the 1970's.

The year has been a time of slow-down in our economy. This has been a nationwide effort to slow the rising cost of living and prevent a run-a-way inflation. Actually, North Carolina Baptists have not been affected as much as some parts of our country. Most of our industrial plants have remained in full operation. Salaries have increased moderately. At the time of this writing we are 3.26 percent ahead of last year in Cooperative Program receipts and 1.07 percent ahead in special offerings. We hope Cooperative Program receipts will move between 4 and 5 percent increase for the year. Surely North Carolina Baptists should look at their blessings, and remember to be good stewards.

We notice that many of our churches have greatly increased local budgets, and have increased staff salaries and provided money for local needs. We are always happy to see these increases and we are anxious to help every local church achieve its stewardship goal. We urge you to remember that the cost of living vitally affects our state mission staff and all of home and foreign missionaries. Please increase your gifts to associational missions and the Cooperative Program in proportion as you increase local expense.

We are thrilled by the reports from our state mission staff about their work this year. Over ten thousand church leaders will have attended conferences and retreats at our summer assembly at Caswell. Two thousand girls and fifteen hundred boys will have attended camps at Mundo Vista and Camp CaRAway. We have had above 180 students at Fruitland Bible Institute each quarter. Several hundred others attended leadership conferences at Fruitland, Truett Camp, and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

We have provided information and help for a Youth Program for any church that needs help in this field. Several hundred young people were used during the summer in the Baptist Youth Corps, Vacation Bible School work, Resort Missions and as counselors in camps and assemblies. Plans are being made to increase the summer program that uses college age young people.

Many of our churches are making excellent plans for the future, and have an excellent program of teaching, training and outreach in their communities. Many of these churches have an excellent program with their youth, providing seminars, youth activities, choirs and involvement of their youth in all of the work of their church.

However, many churches have not adequately faced the needs of their own church and community. Few young people attend these churches. Because they have no vital program of their own, they are the easy target of every religious racketeer that comes along. Soon they become critical of our Baptist work, and begin to question the fellowship they have enjoyed as Baptists.

Almost every week I get some letter asking, "Is it true that the Cooperative Program supports this or that radical cause?" It is always a joy to report, "no," to these questions. Ours is a world mission program that seeks to lead men to a personal commitment to Christ and His way of life. We urge our churches to join us in a real advance in giving to all of these causes through our Cooperative Program.

We hope you will read carefully and consider thoroughly the report of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, and especially the recommendation that our entire convention join in for a two-year emphasis on the family. Perhaps the greatest tragedy among us is the crisis now facing family life in America. Our churches must rally to help meet this crisis in every way possible.

We believe our seven Baptist colleges are making excellent progress. They have all been in building programs, and have stabilized their financial situation. More and more they give evidence that they want to be a part of our Baptist family in North Carolina. Most of them are involving the Baptist people in their area in the work of their school. I believe these schools are worthy of your concern, your prayers and your financial support.

The Baptist Homes have had a good year, with a challenge gift and an increase in special offerings. You will enjoy reading their report.

The Hospital continues to have financial problems, as they seek an answer to the many who need medical care, but cannot pay for it. They have reorganized their financial office, and are trying to find additional resources for their operating needs. They will soon begin a campaign to raise additional funds for capital improvements. We are grateful for the very excellent medical care furnished us through our Baptist Hospital and medical center.

Our Children's Homes report will reveal many areas of advance including a new home for "unwed mothers," in Asheville, and the beginning of a new center near Waynesville. Our Baptist Children's Homes operation is one of the best in the nation. They deserve your full support.

I believe our Baptist work in North Carolina is in a healthy condition. This is certainly no time to rest on our laurels. These are difficult and confusing days in which we live. So many people are pessimistic and uncertain about the future. Surely this is the time to proclaim the good news of the Gospel of redemption and love. I am grateful for the privilege of serving my Lord in the fellowship of North Carolina Baptists, and I will continue to do my best in His work.

W. PERRY CROUCH

II. GENERAL BOARD REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

JAMES CAMMACK

Your General Board has held three meetings during the year and the Executive Committee has held eight meetings. The first one was held in Raleigh, January 23, 1970. At that time the various committees elected their chairmen, and the chairmen became members of the Executive Committee of the Board. In addition, five members-at-large were elected by the Board. The full committee is listed below:

James Cammack, President of the General Board

Woodrow Hill, Vice President, General Board

John Lawrence, Convention President

Tom Freeman, Convention First Vice President

Carlos Young, Convention Second Vice President

R. F. Smith, Chairman, Christian Higher Education Committee

Ed Brandon, Chairman, Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee

Dewey Hobbs, Chairman, Church Programs Committee

Ernest Holt, Chairman Evangelism Committee

James Pharr, Chairman, Missions Committee

Rev. John Worth Long, Chairman, Social Services Committee

(Mr. Long has moved out of his association and has been replaced on the Executive Committee by the Reverend Amis Daniel)

W. A. Huneycutt, Chairman, Stewardship Committee

Billy Cline, Member-at-large

Charles Cranford, Member-at-large

W. A. Johnson, Member at-large

Marion Powell, Member-at-large

At the January meeting Mr. Leon Spencer, Business Manager, reported a total of $6,691,949.77 had been received in 1969 in undesignated Cooperative Program receipts, and an additional $4,119,468.20 for designated special objects or a total of $10,811,417.97. This was 8.13 percent increase over the year before in Cooperative Program receipts. Our churches reported a total of $78,237,859.00 received for their total work. This means that only 13.8 was actually received for mission work beyond the local church or association. We hope our churches will take a new look at this small percentage for our great worldwide Baptist program, and increase the percentage for these causes.

Our attention was called to many retired ministers or widows who were receiving less than $25.00 per month from their Annuities. It was recommended that we use income from some reserve funds now invested with the Baptist Foundation to increase all those receiving less than $25.00 per month to this figure. This has now been completed, and increased checks have been received by these aging servants of our Lord.

Our attention was called to the crowded condition in our Baptist Building and the need for more office space and more parking space around the Baptist Building. The Board authorized the appointment of a Long-range Planning Committee to study present and future needs and report back to the Board. A recommendation from this committee is included in our recommendations.

Your Executive Committee and General Board have watched the national economy with interest and concern. There has been a slow-down in the national economy, and a growing fear has gripped some of our people. Savings accounts have increased, even though retail sales have leveled off to some extent.

However, North Carolina has been particularly blessed by a steady economy. Most of our industrial plants have continued to operate at capacity. This has been reflected in our Cooperative Program receipts which are now above the SBC average. We would urge our people to continue to be good stewards of their material blessings.

This has been a very busy year for our General Board staff, as they have sought to help our churches understand the changes in literature, and organizational structure. It is our opinion that our churches have rallied to the suggested changes, and will face a new decade with confidence and courage. We are pleased by the reports from our excellent General Board staff and the institutions and agencies of our Convention.

The Balance of this report will be given in five sections as follows:

I. PROMOTIONAL EMPHASES

1. Stewardship Promotion

During the year, Ottis Hagler resigned as Director of the Division of Stewardship Promotion because of disability. He has worked on the staff of the Convention for 16 years, and will be sorely missed.

It was decided to not replace Mr. Hagler immediately, but to ask Dr. Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer, to serve as acting Director for the immediate future.

The work of the Division has been carried on by Tom Greene, Harold White, Guy Cain, Jimmy Morriss, and Cleve Wilkie.

Recently W. L. Boatwright has been employed for half-time in this division. He was formerly with the Foreign Mission Board, but will now be working on a Master's Degree in Mass Communication at Chapel Hill.

Staff Members continue to carry on a vigorous program of stewardship development, promotion of the Cooperative Program, promotion of hospital, retirement program, and radio-TV visual aids of all kinds.

2. Church Programs

Ten departments of work in the Division of Church Programs are constantly seeking to serve the needs of our churches. Their full report occurs elsewhere in the advance report.

Statistics and Survey was moved from Church Programs to Administration during the year. This department keeps Convention records, mailing lists, and all statistics. The Secretary, Ted Williams, co-edits the news letter to pastors along with the General Secretary. He also is responsible for the Diary and the Convention Annual.

We believe the Division of Church Programs, through its ten departments of work, is doing an excellent job of giving help and guidance to the churches of our Convention.

3. Evangelism

January 1, 1970, marked the beginning of the Leadership of the Reverend W. C. Lamb as Director of the Division of Evangelism of the Baptist State Convention. During the year he has proven his leadership ability in the Annual Evangelistic Conference in February, many associational clinics and conferences and the Evangelism Research Seminar held at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, October 5-6, 1970.

This is a Division of emphasis that seeks to permeate every area of our work with the spirit of evangelism. He works in close harmony with all of our General Board staff in this endeavor.

4. Division of Missions

All phases of the General Board program are a part of State Missions. However, we have one division that works especially with projects the local churches cannot handle, such as work with our deaf people, in our military centers, with the Indians, and cooperative programs with our Negro Baptists. Of course, this Division helps start new churches, and helps with the purchase of church lots in new areas. They help about three fourths of the associations with the salary of the Superintendents of Missions, and make small loans to mission churches seeking a new building.

Recently our enlarged program of work in resort areas has been promoted, and several cities and associations have been helped with family problems such as children in trouble with the law and alcohol and drug problems.

Our new Secretary of the Department of Chaplaincy Ministries, Chaplain (Col.) Joe Watterson, began his work May 1, 1970, and is busy working with military chaplains, chaplains in correctional institutions and chaplains in hospitals and industry.

Other phases of the work of missions is explained in the report of the Division in your book of reports.

Dr. Howard Ford serves as Director of this Division and he directs the work of an excellent staff.

5. The Division of Christian Life and Public Affairs

Because of the urgent need to raise General Board Staff members' salary, and because the economy has leveled off this year, it seemed wise to not seek a full-time Director for this Division at this time. The Council will continue to hold at least two meetings during the year, and an executive committee has been named to carry on the work between sessions of the Council. The General Secretary serves as acting Director of this Division and a layman, Mr. Ed Brandon, serves as chairman. You will hear their report presented Wednesday morning.

6. The Council on Christian Social Service

The General Secretary serves as Director of the Council. Members of the General Board serve on a committee for the Children's Homes, the Baptist Hospital and the Baptist Homes for the Aging. These committees meet with their respective institutions at least once per year, and then meet in joint session to prepare a report for the General Board. The greatest value is to help the General Board understand the work of the Social Service Institutions.

7. The Council on Christian Higher Education

The biggest news of the Council this year is the resignation of Dr. Benjamin Fisher, former Executive Secretary of the Council, to accept the place as Executive Secretary of the Education Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. The chairman of the Council will make the report of the Council later.

II. REQUESTS FROM INSTITUTIONS

In January we received a request from the Baptist Hospital that they be allowed to conduct a state-wide six million dollar campaign among individual Baptists, foundations, etc. The purpose of this campaign is to provide funds for the completion of the present hospital expansion program. A recommendation concerning this matter is included with the other recommendation to the Convention.

The Hospital has asked the privilege of borrowing $8,500,000.00, including $1,500,000.00 already approved by the Convention. The Bowman Gray School of Medicine, which works closely with the Hospital, has asked the privilege of borrowing $2,000,000.00 for the same expansion program. This makes a total of $10,500,000.00 for the expansion of the medical center. A recommendation is included in our list of recommendations to you.

In January we received a request that the Baptist Homes be allowed to accept Medicaid for needy residents who now require nursing care. Your General Board believes this was within the provision "for services rendered" as provided in our Constitution and the request was granted.

In March, Mars Hill College requested of the Executive Committee the privilege of participating in Title I of the Higher Education Act of 1965. The purpose of the grant was listed as follows:

1. "To give immediate manpower assistance, through the work of students, to agencies concerned with economic and social development.
2. "To provide constructive service opportunities for students seeking to participate in the solution of social and economic problems.
3. "To encourage young people to consider careers and citizen leadership in programs of development and to provide a pool of trained personnel for recruitment by sponsoring agencies.

4. "To give students in the social sciences and related studies a more relevant and meaningful education in the complexities of resource development.
5. "To provide additional avenues of communication between Mars Hill College and programs of social and economic development by making the resources of the college more accessible to the community and providing a means for keeping curriculum, teaching and research relevant to community needs."

In keeping with the Convention action in 1969, as contained in the recommendation of the Committee of 20, a small committee of the Executive Committee was appointed to make a thorough study of this request.

In the June meeting of the Executive Committee, Dr. John Lewis, Chairman of this "Committee on Services Rendered" studied the Mars Hill Request, and reported that his committee had made a careful study of the matter and found that the college must provide at least one third of the cost. He also pointed out that the program serves the community and the college, but was not designed for the college to make a profit. He also pointed out that no Cooperative Program funds or operating funds would be used in the project. In view of this report, the Executive Committee recommended and, the General Board approved, the participation of Mars Hill in the project.

During the year, a new agreement with the Cherokee Baptist Church was signed. This agreement provides that the pastor be considered a staff member of the Baptist State Convention, and the Cherokee Church would pay a definite agreed upon amount towards the salary. The pastor would also be Director of the Child Care Program, provided by the Baptist State Convention and the Home Mission Board. Roy Cantrell has become pastor of the church under this new agreement.

Chowan College has asked permission to change the Charter to allow an increase in the number of trustees. A recommendation is included concerning this item.

Gardner-Webb has made the same request and a similar recommendation for them is included.

Campbell College has requested the privilege of borrowing $1,900,000.00 for a dormitory complex to allow four buildings now used as boys' dormitories to be remodeled into classrooms, offices for professors, and administrative use. This will not increase the number of rooms for dormitory use. We recommend to you that this request be granted.

Fruitland Bible Institute, an institution of our State Mission Program, was instructed to renovate the east wing of the Sullinger Dormitory. This renovation was completed about the first of September at an approximate cost of $50,000.00. Money for this project was available from accumulation of State Mission offerings.

The Council on Christian Education reported that the seven Baptist college presidents had agreed to a new formula for the distribution of funds to the colleges. The Executive Committee recommended this formula and the General Board approved it. It now becomes a part of the General Board's recommendation to you. The formula of distribution is as follows:

Formula for Distribution of Cooperative Program Funds to North Carolina Baptist Colleges

1971	Campbell	16.40 percent
	Chowan	10.00 percent
	Gardner-Webb	10.50 percent
	Mars Hill	14.20 percent
	Meredith	14.20 percent
	Wake Forest	24.30 percent
	Wingate	10.40 percent
1972	Campbell	16.20 percent
	Chowan	10.00 percent
	Gardner-Webb	11.10 percent
	Mars Hill	14.05 percent
	Meredith	14.05 percent
	Wake Forest	25.30 percent
	Wingate	10.30 percent
1973	Campbell	16.00 percent
	Chowan	10.00 percent
	Gardner-Webb	11.70 percent
	Mars Hill	13.90 percent
	Meredith	13.90 percent
	Wake Forest	24.30 percent
	Wingate	10.20 percent

III. PERSONNEL CHANGES

In an organization the size of the General Board staff, personnel changes occur often. Despite the fact that 12 people have been employed for permanent positions during this past year, only one of these was a new position. All the other were to fill vacancies created by the resignation of staff members to take other positions, return to school, for retirement, or for family reasons.

These changes are listed below:

Resignations — Field Staff

Mr. Richard Brown, Associate, S. S. Dept.

Mr. Ottis Hagler, Director Stewardship Division

Mr. Gerald Edwards, Director of Gaston Association Christian Social Ministries

Miss Phyllis Ragan, Cherokee Child Care Center

Dr. Benjamin Fisher, Director of Christian Higher Education Division

Resignations, Office Staff

Mrs. Doris Salter
Mrs. Susan Cochran
Mrs. Kay Grimmer
Mrs. Joan Bullard
Mrs. Peggy Tucker
Mrs. Catharine Watts
Mrs. Jackie Craycroft
Mrs. Pat Grose

Employed — Field Staff

Mr. Harry Clarke, Associate, S.S. Dept.
Chaplain Joe Watterson, Chaplaincy Ministries
Mr. Roy Cantrell, pastor, Cherokee Baptist Ch.
Mr. Tom Collins, Associate, Brotherhood Dept.
Mr. Roy Bowen, Associate, Student Dept.

Employed, Office Staff

Miss Pamela Allsbrook
Mrs. Diane Wagner
Mrs. Mary Frances Head
Mrs. Larry Wakefield
Mrs. Judy Holder
Mrs. Avenelle King
Miss Maxine Bumgarner

IV. FINANCIAL MATTERS

This information appears in the report of the business manager.

V. OUR BUDGET FOR 1970

We have already mentioned the desperate need to increase staff salaries this year. The Executive Committee made a careful study of this need and recommended a three-year salary scale for all of the staff. These increases are reflected in the budget we present to you.

The rising cost of materials and labor is also reflected in our budget which is only a five percent increase over 1970, amounting to $7,350,000.00. However, we urge our people to set a goal of at least $7,500,000.00 for next year.

During the year we sent $5,000.00 to the Home Mission Board to help with a bond problem in the Kansas Convention. In September we sent $1,000.00 to Texas to help with the storm damaged area near Corpus Christi. We have not had any serious or major storms or problems in our Convention during this year. We are grateful for the fine response of our people, and we believe we should do greater things for our Lord next year.

Now we are happy to present the Reverend R. F. Smith, Chairman of the Council on Christian Higher Education, who will present the report for the Council. Following his report we will consider the recommendations of the General Board one at a time.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We recommend an operating budget of $7,350,000.00 for 1971, with the following guidelines:

- a. 33.34 percent to Southwide objects
- b. 25.6 percent for Christian Higher Education
- c. 11.6 percent to Social Service Institutions
- d. 29.46 percent for State Missions
- e. All overage beyond $7,350,000.00 in Cooperative Program funds to be divided on the same percentage as that of the basic budget.
- f. Set a goal of $7,500,000.00 for Cooperative Program receipts for 1971.

2. We recommend that the Baptist Hospital, and Wake Forest University Inc., be allowed to borrow 8.5 and 2 million dollars respectively to take care of a current working capital. Said loan to be repaid over a period of ten years.

3. We recommend that Campbell College be allowed to borrow $1,900,000.00 from the Federal Housing Urban Development Agency, at three percent interest. The loan to be repaid over a period of fifty years.

4. We recommend that Chowan College be allowed to change its charter to allow the Board of Trustees of the College to be enlarged from 28 to 36.

5. We recommend that Gardner-Webb College be allowed to change its charter to allow the Board of Trustees of the College to be enlarged from 28 to 36.

6. We recommend that the Executive Committee be given authority to negotiate the purchase of additional property near the Baptist Building, not to exceed $300,000.00 in cost.

We also recommend that the Executive Secretary-Treasurer be empowered to borrow the amount necessary for such purchase, not to exceed $300,000.00.

7. We recommend the following changes to the Constitution:

PROPOSED CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS CHANGES1. ARTICLE VII OF THE CONSTITUTION

Delete: "The Convention shall have three trustees who shall serve for one year and . . ."

Delete (3).

14. ARTICLE IV, SECTION B, NUMBER 4g OF THE BY-LAWS

Change "g" to "Committee on Christian Life and Public Affairs," and insert the following:

(1) "Function: To work with the entire Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs."

(2) "To recommend to the Budget Committee an annual budget for the Council." "g" then becomes "h."

15. ARTICLE V, SECTION B OF THE BY-LAWS

Add: "Executive" before the word "Secretary" in the heading of "B"

The present paragraph shall become number "1."

Change from: "the General Board shall elect . . ." (line 3)

To: "The Executive Committee shall elect . . ."

Add the following: "2. Duties and responsibilities of the Executive Secretary of the Council.

"a. He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Higher Education, to the General Secretary-Treasurer, and to the General Board, and shall work in co-operation with all Divisions and Departments in an effort to secure full support for the Convention's program of higher education.

"b. He shall, in co-operation with the Business Manager and Comptroller of the General Board, work toward promoting a uniform method of bookkeeping for all institutions of higher education in an effort to understand and interpret all their budget needs.

"c. He shall work towards correlating the programs of the several educational institutions and securing their co-operation, and shall formulate plans for promoting an interest in and support of Christian Higher Education."

16. ARTICLE V, SECTION C OF THE BY-LAWS (LINE 3)

Add the word "Executive" before the word "Secretary."

17. ARTICLE VI, SECTION B & C OF BY-LAWS

Add: "Executive" before the word "Secretary" in the heading of "B."

Delete the present paragraph under "B."

Then add the following:

B. Executive Secretary

1. "The Council on Christian Social Services in co-operation with the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention shall nominate, and the Executive Committee shall elect, an Executive Secretary. The General Secretary-Treasurer will serve as acting Executive Secretary of the Council until the position is filled or when a vacancy may occur.

"2. Duties and Responsibilities of the Executive Secretary of the Council. He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Social Services, to the General Secretary-Treasurer, and to the General Board, and shall co-operate with all the Divisions and Departments in order to create a better understanding of all the problems involved in providing for the needs of these social service institutions.

Under Line 1, Section C, change the word "twice" to "once."

18. ARTICLE VII, SECTION B, NUMBER 1 (LINE 3)

Following "Executive Committee" add the words, "of the General Board."

Following 3, add 4 as follows:

"4. The Council shall have an Executive Committee with authority to carry on the work of the Council between regular sessions. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the Executive Secretary of the Council, the Chairman of the Council, and three members-at-large elected by the Council."

19. ARTICLE VII, C OF THE BY-LAWS

Change Section "C" to Section "E"

On line "3" of Section "C" add; "Of the General Board."

On line "6" of Section "C," beginning with the word, "acting . . ." delete the remaining part of this sentence, and add the following: "Chairman and Executive Secretary of the Council when conditions warrant it."

20. ARTICLE VII, E OF THE BY-LAWS

Line 3 of Section "E," beginning with the word "elect," delete the remaining part of this section.

Line 3, Section "E" beginning with the word "Committee," add the following: "of the General Board shall elect an Executive Secretary and other personnel, as needed. The General Secretary-Treasurer will serve as acting Executive Secretary of the Council until the position is filled or when a vacancy may occur."

This paragraph then becomes number "1" and the following should be added:

"2. Duties and Responsibilities of the Executive Secretary of the Council. He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, to the General Board, and shall cooperate with all the Divisions and Departments in order to create a better understanding of all the problems involved in providing this Christian ministry."

At the conclusion of Article VII insert Article VIII to read as follows:

"ARTICLE VIII, THE DISMISSAL OF TRUSTEES OF INSTITUTIONS OR AGENCIES"

"In the event that it should become necessary for the Convention to consider removal of a trustee, it shall be done in the following manner:

1. "The Convention will automatically refer the matter to the Executive Committee of the General Board for consideration and action.

2. "The Executive Committee will first seek to solve the problem through the regular elected Board of Trustees.

3. "If it becomes necessary for the Executive Committee to act in behalf of the Convention, the trustee in question shall have charges presented to him in writing, given adequate time for reply, and be allowed counsel. . . .

4. "The Executive Committee will report its action in full to the General Board subject to the approval of the Convention in its next annual session."

ARTICLE VIII SHALL BECOME ARTICLE IX.

8. We recommend that the request of Mars Hill College to continue participation in Title III Program and to initiate the Upward Bound Program be granted.

VI. RECOMMENDATIONS

I. Recommendation Concerning Proposed Cooperative Program Budget for 1971

The Executive Committee appointed a Budget Committee in the June meeting, and they began their work promptly. Every effort was made to hear any and all representatives of agencies, institutions or the General Board program who wanted to discuss their needs.

This committee carefully reviewed the anticipated receipts for 1970 and prayed for guidance as goals were set for 1971.

Upon the recommendation of the Budget Committee, the Executive Committee, and the General Board we now present to you for your consideration the proposed budget for 1971.

From anticipated income of $7,350,000 through the Cooperative Program we recommend that 33.34 per cent be allocated to the Southern Baptist Convention, 25.60 percent to Christian Higher Education, 11.60 percent to Christian Social Services (Hospital, Children's Homes, and Homes for Aging), and 29.46 percent to State Missions (General Board Programs).

An overall goal of $7,500,000 is proposed and from the income in excess of the base budget of $7,350,000 we recommend the following allocation of funds: 33.34 percent to the Southern Convention, 25.6 percent to Christian Higher Education, 11.6 percent to Christian Social Services, and 29.46 percent to State Missions (General Board Programs).

III. PROGRAMS OF WORK

A. ADMINISTRATION

1. Statistics and Survey

TED W. WILLIAMS, Secretary

The work of the department is basically the same each year. The regular responsibilities include: keeping of current mailing lists, preparing the Baptist Diary and supervising its distribution, supervising the publication and distribution of the Convention Annual, editing the Newsletter and supervising its distribution, conducting certain statistical studies, and assisting, upon invitation, churches and/or associations in planning and tabulating various types of surveys.

Close contact is maintained with the Research and Statistics Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville and with the clerks of the various associations. This cooperation results in fast and efficient gathering of data for inclusion in the Convention Annual. The department is especially grateful to the associational clerks for their spirit of cooperation.

Effort is made to constantly improve the service of the department. Mrs. Carl Lusk is the office secretary.

B. DIVISION OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

(See Auditor's Report in the back of the Annual)

C. DIVISION OF MISSIONS

HOWARD J. FORD, Director

The past year has brought encouragement and steady progress in all areas of our work. We continue to keep before us the redemption of the individual person. This compels us to be positively interested in his physical, mental, and spiritual well-being. The Division of Missions accepts present and future responsibility in full recognition of the Lordship of Christ, the authority of God's revealed truth, and the continuing presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

We are glad to report that a Department of Chaplaincy Ministries is now in operation. The General Board has approved the Reverend Joe Watterson as Department Secretary. He is now ready to serve the churches, associational leadership, and institutions in work related to the Chaplaincy.

The Division of Missions continues a working relationship with Associational Missionaries. Sixty-nine (69) associations now have either part-time or full-time Associational Missionaries or Superintendents of Missions. Your Convention assists in budget support of fifty-four (54) associational programs.

The following associations have elected new Superintendents of Missions: The Reverend Tony Brewington, Burnt Swamp; Rev. E. J. Jenkins, French Broad; Rev. Hoyle Allred, Gaston; Rev. Otis Wheelhouse, Transylvania; Rev. Aaron Tyner, Union; Rev. Austin Lovin, Pee Dee; and Rev. Ben F. Broadway, Wilmington.

Missionaries retired during the past year were Rev. John L. White of the Gaston Association and Mr. Arch Cree of the Union Association.

We were saddened by the death of one of our most capable Missionaries, Rev. William H. Spradlin, Jr., of the Wilmington Association, on January 6, 1970.

We continue to promote and correlate World Missions Conferences (Schools of Missions) in local associations. Requests for these Conferences should be made to the office of the Division of Missions two or three years before the desired date. This is necessary in order that we may coordinate the arrangements between the association, Baptist State Convention, and the Home and Foreign Mission Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention. During the past year (October, '69-September, '70) we had a total of seven (7) World Missions Conferences in the following associations: Gaston, Stanly, Bladen, Surry, Cabarrus, Montgomery, and Union.

The Convention's Church Loan Fund will continue to be operated for the small church or mission that would find it difficult to obtain commercial loans.

We are happy to report that the Reverend Roy Cantrell is now Pastor of the Cherokee Baptist Church and is also Director of the Child Care Center.

The Convention and the Home Mission Board are now working in a cooperative support of work in the Burnt Swamp Association. The Reverend Tony Brewington, a native of Pembroke and of Indian ancestry, is the new Superintendent of Missions.

A helpful work continues among Orientals in our military areas. Special summer ministries assist the churches and associations in their outreach to thousands who are temporary residents of military centers in North Carolina.

On the following pages the six departments within the Division of Missions will give their report.

1. Chaplaincy Ministries

JOSEPH V. WATTERSON, Secretary

The Chaplaincy Ministries Department is in cooperation with the Chaplaincy Commission of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and follows the same pattern, i.e. four ministry areas: military, business and industrial, institutional, hospital. We have a mailing list which is indicative of the comparative volume of Baptist work in the four areas, 23 military chaplains serving in the State, or from the State assigned about the globe; 7 in business and industry, 6 in State correctional institutions and 17 in hospitals. In addition we have four known, and many unknown chaplain retirees and National Guard and Reserve chaplains.

North Carolina Baptists are becoming more and more aware of the fruitfulness of these ministries and of the virtually boundless potential in them. This is a literal response to the message of Jesus that in the streets and lanes of the cities and in the highways and hedgerows outside the cities there are multitudes like those whom He saw as sheep without a shepherd, multitudes who cannot or will not enter the doorways of our churches unless we "Go get 'em." Pastors of industrialists, of hospital managers, of professionalists of all kinds, and of just plain Christians who love the Lord are awaking to the potential which lies in the identification of earnest, talented, specially trained chaplains with these multitudes where they work and play, where they are born, reared and married, and where they die and are buried. Chaplains represent the church, yet carry less than men of any other title the stigma of reproach which so many of the "out-there" multitudes unfortunately feel toward the church and its people. Rather, the term "Chaplain" bears the very sense of living with, sharing with, entering into the lives of others. This has been the military approach since 1745, long before the signing of the Declaration of Independence, and is now the approach with which chaplains enter into industry and business, hospitals, and correctional institutions of our State. Chaplains who enter industry are selected because of that certain quality of mind which bears upon understanding people in industry. Then they are trained to see and support in good conscience the viewpoints of industrialists and laborers, in order to be all things to both groups. So also with those who became chaplains in hospitals and in State institutions. And with the military chaplains, again, this has long been standard procedure. Prospective chaplains in all areas are carefully examined as to Christian experience, call to the ministry, call to the particular type of chaplaincy which is of special interest, educational qualifications, attitudes, and reasons for interest in the chaplaincy. Likewise the wives are questioned and both are given opportunity to ask questions. If attitudes and qualifications are otherwise good, special training is provided wherever indicated.

In the 4½ months between the opening of the Office of the Secretary for Chaplaincy Ministries and the preparation of this report the present secretary has spent six weeks in a course in the School of Pastoral Care in our Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem and three months actually on the job. In those three months he has actually conferred with 41 of the 57 chaplains on the present mailing list; has attended three group conferences of chaplains, one of these under his direction, plus chaplains conferences during Home Mission Board Week at Ridgecrest; has spoken in 5 churches, one institution, and in Fruitland Bible Institute in the State; made visits to and contacts with chaplains of other denominations within the State, resulting in establishment of liason with these for possible future development of chaplaincy spaces in both hospital and industry which may bear fruit in the near future. The Secretary works in liason with other established divisions and departments of North Carolina Baptist Convention, with the School of Pastoral Care in our Baptist Hospital, with military commanders and chaplains, and with State Prison System authorities and other institutional controllers as occasion arises.

The immediate future looks progressive on the basis of firm plans for (1) a hospital clinic for local pastors on the theme of hospital visitation, (2) a mutual pastor-chaplain conference on the theme of more effective mutual ministry to, and use of, military individuals and families, and (3) a clinic for institutional chaplains and local pastors on the matter of effective visitation in institutions. All of these are scheduled for October and November.

Following are separate reports from our six chaplains in Institutional Chaplaincy, supervised in their part-time Chaplain functions by your Secretary for Chaplaincy Ministries.

a. MCCAIN TUBERCULOSIS SANITORIUM

C. R. EDWARDS, Visiting Pastor

Visiting the patients at McCain is a real pleasure. The patients there look with eagerness to my visits and I have a feeling that I am fulfilling a vital need. My Ministry to them consists of Bible reading, Prayer and counsel as the occasion demands. Christ is made real to them and they are made to feel that the Church cares.

Many of them cannot look forward to relatives or friends from home to visit with them regularly because they are many miles from home. In fact, many of them only enjoy a seldom visit from home, if at all. Thus, my ministry serves to give them a boost morally and spiritually.

The patients wish me to express to the Baptist State Convention appreciation for this service.

b. PRISON UNIT—MCCAIN SANITORIUM

ERNEST A. STILES, Visitor

My ministry at the Prison Unit, McCain, N. C. continues to be a real challenging opportunity to fulfill the command of Christ to minister to those who are sick and in prison. My visits say to them that we are still concerned and that we care. I have found this to be a very greatly needed and fruitful opportunity of service.

Each Sunday morning we provide an opportunity of worship for all who can and will attend in a room set aside for that purpose. During the worship service we sing hymns, have prayer together, read the Scriptures and give a twenty to thirty minute message from God's word. After the service we have opportunities to talk and counsel with the men personally. Also, during the week, when the need arises, I counsel with them in the wards.

The response has been most gratifying. During the past church year nine have made profession of faith in Christ as Saviour and Lord. I have distributed to the men, upon their request, 142 copies of the scriptures (New Testaments and complete Bibles) which have been furnished to me by our W.M.U. ladies, Baptist laymen in the area, and other interested persons, including my family physician, who is a Presbyterian. Many have indicted to me their appreciation for our concern shown them, stating that the services have been a spiritual uplift to them and has helped to make their days brighter. One of the men, who was released a short while ago, came to me expressing his gratitude for my helping him by contacting his family and parole officer.

As your representative to those whom we minister, thank you for caring enough to share the good news of Jesus Christ with those who are sick and in prison.

It is good to realize as did the Apostle Paul . . . "We are labourers together with God" (I Cor. 3:9).

C. ODOM CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION

DALPHON J. THOMPSON, Visiting Representative

Each year I am able to see changes in the making. There is no better place to see change than in the prison system. The newspapers have carried many articles concerning the needs and analysis of inmates. These aspects of change cause the system and the inmates to feel an uneasiness. Truly, we see change, but I feel we are beginning to step some closer to what God has felt all along, and that is, He is concerned about people and their situation. This should be the mission at Odom. Men need someone to care for them as persons. Many do not feel the need to be concerned for inmates as persons. This is the mission of my being there.

Regular work is being conducted each week. This includes Bible Study, group encounters, and private talks. The work is not limited to inmates: the officers feel the need for better understanding. Both groups need to improve their understanding of each other. This is a needed goal with all of us there.

The State government and the Prison system of North Carolina are working on new methods which can help a person who has gone wrong. This involves parole, education, work-release, and rehabilitation. For these ideas to work, they must be understood by the church and the public. Unless we tap onto this system, the government and the prison system will fail. I would like to call upon Baptists to learn and make these things work. I believe God is laying this at our feet for us to do. Baptists need to reaffirm their interest in men who have strayed away and welcome them back home. The prodigals are waiting for us to reveal the loving Father.

d. SAMARCAND MANOR INDUSTRIAL AND VOCATIONAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

W. M. HELMS, Baptist Chaplain

At Samarcand Manor 350 to 400 North Carolina girls are being taught and trained how to make good and useful lives. For over fifty years dedicated men and women have given themselves to the task of directing guiding and leading thousands of young girls to a useful and better life.

Beginning in July of this year it has been the privilege of this Chaplain to join with others in this great ministry through the spoken word on Sunday afternoon. I wish every North Carolina Baptist could be in one of the services to see and hear these girls sing and read the Scripture. No invitation can be given because it is not in the best interest of the girls' emotional state.

As a service of Bethlehem Baptist Church, Intermediate Sunday School Quarterlies, and Upward Magazines for youth are furnished regularly for the Girls of the School. We are also using tracts. I am on call for counseling. I visit the girls if and when they enter the hospital. It is my prayer that North Carolina Baptist will continue to recognize and accept the challenge before us here in this part of God's vineyard. "For God so loved the world."

e. LEONARD TRAINING SCHOOL

REV. RICHARD HOPKINS, Baptist Visitor and Counselor

Have you time to listen? At first glance, it might seem unimportant to answer that question. Most of the boys here don't say much. They have spoken but often feel that no one hears.

Their reply to this situation has been to act out the "beef" they have with the society they know. It is the only way many of them know to express their feelings about home conditions that most of us, in middle class America, cannot believe.

It is the mission of your worker at Leonard School to hear what the boys are saying, and thus interpret the love of Christ to them.

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." Matt. 25:40

f. CAMERON MORRISON SCHOOL, HOFFMAN, N. C.

MICHAEL T. RAY, Baptist Chaplain

"The 360 boys who come to Cameron Morrison School may be fed, clothed, schooled and taught a vocation while they are here, but unless something happens 'underneath their shirt-pocket' they will return no better than when they arrived." This statement was voiced by Mr. Henry Parker, Director of Cameron Morrison School just recently.

The purpose of our work at Cameron Morrison with both staff and boys is that we trust God's Holy Spirit may work in the hearts of each person on that campus, and that decisions may be made for a commitment to Christ and His way of life.

During the past year I have had the privilege of not only proclaiming God's Word of Truth, conducting Bible Study groups, counselling with those boys who make commitments of their life to Christ and who come with spiritual problems, but to have fellowship with both boys and staff members who love the Lord Jesus. Probably our greatest influence is felt during the Vacation Bible School, when the boys are given opportunity to choose to come rather than doing nothing during their two week vacation period. This is a time of worship, Bible study and recreation. This is a time when the boys are given opportunity to express themselves without restriction.

The highlight of our 1970 Vacation Bible School was the closing Worship service when both boys and leaders were given the opportunity to say "what was on their hearts." Practically all 57 boys expressed what they had received from the Bible Study periods and the joy they had received from having two Christian ladies and two Christian men to share some Christian love and friendship with them (they starve for genuine love . . . as do we all at times). Opportunity was given to each boy to make a decision: 8 boys accepted Christ as Saviour and Lord and nine reaffirmed their faith in Christ.

The Director and staff of Cameron Morrison have expressed their appreciation to the Baptists of North Carolina for the ministry you have made possible to them and the boys in their care. May we be faithful witnesses for Christ.

2. Department of Interracial Cooperation

CORBIN L. COOPER, Secretary

North Carolina Baptists have a wide variety of attitudes toward an all inclusive ministry. They range from churches who seek enthusiastically to evangelize and witness to people of all races and cultures, to congregations who refuse to allow their pastors to make mention of the need for better race relations in the community.

The Department of Interracial Cooperation has the primary purpose of promoting more cooperation between the two Baptist State Conventions in North Carolina. The objective is to aid Southern Baptists and National Baptists in North Carolina in their efforts to reach all people with the good news of the gospel. An increase of the spread of the gospel in all parts of the world depends on loving cooperation across racial lines at home.

A record number of 63 representatives from the General Baptist State Convention attended the annual statewide Vacation Bible School clinic at Wingate College in January. These represented 17 of their 57 associations. A future goal is to invite representatives from all associations.

A new seminary extension class enrolling 35 ministers was held in Rocky Mount in March and April, 1970. Classes held at Shaw University enrolled 180 ministers. Additional classes are being planned for various areas throughout the state.

Conferences on human relations were held in April at the Blackwell Memorial Baptist Church, Elizabeth City, First Baptist Church, New Bern, and the Wilkesboro Baptist Church, Wilkesboro. The Reverend John Fleming, professor of Shaw University, Raleigh, and Dr. Henry Turlington, pastor of the University Baptist Church, Chapel Hill, assisted with these conferences. In May the department participated in a successful two day interracial conference planned and executed by leaders in the New South River Association and the Union Association. All associations have been encouraged to conduct similar type meetings, utilizing the Department of Interracial Cooperation for resource materials, assistance with program personalities and other services.

Also in May, a survey was made to determine what associations and churches within the Baptist State Convention were doing toward promoting a program of work with General Baptist churches. The responses were collected, summarized and copies were sent to all associational missionaries.

Scholarship aid was provided for 23 students at Shaw University, Fruitland Bible Institute, Hood Theological Seminary, Southeastern Seminary, Saint Augustine's College, and North Carolina Central University. This number of scholarships could not have been made available without the assistance of the Howard Memorial Christian Education Fund, Inc., Buies Creek, N. C.

During 1970 the department appointed 28 young people and adults who served as summer missionaries in a variety of positions. Four of these were sponsored by the Home Mission Board. These workers helped to conduct 55 Vacation Bible Schools throughout the state. The enrollment reached 4,817 with 100 professions of faith. In addition to this the summer workers served with Bible camps and youth groups in Asheville, Brevard, Durham, and Winston-Salem, and a week day ministry known as "Camp Amigo" in Charlotte. Total enrollment for these latter ministries reached over 400.

Those who serve with the department in addition to the Secretary are Mrs. Mary E. Washington, Office Secretary; Reverend C. C. Craig, Raleigh; Rev. J. Z. Alexander, Raleigh; Rev. Benjamin Daniels, Winston-Salem; and Mrs. Alcovia O. McCall, Asheville. In December, 1969, the Reverend Marvin Williams, Rocky Mount, resigned his position after nine years with the department, to accept a pastorate in Virginia.

3. Ministry to the Deaf

JERRY F. POTTER, Missionary

NEAL L. PEYTON, Associate

The highlight of the ministry to the deaf this year was a state-wide Vacation Bible School under the direction of Neal Peyton, Associate in the Department of Ministry to the Deaf. Under his direction, two young men—one deaf and one hearing—travelled to a number of churches and lead the Bible School programs.

Reports indicate the programs were very successful. Most of the churches also conducted meetings for the adult deaf in conjunction with the daytime Bible School programs. This was a pilot program and evaluation of the effectiveness of the program which will determine future such programs is continuing.

Camp for deaf young people was again held in conjunction with the Virginia Ministry to the deaf. Several young people from N. C. attended the conference.

The Teacher's and Interpreter's Conference was again held at Camp CaRAway. It was gratifying to see the large number of hearing people who had learned sign language in order to minister to the deaf people in their churches. Many of them are very proficient signers.

The Department of Deaf Work is participating in the planning and production of a religious sign language book being printed by the Home Mission Board. The Secretary is doing the art work—drawing approximately two hundred and fifty illustrations showing how to make the signs. This book is expected to increase the effectiveness of the ministry to the deaf in N. C. as the interpreters and teachers utilize the new signs.

We earnestly ask your prayers for the continued acceptance of the television program for the deaf, "Light Unto My Path." It is going into its eleventh year as a network program.

We also ask your prayers for us as we continue each part of the ministry. Our purpose is to win deaf people to Christ, and then provide ministries in the churches for them to meet their spiritual need.

4. City and Metropolitan Missions Department

ERNEST C. UPCHURCH, Secretary

The objective of the City and Metropolitan Missions Department is to strengthen and assist churches in extending the missionary outreach through the programs of research and special studies, church extension, Christian Social Missions, and work with non-evangelicals, sectarian and world religion.

During the year of 1970 several major achievements have been accomplished in three areas of work.

I. ASSOCIATIONAL AND URBAN CHURCH

A. An Urban Seminar has been promoted in cooperation with the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Thirty-two students were privileged to attend this Seminar, each of which prepared a paper on some phase of the Urban work of the Research Triangle area of the state. The outcome of this project was considered by all the co-sponsors as a very successful event.

B. The state-wide Metropolitan Missions Conference, held in Winston-Salem this year, was an overwhelming success. We had a representation of many churches of the state in attendance. Many of the people were so interested in the subjects discussed that they remained the full two days of the Conference. This was quite a successful event for all those who participated.

C. A Shopping Center ministry is conducted in the Raleigh North Hills area. This is a cooperative work with Southeastern Theological Seminary, Raleigh Baptist Association and the Home Mission Board.

D. Pastoral Aid—The Department has assisted 31 churches with Pastoral Assistance, in the amount of $37,058. Some statistics concerning work done through Pastoral Aid include: Sermons preached, 2,816; Other addresses, 1,313; Visits, 11,349; Number baptisms, 386; Additions by letter, 167; Conversions, 385; Restorations, 6; and Church membership, 4,340.

E. Lot Aid — The Department has assisted 16 churches with Lot Aid gifts in the amount of $33,000.

II. CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MISSIONS

A. Baptist Centers—The workers in the Baptist Centers gave the following reports of work done this year: Sermons and other talks, 179; Literature distributed, 567; Professions, 24. The Department has ministered through Mission Centers and modified Mission Centers in five cities in the state of North Carolina.

B. Youth and Family Services directors are located in four cities in the state of North Carolina, three of whom are only part-time. One other Association is considering the employment of a part-time director of Youth and Family Services. Youth and Family Services reports reveal: Sermons and addresses, 49; Conferences, 128; Court Sessions, 52; and Tracts and Bibles distributed, 28.

C. Associational Christian Social Ministries—There are four Associational Christian Social Ministries programs in our state. These are conducted in the following Associations: New South River, Gaston, Raleigh, and Pilot Mountain. Even though there are only four, we need ten in the state of North Carolina.

The Associational Christian Social Ministries program includes work in the following areas: the Church-Community Weekday activities, beginning with the preschooler and continuing through the aging; the Baptist Center Program—both in the Center and the modified Centers; the juvenile and adult delinquents, the ex-prisoner and the drug-addict.

D. Literacy—The Literacy work is designed to reach the non-reader, non-English speaking person, and the Church-tutoring program for the underachiever at school.

E. Migrant—The migrant missions program is centered in the eastern and western part of the state. This is a spiritual ministry for the agricultural migrant who works through our state each year.

F. Disaster Relief—This is another phase of Christian Social Ministries designed to assist in emergency situations within our state.

III. WORK AMONG NON-EVANGELICALS, SECTARIAN AND WORLD RELIGIONS

Assistance here is rendered to churches and associations in focusing ministries to people of other faiths and international students families. Some of our colleges in the state of North Carolina have hundreds of international students that are waiting for some Christian to share their experience with them. We appreciate what many of our churches are doing related to this work, and hope that others will do likewise.

IV. THE FIELD STAFF MEMBERS OF THE CITY AND METROPOLITAN MISSIONS DEPARTMENT

Full-time employees: Rev. and Mrs. Roy L. Hood, Raleigh Baptist Association, Raleigh, Director Christian Social Ministries; Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Southard, Dan Valley Baptist Center, Eden; Rev. and Mrs. George Shore, Director Christian Social Ministries, Winston-Salem; Rev. Boyce Kimball, Director Youth and Family Services, Durham; Mrs. Jerry Strickland, interim Director Gaston Baptist Center, Gastonia.

Part-time employees: Rev. E. J. Barbour, Jr., Director Youth and Family Services, Burlington; Rev. Paul Odum, Director Youth and Family Services, High Point; Rev. Herman Nodine, Youth and Family Services, Shelby; and Rev. Dana Scrivner, Shopping Center Ministry, Raleigh.

Special Summer Project employees included Mr. Glenn Bunch, Mr. Jim Cooley, Mr. Charles Hayes, Miss Gloria Kimball, Miss Nancy Knight, Miss Kay Westmoreland, and Miss Jennifer Stevens.

V. CONCLUSION

We are encouraged by the fine response on the part of many Associations and churches in participation of the work during 1970. Our thanks to your churches, the Convention's Administration, the Field Staff, and Mrs. Mary Frances Head, office secretary, all of whom shared in these accomplishments.

5. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute

E. GARY HARTHCOCK, Administrator
ALEX L. BOOTH, JR., Dean

For the last several quarters, a summary of student enrollment has been sent to key personnel throughout the Convention. This is done as a matter of information because we are anxious for every part of our state to be knowledgeable about this very important ministry of North Carolina Baptists. Included in this report is the student summary just compiled of the fall quarter of the 1970-71 school year.

As the work at the Bible Institute continues to reach a segment of our society long neglected, the statistics reveal some interesting facts. One is that the general educational level of the students is gradually rising. Another is that word of this ministry continues to reach other states that do not have a ministry of this type. This is commendable in light of the fact that this is intended to be basically an activity of one state, North Carolina. A third interesting fact is that enrollment and applications for enrollment are at an all-time high when many schools indicate a decline in ministerial students. There will be other points of interest as you scan through the summary below.

Thank you for the tremendous support you have given to the work at the Bible Institute.

6. Town and Country and Seminary Extension Department

ROY J. SMITH, Secretary

The objective of the Town and Country and Seminary Extension Department is two-fold: (1) Work with small town and rural churches in a program of overall church development; and (2) Promote the state-wide ministries of Resort Missions, Mountain Missions, Weeks of Christian Study and Fellowship, and Seminary Extension.

The Rural-Urban Department of the Home Mission Board and the Seminary Extension Department of the Southern Baptist Convention participate in the ministry of this department.

Mrs. Nan Jones is the office secretary.

SEMINARY EXTENSION

The Seminary Extension program continues to expand in North Carolina. During 1970 two associations organized Seminary Extension centers for the first time. During 1970 more than 1,500 students were enrolled in seventy centers from the mountains to the sea.

Seminary Extension is designed for pastors, church leaders, and church members who are interested in enriching their spiritual lives through the discipline of indepth study and training. Courses are offered in Biblical Interpretation, Theology, Religious Education, Church History, and Missions.

In June of this year, Southeastern Seminary cooperated with this department in providing a week of special training for Seminary Extension teachers.

Financial assistance in the form of scholarships and teachers' honoraria is provided where needed.

PASTORAL AID—LOT AID

Fifty-three churches and missions in thirty associations received pastoral aid during 1970. Ten of these mission pastors are students and ten are serving fields of two or more churches. Several of these men receive aid for one church, but have other churches.

Eight churches in seven associations received aid on the purchase of church lots. These mission grants ranged from $600.00 to $2,500.00

In the allocation of the mission funds, priority is given to churches joining together in a field of work, student pastors, and churches with unusual missionary opportunities.

RESORT MISSIONS

Resort Missions continues to be one of the fastest growing missions ministries in North Carolina. Baptists conducted ministries at more than thirty resorts during the past year. The Baptist State Convention participated in ministries at eleven of the major resort areas in our state. The ministries are varied and flexible, reflecting the imagination and creativity of local leadership and the desire to meet the needs of each given area. The Home Mission Board appointed four summer missionaries to work in resort ministries at Cherokee, Tanglewood Park, Lake Norman, and Surf City.

1. Chimney Rock-Lake Lure. Ronnie Pinkerton, pastor of the Chimney Rock Baptist Church, conducted vesper services in the campgrounds, musical programs, and movies on the beach each Saturday night. Lakeside worship services were held each Sunday.

2. Lake Norman. Gary Graham, a summer missionary from Oklahoma, and Bob Shepherd, pastor of First Church, Mooresville, conducted a variety of activities and services at three major campgrounds, Drums, Al's, and Cross Country. The ministry included recreational activities for various age groups, movies, and talent shows, in addition to the Sunday worship services. On Labor Day weekend 650 people were in worship services at the three campgrounds. This ministry is sponsored by First Church, Mooresville, the Mecklenburg, South Yadkin, and South Fork Associations, and the Baptist State Convention.

3. White Lake. Al Cauley, pastor of White Lake Baptist Church, and Leroy Trevathan of Bladenboro, conducted services at White Lake. These included movies on the beach at three sites, worship each Sunday morning at White Lake Campground and Clearwater Beach and pastoral ministries during the week.

4. Ocean Isle. These ministries provided movies on the beach and general pastoral services to the multitudes visiting this area. This ministry is sponsored by the Brunswick Baptist Association and the Baptist State Convention.

5. Atlantic Beach. Ronnie Boswell, US-2 missionary completed his two years of service in North Carolina as chaplain on Atlantic Beach this summer. In addition to worship services in two campgrounds, he conducted vespers, showed religious films, and served as pastor, counselor, and friend to the vast numbers who visited this area.

In cooperation with other religious groups, a coffee house ministry, "The Koinonia House" was provided again this summer. Located in the midst of the Atlantic Beach pavilion, this proved to be an oasis where people could come to discuss life, its meaning, and implications of the Christian faith.

6. Kitty Hawk. J. W. Costner and Paul Middleton directed the three phase ministry at Kitty Hawk. Mr. Costner was pastor of the Baptist Chapel where Sunday School and worship services were held each Sunday, June through Labor Day, and he showed movies on the beach Wednesday through Saturday each week. Paul Middleton served as Associate Pastor in addition to playing with the musical combo at the Circus Tent.

Four concerts of religious folk songs and contemporary spirituals were presented each night. This new approach in Christian witness and ministry continues to attract capacity crowds.

7. Ski Resorts. Ronnie Boswell, US-2 missionary was the Baptist Chaplain on the ski slopes of the Banner Elk-Boone-Blowing Rock area. This ministry offers an opportunity to witness to the thousands who come to this winter playground each week.

8. Surf City. Gary Hines, summer missionary from North Carolina conducted vesper services in the campgrounds, musical programs, and movies on the beach each Saturday night. Worship services were held each Sunday.

9. Cherokee. Joe Birdwell, summer missionary from Texas, conducted vesper services in three campgrounds, musical programs, and recreational activities for the youth.

10. Tanglewood Park. Frank Blackwell, summer missionary from Mississippi conducted vesper services in the campgrounds, musical programs, movies, worship services, Sunday school, sports activities, weekday activities, and weekend activities.

11. Kerr Lake. Vesper services, musical programs, movies on the lakes, and recreational activities were conducted at numerous sites in this area. These services were sponsored by the local churches in the Kerr Lake area.

This exciting growing work opens new doors of ministry and service in almost every area of our state.

TRUETT CAMP

Truett Camp in Hayesville has just completed the best season in recent years. Three capital improvements are worthy of note.

1. In keeping with the long range plan of development, the kitchen and dining hall were completely renovated.

2. An office building is being constructed out of the logs which were in the original George W. Truett home.

3. An outdoor chapel is to be constructed early next year.

The churches in Region 10 and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina share in the development and operation of Truett Camp.

The renovated and refurnished Truett Home continues to attract hundreds of visitors each year. The home is open to visitors at stated hours each day.

WEEK OF CHRISTIAN STUDY AND FELLOWSHIP

The annual Week of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill had an enrollment of 433. This week makes it possible for pastors and their families to come aside for worship, study, and recreation. A comprehensive program is provided for ministers, their wives, and children, Nursery through Intermediate age.

Program personalities this year included Furney Baker, Minister of Music; Dr. Ralph Herring, Bible teacher; and Reverend Gerald Hewett, Reverend John Lawrence, Reverend Harold Shirley, Dr. Cecil Sherman, preachers for the week; and Dr. Donald Moore led the conferences for the ladies.

Meals are the only cost to those attending. Mars Hill College and the Town and Country Missions Department provide lodging facilities and the program.

7. Indian Ministry

CHEROKEE CHILD CARE CENTER

ROY CANTRELL, Director

The Child Care work has not had its best year. Illness caused the resignation of the director, Miss Phyllis Ragan. Miss Joy Rushing then served as director until a new Pastor could be secured. The Cherokee Church and the Baptist State Convention entered a new arrangement. Under this agreement, the Pastor is again Director of the Child Care Program in addition.

Efforts are underway to strengthen and enlarge the ministry on the reservation. The government programs for Child Care now available is taking care of some areas where we once served. The opening of a kindergarten program at the government school is causing us to look more closely at our work with this age. The needs are great here and we are searching for better ways of ministering to more needs.

D. DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

WILLIAM C. LAMB, Director

In 1969 the 3,450 Baptist churches in our state with 1,018,578 members reported 27,935 baptisms. It is my hope that pastors and church leaders will place a greater emphasis upon New Testament evangelism in their total Christian ministry. People need to be reached for Christ in North Carolina. Our state population is five million, and there are now 1,300,000 persons—age nine and older—who are non-Christians or unaffiliated church members.

EVANGELISM CLINICS AND REVIVALS

Shaping the 70's through Evangelism, Strength for Living Revivals, and Youth Evangelism were the themes of emphasis in many associational evangelism clinics across the state. Some churches experienced outstanding revival meetings as a result of dependence upon the Holy Spirit, genuine prayer, careful planning, and involvement of adults and youth in witnessing.

STATEWIDE EVANGELISM CONFERENCE

Over 2,500 persons attended the 24th Statewide Evangelism Conference at War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro February 2-4, 1970. "Believe Christ and Live His Spirit" was the theme. Dr. Casper C. Warren was recognized as Honorary Chairman. The speakers were: Kenneth L. Chafin, Director, Division of Evangelism, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Georgia; J. Leo Green, Professor of Old Testament, Southeastern Seminary, Wake Forest; Ralph H. Langley, Willow Meadows Baptist Church, Houston, Texas; Jaroy Weber, Pastor, Dauphin Way Baptist Church, Mobile, Alabama; Arthur B. Rutledge, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Georgia; John C. Mitchell, Pastor, Hunter Street Baptist Church, Birmingham, Alabama. Mr. George L. Starke, Minister of Music, First Baptist Church, Decatur, Georgia was guest soloist. Several other pastors and laymen participated on the program. Two half nights of prayer were held in the Immanuel Church following the evening sessions.

EVANGELISM RESEARCH SEMINAR

"Contemporary Evangelism" was the theme of the Evangelism Research Seminar at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, on October 5-6, 1970. The purpose of the seminar involved an indepth study of five papers related to evangelism.

The speakers and their topics were: "Openness to the Holy Spirit in Evangelism"—John W. Eddins, Jr., Professor of Theology, Southeastern Seminary, Wake Forest; "Christian Encounter with Other Faiths"—Joseph R. Estes, Former Secretary, Department of Work Related to Nonevangelicals, Home Mission Board; "The Spiritual Church: Yesterday and Today" — Samuel Southard, Director of Professional Services, Georgia Mental Health Institute, Atlanta, Georgia; "Ecumenical Evangelism"—Theodore F. Adams, Visiting Professor of Preaching, Southeastern Seminary; and "Authentic Evangelism and Campus Unrest"—Charles A. Trentham, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Knoxville, Tennessee. O. L. Sherrill of Raleigh and A. D. Logan of Reidsville directed the worship periods. There was an excellent response to this seminar by pastors, chaplains, professors, students and others.

EVANGELISM TRACTS AND PAMPHLETS

Two new tracts were written by the Director of the Division of Evangelism. They were: Areas of Work of the Division of Evangelism and Witness Today. During the past year pastors and others requested and received over 300,000 various tracts and pamphlets.

Major evangelism projects have already been outlined and planned through 1973.

E. DIVISION OF CHURCH PROGRAMS

NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR., Director

The entire division personnel, assisted by the rest of the Convention staff, has majored during the past year on information, interpretation, and commitment, as "Shaping the Seventies" emphases have moved from the drawing board to reality. October 1, 1970, the much talked about target date, arrived with a minimum of confusion and loose ends. The leadership of the churches has responded in the main with a spirit of hope, a new understanding of problems, and new commitments to following the Lord's leadership in meeting human needs.

Personnel losses and additions are detailed in the various department reports. One major change has occurred within the division structure. Davis Bowen, who was the Youth Director in the Church Training Department, became Youth Coordinator in the Church Programs Division on November, 1969. In this capacity Mr. Bowen works with all departments, and with all program youth directors, in seeking to strengthen the Convention's approach to young people. Special attention is being devoted to the needs of small churches.

During the next year there will be a focus on:

1. Long Range Planning (A conference at Camp CaRAway is set for next week, November 16-18.)

2. Family Life Ministries

3. Outreach

4. Youth Involvement

1. Sunday School Department

BURREL F. LUCAS, Secretary

The teaching of God's word to a needy world as recorded in the Bible is our continuing task. This teaching is done with the hope that persons may, under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, be led to respond to God with maturing faith, love, and obedience. The basic approach of the Bible Teaching Program in Sunday School consists of ongoing, age-graded Bible classes and departments meeting on Sunday morning or in some mission situation. Study groups meeting during the week for those who cannot attend on Sunday morning are considered a part of the Sunday School task. With the coming of the program for 1970-71, much attention will be given to outreach and Extension Activities which call for various means of Bible study during the week with all types of groups. The Sunday School Department Staff is committed to the objectives of strengthening the church's program of outreach as well as lifting the level of Bible teaching throughout our state.

PERSONNEL

A new staff member, Mr. W. Harry Clarke, formerly of First Baptist Church, Alexandria, Virginia, replaces Mr. Richard Brown who left our Department to work at Appalachian University. Mr. Clarke's job description includes teacher training and Adult consultation. Other staff members include: Mrs. Myra S. Motley, Consultant, Children's work, Vacation Bible School and Weekday education; Miss Hilda Mayo, Consultant, Preschool work, Church Library, Kindergarten, and the Ministry to the Retarded. The Youth Consultant and Associational Training Director job description is vacant at this time. The dedicated help of two office secretaries make possible a greater ministry. These are: Mrs. Charles Chason and Mrs. Tracy Holder.

Throughout the year our ministries to the associations and churches were enlarged through the help of special workers. These assisted in training schools, Vacation Bible Schools, and other areas of service. They are: Mrs. Oliver Davis, S. Alfred Foy, Jack Heath, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Merritt Murray, Mrs. Henry Powell, Mrs. J. C. Price, Jr., Mrs. Harold West, Miss Jeannette Wheatley, Mrs. Lester White, Mrs. B. H. Fitzgerald, Anthony Gurganus, Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Mauney, Mrs. E. S. Morgan, Mrs. Donald Myers, Mrs. E. L. Spivey, Mrs. Malvin Swicegood, Mrs. L. Deck Taylor, Russell Morris, Robert Blankenship, Walter Coleman, Ted L. Purcell, Miss Jean Parker, Robert Stewart, Jack Clark, W. T. Cockman, Fritz Hemphill, James Maples, Ralph Knight, Dan Page, A. R. Waisner.

Ten Regional Superintendents served throughout the year as they were needed in the promotional work of the department: George H. Cooke, John Privott, G. Scott Turner, Jr., Alfred Staley, James M. Lambert, Norman Brisson, Billy G. Rivers, Rexford Campbell, William Bowen, Zeb Baker and Robert L. Clegg.

ACTIVITIES 1969-70

The assigned tasks of the Sunday School are: teaching the Biblical revelation, leading in reaching all prospects for the church, and leading all church members to worship, witness, learn, and minister daily. In an effort to fulfill the responsibilities delegated to it, the Sunday School Department has conducted various types of projects as time of personnel and finances were available:

- Director-led Enlargement Campaigns
- Associational Central Training Schools
- Associational Age-group Workshops
- Associational Bible Teaching Clinics
- One-day Group Clinics
- Teaching improvement projects in local churches
- Area Sunday School Conventions
- State Vacation Bible School clinic
- Associational Vacation Bible School clinics
- Clinic for summer student Vacation Bible School workers
- Two Briefing Meetings for associational officers
- Kindergarten Conferences
- State Library Convention
- Special conferences with leaders of Mentally Retarded
- Associational Library Conferences
- Special Workers Institute
- Shared in training College and University student leadership
- Formulated and conducted Bible Conference
- Preparation and distribution of Youth Resource Booklet
- Trained field staff in personal skills improvement
- Participated in pastors' retreats and deacons' workshops
- Formulated and conducted Motivation Clinics in local churches

2. Church Training Department

SAM H. O'NEAL, Secretary

The Church Training Department continues to serve the churches and associations throughout North Carolina by offering a comprehensive program of Christian training and development. This department is moving forward with an ever enlarging concept of Christian training, leadership skills and development, teaching and training techniques, and interpreting a curriculum which undergirds and enhances the entire life of the local church. This involves much more than a "time and a program concept."

This department operates within the framework of three broad divisions: Church Member Training, which undergirds Christian living through regular curriculum materials, Christian Ethics, Christian Doctrine, Christian History, and Church Polity and Organization; New Church Member Training, which seeks to orient every new church member into the Christian life and his responsibility to the Christian church and the Christian church's responsibility to the infant in Christ; Church Leader Training, which offers assistance in the area of developing leadership skills for general leadership training, and specialized leadership for specific Church assignment responsibilities.

PERSONNEL

The assignment of this department continues to be carried out by a most efficient and committed staff. In addition to the department secretary, the staff consists of the following: K. Maurice Cooper, Director of Association and Adult work, also works with the department secretary in the area of general administration; Rick Traylor, Director of the Youth Division and the Baptist Youth Corps; Miss Judy Hendrix, Director of the Children's Division; and Miss Doris Morgan, Director of the Preschool Division.

In addition to the field staff, the department is served by two very fine and capable secretaries, Miss Diane Averitte and Mrs. Sylvia Sweeley.

One of the joys is to report that this department has a complete staff with no changes having taken place during the previous year.

Approved consultants who work with the department from time to time are: Mrs. Davis Bowen, Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. Maurice Cooper, Garner, N. C.; Mrs. Sam H. O'Neal, Garner, N. C.; and Mrs. Rick Traylor, Raleigh, N. C.

1970 ACTIVITIES

The year 1970 has been one of the most rewarding as well as challenging years this department has faced in many years. As Southern Baptists move into a new decade, there has been an ever increasing call for the interpretation of new materials, new organizational patterns, and new approaches to Church Training. The Church Training Department Staff is grateful for these opportunities of service and continues to offer its services to North Carolina Baptists in the future.

To recount all of the activities during the past year is impossible. However, some of the highlights are as follows:

1. Four Shaping the 70's Conferences
2. Eight Church Leadership Development Tours
3. Ten Regional Church Training Convention Planning Meetings
4. Ten Regional Church Training Conventions with emphasis upon the age group tournaments
5. Annual State Youth Convention
6. Three Regional Church Leadership Training Conferences
7. Eighteen Associational Leadership Schools or Workshops
8. Numerous one night Leadership Institutes
9. Three assembly weeks
10. One statewide Youth Conference at the assembly

BAPTIST YOUTH CORPS

The Baptist Youth Corps continues to grow and present itself as one of the challenging ministries of the Church Training Department. Mr. Rick Traylor continues to give a great portion of his time to directing this phase of the department's work. During the summer 1970, there were 37 students serving throughout our state with various responsibilities. The students were assigned to their areas of work following an orientation week at Fruitland, June 8-12. Part of the highlights of the Baptist Youth Corps Program was the Youth Conference at North Carolina Baptist Assembly where 1,024 people were in attendance.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

The Regional Church Training Conventions reached a total of 1,564 persons from 58 associations and 268 churches during 1970. The Youth Convention meeting at the First Baptist Church, Greensboro registered 910 from 104 churches and 40 associations. The summer assembly program registered 2,490 from 56 associations and 291 churches. The Youth Conference at Caswell registered 1,024 from 39 associations and 92 churches. "M" night continues to be one of the largest single nights in Southern Baptist life as far as attendance is concerned. The "M" night attendance in 1969 for North Carolina was 13,636 persons, 799 churches, 629 pastors, and 492 directors in attendance.

One of the main goals this past year has been to enlist every association in the study of the new Church Training Administration books. In the three Church Leadership Training Conferences, aforementioned, 24 associations were reached with approximately 1500 persons in attendance.

FUTURE PLANS

During 1971, more time must be spent in interpreting new curriculum materials, interpreting the new record system, teaching and giving training in the new Guidance and Understanding series books, and seeking to help the local churches develop a corps of adequately trained lay leaders to undergird the task of the local church.

To implement this, we already have on the schedule several associational leadership schools and/or institutes, two Church Training Assembly weeks, one joint Church Training and Sunday School Week at the Assembly, two Youth Conferences at the Assembly, and one Associational Director-led campaign.

One special means of assistance in implementing the department's assignment is a special Age Division Consultant Training Institute planned at Camp CaRAway for April 15-16. This will be an effort to train consultants in each of the age group divisions to give the department assistance in answering numerous requests for help from the churches and associations throughout the state. This will be a replacement for the previous "approved worker" concept.

Indications are that Church Training is taking a renewed and significant role in the life of Southern Baptists. This is an imperative. To underscore this significant role, we need only to look at the twenty-three critical issues facing Southern Baptist and find that critical issue number one is: "Lack of trained leaders and teachers." The Church Training Department is seeking to help in this area.

3. Department of Student Work

JAMES Y. GREENE, Secretary

I. MINISTRY ON CAMPUS

Baptist Student Union and the ministry of the staff of the Department of Student Work are a specialized focus of the denomination as it seeks to work with those in the academic community. In the various settings this campus ministry finds varying organizational expressions but each unit operates within a basic philosophy and guidelines decided upon by the Convention.

The building of Christian community is perhaps the major emphasis of our campus ministry; worship, study, service, witness and fellowship are other major facets of the work.

II. MINISTRY ON THE STATE LEVEL

1. Mission 70: Held in Atlanta, Georgia, December 28-31, 1969, with approximately 4,500 young adults and college students in attendance, one hundred twenty-five from North Carolina; the participants looked at the decade of the 1960's, the world we now know, considered the world of the 1970's, and were confronted with the call of God into that great new world.

2. Chaplains' Seminar: Held January 19-23, 1970, at In-the-Oaks Episcopal Center, Black Mountain, thirteen chaplains and Student Department personnel participated in worship, discussion, lectures, and program planning. Program personnel included: The Reverend Clyde O. Robinson, Secretary, Southeastern Region, United Ministries in Higher Education, Chamblee, Georgia; the Reverend Arthur Driscoll, Consultant, Leadership Division, Department of Student Work, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee; Dr. John F. Corey, Assistant Director, North Carolina Board of Higher Education, Raleigh.

3. Small College Retreat: Held February 20-22, 1970, at Camp CaRAway. The purpose was threefold: To convey information and ideas about the work of BSU on campus, to provide opportunity for fellowship between students from like campuses, and to offer opportunity for spiritual growth. Thirty-three students along with their leaders participated in encounter groups, discussions, Bible Study, lectures, and closed with worship led by James Y. Greene, Secretary, Department of Student Work, on Sunday morning. Other program participants were Jerry Buckner, Consultant in Campus Ministry, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee; David May and Cameron Coltharpe, Baptist Campus Minister and Intern Associate at Duke University; the Reverend Leon Smith, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Goldsboro; and the Reverend Barry Landrum, Pastor, Lillington Baptist Church.

4. Basketball Tournament: Held March 6-8, 1970, at Western Carolina University with BSU basketball teams from four campuses competing and North Carolina Central University being declared the winner in the round robin event.

5. Spring Conference: Held at Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly, April 17-19, 1970, the purpose was "encounter and involvement through love," with the theme "Love Inn." Every session carried out this theme concluding Sunday morning with a study of I Corinthians 13, installation of new officers and a worship service led by James Y. Greene assisted by outgoing State BSU President Sam James. Other events included the election of officers for 1970-71, dedication of LISTEN and Apostoloi participants and a period of recreation on Saturday afternoon with 275 participating in the activities on the weekend.

6. Summer Service Programs:

(1). The LISTEN Program (student supported): Five students and an advisory couple spent ten weeks working in a Social Ministries Project in Winston-Salem in cooperation with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Reverend Lewis Ludlum, Superintendent of Missions. Activities included: House of Commons and Experience in Self Reliance, a center for youth activities in community houses located throughout the city and a part of the Model Cities program; Piedmont Park, a federal housing project with 900 residents with activities including work with senior citizens, clubs, and Vacation Bible School; Patterson Avenue Baptist Center, an inner-city mission sponsored by the Home Mission Board, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, located in the North Winston warehouse district with activities including Vacation Bible School, camping trips, clubs, drama and recreation; Downtown Church Center, an interdenominational center sponsored by downtown churches, organized to promote activities for inner-city youth including swimming, recreation, teen-age clubs, senior citizens' outings, Wednesday night prayer meetings, and weekly church services at downtown churches.

Along with the LISTEN Team there was a group of students who were involved in a voluntary commitment for part-time or weekend activities with the above mentioned groups. In addition to this, three seminars were planned in different areas of the state to involve other BSU'ers in discussion concerning Christian responsibility in inner-city problems.

(2). The Apostoloi: A team of four students worked for 9 weeks in local churches leading traditional and contemporary worship services, drama, discussion groups, retreats and helping in Vacation Bible Schools.

7. State Officers' Retreat: Met at Mundo Vista near Asheboro, October 2-4, 1970, with approximately ninety students, chaplains, and state department staff making broad plans for the coming school year. Discussion groups composed of students from schools in the metropolitan areas, small colleges, and other areas concerned themselves with the topic "From Passive Concern to Active Involvement." Program guests included Dr. W. Perry Crouch, Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, the Reverend Fred Terry, Pastor, West Durham Baptist Church, Durham, Dr. Edward B. St. Clair, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, and the Reverend R. A. L. Walker of the Governor's Good Neighbor Council.

8. Fall Convention: Held November 6-8, 1970, at Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly, students and leaders explored the theme "A Time for Openness and Freedom" through worship led by Ed Seabough, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Georgia, the Reverend John Lawrence, President of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and the Reverend Nilous Avery, Pastor of the Hill Street Baptist Church, Asheville. A number of sharing and study groups such as a couples "retreat," political action, medical ethics, drugs, social analysis, contemporary theology, creative worship, campus witness, ecology, the changing university, women's liberation, parent-student relations were led by J. O. Cansler, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, Dr. W. F. Eastman, Medical School, UNC-Chapel Hill, Dr. Al Studdart, Pembroke State University, Pembroke, The Reverend Ted Purcell, Pastor, Cullowhee Baptist Church, Cullowhee, Dr. Charles Coleman, Shaw University, Raleigh, and Gene Bolin, Student Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee.

9. International Student Conference: Sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina and the Department of Student Work, Internationals and Americans met November 26-29, 1970, at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Southport. Dr. Charles Coleman, Dean, Shaw University, was the featured speaker. "We've Got to Live Together" was the theme for the conference. Discussion groups relating to living in the realm of our political, religious, and cultural existence was the highlight of the gathering. Along with the discussions there was a time for cultural sharing, recreation, fellowship at meal time, tour of historical attractions in the Wilmington area, and a celebration of an American Thanksgiving.

10. Student Publications:

(1) THE REVEILLE features creative student writing, art, and photography.

(2) The BSUness—a newsletter, serves to facilitate communication between campuses on various aspects and concerns of the BSU's.

III. OTHER ACTIVITIES AND EMPHASIS

1. On-to-College Emphasis
2. Student Night at Christmas
3. Mission Conferences
4. Student Conferences at Ridgecrest and Glorieta

IV. PERSONNEL

The Department of Student Work is grateful for the following people who help carry on the ministry to Baptist students in North Carolina for the school year 1970-71:

4. Church Music Department

JOSEPH O. STROUD, Secretary

The Music Program in the churches is experiencing growth. The last statistical survey reveals a total enrollment of 106,117. This enrollment was reported by the churches in 1969 and reflects an increase of 2.1 per cent over the previous year. Indications are that the 1970 reports will show an increase also. Gradually it seems more churches are scheduling music as a regular part of the church program, providing leadership for it, and making more adequate provision for it in their budgets.

Much time was spent during the year in helping the churches prepare for the new age-grouping and curriculum materials designed by the Baptist Sunday School Board.

FOR LEADERS: The Church Musician, a general music leadership publication; The Music Leader — a quarterly publication providing guidance materials for leaders of Preschool and Children's music groups.

FOR PUPILS: Music Makers, the quarterly for younger Children; Young Musicians, the quarterly for older Children; Opus One, the quarterly for younger Youth; Opus Two, the quarterly for older Youth; Choral Tones, the quarterly for Adult choirs desiring easy music; Choral Overtones, the quarterly for Adult choirs desiring music not exceeding medium difficulty.

All pupil quarterlies except Music Makers contain a removable music section. A recording of all music is available also. All pupil magazines contain program and resource materials in the form of music exercises, study pages, articles, stories, anthems, and songs for use in choir and at home.

These materials are outstanding and can be used with great effectiveness in all kinds of churches with leaders of varying backgrounds and music ability.

The fifteenth annual Church Music Conference for Youth and Adults was conducted at the assembly during the last week of July with approximately one thousand persons attending. This week of music study, worship, and choral work was climaxed on Friday evening with the first full dramatic production presented in Hatch Memorial Auditorium. Amahl and the Night Visitors, the Christmas opera by Menotti, was performed by professional talent from among the ministers of music.

Also, the first formal meeting of the newly formed NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST CHURCH MUSIC CONFERENCE, was held at Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly March 30-April 1. This organization is being sponsored by the Church Music Department until it can become self-sustaining. It was attended by approximately 100 music leaders. The next session will be held at Ridgecrest, April 19-21, 1971.

The Festival Program sponsored by the department continues to be a vital part of the work. Both the regional, state, and all-state festivals were well attended in 1970. Also, the First Timers Festivals and the Organ-Piano Festivals continue to grow.

Four choral reading clinics were conducted during the month of September in four different sections of the state. This project was planned jointly by the department and the Music Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board. Mr. Festus Robertson, Adult Music Consultant with the Board, was director of these clinics. This is the third year we have had them, and they seem to meet a real need in helping the choir directors find music for use with their choirs.

There has been a need for some time for a small hymn book to be used when conventions are held in large auditoriums where no hymnal is provided. The department has worked with the Division of Evangelism, Woman's Missionary Union, and the Convention in editing a small 48-page book to be used for the annual sessions of the Convention, the Evangelism Conference, and Woman's Missionary Union. It will be used for the first time when the Convention meets in War Memorial Auditorium in Greensboro, November 9, 1970.

Under the capable leadership of Charles Gatwood, Associate and Director of Associational Work, seventy-two associations now have an Associational Music Director; thirty of these associations have also elected other music officers to assist the Director. Twenty-one associations have conducted major music projects—music schools, choral workshops, festivals—with the assistance of the Music Department. Many other associations have conducted such projects through their own initiative and resources.

Dr. Phil Perrin, member of the music faculty of Gardner-Webb College, served the Church Music Department as Summer Worker conducting Schools of Music in ten locations in the western section of the state. Each school began Monday night and concluded on Friday night; some schools were for individual churches—other schools were attended by groups of churches. All schools included a session for Junior choir members and also training sessions for choir leadership. Over four hundred persons from twenty-one churches participated in the schools.

Three successful Junior Choir Camps were conducted during the summer months. The camp at the Assembly was attended by nearly eight hundred persons. The climax of the week was the Friday morning concert presented by the six handbell ensembles and the Friday night concert presented by the six choirs. One hundred persons attended each of the two camps at Fruitland Conference Center. Daytime activities included worship, choir rehearsals, classes, and recreation. The Friday night concert for each week was the presentation of two new cantatas, "Something Wonderful" by A. L. Butler and "Good Christian Folk, Rejoice" by Blakley.

After five years of capable and devoted service in the department, Mrs. Joan Bullard, Office Secretary, resigned effective September 30. She has done a superb job as office secretary and will be missed greatly.

Mrs. Peggy Wakefield was secured to fill this vacancy and began her work on October 1. Mrs. Wakefield comes to the department adequately prepared and equipped for the office.

The years ahead are filled with opportunity and challenge, and the Church Music Department will do all it can to meet this challenge.

5. Church Building Planning Department

RICHARD D. SMITH, Secretary

"Wait and See" seems to have been the theme of many of our churches during 1969-70 as far as building remodeling or construction was concerned. Those churches that adopted the idea of "Plan and Be Ready" will be able to take advantage of a reduced interest rate for a construction loan when it comes. It has been said that during World War II many churches that could not build made plans and were ready to start when the war ended and money and materials were available. Even though times are different than they were then, it would seem wise to begin to raise as much money as possible and to plan now so that when opportunity does knock again, we will be able to build the buildings to meet the challenge of our communities.

It is encouraging that a number of churches across North Carolina have found money to build through a bond sales; others, through banks. Even in a time that seems difficult, a good number of our churches have launched out in faith, and on a sound financial basis, provided for immediate and future needs.

Much time has been spent by some of our churches in a long-range financial plan entitled, "Together We Build." When it is realized that a good number of our people are not doing what they could financially for their church, the "Together We Build" is an effort to challenge all users of the church to give on a weekly basis an amount designated to a building fund. This is pledged over a three-year period of time. Well over $5,000,000 has been raised in the Southern Baptist Convention in this manner. Those interested in building in the near future are encouraged to explore this tried and proven program of raising a building fund.

Literature now available in this office has made a drastic change during the past year. Many of the materials that were free in the past are now cost items. The new free materials are distributed on a limited basis and all cost materials are furnished the church upon request at our cost. Mrs. Charles Mercer, who has served capably for the past five years as office secretary, will be happy to share the available materials.

Two State Church Building Conferences during 1970 proved very successful. About forty churches were represented at the conferences in Raleigh and Charlotte. Clinics giving assistance on building improvements are planned for 1971 in four areas of our state. Assistance will be given in such areas as landscaping, lawn care, and maintenance of floors and other church property. The dates and locations of these clinics will be publicized prior to each.

One of the main requests to come to the Department during the year has been for information about utilizing buildings, with as few physical changes as possible, to fit the grading program for the 70's. Churches that need this assistance can receive it by submitting a floorplan sketch of the present facilities along with statistical information indicating the present Sunday School enrollment and average attendance to the Church Building Planning Department.

6. Brotherhood Department

J. EDWIN BULLOCK, Secretary

Brotherhood Department staff members along with the support of almost one hundred trained and approved helpers used most of 1970 in varied approaches in interpreting and preparing church people across the state for what was often called "The New Brotherhood Program." Although there were fewer changes in the Brotherhood program than most other church programs, there was a great need for interpreting the new Royal Ambassador program for six-, seven-, and eight-year-old boys, the changes and revisions in Brotherhood literature, and the emphasis on increased mission activity for men and boys. Once again, the most significant thing about the year was the apparent acceptance of the challenge to missions service on the part of laymen in churches across the state. More men than ever before are attending special types of mission study programs and there is increasing support for missionary education for boys in the churches through Royal Ambassadors.

SIX-, SEVEN-, AND EIGHT-YEAR-OLD ROYAL AMBASSADORS

School age boys previously in the WMU Sunbeam program officially became Royal Ambassadors during 1970. This, of course, meant an additional influx of several thousand boys in the churches Royal Ambassador chapters. This new age group is now the younger segment of the Crusader Royal Ambassador program. In each church the six, seven, and eights will compose a group of their own rather than being grouped with the older Crusaders ages nine, ten, and eleven. A significant factor that has been communicated to Royal Ambassador leadership is the recommendation of co-counselors (husbands and wives) for Crusader age boys. In fact, with the younger Crusaders it has been made clear that the woman will often serve as the lead counselor. The most encouraging thing about the younger Royal Ambassador program is the new magazines and the new advancement materials. There is general agreement that these materials are superb and should be instrumental in guaranteeing continued success.

NEW STAFF MEMBER

In September of 1970 Mr. Tom Collins came from his position as pastor of Fairbluff Baptist Church, Fairbluff, N. C. to serve as an additional associate in the Brotherhood Department. Mr. Collins has special assignments in the areas of interpreting and promoting the Crusader Royal Ambassador program (Children's Division) and the directing of the summer Royal Ambassador programs at Camp CaRAway. This gives the department the format of age group specialists in the areas of missionary education with Mr. Collins as the Children's Specialist, Mr. Luther Osment as the Youth Specialist, and Mr. J. Edwin Bullock as the Baptist Men's Specialist. Actually, because of the demands in leadership training, speaking engagements, etc. each of the staff members are prepared to represent the department in any one of these or other areas to Brotherhood emphasis.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Because of the impossibility of getting around to the churches and associations with the necessary leadership training the department has continued to use a program of training others for assistance in this task. Approximately two hundred associational leaders have been trained in regional clinics and three state clinics. An additional one hundred selected workers were trained for such assistance in one of two state clinics. Staff members with the assistance of approved workers provided leadership training for church leaders in thirty-five associational workshops, ten regional workshops, and two state workshops.

Other types of leadership training during the year included the training of men as foreign mission teachers, state mission speakers, team evangelism leaders, and inmate ministers.

MISSION EMPHASIS MEETINGS

The year 1970 was also another year of outstanding mission centered programs for men and boys. There were approximately 5,000 at the Men and Boys' Convention in Fayetteville, March 20-21. Winners from twenty-two associations participated in the second annual State Royal Ambassador Track Meet at Wake Forest University on May 16. The RAs from Yates Association took home the trophy sought after by the more than five hundred boys from the other associations. The largest number of boys ever participated in the four Royal Ambassador "See College Days" at Mars Hill, Chowan, Gardner-Webb and Wake Forest. Each provided an interesting program for the group and also made it possible for them to see a football game. There were almost a thousand boys in attendance at Gardner-Webb and Wake Forest.

Mission retreats at Camp CaRAway also had larger attendance in 1970. Increased reservations meant that people had to be turned away from the Family Camping Weekend and the weekend RA camp. Because of that fact an additional Family Camping Weekend and an additional weekend RA camp is being planned for the spring of 1971.

Baptist Men's retreats planned for special groups such as business and professional men, senior men, and men with special interest in witnessing principles were also held in the fall and spring of 1970. Although those sessions were not planned for large numbers, these were quality programs and the men who attended these retreats are active both in the work of their churches and the interest of the denomination.

CAMPS AND ASSEMBLIES

The Brotherhood Department provided staff and programs for ten weeks of Royal Ambassador Camps at Camp CaRAway during 1970.

An additional staff and program was provided for five other Royal Ambassador camp weeks during the summer. Three of these were at Truett Camp near Hayesville while the other two were at North Carolina Assembly and Fruitland Conference Center. Thus, this summer fifteen hundred boys were involved in camp experiences.

Along with Woman's Missionary Union and the Division of Missions, the Brotherhood Department provided two World Mission Weeks during the summer. These weeks provided family and church groups at the North Carolina Assembly and the Fruitland Conference Center with the privilege of furthering their missions understanding and appreciation by sharing in the well-planned missions program. There seemed to be a real appreciation in these conferences for the privilege of bringing family and church groups together with the privilege of meeting missionaries and increasing concern among those attending in behalf of missions.

STATE OFFICERS

New officers were elected for the North Carolina Baptist Men during their 1970 Convention. These are: President, Dr. Jack Lawrence, Boone; Vice-president, Joe Lennon, Aberdeen; Secretary, LeRoy Yates, Rockingham; Mission Study Leader, Dr. Fred Graham, Asheboro; and Mission Action Leader, Robert Hewitt, Charlotte. In the Boys' Convention Thomas Correy, Jr., of Roxobel was elected as President and Mike King of Charlotte was elected to serve as Vice-president.

BAPTIST MEN'S CORPS

Another Brotherhood Department program designed to increase the mission activity of men that came to light in 1970 is the Baptist Men's Corps. This is a group of laymen from the churches across the state who have volunteered to serve in some mission activity as frequently as twice per year. The men register their talents and interests which might be used in various mission activities with the Brotherhood Department and the State Mission Action Leader. As needed mission activities arise, the men are notified and volunteer as their skills and time permit.

In 1970 the Baptist Men's Corps worked with several mission activities including the showing of a Christian witness film at the N. C. State Fair, the construction of cabins for the boys at Camp CaRA-way, and participating in several evangelistic campaigns by doing such things as survey taking, personal witnessing, and lay preaching.

OTHER APPROACHES

The Brotherhood Department staff is continually seeking ways to promote the intensity of mission learning and mission activity among men and boys. In so doing staff members not only have to assist the SBC Brotherhood Commission in preparing materials to aid church leadership but a significant amount of the informational and promotional type materials are prepared by the department staff. One of the most helpful pieces prepared by the department staff is the quarterly department newsletter. This is generally packed with help and news of help for church leadership. Department staff members are also most always out speaking in the churches and presenting different types of programs which hopefully promote the cause of missionary education for men and boys.

These and other type programs are being planned for 1971 and there is the hope that there will even be a greater measure of success.

7. Woman's Missionary Union

Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention

MRS. R. KNOLAN BENFIELD, President

SARA ANN HOBBS, Executive Secretary

Woman's Missionary Union has had two major emphases during 1969-70: OPERATION PAYOFF, the plan for paying off the indebtedness on Camp Mundo Vista, and INTERPRETATION CLINICS for training church leaders in WMU organizational patterns for the 70s.

OPERATION PAYOFF

Each church WMU was encouraged to set a goal equalling one dollar per WMU member for the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering to be taken in June 1970 and June 1971. Many churches accepted the challenge of this goal and contributed one dollar per member. Had all churches given as suggested the total would have been $148,000. Books on the offering do not close until December 31 but at the writing of this report the amount received totaled $52,700.00 which is far short of the goal but represents an increase of $5,826.00 over the 1969 offering. Operation Payoff is a two-year program and the same goal of one dollar per WMU member has been set for 1971.

INTERPRETATION CLINICS

The clinics for interpretation of WMU plans for the 70s were in four categories: State Shaping the Seventies Conferences to train a team of nine from each association; Shaping the Seventies Clinics to train church leadership (led by the nine persons trained in the above conference); Church Leadership Conferences for training church leadership; and associational WMU annual meetings for training church WMU members. Approximately 11,000 WMU leaders and members were trained in one or more of the training sessions.

To assist in the interpretation of WMU 70 Woman's Missionary Union secured four approved workers: Mrs. W. K. McGee, Baptist Women; Mrs. A. L. Parker, Baptist Young Women; Mrs. Gilmer Cross, Acteens; and Mrs. Boyce Brooks, Mission Friends.

During the period of intensive training in new organizational plans, representatives of Woman's Missionary Union were in 67 associations for a total of 99 conferences or interpretation clinics.

CAMPS AND RETREATS

Ten weeks of GA Camps were held at Camp Mundo Vista. Approximately 2,000 girls attended one of the week long camps. High school, college and seminary students and public school teachers made up the staff of 50 which worked throughout the summer. Many decisions were made by campers. At least 75 girls made professions of faith and several hundred indicated that they were fully committing themselves to Christ.

Other meetings held at Camp Mundo Vista included a YWA RETREAT which attracted 150 girls for a weekend of study about missions and consideration of their personal responsibility to missions; a LITERACY WORKSHOP for teaching the Laubach literacy course to 34 women who would serve as teachers of adult illiterates, teaching them to read and write; and many WEEKEND RETREATS planned and sponsored by church groups from cities throughout the state. Camp Mundo Vista is available for off-season use by church groups.

The WMU Camp Committee is composed of a chairman elected annually by the Executive Board and four members appointed by the president to make plans and policies for operation of Mundo Vista and to advise state WMU personnel responsible for camps and conferences meeting at the campsite. The committee chosen for 1970-71 was Mrs. Boyce Brooks, Boone, chairman; Mrs. J. E. Cargill, Cliffside; Mrs. B. W. Jackson, Asheboro; Mrs. Gene Moore, Charlotte; and Mrs. Teeny Scarborough, Asheboro.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The business of Woman's Missionary Union is transacted between Annual Sessions by the Executive Board. The Board is made up of the officers of Woman's Missionary Union, president, two vice-presidents, recording secretary and assistant recording secretary; age-level Promotion Committee chairmen (4); Camp Committee chairman; and 15 members-at-large. Officers and members-at-large are nominated by the State WMU Nominating Committee and elected at the State WMU Annual Session. Age-level Promotion Committee chairmen and Camp Committee chairman are secured by the Personnel Committee. These officers and committee chairmen come from many different cities in the state and bring a wide range of interest and capability to the Board. The Board met four times during 1969-70 but in the future will meet only three times per year.

Upon authorization of the Executive Board, the Bylaws of Woman's Missionary Union and the Executive Board were completely revised. Major changes included:

- Reduction of meeting times of the Executive Board from four to three times per year;
- More comprehensive statement of duties of officers and committees under the headings of Officers' Guidelines and Guidelines for Committees;
- Voting privileges for all in attendance at the Annual Session (in former years voting had been restricted to elected delegates only).

In the interim between Board meetings an Executive Committee composed of the president, vice-presidents, recording secretary and five members of the Executive Board is authorized to transact business. The members chosen from Board members are elected annually by the Executive Board. Members for 1969-70 were Mrs. Harry Andrews, Graham; Mrs. Oren Bradley, Mt. Airy; Mrs. Boyce Brooks, Boone; Mrs. Ingram Hedgepeth, Lumberton; and Mrs. C. C. Warren, Charlotte.

SPECIAL MEETINGS AND ACTIVITIES

The STATE WMU ANNUAL SESSION held at War Memorial Auditorium in Greensboro attracted approximately 2,500 women. Special speakers for the three day meeting included Miss Alma Hunt, executive secretary of Woman's Missionary Union, SBC; Mrs. Conrad Willmon, missionary to Lebanon; Dr. Claude Broach, pastor of St. John's Baptist Church, Charlotte; Mrs. William McElrath, missionary to Indonesia; Dr. Perry Crouch, general secretary of the Baptist State Convention; and Miss Patsy Johnson, "Miss North Carolina."

Eight hundred and fifty (850) young women attended the STATE YWA CONVENTION held at First Baptist Church, Hickory, April 3-5. Miss Linda Warren, state YWA director, was in charge of the weekend convention.

A MISSION ACTION WORKSHOP, under the direction of Miss Kathryn Bullard, WMS director, was held at Friendly Avenue Baptist Church in Greensboro. The workshop featured specialists in five areas of mission action work, the sick and aging, internationals, combating moral problems, economically disadvantaged and prisoner rehabilitation. The workshop was attended by 280 men and women.

Mrs. Wayne Sorrells, Brevard, foreign missionary appointed to Brazil
 Miss Emma Cooke, Elkin, missionary associate to Lebanon
 Miss Rita Edmonds, Asheville, US-2 to Ohio
 Mrs. Ralph A. Yoars, Charlotte, foreign missionary to East Asia
 Miss Carol Ann Tesseneer, Asheville, home missionary to South Carolina
 Mrs. George Shore, Rural Hall, home missionary to Winston-Salem, N. C.
 Mrs. Charles Kenneth Locke, Thomasville, missionary associate to Hong Kong
 Mrs. Jesse Crooks, Troy, missionary associate to Louisiana
 Mrs. Alvin Loiry, Almond, missionary associate to Texas
 Miss Joyce Ross, Carthage, missionary journeyman to St. Johns, Antigua
 Mrs. Richard McQueen, Candler, home missionary to South Carolina
 Miss Jenell Strickland, Brevard, missionary journeyman to Taiwan

The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions totaled $466,056, an increase of $8,229.78. The goal was $455,000. The goal for 1971 is $460,000.

B. W. JACKSON, Director

Matthew Marlowe, who has served as cook, has had to resign for physical reasons. Fortunately, the wage continuation benefit plan of the Convention makes a retirement income available.

Earl Underwood continues to serve as the assistant in charge of maintenance.

The Family Camping area is available for use by those who have trailers or other camping facilities.

Additional cabin space is being constructed at the present time out of available funds. Plans for other improvements are being announced this fall.

9. North Carolina Baptist Assembly

FRED J. SMITH, Manager

As the challenge to Christians grows every year, so has the North Carolina Baptist Assembly's attendance. The attendance for 1970 is as follows:

Pre-Season Guests	2,010
Summer Conference Guests.....	6,753
Commuting One-day Guests.....	2,613
Post-Season Guests	1,352
Total	12,728

The week by week attendance during the regular season accounts for 6,753 guests:

The plans at the Assembly include: completing a site for family camping; installing a new sewer system; and the remodeling of the Assembly Hotel for year-round use with complete dining room and recreational facilities. Some of the older buildings are also being repaired.

The Southport school will be using the facilities until Thanksgiving after which they will be moving into mobile units.

Information about reservations during the regular season, or inquiries about off-season usage, should be addressed to the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Southport, North Carolina 28461. Telephone: (919) 278-5495

10. Fruitland Baptist Conference Center

E. GARY HARTHCOCK, Manager

ALEX L. BOOTH, JR., Assistant Manager

The transition from being principally a youth camp to working largely with church leadership is still reflected in the annual report of the Conference Center. Six excellent weeks were conducted, three others were cancelled. The total registered attendance for the 1970 season was 659.

Exploration is still going on concerning further possibilities of service for the summer facilities at Fruitland. There is a possibility that a summer course will be offered for both pastors and ministerial students.

F. DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP PROMOTION

W. PERRY CROUCH, Acting Director

This year has brought a significant change in the Division of Stewardship Promotion. The Reverend Ottis Hagler, for 16 years, Director of this Division, resigned in February, 1970 because of declining health. Our insurance program allows him to retire on permanent disability (60 percent of the salary) until he reaches retirement age. Mr. Hagler has been an excellent leader in the field of Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion. His leadership will be greatly missed.

It has been decided that his place will not be filled immediately. The General Secretary-Treasurer will serve as acting director of this Division during 1970-1971. The salary set up for this place will be used to secure regional leaders who will help promote the Cooperative Program and Stewardship Promotion among our churches.

Mr. William Boatwright has been asked to work half-time with this division beginning December 1, 1970. He is a graduate of Baylor University and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. During the past four years Mr. Boatwright has been associated with the Foreign Mission Board in Visual Aids and Promotion. He is currently enrolled in the University of North Carolina working toward a Master's Degree in Communication.

This division seeks to promote the retirement and health programs for ministers, church staff members, denominational workers, TV, Radio and Visual Aids for our North Carolina churches. It also promotes stewardship plans and Cooperative Program for churches of all sizes in North Carolina.

The work of the various departments follows.

1. Department of Stewardship Promotion

HAROLD M. WHITE, Secretary

The work of this department increased during the year due to the retirement of O. J. Hagler who was serving as Division Director. Mr. Hagler shared with us, not only in office procedure, but also in field responsibility. We appreciate his dedicated service to North Carolina Baptists and wish him well in the years of retirement.

Since the retirement of Mr. Hagler, Dr. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, has been acting as director of the Division of Stewardship Promotion. His excellent leadership has been very helpful and much appreciated.

Our main emphasis has been and continues to be assisting local churches, regardless of size or location, in a program of stewardship education and budget promotion. Conferences and training sessions in the Forward Program, Growth in Christian Stewardship, Tithers' Enrollment Week, and Weekend Stewardship Revivals are the primary channels through which assistance is being given.

A completely revised Stewardship Development Program for Baptist Associations is now available to help develop and undergird associational budgets. This program focuses on three basic elements in stewardship: tithes and offerings by individuals to the church, gifts to missions through the association, and gifts to missions through our Cooperative Program.

One of our goals in 1971 will be to encourage more local churches to elect a church stewardship chairman. A new planning guide has been developed and is available from our office to help the church stewardship chairman plan a balanced program of stewardship enlistment in the local church.

In discharging our responsibility to promote a plan of scriptural stewardship promotion and enlistment in the churches of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and to promote world missions through the Cooperative Program, I have worked closely with the General Board's committee on stewardship promotion. Much time has also been spent in consultation and planning with the Southern Baptist Stewardship Commission in Nashville, Tennessee.

Free stewardship and Cooperative Program tracts, brochures and pamphlets are available from this office to associations and churches upon request.

This department is ably assisted by E. Cleve Wilkie, Associate in Field Promotion, Kinston, and Mrs. Dorothy Smith, office secretary.

The challenge of the opportunity to work with North Carolina Baptists in the area of Stewardship Promotion increases day by day. I am grateful to God for this privilege of Kingdom service.

2. Department of Stewardship Promotion

E. C. WILKIE, Associate

Individuals, churches and associations of our state seem to be becoming more and more "stewardship conscious" in these days of crisis and challenge, and are taking more definite, systematic and organized steps in stewardship teaching and training. The calls and requests for my services to assist and aid the churches and associations in this stewardship resurgence have been many and generous, for which I'm most grateful and humbled.

More than ever my work has been within the framework of our organized stewardship programs—The Forward Program, The Christian Stewardship Development Program, the Week-long and Week-end Stewardship Revival and Tithers Enrollment Week—preaching, teaching and training in relation to these various programs. This is a strong indication to me that our churches are moving away from "sloppy," casual, infrequent and haphazard stewardship methods, and are turning to prayer, planning, training, preparation and organization in stewardship development of their people. This is good and hopeful!

I look forward to the months ahead of being a small part of the renewed and vigorous interest in Biblical stewardship now sweeping our state. The key to our churches fulfilling their ministry and mission in the world awaits the growth and development of mature, fruit-bearing, New Testament stewards! My energy and strength shall be bent to aiding and abetting in every way possible this glorious and challenging venture among our great people. Please continue to call on me for service, and thank you for the rare privilege of serving you.

3. Department of Stewardship Development

R. TOM GREENE, Secretary

Increased Cooperative Program giving by speaking and the development of materials for promotion of Biblical stewardship and Cooperative Program enlistment is the basic function of this department. The work during the past twelve months may be divided as follows:

I. LEAFLETS

We have developed and distributed leaflets as follows:

244,000 basic Cooperative Program leaflets and posters.

202,000 State Missions leaflets and posters.

355,000 other leaflets and booklets on stewardship and Cooperative Program.

II. SEMINARS

We held Stewardship Development Seminars for leaders from each association. During the seminars we:

1. Explained and distributed the latest materials on scriptural stewardship and the Cooperative Program.
2. Received the wise suggestions from these officers.

III. WORKSHOPS

Workshops in stewardship development were held for the pastor and treasurer of each church in four associations. We had a speaker on the Cooperative Program on the following Sunday in each church requesting this service. The purpose of the workshop was:

1. Giving an over all view of stewardship materials available to help these church leaders develop scriptural stewards.
2. Answer any questions concerning the stewardship programs and the Cooperative Program.
3. Give encouragement to these leaders to use one or more of these programs to increase the church's giving through the Cooperative Program for the benefit of their churches.

IV. ARTICLES, ART AND REPORTS

We wrote more than 100 articles on Cooperative Program, stewardship and State Missions which were published during the year. We worked in cooperation with the Biblical Recorder, Mr. Marse Grant, Editor, and the Charity and Children, Mr. J. Eugene White, Editor, for the publication of the majority of these articles.

We published in the September 26 issue of the Biblical Recorder the Cooperative Program giving of each church for the first six months of 1970 and made this available in each annual associational meeting. We prepared the materials for the special issue of the Biblical Recorder on State Missions for the September 5 issue.

V. OTHER AREAS OF WORK

We have answered the requests of many churches needing help in developing stewards and increasing Cooperative Program giving.

During the past twelve months in doing this work for you in Christ's name, there have been nineteen added by baptism to the churches for which I preached and eleven by letter.

Dr. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer of our Convention and Acting Director of the Division of Stewardship Promotion since the retirement of Mr. O. J. Hagler, and the other personnel of this division have given wise counsel and help in all the work of this department.

Mrs. Wilma Coates, Office Secretary in our Division, has given valuable help in our common task.

To those above, plus each pastor, associational leader, Convention's General Board member, and our entire Convention staff, we express our thanks for their genuine cooperation.

4. Annuity Department

GUY S. CAIN, Secretary

The major new development of the year has been the Group Life and Disability Insurance Program which opened October 1, 1969. June 30 was set as the end of the enrollment period but this was extended to October 1, 1970. This program replaces the Life Benefit Plan, which was reducing term insurance. The new program is level term insurance with a maximum of $60,000 and double indemnity plus dependent insurance. The disability insurance connected with the program is a new opportunity through the Annuity Board programs.

There is an ever-increasing interest in the Health Benefit Plan. This medical insurance program with semi-private room cost provision and major medical coverage is a timely answer for the ascending medical costs of this age. The program opens for enrollment twice each year, January 1 and July 1. The applications must be in thirty days ahead of time, or at the end of November and the end of May.

We have kept a continued emphasis on enrolling pastors and associate ministers in the Southern Baptist Protection Program, stressing the fact that our Convention agrees to help make these provisions for every minister.

All of the pastors in the state who are enrolled in the Protection Program have been contacted about the need of upgrading their retirement participation to cover their total income. The continued cost of living makes it imperative for the churches to move beyond the $4,000 annual salary ceiling in basic Plan "A" to the total income for the ministers.

We are continually offering our help to our people who serve the Lord in the churches. Most of our time and energy is spent in helping the leadership of the churches to understand the need for all of the Annuity Board programs in behalf of all the people who serve the Lord in the churches.

At the end of September 1970 there were 1,900 employers (churches and associations) participating in the Protection Program with 2,200 staff members enrolled. During the first nine months of 1970 we have sent in 93 Protection Program applications.

We now have in North Carolina 267 men and 191 women receiving monthly annuity checks.

Most active and retired members of the Southern Baptist Protection Program have received increased benefits from the "good experience credit" for the first time during 1970.

"Good experience credit" and the thirteenth check are methods of sharing equitably excess interest earnings and actuarial gains with both active and retired members. Annual experience is the basis for these credits.

5. Department of Communications

(Audio Visuals, Graphic Arts, News Service)

JIMMY MORRISS, Secretary

The Department of Communications promotes the total Baptist program through the divisions of the General Board, agencies, institutions and associations. It is a department that is primarily public relations and is incorporated in the Division of Stewardship Promotion. The work of the department may be divided as follows:

I. AUDIO VISUALS AIDS

A. Film Library.

During the past year, the department booked more than 10,616 free rental films. We estimate that approximately 60 per cent of the churches in the Convention are using audio-visuals regularly. An increasing number of week-day kindergartens and day-care centers are making use of the film library in their teaching programs. The department encourages planning for a basic library of audio-visuals at both associational and church levels, with supplementary titles provided by the department library. At present, this library has over 2,600 titles covering every aspect of denominational endeavor. More than 7,660 orders have had to be refused because films requested were booked up and not available.

B. Film Production.

Among the films produced this year are: THE GOSPEL OF ENCOUNTER, a 60 minute, sound color motion picture, depicting state mission ministries and promoting the annual State Missions offering; a Bible study film in sound and color featuring John Bunn teaching "The Letters of John"; and some 400 color slides and 500 black and white pictures illustrating the various ministries of the state Baptist program. The department works closely with all Convention divisions in compiling news releases and pictures for State Mission emphasis.

C. Communication Conferences.

A number of communication conferences were held at the request of the associations and churches. The department assisted in the Kings Mountain and Mecklenburg associations in audio-visual clinics and in an audio-visual training class at Gardner-Webb College.

D. Audio Aids.

More than 3,500 messages were reproduced at the request of pastors and churches this year. Major messages of all the conventions and conferences were recorded and placed in the central tape library, bringing the total number of messages available for reproduction to more than 350.

II. GRAPHIC ARTS

Over 300 individual lay-outs were designed and prepared for printing this year. These included posters, programs, folders, forms and stationery.

III. NEWS SERVICE

Our responsibility to provide news coverage of state Baptist work to some 485 newspapers, radio and television stations and all associational missionaries, culminated in some 40 articles for state-wide release. In order to enlarge this phase of our work and to provide feature stories and stewardship promotional assistance, Mr. Bill Boatwright has been secured to assist in the department in the area of writing. He will be in the office after December 1.

IV. TELEVISION AND RADIO

The department continues to produce the network series, A LIGHT UNTO MY PATH, a mission work of the Convention, designed to reach the deaf, the aging and the unchurched. The program is presented over a state-wide network of stations including WRAL-TV, Raleigh; WLOS-TV, Asheville; WFMY-TV, Greensboro; WBTV, Charlotte; and WNCT-TV, Greenville. Also providing coverage for North Carolina is WIS-TV, Columbia, South Carolina. The series is carried by 10 other stations outside the state, sponsored by a church or convention in that state.

Also produced are BIBLE STORY TIME, a weekly color program for pre-school children, CHURCH OF OUR FATHERS, a weekly 30 minute color, news program and LIGHT FOR LIVING, a daily 3-5 minute meditation which is carried over WRAL-TV, Raleigh; WNCT-TV, Greenville, and WSOC-TV, Charlotte. The department is also cooperating with the Sunday School department in the production of a program featuring the International Bible Lesson, a 15 minute weekly feature carried over 5 radio stations in the state.

A new radio ministry was begun on September 1, when the department accepted the responsibility for the production of RELIGIOUS NEWS SCOPE, a 4-5 minute news broadcast, featuring the religious news of the week and carried over 78 radio stations in the state. Presently in the planning are television specials dealing with areas on which the church should become involved, such as youth and drugs, the understanding of the retarded and their needs, highway safety and preservation of our natural resources. The department also works closely with the Radio and Television Commission.

V. OTHER AREAS

The department has two approved summer workers at the assemblies, showing more than 300 films and special sound presentations each season. Equipment and supplies for the season at both Fruitland and Caswell are provided through the department. We assisted the Department of Town and Country Missions in the presentation of filmed messages in five resort areas throughout the state. The department also provides audio-visual equipment for each staff member of the General Board for field use.

F. DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

ED BRANDON, Chairman

W. PERRY CROUCH, Acting Director

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs is completing its second year of service to North Carolina Baptists. We have continued, in prayer, to try and sense the ways that we can respond to the needs of our churches and individual Baptists. Our 21 Council members are seeking to conduct a genuine ministry in helping all of our people to find the fullest expression of Christian love each day of their lives. We think we are beginning to realize and to define ways to make the Gospel of Christ a greater living reality and influence in our times. If we truly have Christ in the center of our lives, we'll have an impact on our part of our world. If He isn't in the center, then we'll have little effect.

The Council has met three times as a group this year. In connection with our meeting in April, we held an open hearing on the two resolutions referred to the Council by last year's Convention in Fayetteville. One concerned Prayer in Public Schools and the other Conscientious Objection. We also searched for a full-time Director for the Council with no apparent success thus far. Our plans for 1971 do not include funds for a full-time Director. Rather, the budgeted amount for the Council will be used to pay for the preparation of one or more publications relating to work assigned by the Convention or in carrying out our assigned duties as a Council.

The heart of our report to you for the year 1970 is presented in two sections:

I. The drug problem among our youth and the family life crisis, with recommendations.

II. Recommendation concerning the two resolutions presented to the Convention last year.

We would like to have them considered separately.

I. THE DRUG PROBLEM AMONG OUR YOUTH AND THE FAMILY LIFE CRISIS

1. The Drug Problem Among Our Youth

The members of our Council have been much concerned about the drug problem in our society. Especially have we become concerned with our youth, as they have become involved with something that will eventually destroy them if something is not done to give them needed help now. We notice that these youth come from all levels of society and from the homes of our church people as well as the non-churched. We must face the fact that these young people are very insecure as they face a fast-changing society about them. Many of them feel that everyone has forsaken them, including the church and the home. They are lonely, insecure, and afraid of the future. In many cases, they have been disappointed by their parents and other adults of their community. They are perfect targets for the drug pusher.

One lay member of our Council has become identified with several teenage addicts in his community, in an effort to determine the cause of their addiction. Some of them were from families who attended church fairly regularly. All of them were lonely and felt unloved. All of them indicated the problem of communicating with their parents. Some were from broken homes. None of them felt that their local church, as it now operates, offered a solution for them.

We are convinced that our present situation will not be solved simply by putting these young people in jail or by seeking criminal action against them.

In view of the tragic spread of the use of drugs among our young people, and in view of the eminent danger to all of our society if this use continues, we therefore recommend to our churches concerning their youth:

(1) That our churches encourage the establishment of community centers in towns and cities across our state for the dispensing of information concerning drugs, and for counseling with our young people already using them.

(2) That we encourage laymen in our churches to be willing to establish communications with their young people, and to help them find answers to their drug problem. This is not something that can be put off to some future date. Lives are at stake now.

(3) That leadership in our churches study the drug problems in their own community and seek ways the church can dispense information about the problem.

(4) That our churches establish a strong youth program now, and involve their young people in dialogue, study, and activities that will help prepare them for our present society.

2. CONCERNING THE FAMILY

As we read case histories of teen-aged addicts, we discover that most of them point to the failure of their family to function as a Christian family. This leads us to the conclusion that the family itself is facing a real crisis.

This realization is enlarged as we consider the mounting divorce rate, the increase in juvenile delinquency, the alarming number of murders and homicides occurring in the family and, as someone has put it, "the withering away of the family."

Historians tell us that no civilization has long existed without healthy family life. Nevertheless, many writers are now raising the question as to whether the family, as we have known it, can survive.

As Christians we believe the home is a divine institution and is the very foundation of our Christian faith. This Christian home is now in trouble. We believe this crisis in the family is at the root of much of the rebellion and violence in our country. How can we build spiritual churches and be effective witnesses to the gospel of our Lord without Christian families?

We also recognize the evident truth that our churches have been negligent in helping the families of her constituency meet the present crisis. Too often our churches have been more concerned with saving the institutional church than they have been in saving the individuals and families that make up their membership.

It is because of this great need among us that we urge the Baptist State Convention in session in Greensboro, November 11, 1970, to join us in an appeal to our churches to begin a two-year emphasis on the Christian family. We hope this will include a strong appeal to all of our institutions to make a special effort to study the needs of our families in 1971. We especially request the staff of our Convention, the Children's Homes, and the Homes for the Aging to join us in this effort.

If you approve this recommendation, it will be our purpose to prepare some definite suggestions and helps for our churches to use in 1971, and move toward a series of area conferences on the family in 1972. We believe this is an urgent need now, and we urge you to join us in presenting this emphasis to our churches.

II. RECOMMENDATION CONCERNING THE TWO RESOLUTIONS PRESENTED TO THE CONVENTION LAST YEAR.

1. W. W. Finlator resolution:

Whereas Baptists have cherished and espoused the time honored tradition of church-state separation, and shared in the incorporation of this principle in the provision of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution regarding both the free exercise of religion and the no-establishment clause; and

Whereas Baptists have witnessed to the freedom and inviolability of conscience and demanded its protection across the years by both the church and the state; and

Whereas conscience may be formed both in the religious communion and in the secular world, both in the household of faith and in the disciplines of learning and contemplation; and

Whereas the Selective Service operates to honor and favor the consciences of young men of religious communions with pacifist traditions and to reject the appeals to conscience of other young men who have arrived at their conscientious reservations over war outside the church;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

(1) In conformity with our own principle, and mindful that the law specifically states "conscientious" and not "religious" objection, that the North Carolina Baptist Convention call upon our government and the Selective Service to honor equally the consciences of all men whether in the church or outside the church regarding their participation in military service;

- (2) That the Convention call upon the churches to give moral and spiritual support both to the young men whose consciences permit them to participate in military service and to young men whose consciences prevent them from participation; and
- (3) That we appeal to our nation out of its tradition of compassion and equity to grant amnesty to its young citizens who have chosen prison at home or sought asylum abroad to obey God and conscience, according to their convictions, rather than man.

2. Claud L. Asbury resolution:

Whereas the actual wording of the ruling of the United States Supreme Court (page 9, Engel V. Vitale, June 25, 1962, Supreme Court of the United States (Decisions), Opinions, No. 468, Nos 142 and 119; U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington: 1963) does make clear that the United States Supreme Court did rule against Voluntary Prayer in the public schools in these words, "Neither the fact that the prayer may be denominationally neutral, nor the fact that its observance on the part of the students is voluntary can serve to free it from the limitations of the Establishment Clause . . . of the First Amendment;" and

Whereas, we believe that prayer unto God should always and in all places be Voluntary on the part of the individual; and

Whereas we, the Baptists of North Carolina, do not agree with the aforestated and mentioned ruling of the United States Supreme Court against Voluntary Prayer in the public schools;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

That we, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting November 10-12, 1969, in our 139th Annual Session, Municipal Auditorium, Fayetteville, North Carolina, go on record giving our approval to Voluntary Prayer in the public schools.

COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP

The Council on Christian Higher Education is made up of the following: presidents of the colleges, deans of the colleges, chairmen of boards of trustees of the colleges, and 16 members of the General Board's Committee on Christian Higher Education. Ex officio members of the Council are Dr. W. Perry Crouch, executive secretary-treasurer of the Baptist State Convention; the Reverend John Lawrence, president of the Baptist State Convention; Dr. James Cammack, president of the General Board; and Mrs. Knolan Benfield, president of the State Woman's Missionary Union.

The following new members were elected from the General Board to the Council membership last year: English Jones, Jack Lovin, Gordon Rhodes, Lewis Wall, Jerry Wallace, and Baxter Wood.

TRAINING FOR CHURCH LEADERSHIP

The seven North Carolina Baptist colleges had enrolled last year more than 600 students who have dedicated their lives to full-time Christian service. The largest number of these young people will become pastors, missionaries, directors of religious education, directors of church music, chaplains, denominational workers, and Christian college teachers.

The North Carolina Baptist colleges are a part of a great Convention-wide program for Christian higher education enrolling more than 7,000 who have chosen to give their lives to the service of the denomination. These include 3,671 ministerial students, 863 home and foreign mission volunteers, 610 church education volunteers, 853 church mission volunteers, and 1,081 who have volunteered for some category of Christian vocational service.

One of the great needs is adequate student aid. With costs increasing yearly, many students who are preparing themselves for a Christian vocation find it harder and harder to remain in college.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

Outside of student charges, the Cooperative Program continues to be the largest single source of annual income for our colleges. The North Carolina Baptist colleges are grateful for the generous support they have received during the past year: Campbell College—$293,223; Chowan College—$175,583; Gardner-Webb College—$166,804; Mars Hill College—$252,840; Meredith College—$252,840; Wake Forest University—$430,178; and Wingate College—$184,362.

BAPTIST YOUTH CORPS

The Baptist Youth Corps has moved into its second summer of operation. This joint venture between the Baptist colleges and the Church Training Department has been a highly profitable venture for both churches and colleges. The interest in this program has been demonstrated by the large number of applications this year.

In addition to the Baptist Youth Corps, Baptist college students are working in a number of other areas and programs: Summer As-semblies, Brotherhood Department, Woman's Missionary Union, Vacation Bible School, Audio-Visual Aids, Department of Work with the Deaf, Town and Country Department, and Interracial Cooperation Department.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE ARE ANXIOUS TO SERVE

Many Baptist young people want to participate in the life of the church and the denomination. These students are anxious to be used. Weekend revival teams have been highly successful. Local churches can help by contacting both teams and individual students in offering them opportunities to serve.

BAPTIST COLLEGE DAY

Now is the time to begin preparation for the observance of Baptist College Day on Sunday, June 20, 1971. Many churches include all special offerings in their budgets. Others take the special offerings on designated days. Free bulletin inserts, bulletin covers, and offering envelopes are made available to all Baptist churches in North Carolina who wish to use them on Baptist College Day. The Baptist College Day offering helps to meet critical financial needs.

COUNCIL ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

The Council on Christian Higher Education continues to serve as a coordinating agency of the Baptist colleges and the Baptist State Convention. Special material is available in the Council office concerning all of our Baptist colleges, and is sent to churches and individuals upon request. This material may be obtained by writing the Council on Christian Higher Education, P.O. Box 26508, Raleigh, N. C. 27611.

The Council office also cooperates with local churches, pastors' conferences, and associational meetings in furnishing speakers on Christian higher education.

Visitors from local churches are always welcome in the Council office.

A LIVE OPTION

In a day when many colleges and universities assume less and less responsibility for giving guidance to the student both in his conduct and in his choice of values, the Christian college offers an option to students who wish to live and study in a free yet responsible fellowship of those committed to the Christian religion and moral heritage. Baptist colleges have not abandoned responsibility for the transmission of values as well as knowledge.

—BEN C. FISHER

RESIGNATION OF EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

In July of 1970, the Council received the resignation of its executive secretary, Dr. Ben C. Fisher, which became effective in September, 1970. Dr. Fisher accepted the position of executive secretary of the Education Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. It was with extreme regret that the Council accepted Dr. Fisher's resignation. It was noted by members of the Council that he had served eight years in a most effective, constructive, and efficient manner. His contribution to Christian higher education, within the framework of the Baptist State Convention, will have lasting effects. He was one who walked hand in hand with the Baptist State Convention and its institutions of higher learning and all of us have come to appreciate his contribution to our total Baptist life.

A special committee, consisting of Dr. Norman A. Wiggins, chairman, Dr. Budd E. Smith, Dr. C. Allen Burris, Justice Joseph Branch, Dr. English Jones, and R. F. Smith, Jr., president of the Council, was appointed to work with Dr. W. Perry Crouch to secure Dr. Fisher's successor. At the writing of this report, this committee has not made its final report.

CAMPBELL COLLEGE

FRED L. TAYLOR, Chairman, Board of Trustees
NORMAN ADRIAN WIGGINS, President

Campbell College opened the 1970 fall term with a total enrollment of 2,209. Represented in the student body were 12 foreign countries, 17 states, and 76 North Carolina counties. Of the total enrollment, 1,414 were men students and 795 were women.

Due largely to gifts received during the year in cash, securities, and gifts in kind from all sources totaling $934,008.00, the net worth of Campbell College was increased in book value the amount of $1,035,960.94, which, as verified by the auditors, made this one of the best years in the financial history of Campbell College. In its operational funds the College succeeded in operating a balanced budget on a very close margin.

The annual financial report for the year, ending May 31, 1970, showed a gross operational income of $5,144,688.89 and a net operating income of $3,685,601.57. The total book value of assets listed on the combined funds balance sheet was $12,327,944.36. The College is deeply grateful to have received from the Cooperative Program of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina the sum of $309,277.44, which amount does not include $9,639.58 received through the Baptist State Convention in restricted special purpose funds. North Carolina Baptists, through the Cooperative Program during the fiscal year ending May 31, 1970, contributed 8.65 per cent of the total net operating income received from all sources by the College. For a private Christian college with a limited endowment such as Campbell College, the financial support of the college through its Cooperative Program by the Convention is necessary and vital to its very life. The College values very highly its affiliation with the Convention and the support of North Carolina Baptist.

In order to offset rising cost to students, Campbell College has endeavored to find new sources of income for use in increasing her student aid program. During the fiscal year that ended May 31, 1970, the total student aid program amounted to $913,702.00 through which the College helped 1,336 of her students in the financial management of their expenses. This represented 59 per cent of the total student body.

During the past twelve months, much of the efforts of the Department of Advancement at Campbell College has been directed toward raising funds to replace the Religion Building that the College lost by a tragic fire. To date, the College has received cash gifts and pledges to this project totaling approximately $600,000 which is approximately one-half the funds needed before construction can begin. The College is hopeful that the additional funds can be secured during the coming year so that this greatly needed facility can be replaced.

The following statement of plant indebtedness as of October 1, 1970, is submitted by the Business Manager, Lonnie D. Small.

CHOWAN COLLEGE

M. E. VALENTINE, Chairman, Board of Trustees

BRUCE E. WHITAKER, President

Chowan College began her 123rd year of educational service to North Carolina Baptists on August 23, 1970, with the arrival of and orientation for the largest number of freshmen students ever enrolled at the college. By the end of the matriculation period for the fall semester (September 2) a total of 1,483 students had enrolled in the various curricula offered by the college. The full-time equivalency figure—considered the official enrollment—was 1,472. A further breakdown of enrollment indicates the following: (1) sophomores and returning students, 503; (2) freshmen and transfers, 938; (3) students completing the 33-month nursing curriculum at Duke University Hospital, 17; (4) medical secretarial interns, 1; and (5) "special" students (those enrolled for less than 12 credit hours), 24.

South Hall—a new 280-bed residence for men—was ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall term. Its completion has allowed the discontinuance of the use of certain housing facilities which had become inadequate and/or overcrowded. Occupancy of this residence hall has also enabled the college to remove male students from the historic McDowell Columns and to restore a portion of that facility to its former use as a residence hall for women. South Hall was dedicated on October 24, with Congressman Walter B. Jones as guest speaker for the occasion.

The faculty-staff continues to grow—in both quantity and quality—in meeting the challenges and opportunities of each new student generation. Currently, the teaching faculty consists of 72 persons who are employed on a full-time basis and 13 who are employed on a part-time basis. Some 30 members of the faculty were engaged in further graduate studies during the summer of 1970. Notable additions to the faculty-staff included the naming of a Director of Development, replacing Mr. Virgil L. McBride, and the addition of a full-time faculty member in the area of Art, thus returning this discipline to the curriculum after several years during which no course offerings were made available to Chowan students.

The current five-year development campaign—initiated in 1966 and designed towards the cost of constructing the Whitaker Library—will be completed by the close of this fiscal year, with income in excess of the original goal of $550,000.00. It is anticipated that the college will then initiate efforts for securing funds towards the cost of constructing and equipping a much-needed science-engineering facility. To this end, the Fifth Annual Planning Conference—conducted on September 19—focused upon the needs and opportunities of the college in the area of the natural sciences. Green Hall, the present science facility, was constructed to serve a student body of approximately 400.

Staff, faculty, and students continue to be engaged in various religious and civic functions on the campus and within the larger community. The Baptist Student Union has youth teams available to minister in the churches upon request. Baptists throughout the State are urged to call upon the college for such religious services, or for any other kind of service which it lies within our province to render.

The indebtedness of Chowan College as of November 1, 1970, is as follows:

Date	Original Amount	Interest Rate	Purpose	Amount Due
12/1/59	$235,000	3 1/8 percent	Boys' Housing	$ 202,000.00

In the first three instances, loans were made from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, covering a 40-year period and carrying interest charges indicated. Each is self-liquidating. In the fourth instance, the loan was from the U. S. Office of Education. In the sixth instance, the loan was from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, for purposes of constructing a new 280-bed dormitory for men. The loan for additional land is by arrangement with the original owner who, for tax purposes, would not agree to be paid other than over a period of approximately 12 years; approximately 115 acres immediately adjacent to the main campus is involved. Moreover, by actions of the 1968 and 1969 Conventions, Chowan has been granted permission to borrow up to $950,000.00 for purposes of constructing a new science-engineering facility which is expected to cost approximately $1,250,000, equipped.

The college continues to make every possible effort to serve Baptist students from North Carolina. This is being done through visitation within the high schools throughout the State, through correspondence with pastors of Baptist churches, and through visitation upon certain associational meetings. All Baptists are urged to become acquainted with the educational opportunities afforded by Chowan College through correspondence with the appropriate college officials and/or visits to the campus. The aid of all North Carolina Baptists is solicited in helping us to serve you better.

GARDNER-WEBB COLLEGE

LLOYD C. BOST, Chairman, Board of Trustees

E. EUGENE POSTON, President

The fulfillment of a dream has become a reality. Gardner-Webb College is now a senior college. The senior class was added to the college at the opening of the 64th year of service to the Baptists of North Carolina. When the senior college program was approved by the Trustees in 1961, a goal of 1,000 students by 1970-71 was projected. The actual enrollment for this school year is 1,538 with 307 of these being seniors.

These 1,538 students are being taught by 88 faculty members. The administrative staff numbers 56, and 44 make up the maintenance and cafeteria staffs.

The college is in the midst of a campaign to raise $1,500,000 for the construction of a new library building, a classroom building, a dormitory, and to enlarge the Webb Administration Building. Endowment Funds are being sought to assure stability in faculty and curriculum.

Even though Gardner-Webb will remain primarily a liberal arts senior college, she will continue to offer the two-year Nursing Program and the two-year Data Processing Program. A very important addition for the present year is an IBM 1130 Computer. The Computer will be used in the academic and administrative phases of the college. A Computer Science Major is already a part of the senior college program.

A strong program for the recruitment of ministerial students was begun two years ago. At the present time there are 99 ministerial students at Gardner-Webb. There are 55 others preparing for full-time Christian vocations. More emphasis will be put on this program in the future. During the past summer 24 students did mission work in six states—New Mexico, Pennsylvania, Illinois, New Jersey, North Carolina, and South Carolina. The intern program for ministerial students, under the leadership of the Reverend Charles W. Freeman, College Minister, has proved to be a success.

The Gardner-Webb College Library passed the 50,000 mark in volumes on the shelves. Presently there are 50,647 volumes in the Dover Memorial Library. During the past year 9,965 volumes were added to the Library.

The College Endowment Funds have increased $125,000 during the past year. The plant assets increased $180,000. At the present time the assets of the college are valued at $8,600,000. The endowment fund is valued at $2,065,000 (including an irrevocable trust).

As of June 30, 1970, Gardner-Webb College owed a debt of $985,585 to the First Union National Bank of Charlotte, North Carolina. This is being amortized at $11,000 per month plus interest.

Gardner-Webb College is proud to be a part of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. We realize that the Cooperative Program is the lifeline for Christian education, missions and evangelism, and all the other work of Baptists. We pledge to support the Baptist cause throughout North Carolina, the Southern Baptist Convention, and the Baptist World Alliance. It is our desire to help every Baptist within the range of our ability.

Gardner-Webb's purpose is clear and concise "To develop quality Christian students who will think for themselves and who will dedicate themselves to the Christian way of life in the vocation of their own choice." We shall strive to fulfill this purpose in every phase of the life of the college.

MARS HILL COLLEGE

RALPH H. RAMSEY, Chairman, Board of Trustees

FRED B. BENTLEY, President

The Mars Hill College campus is always alive with activity, but the 1969-70 session was exceptionally busy. Our cumulative enrollment for the academic year was 1,381 students. The August 1970 tally showed a total of 1,494 students, with 60 percent of them coming from North Carolina. The remainder represents 25 other states and 3 foreign countries. Of our total student enrollment, 74 percent are members of the Baptist church.

The $3,000,000 fund-raising effort, which was officially launched by the college last August, passed the $865,000 mark as the year closed. The three-year effort is designed to raise funds with which to finance the second phase of our ten-year development program entitled "Emphasis on Excellence." Its four-phase goal includes (1) continuation of the faculty development program; (2) endowment of a scholarship program to attract students of high achievement; (3) amortization of indebtedness on recent capital construction; and (4) accumulation of funds with which to begin the Blackwell Classroom-Administration Building.

It was in connection with the development program that the college organized 24 alumni chapters throughout this state and in surrounding states. With an active alumni program the college hopes that its graduates will be better informed about the developments within the college.

A permanent chair in the Department of Religion will be established as a result of a bequest from the late Clyde Herman Bost of Newton, North Carolina. As a result of a grant in the amount of $10,000 from the Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation, the college has established an on-campus tutoring program which calls upon the services of a newly-appointed specialist in reading. This on-campus tutoring program will give assistance to students experiencing difficulty in their subject areas. In concept the upper-level students who have attained high achievement within their subject areas will work through the tutoring center to assist their peers who are experiencing difficulty.

For the third year Mars Hill College has received a substantial grant ($65,000) from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation to expand its experiential program in community development with emphasis on our student teacher program in which Mars Hill College students tutor Madison and Buncombe County students within the home situation. It is felt that this program will allow our students to have greater insight into the needs of the children whom they will be teaching within the classroom setting; this should also develop within the student a sense of service and compassion toward his fellow man.

During the summer months the college was host to 300 young people who are members of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. The FCA conducted its one week's program on the Mars Hill College campus and it is anticipated that this will become an annual event. The college was also the host to 450 ministers and their families during the Week of Christian Study and Fellowship. As was the case in past years, the college was also host to several conferences representing public school groups, bands and athletic camps.

In May the college graduated 227 seniors and in August 62 were graduated, for a total of 289 graduates for the year.

The college presently has a total campus plant which if taken at its replacement value would amount to approximately $12,000,000. As of May 31 the total indebtedness on these facilities was approximately $450,000. The college has a plan whereby even this indebtedness will be amortized over the next two years. Mars Hill College closed its 1970 year with a balanced $3,000,000 budget. It is because of the great assistance of the Baptists of North Carolina that Mars Hill is able to continue to operate in this very effective ministry.

MEREDITH COLLEGE

SHEARON HARRIS, Chairman, Board of Trustees

E. BRUCE HEILMAN, President

Meredith College enrollment for the 1969-70 fall term was 1,013, of which number 946 were degree candidates. They came from five foreign countries, twenty states and 190 North Carolina communities. Fall semester enrollment for 1970-71, Meredith's seventy-second full school term, numbers 1,109 degree candidates (an increase of 17 per cent over last year) and 37 special students, making a total of 1,146. In addition, the college is serving the community by providing music instruction to approximately 125 non-college students. A sixth dormitory, costing $775,000 has been completed and is now housing 148 students, and a seventh dormitory is now under construction.

The Bachelor of Arts degree was awarded to 166 young women in the 1970 commencement exercises.

During commencement, Distinguished Alumnae Awards were granted to Mrs. James Reid of Raleigh and Dr. Lois Johnson of Wagram.

The interinstitutional cooperation between Meredith and North Carolina State University, Peace College, St. Augustine's College, St. Mary's College, and Shaw University has gone forward this year under the leadership of its coordinator Dr. John Yarbrough. During 1969-70, students from each of the other five institutions took courses at Meredith as exchange students.

Meredith students continue to be active in church and community. In addition to participating in programs of the church and Convention, Meredith girls give a number of hours each week to the State School for the Blind and to Dorothea Dix State Hospital. They also give tutorial assistance to children from six to sixteen in the local schools. It is also important to note that 159 Meredith students have indicated an interest in church-related vocations.

The college recently dedicated the Weatherspoon Physical Education-Recreation Building, which was made possible by a gift of $400,000 from the families of W. Herbert Weatherspoon and his brother, the late James R. Weatherspoon.

During the year the college also received many large and unique gifts from various sources. For example, the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation awarded Meredith a $100,000 grant for improvements in faculty benefits and for financial aid for students; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Strawbridge made a large investment in the Organ Fund which has enabled the college to begin installation of the new Cooper Organ in Jones Auditorium; and an alumna, Mrs. Madge Daniels Barber, has established the Westcott-Daniels Scholarship Fund. The most unique gift received by the college was presented by the girls of Stringfield Dormitory, a freshman residence hall, to establish the String Scholastic Fund.

Meredith's 1969-70 financial audit as of June 30, 1970, lists the total assets of the college at $10,605,629. The indebtedness as of that date included a loan of $535,000 from the Housing and Home Finance Agency for Poteat Dormitory and the Delia Dixon Carroll Infirmary and a $684,000 loan from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Office of Education, for the Carlyle Campbell Library. Both loans extend over a 40-year period and carry an interest rate of three per cent.

The Meredith College Advancement Program, a capital campaign with stated objective of five million dollars, is continuing with current gifts and pledges totaling approximately $3,700,000.

Investments are being invited through campaign activities throughout the state, including corporation, foundation, alumnae and other interested friends of the college.

Meredith College received during the 1969-70 fiscal year $250,408.54 from the Cooperative Program. The total gifts to the college amounted to $850,486.05 of which $538,055.00 went for capital operations and $312,431.05 for current operations. Meredith alumnae support continued to be substantial as alumnae annual giving totaled $23,782.78 in addition to over $425,000 in gifts and pledges to the capital campaign.

Although the college is concentrating maximum effort toward meeting the five-million capital program, efforts are continuing to secure necessary resources for support of its scholarship programs and instructional program requirements.

WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

JOSEPH BRANCH, President, Board of Trustees

JAMES RALPH SCALES, President

Wake Forest University expanded programs in each of its schools during 1969-70 and adopted curriculum changes designed to offer more challenge, more flexibility and greater relevance.

Dedication of the Charles H. Babcock School of Business Administration building was held Oct. 11, when it was announced that $100,000 had been given to the school by the Arca Foundation. In December the Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation gave $2 million to the Babcock School for its initial endowment. Because the business school will be offering only graduate work by 1973, two new departments, economics and business and accounting, were established in the undergraduate college.

The Medical Center (composed of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine and North Carolina Baptist Hospital) completed the first phase of its $30 million building program in time for the beginning of classes in September, 1969. The new facilities—which include the Hanes Building, a 122,000-square-foot addition to the Medical School, and the 400-seat Charles H. Babcock Auditorium—enabled the Medical School to increase its freshman class enrollment to 76. By 1972 the total enrollment of medical students will be 300, nearly 100 more than it was before the expansion began.

The new educational facilities also made it possible for the Medical School to install a new curriculum and to develop new programs designed to better enable the school to meet the present and future health needs of society.

The undergraduate faculty approved a revised curriculum which will be effective in the fall of 1971. Its chief feature will be the addition of a one-month winter term which will allow time for off-campus projects and for intensive study in one field. Another change does away with hour requirements for graduation in favor of 35½ courses. The new curriculum was under study for more than two years and will be given a two-year trial.

New this fall is the Semester in India program under Dr. B. G. Gokhale, professor of history and director of the Asian Studies Program, which is being held at Fergusson College in Poona. Summer programs included the University's first archaeological field school, which was conducted near Taos, N. M., and the Overseas Research Center, held this year in Costa Rica.

Dr. Pasco M. Bowman II, a former law professor at the University of Georgia, has become the new dean of the School of Law. He succeeds Carroll W. Weathers, who has retired as dean but will continue to teach.

The Graduate School completed plans during 1969-70 for the beginning of a Ph.D. program in the Department of Biology this fall.

Construction has begun on a new dormitory which will furnish living space for almost 300 coeds. Total cost will be about $2,200,000 including furnishings and landscaping and the estimated completion date is Aug. 1, 1971.

During the past year death has claimed the lives of three distinguished former trustees of the University. They are Dr. Carl Vann Tyner of Eden, prominent surgeon and civic leader and a former president of the Wake Forest Alumni Association; Dr. Dewey Herbert Bridger of Bladenboro, a medical leader in the state; and Charles B. Deane of Rockingham, former U. S. Congressman and former president of the Baptist State Convention.

The University also was saddened by the deaths of six faculty and staff members: Dr. Camillo Artom, internationally known biochemist and professor emeritus at the Medical School; Dr. Howard Holt Bradshaw, a member of the Medical School faculty and former chairman of the Department of Surgery; Talcott W.

Brewer of Raleigh, treasurer of the University from 1912 until 1958; Marceleno Delgado, instructor in Spanish; Joseph Oliver Gilliam, Jr., assistant to the treasurer; and Dr. Henry Lawrence Snuggs, professor of English and former chairman of the English Department.

The University began the 1970-71 academic year with an enrollment of 3,275. This includes 2,521 students in Wake Forest College and the School of Business Administration, 273 in the School of Medicine, 235 in the School of Law, and 246 in the Graduate School. Each school has a slight increase in enrollment.

A record budget of $21,644,651 has been adopted by the University for the 1970-71 fiscal year. Of this amount $9,720,651 is for the School of Medicine.

Wake Forest University is grateful for the continued support of the Convention. During 1969-70 the University received $426,852 from the Cooperative Program.

Following is an analysis of the University's outstanding loans as of June 30, 1970:

Date	Original Amount	Interest Payable	Purpose	Dates of Maturity	Security Pledged	Principal Balance

BUDD E. SMITH, President

For the year 1970-71 the enrollment of Wingate College is 1,686. The enrollment has 676 sophomores, 952 freshmen, and 58 special and evening class students. There are 1,138 men and 548 women. 371 come from North Carolina; the others come from 19 states and 12 foreign countries.

The budget for 1970-71 is $3,258,938.

Principal Balance	Date	Interest Rate	Purpose	Maturity	Security
$ 15,888	11-1-56	2¾ %	Housing	11-1-76	Dormitory
201,801	7-1-64	6 %	Housing	7-1-74	Dormitory

The average compensation for teachers at Wingate is approximately $9,400 for nine months. Fringe benefits for teachers and staff members include hospitalization, insurance retirement, social security, tuition payments for graduate study, fellowships, moving expenses, free tuition for children of employees, and travel expense to professional meetings.

Wingate has just recently completed two new buildings, and they are occupied for the first time. One is a textile-engineering building costing about $550,000. This building was given to the college by Mr. Charles A. Cannon and will be known as the Charles A.

Cannon Textile-Engineering Building. The building houses all facilities for engineering, textiles, physics, meteorology, astronomy and mathematics. The top of the roof is an observatory for use in meteorology and astronomy. The classrooms are well equipped and appropriate for excellent teaching.

The second complex of buildings to be completed is the dormitory complex of two dormitories and a lounge area serving the dormitories. One dormitory is to be known as the Rushing Residence Hall honoring Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Rushing of Marshville. The second is to be known as the H. Conrad Bridges Residence Hall honoring Mr. H. Conrad Bridges of Charlotte. The lounge honors Mr. J. P. Hackney, Jr., of Charlotte who has been a long time friend and alumnus of the school. All of these men have served well as members of the Board of Trustees during the last fifteen years.

These new facilities cost approximately $1,600,000. The trustees were able to finance all of this without adding to the total indebtedness of the college.

Wingate College Library now has more than 48,000 volumes and continues to be an outstanding junior college library. Plans are now under way for an addition to be built and completed in 1972. Funds have already been contributed for the construction of this new facility and will be sufficient to take care of 100,000 volumes. The budget for library operation during 1970-71 is $85,000.

The commuting students at Wingate College continue to drop, and this again points up the importance of trying to serve primarily as a resident college. There are no plans for the college to become a senior institution. However, Wingate will continue to try and do a good job for the first two years of college, giving an opportunity to young people to begin their college education and continue wherever they choose the last two years.

There are approximately 200 employees of the college, and each is keenly aware of the relationship between the Convention and the College. The importance of the Cooperative Program is understood by each one, and this is explained to all students and faculty members. The philosophy of Wingate College is that an investment in a young person is an investment in eternity and that our business is education of the whole person who desires an opportunity.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer V. Lang of Charlotte, North Carolina have established a trust fund to endow professorships at Wingate College, and Mr. Irwin Belk has established an endowed scholarship program for students. The funds in these trusts are accumulating and the income will be used beginning in 1973.

The college trustees have recently commissioned Dr. H. I. Hester to write a History of Wingate College. This is being done and completion is expected within a year.

A new home for the academic dean has recently been constructed and is now being used by Dr. Jerry Surratt who has served as academic dean for three years. This addition means that the college property is now valued at about 13½ million dollars. There are 245 acres of land extending to the east to the old campus, and much of this has now been used to construct a nine-hole golf course which will be used by trustees and friends of the school as well as the students.

I. DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICES

1. Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated

DON G. BRYANT, Chairman Board of Trustees

W. R. WAGONER, President

Child care as practiced by the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina is a ministry dedicated to serving children and to the strengthening of wholesome Christian family life. Services are provided throughout the state from three primary centers of operation; namely: Mills Home, Thomasville; Kennedy Home, Kinston; and the Regional Social Service Center in Asheville. The Broyhill Home, when opened, will become the center of operation for Western North Carolina. Whatever the type of service, the agency is concerned with the development of the total person. A child's growth physically, mentally, socially and spiritually, as well as the needs of other members of his family, becomes the day by day concern of the personnel of the Homes.

Progress is being made in the agency's Long Range Plans to provide more adequate services to people in need and to upgrade and expand existing facilities. The H. S. and Eloise B. Stokes and the Spurgeon J. Craver Memorial Cottages on the Mills Home Campus have been completed and occupied. A maternity home in Asheville has been purchased, renovated, furnished and opened. The W. H. Jones Memorial Infirmary on the Kennedy Home Campus has been completed and is in use. The C. I. Robinson Memorial Recreation Building (first unit) will be in use by early 1971. Two cottages for children are under construction on the Broyhill Home Campus and are scheduled for completion in the spring of 1971.

The Children's Homes, during the past year, lost two of its most faithful servants by death. Miss Sallie McCracken spent seventy-three fruitful years of her life at Mills Home. From the administration of J. B. Boone to that of W. R. Wagoner, Miss Sallie served the Homes in a unique way. W. C. Reed became Superintendent of Kennedy Home in 1943, a position he held for seven years. From 1950 to 1958 he served as General Superintendent. During retirement he served as consultant to the agency and wrote a history of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, soon to be published.

J. Parker McLendon joined the staff of the Children's Homes July 15, 1970 as Superintendent of Mills Home and area administrator for Piedmont North Carolina. A native of Florida, a graduate of Stetson University and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Mr. McLendon came to the Homes from a fruitful seven-year pastorate with the First Baptist Church of Elkin.

Having realized an excellent response to the Founders and Builders Program in Western North Carolina, a Ten Star Builders Program has been launched in Eastern North Carolina. This is a public program designed for the expansion and development of child care and family services for Eastern North Carolina. During the next decade $2,500,000 is being sought for capital improvements and $3,000,000 for endowment.

Members of the Board of Trustees and members of the staff of the Homes are dedicated to a program of child care that will merit the undivided loyalty and support of our people and that will be worthy the blessings of our Lord. In this spirit support through the Cooperative Program, the Thanksgiving Offering and special gifts are received and used.

2. North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging

WILLIAM A. POOLE, Superintendent

God has blessed our Homes for the Aging through all of our nineteen years, and during the past year in a very special way. We acknowledge His goodness and thank Him for every manifestation of His love. We also want to express sincere gratitude to our Baptist people for their increased love and concern for the 195 dear elderly people to whom we are ministering in our five Baptist Homes: Resthaven, the Hayes Home, and Nursing Care Unit, in Winston-Salem; the Albemarle Home, in Albemarle; the Hamilton Home, in Hamilton; and the Yanceyville Home, in Yanceyville.

An urgent appeal was made to our Baptist people before our offering in February to help us reduce the alarming deficit in the operation of the Homes. This plea was heard, and the offering, of $168,349.34, from July 1, 1969 through June 30, 1970 from our Baptist Churches, has exceeded all other offerings in previous years. How grateful we are for this increase. We want to urge our people, however, to continue giving liberally to our Homes and to remember that we are still confronted with the staggering cost of living and the great need to strengthen the total economy of the Homes as we try to move forward in developing and expanding this vital ministry to the aging.

For example, even though our offering reflects an increase over the previous year, this increase will only take care of approximately half of the additional amount necessary in operating the Homes for the coming year, due to inflationary pressures.

Of great interest in our Development Program is a proposed new addition to our present Nursing Care Unit. Judge and Mrs. William M. York, of Greensboro, North Carolina, have offered a gift of $80,000.00 to the Homes for this purpose, contingent upon the Homes raising an additional $80,000.00 by January 1, 1970. If this proposal is fulfilled, 10 additional rooms would be made available, with accommodations for 20 people, and bringing our total nursing care capacity to 76 beds. We appeal to our Baptist people to pray for the success of this very special project in the care of our elderly sick.

There is no greater security for an older person than that of the Christian nurture and love offered in our Baptist Homes, and we thank the Lord, and our Baptist people, for this ministry. We shall continue to look to Him, and to our people, on behalf of these to whom Christian love means so much, in the faith that our needs will be supplied.

3. North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated

COLIN STOKES, Chairman, Board of Trustees

REID T. HOLMES, President and Chief Executive Officer

Your hospital acts as a referral center for complicated and obscure diseases for people all over the state of North Carolina. Approximately 150,000 patients were seen in the service clinics and the private clinics housed in your hospital and medical center. These sick people came from every one of the one hundred counties in North Carolina and from nearby states. Approximately 20,000 of these people were admitted to the hospital for special care and treatment.

Your Baptist Hospital is the teaching hospital for the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University, and as such is expected to have the latest medical and surgical techniques and the newest equipment and devices available for curing obscure diseases. Practically all of our patients except emergencies are referred to the hospital by their local family physicians.

Last year construction of the Paramedical School building for nursing students and the School of Allied Health Sciences, operated in connection with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, was completed and is now in operation. There are approximately ten different paramedical programs being taught to produce health personnel. We are very proud of this particular facility which will contribute so much to the production of trained health personnel, not only for our needs but for the state and region at large.

Since your last annual meeting we have been busy in other building expansion programs. We have finished a new Power Plant to serve the medical center, and a five-story addition to the Medical School and a four hundred seat auditorium are already completed for their use. We have increased the number of parking spaces significantly available to patients and personnel around the two institutions. A new road known as Medical Center Boulevard has been completed from the East-West Expressway to the front of the new patient tower, which is now under construction after several months of excavation and placing of footings for the sixteen-story building.

Exclusive of the Paramedical School, we have a fund raising goal for the joint medical school-hospital physical building program of $40,686,905. We are still approximately $10,000,000 short of our goal. We will need to get authority from the Convention to borrow this money as construction loans and later, if necessary, authorize long-term loans for any difference we cannot raise currently.

Hospital costs, and therefore charges to patients, have greatly increased over the last five to six years due to inflation and shortage of medical personnel. It has been increasingly difficult for sick patients, whether private or service, to pay their hospital and doctor bills. Consequently, there is a major problem in hospital financing. We are grateful for the Mother's Day offering, and there is a great need in light of present circumstances for the Mother's Day gifts to increase. In addition, the Cooperative Program funds for the hospital should be increased to help keep us financially sound and able to perform our charitable mission. There are many people who are medically indigent in the sense that they have enough money to live, but if an illness occurs in the family, they have no means of paying more than a part, if any, of the hospital costs.

We wish to acknowledge the work of the Board of Visitors of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, in particular, Albert Butler as Chairman, and John Watlington, the Chairman of the fund raising efforts for our Medical Center Development Program. Mr. Tom Davis who is chairing a statewide effort has assumed responsibility for this latter phase of fund raising. This Board has done a monumental task in helping us to raise money to provide buildings for our expanded programs in the North Carolina Baptist Hospital and the Bowman Gray School of Medicine.

The source of funds will be $5,000,000 from a fund drive (state-wide) and, if necessary, a long-term loan not exceeding $10,000,000. To date we have, together with the Medical School, received or receivable $26,028,000; estimated total project costs are $40,686,905.

IV. REPORT OF DIRECTORS OF "BIBLICAL RECORDER"

By keeping a close eye on all expenses, the Biblical Recorder was able to stay in the black last year—much to the surprise of the staff and board of directors. It will be remembered that the Recorder has not increased subscription prices in 11 years. For the first time in 13 years, the Recorder will receive a $3,500 increase in its allocations from the Baptist State Convention in 1971. This is deeply appreciated but in view of rising costs, it is little more than a stop-gap measure.

The directors of the Biblical Recorder, Inc., are pleased to present the following report to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina for the year ended September 30, 1970.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

As the report above reveals, circulation increased nearly 1,000 in the past year. This comes at a time when many religious publications are suffering sharp decreases in circulation, and in some cases, have folded up completely. This is not true at the Recorder which remains healthy and vigorous as it begins its 138th year of service next January 18.

In the past year, the Recorder was pleased to have had a part in the election of Dr. Carl Bates of Charlotte as president of the Southern Baptist Convention. A Recorder editorial last May endorsing him was considered a factor in his election on the first ballot at Denver. It is an honor to have the convention president from our state. This is just one example of the influence the Recorder has had in the past year.

The Recorder promises to continue its fight against liquor by the drink, even in the face of strong opposition from those who are pushing for a greater flow of liquor in our state. It will do everything possible to give Baptists the full story on the 1971 General Assembly, especially with regard to moral issues.

Looking to the future, additional sources of income must be found if the Recorder is to keep its books in balance. The staff and directors will explore every possibility, hoping to keep any increase as modest as possible. In the meantime, the support of North Carolina Baptists is deeply appreciated.

V. REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION, INC.

C. GORDON MADDREY, Executive Secretary

The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc. is very pleased to report that substantial progress was made in both the physical assets and a wider acceptance of the services offered by the Foundation. We have seen real estate increase in value by gifts to approximately $100,000.00. Our dollars and cents assets have increased over $21,000.00 during the past fiscal year. In other words, the Baptist Foundation has shown a steady and healthy increase in an acceptance of the services available to our Baptist people.

Our securities as of June 30, 1970, amounted to $562,708.89. This shows a dollar and cents increase of $21,456.43 in growth in securities, plus various funds that have been added to the corpus since the last report of June 30, 1969. Our real estate held at the present time represents an appraised value of approximately $600,000.00, making our total assets in excess of $1,100,000.00.

The Foundation is most anxious to help individuals by explaining the Baptist Foundation and its operation; by furnishing information as to correct names of Baptist agencies and institutions; by meeting with you and your attorney upon your request in connection with preparation of legal documents when the Baptist Foundation is to be involved; by furnishing speakers — staff members representing the Baptist Foundation are available for pulpit supply and to speak on other occasions; by investing funds; by safeguarding funds; by managing trust funds; by supporting its Agencies and Institutions; and, by supporting the total program of the denomination.

To our pastors, associational superintendents, Foundation Representatives, Moderators, and to our many friends, we wish to express our deepest appreciation for your support of the aims and purposes of the Foundation during the past fiscal year. It sounds repetitious, but frankly very little can be accomplished without your support and help.

VI. REPORT ON CONVENTION COMMITTEES

A. MEMORIALS COMMITTEE

Jesus made preparation for his own memorial at the Last Supper when he said, "This do in remembrance of me." (Luke 22:19b) Thus when we celebrate the Lord's Supper, we honor the memory of his broken body and shed blood.

Jesus would have us to memorialize those, our friends and loved ones in the ministry, who have taken leave of this life and have entered into the new life. They have responded to two calls from the Lord: first, to a special work in his vineyard, and second, to a final reward in the Father's house.

We cannot forget their works because they are all about us to help and encourage us to build upon their foundation. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." (Revelation 14:13)

It is fitting that this convention has found time in the program proceedings to honor their memory, and we do recommend that space be found in the Convention Annual to record their names for posterity.

This list would include the names of all deceased ministers and leaders of our state Baptist convention for the 1970 convention year.

We also recommend that the annual be dedicated to Mr. W. C. Reed, Dr. T. L. Sasser, and Miss Sallie McCracken.

B. REPORT OF THE HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

ALLEN BURRIS, Chairman

The Historical Committee functions as periodic adviser to Mr. John R. Woodard who, as Director of the Baptist Historical Collection, coordinates the efforts of North Carolina Baptists to locate, collect, preserve, and make available the documentary and artifactual evidence of their past. With the close cooperation of Wake Forest University, through its facilities and financial support, Mr. Woodard continues to provide this service in an excellent manner.

Additions to the Collection during 1969-1970 have been significant. Two hundred and sixty-six (266) titles, by or about Baptists, have been added to the accession list. Many of these are old editions, long out of print. A total of one hundred and ninety-two (192) minutes of associations and other groups have been acquired and are available to researchers. Biographical files on Baptist leaders continue to grow; more than four hundred items have been added this year. The collection of church records was enlarged by the microfilming of the records of seven churches, totaling some thirty (30) volumes and by the acquisition of one (1) volume of original records and one (1) photocopy, making the records of 266 churches now available to researchers. It is hoped that more churches will avail themselves of the microfilm services or of the opportunity to deposit their records on loan with the Collection. A vertical file containing church histories, sketches, pamphlets, programs, and news clippings is maintained. Six thousand two hundred and thirty-four (6,234) items were added to this file during the past year. Forty-two of these items were church histories, constituting the largest number added at one time since Mr. Woodard began with the Collection in 1964, thirty-four of these from Bladen Association. Thirteen private collections were processed. The Collection staff is also working on the separation of Baptist materials from University records bound for the University Archives.

Just as significant as the collection of material is the fact that people are using it. Seventy-four different persons visited and used the facilities this year. Forty-seven others utilized the Collection by mail. Researchers from many parts of the state and country studied topics ranging from Roger Williams to Jim Crow; from alcoholic beverages to mass conversion. Special projects included the completion of the Biblical Recorder Index; cooperation with other Baptist Colleges on their historical records; adding to Obituary Card files; consolidating and weeding of the Collection; planning for a printed guide to the Collection; and encouraging regional collection at other Baptist Colleges.

The Historical Committee strongly encourages the churches, colleges, and other institutions to preserve the records of their own past and to make them available to writers who can tell the story of men and institutions so that we might understand ourselves and our mission in the light of history.

C. COMMITTEE ON TRUSTEE ORIENTATION

A. DOUGLAS ALDRICH, Chairman

In response to its assigned duties by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, your committee on Trustee Orientation planned and implemented an annual meeting with an orientation program for the trustees and the directors of our Convention institutions and agencies. This meeting was held at the Hilton Inn in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on January 2-3, 1970. The theme for the sessions was, "The Future Is Now."

Program personalities and their topics included:

- Dr. Sidney Tickton, Vice President and Treasurer of the Academy for Educational Development, Inc., Washington, D. C., who spoke on the subject, "Long-Range Planning and Budgeting."
- Dr. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, who spoke on the subject, "Our Convention and Our Institutions Face the Future Together."
- Dr. R. C. Campbell, President of Buckner Baptist Benevolence, Dallas, Texas, who spoke on the subject, "We Cannot Plot the Future on the Premise of an Infallible Past."
- Dr. Ben C. Fisher, Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education, who spoke on the subject, "The Expanding Role of the Trustee."
- Dr. J. Ralph Scales, President of Wake Forest University, who spoke on the subject "The Campus After a Decade of Upheaval."

Attendance at this conference ranged near the 300 mark.

Several meetings of the Committee have been held in 1970 in anticipation of the next annual meeting to be held in Durham, North Carolina, in January, 1971. Dr. Raymond Stone, President of Sandhills Community College in Southern Pines, North Carolina, is chairman of the committee planning the 1971 meeting.

Trustees and directors of our institutions are enthusiastically encouraged to participate in these annual meetings.

FULL TEXT OF THE RESOLUTIONS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL BOARD ON PAGE 116

RESOLUTION TO BORROW FUNDS FOR THE BOWMAN GRAY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE OF
WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

Whereas, The Trustees of Wake Forest University in cooperation with the Trustees of the North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc., are carrying out a major program of expansion and renovation of Medical Center facilities which is designed to allow a significant increase in medical and allied health student bodies and patient care services;

Whereas, Factors beyond control such as inflation and construction delays, have increased the estimated costs of the program from $30,000,000 to $40,800,000;

Whereas, To this date, October 1, 1970, very successful fund raising has resulted in over $26,000,000 received or receivable for this program;

Whereas, The balance of funds required will be obtained through a second campaign and a long term loan to be amortized by hospital revenue;

Whereas, Cash flow requirements of the program must be met through a working capital loan;

Whereas, The medical school share in borrowing for this loan will approximate $2,000,000;

And Whereas, The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina has approved borrowing of up to $725,000 in November, 1965:

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in session in the City of Greensboro, North Carolina, on November 9-11, 1970:

1. That the Trustees of Wake Forest University be empowered to borrow a sum not in excess of two million dollars (including $725,000 already authorized in 1965) to be used for the Medical Center Development Program.

2. That the sum actually borrowed together with interest thereon shall be repaid as rapidly as possible from funds received from the campaign and other sources.

3. That no part of the indebtedness which may be incurred by Wake Forest University under the authority of this Resolution in any request be deemed or held to be an indebtedness or obligation of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, nor shall its General Board assume any responsibility whatever for the repayment of such loan or any interest thereon.

RESOLUTION TO BORROW FUNDS FOR

Whereas, Cash flow requirements of the program must be met through a working capital loan; and

Whereas, The Hospital share in borrowing for this loan will approximate $8,500,000;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in session in the City of Greensboro, North Carolina, on November 9-11, 1970;

1. That the Trustees of the North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. be empowered to borrow a sum not in excess of eight million five hundred thousand dollars to be used for the Medical Center Development Program. This will include one million five hundred thousand dollars authorized by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention November, 1965 but not borrowed to date.

2. That the sum actually borrowed together with interest thereon shall be repaid as rapidly as possible from funds received from the campaign and other sources.

3. That no part of the indebtedness which may be incurred by North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. under the authority of this Resolution shall in any respect be deemed or held to be an indebtedness or obligation of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, nor shall its General Board assume any responsibility whatever for the repayment of such loan or any interest thereon.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING CAMPBELL COLLEGE REQUEST TO BORROW $1,900,000.00

Whereas, The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina did in session in Asheville, North Carolina, on November 13-17, 1967, authorized Campbell College to borrow the additional sum of $225,000 for use in the construction of sixteen three-bedroom faculty apartments which were authorized by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention in regular session in Charlotte, North Carolina, November 16-17, 1965; and

Whereas, It seemed wise for the Campbell College Board of Trustees to delay the construction of the sixteen three-bedroom faculty apartments until Government funds were available and could be borrowed by Campbell College; and

Whereas, In the delayed period Campbell College did, under the direction of landscape architect, Robert C. Rucker, master plan its campus on a long-range basis; and

Whereas, This plan as adopted by the Campbell College Board of Trustees did call for as being greatly needed, the construction of a 375-capacity men's residence hall to replace all substandard housing presently occupied by its male students, and which residence hall was to include additional needed dining space; and

Whereas, Accordingly the Campbell College Board of Trustees did, as soon as funds became available to Campbell College, direct the administration of Campbell College to file an application with the Federal Housing Urban Development Agency for a loan in the amount of $1,900,000, subject to final approval by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, and to be repaid over a fifty-year period at 3 per cent interest. The funds to be used for construction of the delayed sixteen faculty apartments and a 375-capacity men's residence hall including additional dining room space, and

Whereas, The Federal Housing Urban Development Agency did advise Campbell College on June 23, 1970, of their approval of a $1,900,000, 3 per cent loan for use by Campbell College in the construction of sixteen three-bedroom faculty apartments and a 375-capacity men's residence hall including additional dining room space; and

Whereas, The Board of Trustees of Campbell College, Incorporated, has petitioned the North Carolina Baptist State Convention to borrow up to the sum of $1,900,000 to be used all or in part for the construction of sixteen three-bedroom faculty apartments and a 375-capacity men's residence hall including additional dining room space.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention in session November 9-10-11, 1970, in Greensboro, North Carolina,

1. That the trustees of Campbell College, Incorporated, be authorized to borrow up to $1,900,000 (which sum to include the $225,000 previously authorized by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention) to be used all or in part for the construction of sixteen three-bedroom faculty apartments and a 375-capacity men's residence hall including additional dining room space, as described and heretofore listed;

2. That the sum actually borrowed, together with the interest thereon shall be repaid over a period not to exceed fifty years, said payments and interest to be paid in annual installments;

3. That the proper officers of Campbell College, Incorporated, be and are hereby authorized and empowered to execute, or cause to be executed, in the name of Campbell College, Incorporated, and on its behalf, a mortgage upon the lands upon which these housing facilities are to be located, together with the approaches thereto, provided however, that such mortgage shall not in anyway encumber any other property owned by Campbell College, Incorporated;

4. That no part of any indebtedness which may be incurred by Campbell College, Incorporated, under the authority of this resolution shall in any respect be deemed or held to be the indebtedness or obligation of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, nor shall the General Board of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention assume any responsibility whatsoever for the repayment of such loan or any interest thereon.

REQUEST FROM CHOWAN COLLEGE TO CHANGE CHARTER

I certify that the following Resolution is a true excerpt of action taken by the Board of Trustees of Chowan College in session March 2, 1970. The motion was made by Bennie Pledger, seconded by William C. Norris and unanimously passed.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Trustees of Chowan College:

1. That the Charter of Chowan College is hereby amended by rewriting the portion of Section 2, "Administration of Corporation," subsection (b), of the said Charter to read as follows:

"(b) The members of the Board of Trustees shall be residents of the State of North Carolina and members of churches co-operating with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The membership of the Board of Trustees shall be thirty-six (36) in number, serving terms of four (4) years who shall be divided into four classes consisting of nine trustees to a class. At the annual session of the Convention in 1970, the additional eight trustees shall be elected by the Convention, two of whom shall be elected to serve a one-year-term, two for a two-year term, two for a three-year term, and two for a four-year term."

2. That this resolution shall become effective upon approval of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina or its General Board, in which event the proper officers of Chowan College are authorized and directed to execute and file in the office of the Secretary of the State of North Carolina a Certificate of Amendment embodying the aforesaid changes in the Charter of Chowan College.

BEN C. SUTTON, Secretary

RESOLUTION FROM GARDNER-WEBB COLLEGE TO INCREASE NUMBER OF TRUSTEES

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Trustees of Gardner-Webb College, Incorporated:

1. That at the 1970 Annual session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina eight additional trustees shall be elected by the Convention to the Board of Trustees of Gardner-Webb College, Incorporated, that these eight trustees shall be divided into four classes consisting of two trustees to a class, and that two trustees shall be elected to serve a one-year term, two to serve a two-year term, two to serve a three-year term, and two to serve a four-year term.

2. That this resolution become effective upon approval of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

LLOYD C. BOST, Chairman

Board of Trustees

Gardner-Webb College, Incorporated

RESOLUTION BY THE LONG-RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE TO BORROW

The Long Range Planning Committee recommends to the Executive Committee and the General Board that you request the Baptist State Convention, in Annual session in Greensboro, North Carolina, November 10, 1970, to authorize the Executive Committee of the General Board to spend up to $300,000.00 for acquisition of additional land in the vicinity of the Baptist Building in the city of Raleigh for additional parking, while the Long Range Planning Committee continues its study relative to its final recommendation on the matter of expansion for future needs. We further recommend that the General Secretary-Treasurer be authorized to borrow up to the above mentioned amount at the best existing terms available, to pay for said land.

Statistical Reports

Associational and Convention

Prepared by The Department of Statistics and Survey

TED W. WILLIAMS, Secretary

MRS. LAFATA LUSK, Office Secretary

The following information was supplied by the clerks of the eighty (80) Baptist Associations in North Carolina. We greatly appreciate the faithful service they have rendered in compiling the statistical data. These reports are based on the associational year, and the financial figures are not the same as those based on the calendar year reported by our Convention business office.

Items marked (*) give latest data available.

Items marked () give total expenditures.

Churches not reporting: Indicated by (1), (2), or (3)

(1) First year not reporting—previous year's report will be carried, except for baptisms, additions by letter, number of missions operated by church, and Vacation Bible School enrollment.

(2) Second consecutive year not reporting—latest total membership only will be carried.

(3) Third consecutive (and subsequent) year not reporting—no figures carried, but will be counted as a church. (A church will be counted until verification is received from the association that a subject church has been disaffiliated from said association.)

Location (Item 2)

(Number which most nearly describes church location)

1. Open Country.
2. Village (Under 500 Pop.).
3. Town (500-2,499 Pop.).
4. City (2,500-9,999 Pop.).
 City (10,000-49,999 Pop.)
5. . . . Downtown Area
6. . . . Neighborhood
7. . . . Suburban
 City (50,000 or More Pop.)
8. . . . Downtown Area
9. . . . Neighborhood
0. . . . Suburban

AUDITOR'S REPORT

Auditor's Statement

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL BOARD OF THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA
RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

Gentlemen:

We have examined the balance sheet of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina as of December 31, 1970 and the related statements of income and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. The statements, which are a part of this report show the condition of the General, Education and Social Service Institutions Funds at December 31, 1970, and the results of the income and expenses for the year then ended. The statements of the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, the Fruitland Baptist Conference Center and the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute cover the operations for the period of twelve months ended December 31, 1970, and, in addition, give a reconciliation of cash. The funds shown as sent direct are taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us.

All recorded cash receipts were found to be promptly deposited in the bank and disbursements were supported by cancelled checks, invoices or other evidence, with expenses properly classified. Our examination did not disclose any evidence of irregularities and we believe the funds have been carefully and honestly handled and accounted for.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of income and expenses and fund balances present fairly the financial position of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina at December 31, 1970, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to such organizations, applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,
A. T. ALLEN & COMPANY
Certified Public Accountants

LESLIE HARTWELL CAMPBELL

Fixed near an entrance of a principal classroom and laboratory building at Campbell College is a bronze tablet inscribed thus:

The Leslie Hartwell Campbell Hall of Science

Dr. Leslie Hartwell Campbell became a teacher of English and Latin in 1911 at Buies Creek Academy, parent school of Campbell College. He was dean of the school from its first days as a junior college, in 1926, until the death of its founder, his father, Dr. J. A. Campbell, in 1934. He served as its second president until June, 1967. Zenith of his career was the first full regional accreditation of Campbell as a senior college of the arts and sciences, in November, 1966. Since this science hall was a main physical key to this achievement, it is a fitting symbol of the fifty-six years that Dr. Leslie Campbell dedicated to making this college an ever greater instrument for higher education and Christian service.

The building had gone into service in 1961, the year that Campbell became a senior college; and the plaque was mounted in 1970, not long before President Leslie Campbell's death, on November 25, 1970.

Since for half a century the man virtually submerged his own identity in the day-to-day history of the school his father founded, this stark outline includes perhaps the essence of what can be said of the professional life of Leslie Campbell until the story of Campbell College itself is thoroughly researched and told. He could have spent his high intelligence and many gifts in any of numerous pursuits that might have brought him wealth and national recognition. Instead, he spent them almost all, in one way or another, for Campbell College and the clients it has served.

As a glance at his vita in Who's Who in America shows, his extra-collegiate activities over his half century at Campbell are quickly told, and most of them have self-evident kinship with his work as a college president in Eastern North Carolina and in Harnett, the county of his birth. The national catalogue notes his lengthy service as moderator of the Little River Association, his interval as vice-president of the Baptist State Convention, his terms as president of the historical and centennial associations of his home county and as director of the development association of his region, and finally his membership in the civic club of his home community. His family, his church, and the college were his main preoccupations.

Here it is perhaps enough to say that he was an educator firmly convinced that the principles of true liberal education and Christianity are compatible and complementary. He lived by these principles himself, and he devoted an unusual energy and strength of will to making Campbell a superior environment for teaching them by example and actual experience, as well as by precept.

He was a philosophic liberal in the classic nineteenth-century sense of the term, and the necessity of progress in higher education and the Christian institutions thereof was a main compulsion of his life. A keen sense of humor, friendliness, loyalty and a rugged honesty and independence were qualities instrumental to his leadership. Making a name through innovation was no main concern to him. His father's school, as Leslie Campbell received it, stood for the right things in education. He would hope to make it larger and more far reaching. With the help of thousands enlisted to work with him, this he did.

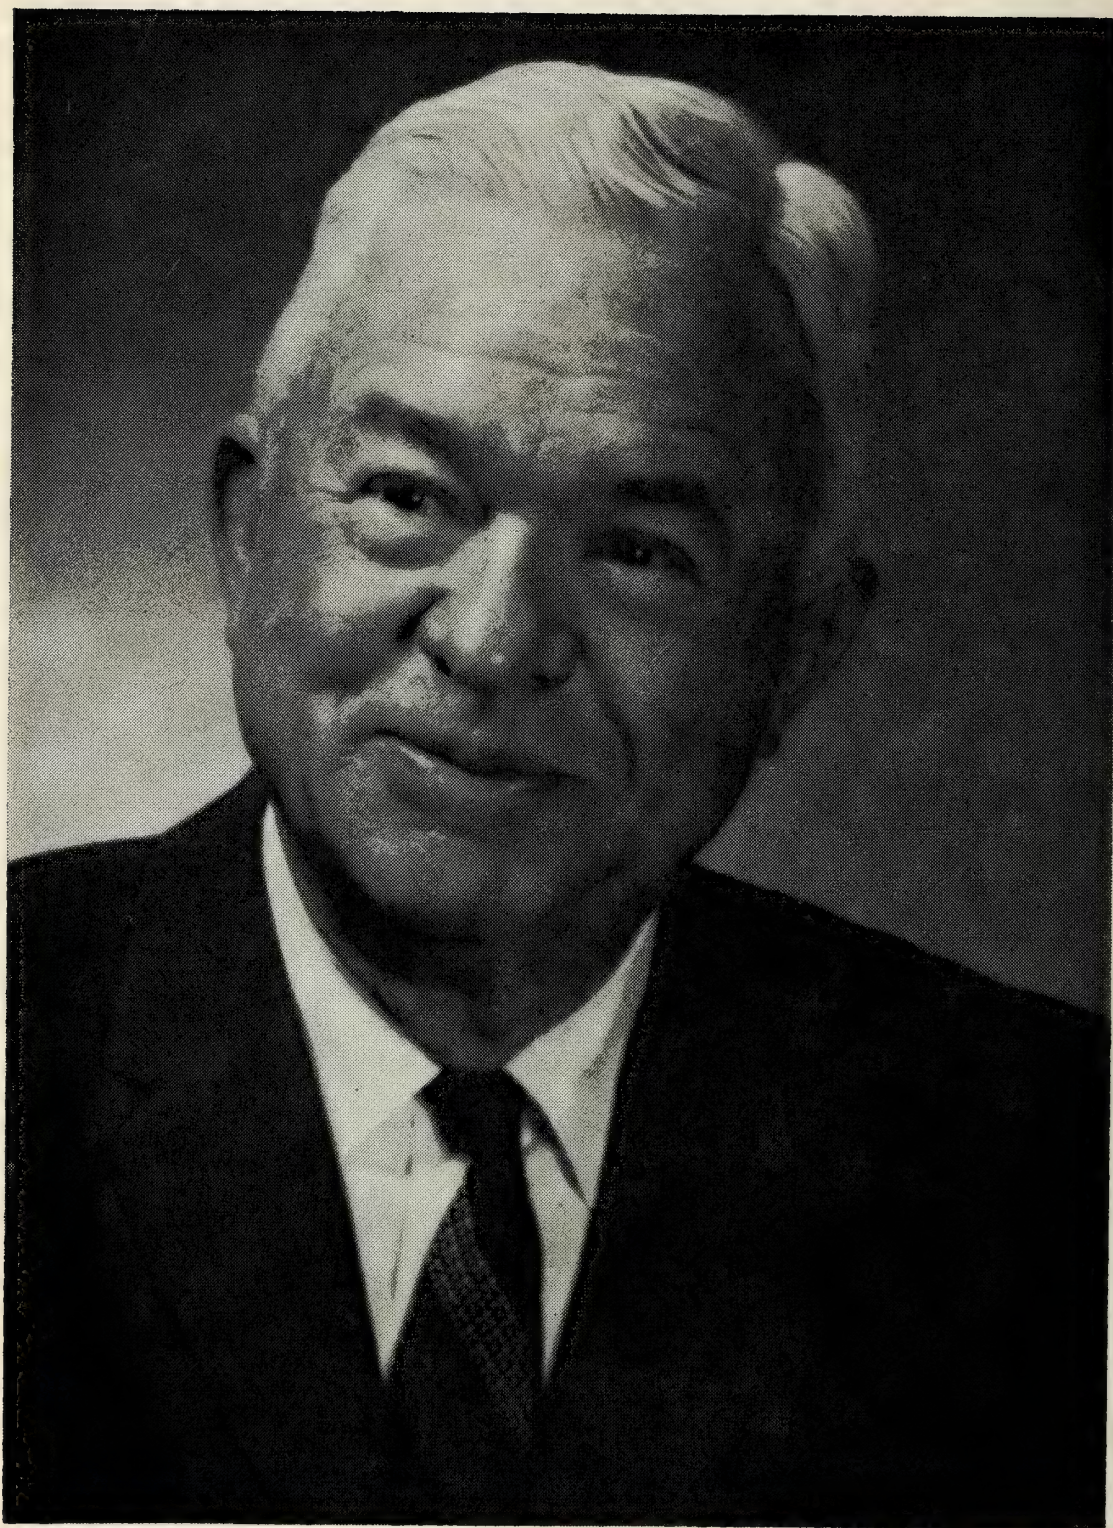

His drive and energy had catalytic effect. At his death, an editor who knew him well spoke of the "almost unbelievable energy that enabled him to work consistently fourteen hours a day." The editorial noted also his integrity, business acumen and his "streak of toughness known as plain old fashioned guts." He was a complex person, the editorial said, "not the kind of man who fitted into a mold of any category or size."

"He was a man," it said, "who molded events and institutions, all for the better. He was one of the rare kind of men who make things happen."

IRVING E. CARLYLE

IRVING E. CARLYLE

Irving Edward Carlyle was recognized as one of the state's outstanding political leaders. A champion of many causes, he once said that the motivating forces in his life were "my family, the law and its supremacy, Wake Forest College and the Democratic party."

Mr. Carlyle was elected to the State House of Representatives in 1941 and to the State Senate in 1943, 1945, and 1951. In 1960 he was appointed chairman of the Governor's Commission on Education Beyond the High School, and the report of the Carlyle Commission set the course of higher education in the state for years.

A senior partner in the Winston-Salem law firm of Womble, Carlyle, Sandridge and Rice, Mr. Carlyle had been president of the State Bar Association and a member of the State Board of Law Examiners. He was a Wake Forest trustee for 16 years, five years as chairman, and was the second man to receive the University's Medallion of Merit. He was a member of the Wake Forest Baptist Church.

In 1954 a vacancy occurred in the U. S. Senate and it was widely assumed that Mr. Carlyle would be appointed. When the Supreme Court delivered its ruling against racial discrimination in the public schools, he immediately took a public stand, urging the people of his state to respect the court and its decision. Many people believe that stand probably cost him a seat in the Senate.

Mr. Carlyle was born Sept. 20, 1896, in the Town of Wake Forest where his father, John B. Carlyle, was professor of Latin. He was graduated from Wake Forest in 1917, taught school briefly, served as a field artillery lieutenant in World War I. He attended the University of Virginia Law School and began law practice in Winston-Salem in 1922. He married Miss Mary Belo Moore in 1928. Their two daughters are Mrs. Robert Dalton Byerly, Jr., of Charlotte, and Mrs. Hugh B. Campbell, Jr., of Charlotte.

Although Mr. Carlyle had been semi-retired since suffering a major heart attack, about two and a half years before his death on June 5, he served last year as co-chairman of the North Carolina Committee to End the War in Indochina and chairman of the Forsyth County Heart Association.

An editorial published in the Winston-Salem Journal after his death called him "the happiest warrior of them all. Show him a shining cause that was friendless, show him a victim of injustice who stood aloof, and Irving Carlyle girded himself for battle. . . . He was a religious man, a Baptist and a Christian whose articles of faith transcended any creed. . . . All men, to him, were children of God and therefore his brothers."

E.J.B.

COY C. CARPENTER

The establishment and success of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine was due in a large part to the courage, determination and faith of Dr. Coy Cornelius Carpenter. As dean, Dr. Carpenter oversaw the Wake Forest Medical School's move to Winston-Salem in 1941 and its transition to a four-year school. The Bowman Gray Foundation, the source of funds for the move, had only $750,000. Dr. Carpenter made the School survive and attracted a group of young faculty members who came to share his dedication. When he retired in 1967, the School and North Carolina Baptist Hospital had become one of the South's outstanding medical centers.

An editorial in the Winston-Salem Journal said, "Coy Carpenter the pathologist will be remembered as a diplomat, fund-raiser and visionary. Were it not for him, Forsyth County would have neither the college-related medical center nor the University."

Dr. Carpenter was born April 24, 1900, at Carpenter in Wake County. He was graduated from Wake Forest in 1922 and received the M.D. degree from Syracuse University College of Medicine in 1924. He joined the faculty of Wake Forest's two year medical school in 1926 and was named dean in 1936. He became the University's vice president for medical affairs in 1963. He was married in 1926 to Miss Dorothy Mitten. They have two sons, Dr. Harry M. Carpenter of Washington, N. C., and Coy C. Carpenter, Jr., of Winston-Salem.

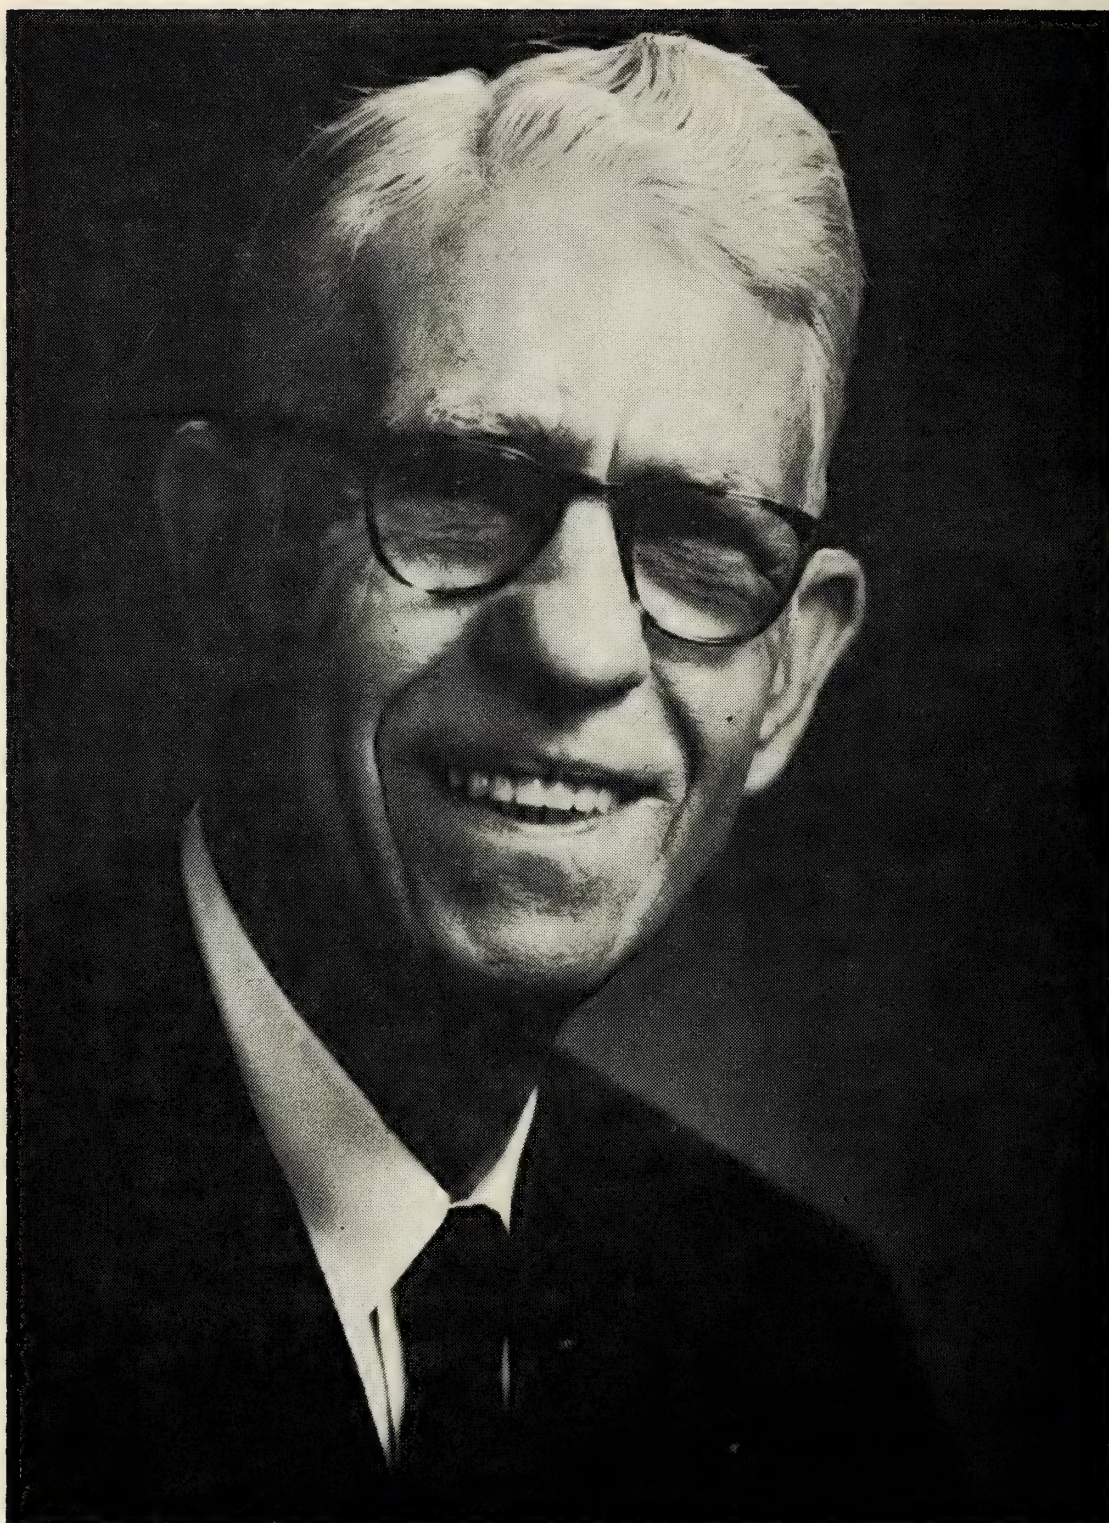

In 1953-54 Dr. Carpenter was a Fulbright visiting professor in Cairo, Egypt. In 1956 he was asked by President Eisenhower to visit Vietnam to study medical school and health needs of the country. After his retirement he wrote a book about the Medical School, "The Story of Medicine at Wake Forest University." He was a member of the University Board of Visitors and the Wake Forest Baptist Church.

In 1963, Dr. Carpenter suffered a severe heart attack. That same year he wrote in his private papers: "I went through the emotions of dying, with full consciousness, and recovered. It was not a bad experience at all. I felt serene and contented. The living should not feel sad for the dying or dead. Men of courage walk with death and never question it when it comes. The majority of the frustrating experiences of living are far worse than death." Dr. Carpenter died Nov. 7, 1971. His reflections about death, read at a memorial service on the University campus, have brought comfort to many.

COY C. CARPENTER

MALOY ALTON HUGGINS

MALOY ALTON HUGGINS

Open-hearted, cheerful in good times and bad, never complaining, always optimistic, taking the "long-look"—his was "the human touch." Christian statesman, able administrator, leader and encouraging friend of North Carolina Baptists—"this was the man"—M. A. Huggins.

Dr. Huggins distinguished himself in twenty-seven years of progressive service as the Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. His term of office is not exceeded by any of the twenty-four men who preceded him from the founding of the Convention at Greenville in 1830.

The affairs of the Convention were at a low ebb when Dr. Huggins was elected in the fall of 1932. The effects of the "Great Depression" were felt by the churches and the Convention alike. Mission gifts through the fledgling Cooperative Program dwindled to $199,330 and the grand total of all mission gifts (including the Cooperative Program) amounted to $480,484. Upon his retirement in 1958 the Cooperative Program income was $3,600,424. Other mission gifts from the churches designated and direct were $2,251,677 made up a total of $5,912,101.

The number of churches increased from 2,374 to 3,307. Membership gained 101 percent, increasing from 433,046 to 831,272. Notable gains took place in Sunday School enrolment, Training Union membership, Womans Missionary Union membership and activities. Indeed, all phases of our Baptist work brought the North Carolina Baptist Convention to the forefront of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Stewardship, the Cooperative Program, positive and forward-looking leadership for world missions, payment of crushing debt, projection of programs for greater accomplishments in Kingdom Service claimed Dr. Huggins' heart life and breath.

Dr. Huggins was born October 5, 1890 in Marion County, South Carolina. He attended the common schools in that county and was a student at Stinson Institute at Orrum, North Carolina from 1905 to 1908. He entered Wake Forest in the fall of 1908 and was awarded the B.A. and M.A. degrees. He was a graduate student of Columbia University during the summers of 1916, 1922 and 1923.

It is said that back of every great man stands a great woman. In Dr. Huggins case this is strikingly clear. In 1918 he was married to Katherine Elizabeth Morris of Franklinton in Wake County. Shortly after marriage he left for France to serve as a soldier in World War I. Receiving a scholarship he studied for five months at the University of Paris.

In 1929 Dr. Huggins received the M.A. Degree from the University of North Carolina. Later he was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from his Alma Mater, Wake Forest University.

Before becoming Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention Dr. Huggins was principal at Washington, N. C. High School; taught Latin and Greek at Union University, Jackson, Tennessee. Returning to North Carolina he served as teacher and principal in the public schools in eastern North Carolina.

In 1924 Dr. Huggins was elected Secretary of Christian Education for the Baptist State Convention. Nineteen twenty-nine to mid 1932 saw him in the class-room as professor at Meredith College.

At the 1932 Annual Session of the Convention Dr. Huggins was elected leader of all Baptist work in North Carolina as General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention where he served sacrificially and well until his retirement in the fall of 1958.

Dr. Huggins authored several books and booklets—North Carolina For Christ; Baptists Working Together; Fellowship in World Service; Our Worship and Witness; Baptists Encircling the World Through Their Churches. His crowning literary achievement, a definitive work, A History of North Carolina Baptists 1727-1932, was written in his retirement years and published in 1967.

To Dr. and Mrs. Huggins were born two daughters—Minnie Morris who is on the staff of the library at Wake Forest University; Katherine Elizabeth married to the Reverend Paul V. Beam of Scarsdale, New York. There are two grand-daughters, Gail Elizabeth and Amy Katherine.

At Easter time in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred seventy-one Dr. Huggins slipped away to face his Master certain in his faith to hear the words of welcome "Well done thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

O.J.H.

JAMES CARTER PIPES

James Carter Pipes was born February 8, 1887 in the Darby community on Elk River in upper Wilkes County. His parents were Rufus and Docia Hendrix Pipes. He attended the one room, log house school four months a year until he finished the fourth grade, quitting school at age fourteen. The little community church was a big factor in his early life. His grandmother was a great Christian and had lasting influence on him. He was converted and baptized at age fourteen. He lived until age twenty in this native community, working with relatives and neighbors at farming, logging and lumbering. In 1907 he moved with his father to the Peachtree Community near Murphy in Cherokee County.

In the Peachtree Community he married Miss Bessie Gregory in 1908. To them were born two children, Lewis and Beulah. He returned to school at age twenty-three, was given a certificate and taught in the rural schools. Mrs. Pipes died suddenly in 1915. In this same year he was ordained to the Gospel Ministry by Nantahala Church in Macon County.

J. C. Pipes entered Mars Hill College in 1916 where he studied, worked and served as pastor at Flag Pond, Tennessee until 1919. In 1917 he married Mrs. Nora Buckner Fagan. To them were born Lena, June and William Robert. Other churches he served as pastor were Hot Springs and Enon in French Broad Association and Elk Mountain, Riverside and Mount Carmel in Buncombe Association. He went for a year as pastor of Woodruff in South Carolina then returned to Riverside for nine years.

Nineteen thirty-seven was a momentous year for the work of the North Carolina Baptist Convention when Carter Pipes became Field Secretary. He became God's man among Baptists in the mountains for a long and fruitful ministry. After twenty years together he lost his second wife by sudden death. Through this loss he had a tremendous spiritual experience which he effectively shared with many people. At Christmas in 1938 he married Miss Ruth Sprinkle who survives him and serves as efficient office secretary in Buncombe Association. One daughter, Linda, was born to them. J. C. retired from the Convention work in 1957, served as special hospital visitor for the Buncombe Association for ten years, left this work because of loss of sight in 1967, and died February 19, 1971.

Friends knew him as "J. C." or "Carter," but they knew him as one who knew the Lord Jesus Christ in daily experience. When he spoke, taught and preached in hundreds of "pastors schools," "deacons schools," Mars Hill Preachers School and local congregations people listened, learned and were caused to want to be better Christians. He taught more pastors and deacons of the mountains what Christian stewardship, service and obedience means than any man who has ever lived and served there. He was an incisive student all his life. He said he did not have the benefit of advanced higher education but the colleges, universities and seminaries came to him through many men and he learned from all of them. God endowed him with a unique personality, an unusual native wit and an effective sense of humor, all of which he used to the fullest. Many pastors who serve in the mountain churches today give great praise to this man of God who opened doors and laid foundations for them.

Dr. Wayne Oates, of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, writes: "J. C. Pipes was a man who owed no man anything except to love him, which he did with an undivided devotion springing from his own allegiance to the Lord Jesus Christ as his supreme Lord. J. C. Pipes spoke the word of God in the picturesque language of a man of God of the mountains, and his clarity, his simplicity and his humor were always evident, but never in such a way as to obscure the pure expression of the whole counsel of God to his audience. I cared for him deeply and modeled many of my ways of doing things after him and it is an honor to look up to this man as someone who was his own man as men go and God's man as God goes."

Dr. W. R. Grigg, Associate Secretary, Department of Work with National Baptists, Home Mission Board, writes: "Scarcely has any man ever served his Lord more faithfully or loved all men more sincerely than J. C. Pipes. In spite of the humble circumstances into which he was born, and under which he chose to live, he lived life to the fullest. He was able to do so because he discovered and drank often, long and deep from the available resources which are everpresent. He made time for thought, for meditation, for reading, for prayer, for laughter, for friends and always for those who disagreed and misunderstood him. He had a healthy sense of humor. He loved people. He loved preachers. He loved the Gospel. He refused to be a party to anything that tended to rob a person of human dignity or his personhood. He desired and sought for God's approval above all other things. This made for him a place among the saints."

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

For the declaration of its fundamental purposes and the permanent guidance and control of its activities, the body does adopt the following as its Constitution, to wit:

ARTICLE I. Name

The name of this body is the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II. Purposes

The object of this Convention shall be to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature, and to co-operate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE III. Authority

While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organization, association, or Convention.

ARTICLE IV. Composition

The Convention shall be composed of

(1) Two messengers from each co-operating church, and one additional messenger from each church for every hundred members or major fraction thereof, beyond the first one hundred members; provided, that no church shall be entitled to more than ten messengers. No one shall be a messenger who is not a member of a church co-operating with the Convention, and messengers must be duly elected by their churches; a co-operating church shall be one that supports any object of the Convention and which is in friendly cooperation with this Convention and sympathetic with its purpose and work; and (2) The officers of the Convention, the members of the General Board, the editor of the Biblical Recorder, and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union.

ARTICLE V. Meetings

The Convention shall convene annually on Monday after the second Sunday in November at 7:00 p.m. In case of emergency the General Board is empowered to change the time or place of meeting, cancel the sessions of the Convention, or call a special meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present when the vote is taken.

ARTICLE VI. Officers

The officers of the Convention shall be a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, an Assistant Recording Secretary, a General Secretary-Treasurer, three Trustees, and a Parliamentarian. The terms of the President, the Vice-Presidents, Recording Secretary, Assistant Recording Secretary, Trustees and the Parliamentarian shall commence at the conclusion of the annual session at which they are elected and continue until the close of the next annual session of the Convention. The President and Vice-Presidents may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms. The election of all officers subject to annual election shall be on the afternoon of the first full day of the annual Convention, but the elections may be completed, if necessary, on the morning of the second full day. A vacancy in any of the above-mentioned offices, except that of President, occurring between sessions of the Convention may be filled by the General Board; such vacancies in the presidency shall be filled by the Vice-Presidents succeeding to the office in order of their rank.

a. In case of a vacancy in the office of General Secretary-Treasurer, the General Board shall nominate a man to the Convention to fill this office.

b. Opportunity shall be given to receive additional nominations from the floor of the Convention.

c. The man receiving the majority of votes cast shall be declared elected.

Upon election, the General Secretary-Treasurer shall hold office for an indefinite period, with voluntary retirement at age 65. He may continue on a year-by-year basis after review by the Executive Committee, with automatic retirement at age 68; retirement to take effect upon December 31 of the year in which he retires.

d. In case the position of General Secretary-Treasurer becomes vacant between sessions of the Convention, the General Board, upon the recommendation of its Executive Committee, shall name an acting General Secretary-Treasurer to serve until the next regular session of the Convention.

The General Secretary-Treasurer is the chief executive officer of the General Board, the chief administrative and program officer of the General Board staff, the chief budget officer of the General Board staff, the chief professional adviser of the General Board and its committees, the secretary and treasurer of the General Board and the Convention, and one of the denomination's spiritual leaders, providing statewide guidance and inspiration.

The General Secretary-Treasurer and the President of the Convention shall serve ex-officio without voting on all committees and aid by furnishing information, printed materials and needed guidance for the work of the committees.

ARTICLE VII. Trustees of the Convention

The General Board shall nominate three Trustees to be elected by the Convention in annual session. These trustees may succeed themselves, if nominated and elected, and will continue in office until their successors have been elected. The trustees shall hold title to the property of the Convention and convey and use the same as directed by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall execute obligations only in behalf of and as ordered by the Convention. They shall have the powers granted to trustees of religious societies by the laws of the State of North Carolina, but subject always to the limitations imposed by this Constitution and by action of the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall require the Treasurer of the Convention to give suitable bond, with corporate security and in adequate amount as determined by the General Board, and they shall cause such bonds to be safely kept. Failure on the part of the Treasurer to maintain such a bond in force for as long a period as ten days shall authorize the Trustees to remove him from office. The Trustees shall make full, detailed reports to the annual session of the Convention and at other times if requested by the General Board. They shall safely keep the seal of the Convention and affix it only as authorized by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. The seal shall be circular in form and shall bear the words:

The Trustees shall keep full minutes of all their meetings and preserve the same in permanent forms. They shall elect their own Chairman and Secretary. Any vacancy occurring in their membership between sessions of the Convention shall be filled by the General Board.

ARTICLE VIII. The General Board

A. Membership

1. One member shall be elected from the area of each District Association; one additional member from each District Association with a membership of 20,000 to 40,000; and one additional member from any District Association with a membership of more than 40,000; ten members-at-large to be elected, one from each region of the state, these ten to be nominated by the convention nominating committee; with a limit of one member from any church and three members from any association.

2. The President and First and Second Vice-Presidents of the Convention shall be ex-officio voting members of the General Board and its Executive Committee. These members, selected by virtue of their Convention offices, shall not be used in determining the number of members from a District Association or church.

3. The General Secretary-Treasurer, the Recording Secretary, the State Woman's Missionary Union President, and the State Brotherhood President shall be ex-officio non voting members.

4. Members of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, from the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina who are not then serving as elected members of the General Board shall be non-voting, ex-officio members of the General Board.

5. No one who is employed by any institution or agency of the convention, whether the salary be total or supplemental, shall be eligible for membership on the General Board except as an ex-officio member.

6. In the event a member moves from the association or region from which he was elected, his membership shall immediately terminate.

The membership of those moving from the state shall be terminated upon the date of the move from the state.

In the event a member fails to attend at least one meeting of the General Board in a calendar year, without giving due notice of his absence, his membership shall immediately terminate.

7. Any vacancy on the General Board occurring between annual sessions of the Convention may be filled by action of the Executive Committee. Those elected shall serve through the remainder of the calendar year. The Convention shall at its next regular annual session fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

B. Election

1. The Nominating Committee, as directed by the By-Laws of the Convention and in keeping with Baptist policies and practices, shall present to the annual session a slate of nominees for election, and after opportunity for further nominations from the floor is given, the members shall be elected by the Convention in session.

2. Board members shall be elected for a term of four years with, as nearly as may be possible, one-fourth of the membership being elected at each annual session, provided, however, that any such board member who shall have been elected to fill a vacancy of less than two years, shall be eligible to be re-elected to a full term of his own.

C. Powers and Functions

Except as specifically limited by the constitution, the General Board shall have the power to act for the Convention in the interim between sessions, and shall have general supervision of all agencies and institutions fostered and supported by the Convention.

ARTICLE IX. Institutions and Agencies of the Convention

A. Trustees and directors of the Convention's Agencies and Institutions.

The charter of every institution owned or supported in whole or in part by the Convention shall contain the following provisions:

1. The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina shall elect the trustees and directors of said corporation for terms of four years, except that the Directors of the Baptist Foundation shall be elected for terms of five years. At the first election by the Convention one-fourth of the board of trustees or directors shall be elected to serve for one year, one-fourth for two years, one-fourth for three years, and the remaining one-fourth for four years. At each subsequent regular annual session of the Convention one-fourth of the Board of Trustees or Directors of said corporation shall be elected by the Convention to succeed the members of said Board retiring.

2. The trustees and directors shall be responsible to the Convention for the operation of its institutions in accordance with Baptist principles; report of work done and undertaken shall be made annually to the Convention; any change in the charter of any institution which would affect, alter or change the purpose of the institution or the relationship of the institution or its board of trustees to the Convention shall have the prior approval of the Convention. No change of policy shall be made without securing the prior approval of the Convention or its General Board; no program shall be inaugurated which might involve the Convention directly or indirectly in a debt, without securing the prior approval of the Convention.

3. The members of the Board of Trustees or Directors of said corporation shall be residents of the State of North Carolina and members of churches co-operating with the Convention.

4. Removal of a member of a Board of Trustees or Directors.

If for any reason a member of a Board shall cease to be a member of a church co-operating with the Convention or shall remove his residence from the State, his membership on any Board shall be thereby terminated. Any vacancy on a Board shall be filled by the remaining members until the next regular annual session of the Convention, and the Convention shall at its next regular annual session fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The Board of Trustees or Directors of said corporation by affirmative vote of three-fourths of the entire membership given in regular annual meeting or in a special meeting called for the purpose, shall have the power to remove from office any trustee or director of such corporation for cause considered sufficient by such Board, but only after reasonable notice to such trustee or director and opportunity to be heard by the Board. The Convention shall have the right to remove any trustee or director for cause considered sufficient by the Convention, but only after reasonable notice to such trustee or director, and opportunity for him to be heard by the Convention. Notice of such contemplated action and hearing by the Convention may be given by the Executive Committee of the General Board of the Convention.

5. The trustees or directors of the institutions and agencies of the Convention shall be elected by the Convention after receiving nominations from the Convention's Nominating Committee or from the floor. The trustees and directors of all institutions owned and supported by the Convention shall make an annual report to the above committee of all vacancies to be filled.

B. Baptist Foundation

The Baptist Foundation shall be operated by fifteen directors who shall serve for five-year terms. One-fifth of the directors shall be elected annually by the Convention. The purposes of the Foundation shall be to receive, hold and administer donations of money and property which charitable-minded persons may leave to it from time to time.

C. Council on Christian Higher Education

1. The Council shall be composed of the members of the General Board comprising the Christian Higher Education Committee, together with the President, Dean, and chairman of the trustees of each of the colleges receiving funds from the Convention, and as ex-officio members: the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, the President of the Convention, the President of the General Board, the President of the Woman's Missionary Union, and the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education. The Chairman of the General Board Committee on Christian Higher Education shall be president of the Council. The duties and powers of the Council shall be fixed by the By-Laws of the Convention.

2. Representatives on the Council from the colleges will not have voting power in the allocation of funds. No member of the Council who occupies a salaried position with the Convention or its institutions or its auxiliary shall have a vote on appropriations that may be made to the institutions; and all appropriations agreed upon shall be subject to the approval of the General Board.

D. Council on Christian Social Services

1. The Council shall be composed of the members of the Christian Social Services Committee of the General Board; the President of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated; the Superintendent of North Carolina Baptist Homes, Incorporated; the President of the North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated; the Presidents of the Boards of Trustees of these institutions; the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention, the President of the General Board, the President of the Woman's Missionary Union, and the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Social Services. The Chairman of the General Board Committee on Christian Social Services shall be President of the Council. The duties and powers of the Council shall be fixed by the By-Laws of the Convention.

2. Representatives on the Council from the institutions will not have voting power in the allocation of funds. No member of the Council who occupies a salaried position with the Convention or its institutions or its auxiliary shall have a vote on appropriations that may be made to the institutions; and all appropriations agreed upon shall be subject to the approval of the General Board.

E. Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs

1. The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall be composed of the members of the Christian Life and Public Affairs committee of the General Board. Eight members-at-large to be suggested by the Committee on Nominations and four ex-officio members as follows: President of the General Board, General Secretary-Treasurer, Editor of the Biblical Recorder, Editor of Charity and Children, and the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. The Chairman of the General Board Committee on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall be a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board and President of the Council. The duties and powers of the Council shall be fixed by the By-Laws of the Convention.

2. Members-at-large on the Council and ex-offiico members will not have voting powers on the allocation of funds. All budget funds shall be handled by the Committee on Christian Life and Public Affairs of the General Board. All appropriations agreed upon shall be subject to the approval of the Executive Committee and the General Board.

ARTICLE X. Concerning Debts

All borrowing by the Convention for its own use, or for its institutions or agencies, or borrowings by any institution or agency of the Convention, the payment of which would require an extension of time beyond the close of the subsequent fiscal year, shall be authorized only on the following terms and conditions.

A. The General Board shall have authority to borrow money in anticipation of current revenue, provided that any unpaid balance of such borrowing at the end of the current fiscal year shall be provided for in and made a part of the budget for the subsequent fiscal year.

B. No institution or agency of the Convention shall encumber its property or change its status with respect to the Convention without authority from the Convention. Institutions and agencies of the Convention, subject to the approval of the General Board, shall have authority to borrow money in anticipation of current revenue, provided that any unpaid balance of such borrowing at the end of the current fiscal year shall be provided for in and made a part of the budget for the subsequent current year.

C. Any and all resolutions which propose the borrowing of money shall set forth all pertinent facts and a definite schedule for repayment. Such requests shall be sent to the Executive Committee or General Board by October 1 of each year for recommendation to the Convention. These recommendations shall be included in the General Board's report and subject to the rules concerning the adoption of this report.

(1) Notice of any and all contemplated borrowings shall appear in the Biblical Recorder in three separate issues in advance of the meeting of the Convention during which it is proposed that action be taken.

ARTICLE XI. Miscellaneous

A. The Convention's fiscal year shall close on December 31.

B. The members of the boards of trustees and directors of the institutions and agencies of the Convention shall be distributed as widely as practicable. The term of office of a trustee who has not resigned, died, become disqualified, or been removed shall not expire until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

No individual shall serve on any board, institution, or agency, who is at the same time holding membership on any other board, institution, or agency. Not more than three members of any board of any institution or agency supported wholly or in part by the Convention shall be members of the same church.

C. Individuals, churches and associations, or others desiring the assistance and co-operation of the Baptists of the Convention in any work not already fostered by the Convention shall present such project to the agency under which it should be properly placed. If the agency fails or refuses to approve it, it may be presented to the Convention under miscellaneous business or as a special order.

D. Neither the Convention, nor any institution or agency, owned or supported in whole or in part by the Convention, shall accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any gift, grant, or aid from the Federal or State governments or any governmental agency, except for definite and full services rendered by the institution or agency and by and with the approval of the Convention or its General Board.

ARTICLE XII. Woman's Missionary Union

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina is recognized as an auxiliary of this Convention whose accomplishments and potentialities in good works are appreciated as being of immeasurable power to our Christian cause.

ARTICLE XIII. Amendments

This Constitution may be changed or amended on the second full day of any annual session of the Convention by a two-thirds vote of the registered messengers present when the vote is taken, provided that notice of any and all amendments to the Constitution shall appear in the Biblical Recorder in two separate issues in advance of the meeting of the Convention in which the proposed action is to be taken.

ARTICLE XIV. Validate

The adoption of this new Constitution shall not invalidate any action validly taken by or in behalf of the Convention or any of its institutions or agencies prior to the date this new Constitution becomes effective.

BYLAWS

The work of the Convention shall be governed by the following bylaws:

I. Duties of Officers of the Convention

A. The president shall preside over the deliberations of the Convention and discharge such other duties as are imposed upon him by the Convention or as are incumbent on the presiding officer of a deliberative body. He shall in advance of the meeting of the Convention and with the assistance of the Vice-Presidents appoint a Committee on Enrollment consisting of nine members and a Committee on Committees consisting of fifteen members. He may appoint other committees when so directed by the body. He shall also serve ex-officio as a voting member of the General Board and its Executive Committee. He shall also serve as an ex-officio non-voting member of all Convention committees.

B. The Vice-Presidents

1. In the event of the death of the President or his incapacity to serve the Vice-Presidents shall succeed him in the order of their rank; and so succeeding shall have and discharge the duties incumbent upon the President.

2. They shall assist the President in naming those Convention Committees for which he is responsible and shall serve ex-officio as voting members of the General Board and its Executive Committee.

C. The Recording Secretary

The Recording Secretary shall record and preserve the proceedings of the Convention and shall prepare the copy for printing.

The Assistant Recording Secretary will assist the Recording Secretary and in case of illness, or death of the Recording Secretary during a Convention year, he will succeed him to the office of Recording Secretary.

D. The General Secretary-Treasurer

1. The General Secretary of the Convention shall promote the whole program of the Convention, including Missions, Evangelism, Higher Education and Social Service, and may serve as adviser to all the institutions, agencies and committees of the Convention. He shall work under the direction of and be subject to the authority of the General Board; and shall have administrative supervision of such work as shall be assigned to him by the Convention or its General Board.

2. In carrying out the responsibilities of each and all these functions, the General Secretary-Treasurer shall:

a. Co-ordinate and evaluate General Board programs with the help of the General Board and its Executive Committee;

b. Advise and otherwise assist the General Board, the Convention and their committees and subcommittees, including the provision of direct staff help in planning meetings, preparing agenda, presenting analyses, facts, and recommendations;

c. Plan, co-ordinate and supervise the entire budgetary process (formulation, authorization and administration) under the direction of the Executive Committee and, where appropriate, the Convention;

d. Assume responsibility for the administration, co-ordination and direction of General Board staff, including the recommendations of all divisions and department heads, organization of professional staff, development of professional staff position descriptions, and preparation of personnel policies;

e. Encourage staff members to make their fullest contribution to the work of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina;

f. Work on a co-operating basis with the heads of all Boards and Agencies of the Convention;

g. Promote participation in and support for all North Carolina Baptist and Southern Baptist Convention programs and represent the General Board, as appropriate, to the denomination and the public.

3. As Treasurer he shall receive all funds sent him for the objects of the Conventions, and make acknowledgment of the same in the manner as the General Board may determine for the faithful performance of his duties. He shall sign all checks which shall be countersigned by the Business Manager and Comptroller; and both of these officers shall be bonded in such amount as shall be determined by the General Board. He shall forward at least once a month all contributions to their destinations. He shall make an annual report of his receipts and disbursements which shall be published in the minutes of the Convention, and upon retiring from his office, he shall deliver to his successor all money, papers, books and other property belonging thereto.

4. As General Secretary he shall supervise the work of administrative assistants, the Director of the Office of Statistics and Survey, the Director of the Office of Public Relations, and the Director of the Office of Cooperative Program Promotion.

E. The Parliamentarian

The Parliamentarian shall advise and assist the Presiding Officer of the Convention with respect to all matters involving proper parliamentary procedure. The Rules of Order for the Convention shall be those laid down in Robert's "Rules of Order," but in cases where the meaning may not be clear the President shall exercise his discretion, subject to appeal to the Convention.

II. Duties of Committees

Membership on Convention committees shall not bar one from serving as a member of the General Board, or as a director of any agency of the Convention, or as a trustee of any institution of the Convention.

Vacancies occurring in committees between sessions of the Convention shall be filled through appointment of the Convention President.

Nothing contained in reports to the Convention shall be construed as an action of the Convention except the recommendations which are definitely listed and adopted by the Convention.

The committees of the Convention shall be divided into three categories:

A. Those appointed by the President and Vice-Presidents in advance of the meeting of the Convention.

1. The Committee on Enrollment consisting of nine members whose duties it shall be to provide registration cards for messengers and visitors and have them in a suitable place several hours before the meeting of the Convention. This committee shall make a report to the assembled messengers upon the call of the President, and shall serve as a committee on credentials.

2. The Committee on Committees whose duty it shall be to nominate for election by the Convention the committees listed under sections B and C below, and such other committees as may be assigned to it. At least a fair proportion of the members nominated to all committees of the Convention shall come from the rural and urban churches, and no one shall be nominated to serve on more than one committee at the same time.

B. Those to report at the next regular session of the Convention

1. The Committee on Resolutions consisting of fifteen members shall be nominated by the Committee on Committees and elected by the Convention, to serve during the succeeding year and to report at the next regular session of the Convention. It shall be composed of at least five members from the General Board with at least two of the five from the Executive Committee, to be named by the Executive Committee after its organization meeting in January of each year.

All resolutions presented to the Convention shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the second day of the Convention, the rules may be suspended and a resolution be taken up for immediate consideration.

Those who plan to present resolutions to the Convention for consideration are urged to submit a copy of the resolution to the Committee well in advance of the Convention. This will not only give the Committee more adequate time to consider the resolutions, but will also make it possible to print the proposed resolutions in the Book of Advance Reports.

2. The Committee on Nominations, consisting of fifteen members, five of whom shall rotate off each year. Their term of office shall begin with the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No member shall be eligible to succeed himself after serving three consecutive years. The committee shall nominate a fair proportion of members from rural and urban churches to the various boards of all agencies and institutions, and shall also nominate members for vacancies on the 8 members-at-large of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs and such other nominations as may be delegated to the Committee of the Convention.

a. It shall have its first meeting not later than July 1 of each calendar year and shall meet again at least once prior to the meeting of the Convention.

b. The Committee shall through its chairman, or other members upon request, invite each agency and institution of the Convention to submit to the Committee in advance of its mid-summer meeting the names of two individuals for each vacancy to occur on their boards, and request that biographical data accompany each name.

The Committee shall request of associational executive committees that the associations submit the names of at least two lay persons and two ministers for each General Board vacancy to occur at the end of the year, and request that biographical data shall accompany each name. These shall be submitted to the Committee before its mid-summer meeting.

The Committee shall, through the Biblical Recorder, invite individual Baptists to submit the names of individuals who would be worthy of consideration for positions on the various boards of institutions and agencies and on the General Board, and request that biographical data accompany each suggested name.

When the Committee meets to do its work it shall give careful consideration to those who have been recommended from the various sources indicated above, but will be free to follow its own best judgment in making nominations to the Convention for the boards of the agencies, institutions and the General Board.

c. It shall publish its full report in the Biblical Recorder at least one week prior to the meeting of the Convention.

3. The Committee on Convention Program, consisting of nine. This committee shall be responsible:

a. for the program for the Annual Meeting.

b. for all other matters in connection with the annual meeting not provided for in the Constitution and Bylaws.

4. Committee on Local Arrangements consisting of nine. This committee shall be responsible for:

a. supervising all arrangements with the local auditorium including the securing of typewriters, telephones, furniture and needed equipment for the sessions of the Annual Meeting;

b. working with Convention staff, Program Committee and Enrollment Committee of the Convention in arranging for display booths, platform, sound system and other arrangements necessary for the sessions of the Convention.

5. Committee on Memorials consisting of five. This committee shall prepare a report for the annual, including a list of deceased ministers and outstanding lay leaders of the Convention who have passed away during the current year, and call attention to the names of these persons during the annual session of the Convention. In addition, this committee may recommend to the Convention a deceased person or persons to whom the annual of the Convention may be dedicated.

6. The Historical Committee, consisting of twelve members, four of whom shall rotate off each year. A member having served a full three-year term shall not be eligible to succeed himself.

This committee shall recommend appropriate measures for the preservation of Baptist history. It shall seek to preserve the minutes and records of all Baptist bodies, churches, associations, and conventions, historical manuscripts, printed materials, including correspondence, and museum objects. It shall encourage the writing and publication of high-standard histories of individuals, churches, associations, and conventions. It shall recommend what historic sites, including buildings, should be properly marked and preserved when these are related to Baptist history. It shall work in close collaboration with the historical researcher employed jointly by the Baptist State Convention and Wake Forest University, who works directly with the Baptist Collection in the Wake Forest University Library. The committee shall report annually to the Baptist State Convention and shall co-operate with the Historical Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention.

7. The Committee on Place and Preacher consisting of nine members. This committee shall recommend the preacher for the next annual session of the Convention and be responsible for recommending to the Convention a place of meeting for at least two years in advance; and should consider proper accommodations and the size of the auditorium which is available.

8. The Committee on Trustee Orientation, consisting of nine members, three of whom shall rotate off each year. Their terms of office shall begin at the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon the adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No member shall be eligible to succeed himself after serving three consecutive years or one full term.

a. The committee shall be responsible for planning and promoting an annual orientation program for trustees and directors of Convention institutions and agencies.

b. The committee shall prepare a brief manual of instruction for use by trustees and directors of Convention institutions and agencies, and shall, as occasion requires, revise this manual.

9. The Publicity Committee, consisting of six members. Due to the peculiar character of this committee, members may be elected to succeed themselves as often as seems desirable.

It shall be the duty of this committee to plan for proper news coverage of all sessions of the Baptist State Convention, to act as liaison group between the Convention and the press, to formulate and release news items growing out of the sessions of the State Convention, and in general to seek to promote good relations between the denomination and the public press.

10. The Committee on Interracial Cooperation consisting of 6 members, two of whom shall be elected for a three year term, two for a two year term, and two for a one year term. The General Secretary-Treasurer, the President of the Convention, a college student, and the Director of the Department of Interracial Cooperation shall serve as ex-officio members. These shall form a Joint Committee with a comparable group from the General Baptist Convention. This Joint Committee shall study and recommend periodically to their respective groups areas of cooperative work, activities, and projects that will strengthen our common fellowship as well as advance the work of our Lord. The Joint Committee will serve in an advisory capacity to the Department of Interracial Cooperation.

C. Special Convention Committees.

When a special committee is called for, the Resolutions Committee shall study the situation to see if there is a committee or group already in existence which could appropriately attend to the matter proposed, and, if there is such a group, it shall, upon recommendation of the Resolutions Committee and vote of the Convention, be referred to them, otherwise the Resolutions Committee may recommend that a special committee be set up by the Convention.

III. Eligibility for Membership on the General Board and on Boards of Trustees and Directors of Agencies and Institutions of the Convention

Members of the General Board and Trustees and Directors of any agency or institution of the Convention shall be members of churches co-operating with the Convention.

The term of office shall begin on January 1, following the meeting of the Convention at which members were elected; and shall end on December 31 following the Convention at which their successors were elected, unless sooner terminated.

In no case shall a member of any board serve a continuous term of more than four years, except the directors of North Carolina Baptist Foundation, in which case the continuous term shall not exceed five years, provided, however, that any such board member who shall have been elected to fill a vacancy of less than two years, shall be eligible to be re-elected to a full term of his own.

A member of a board of any institution or agency of the Convention having completed a full term of office shall not be eligible for re-election to membership on the same board until the lapse of one year, but shall be eligible for immediate election to membership on the board of any other institution or agency of the Convention.

IV. The General Board

A. Powers and Duties of the General Board

1. The General Board shall have charge and control of all work of the Convention in the interim between sessions of the Convention, except those activities committed specifically by charter to the Boards of Trustees of its institutions and agencies. It shall have the power to act for the Convention in the interim between sessions of the Convention; and any action taken during the interim shall be binding on the Convention and reported fully to the Convention at its next session. It shall make and approve all appropriations. It shall have no power to contravene any action of the Convention nor to launch any new institutions. It may provide for the expansion of any phase of work which its income and resources may make possible. It shall have the responsibility of bringing to the Convention for its consideration recommendations concerning any phase of the work that is being done or that should be undertaken in order that the Convention may have an over-all picture of the total program of North Carolina Missionary Baptists.

2. The General Board shall make a report to the Convention of its activities during the year. The Board shall have its report printed and ready for distribution at the first session of the Convention, including reports from Education Institutions, Hospitals, Children's Homes, Homes for the Aging, Baptist Foundation, Christian Higher Education Council, Social Services Council, and all other agencies of the Convention.

3. Allocation of funds. The General Board shall recommend to the Convention the budget allocations of Cooperative Program undesignated gifts for each object of the Convention, and the amount or percentage of Cooperative Program funds to be allocated to Southern Baptist Convention causes.

4. Audit. The General Board shall employ a certified public accountant each year to make a complete audit of the books and accounts of the treasurer and comptroller, and it shall employ or cause to be employed a certified public accountant, or accountants, to make annual audits of all institutions of the Convention.

A copy of the annual audit of the General Board and of each institution receiving funds from the Convention shall be presented to the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention; the audit of the General Board and a summary of the other audits shall be presented to the Recording Secretary not later than thirty days after the close of the fiscal year for inclusion in the Annual of the Convention and, in the discretion of the General Board, in the Biblical Recorder.

The Executive Committee of the General Board and the General Secretary-Treasurer shall have the authority to provide the forms which will indicate what items should appear in said summary.

B. The Organization of the General Board

1. Meetings. The General Board shall meet on Tuesday and Wednesday following the fourth Sunday of January, in the month of June, on Tuesday and Wednesday following the second Sunday of October of each year, and in cases of emergency at the call of the General Secretary-Treasurer and the President of the Board or by request from a majority of the General Board members.

2. Officers. At the January meeting of the Board the following officers shall be elected and they shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified: a President, a Vice-President, and a Recording Secretary. At the same time the Board shall fill vacancies and elect needed new employees and shall fix the compensation of its secretaries and other employees, and all salaried officers of the Convention.

3. At the January meeting all of the work of the General Board and Convention shall be organized and promoted under the following divisions:

a. Business Management

b. Missions

- (1) Chaplaincy Ministries
- (2) City and Metropolitan
- (3) Deaf Work
- (4) Fruitland Bible Institute and Conference Center
- (5) Interracial Cooperation
- (6) Special Missions
- (7) Town and Country and Seminary Extension
- (8) Insurance and Annuity

 g. Christian Life and Public Affairs
 (1) Executive Committee
 (2) Other committees as needed

These divisions, numbered a to g inclusive, shall be administered and promoted under committees composed of members of the General Board. The General Secretary and Executive Committee shall decide the size of each committee (a through g) to be determined by the needs involved.

These committees shall meet for organizational purposes at the January meeting of the General Board and at other times upon the call of the Committee Chairman, Division Director or General Secretary, at each regular session of the Board, and, if necessary, at other times upon the call of the Division Director or Committee Chairman, or both.

4. Description of Committee Functions.

a. Committee on Missions.

(1) Function: To work with the Director of the Division in promoting the total program of mission activities in North Carolina.

(2) Duties and responsibilities of the Director of the Division:

(a) He shall be responsible to the General Secretary for the over-all performance of all departments and activities of the Division.

(b) He shall work with the Committee on Missions in promoting a vigorous program of mission activities in North Carolina, and shall hold staff meetings in an effort to correlate the work wherever possible.

(c) He shall participate in rallies and conferences in order to inform and inspire the leaders and encourage the people in the churches to support the total program, and shall plan and conduct Schools for Pastors and Schools of Missions.

(d) He shall present to the General Secretary-Treasurer and the Budget Committee the budget needs of the Division.

(e) He shall work with and supervise the work of the following Departments and Committees:

Town and Country and Seminary Extension
 City and Metropolitan
 Interracial Cooperation
 Deaf Work
 Special Missions

(1) Military Ministry

(2) Cherokee Indian Work

(3) Burnt Swamp Field Work

Fruitland Bible Institute and Conference Center

Chaplaincy Ministry

Insurance and Annuity

Communications

(f) He shall work with the director and have general supervision of Fruitland Bible Institute.

(g) In particular, he shall promote the following activities: aid for Missionary Pastors; a study and survey of situations where missions and eventually churches should be established; recommendations concerning the purchase of lots or loans for buildings; a ministry in the correctional institutions of the state, and to other groups; co-operation with and advisor to Associational Missionaries.

b. Committee on Evangelism

(1) Function: To work with the Director of the Division in promoting the total program of Evangelism among Baptists in North Carolina.

(2) Duties and Responsibilities of the Director of the Division:

(a) He shall be responsible to the General Secretary for the over-all performance of all activities of the Division, and he shall work closely with the General Secretary in the effort to place Evangelism in the forefront of the total Convention program.

(b) In co-operation with all divisions and departments of the Convention he shall study ways and means of getting and maintaining the spirit and practice of evangelism (witnessing unto Christ) in every phase of the total Baptist program in North Carolina.

(c) Work with the Committee on Evangelism of the General Board in promoting a vigorous program of evangelism in North Carolina.

(d) He shall present to the General Secretary-Treasurer and the Budget Committee the budget needs of the Division.

(e) He shall promote the Southern Baptist Program of Evangelism in co-operation with the boards and agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention.

c. Committee on Church Programs.

(1) Function: To work with the Director of this Division in providing the churches with trained educational leadership for the total church membership. Such a program will involve co-operation with the Sunday School Board and other Boards and agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention.

(2) Duties and responsibilities of the Director of this Division:

(a) He shall be responsible to the General Secretary-Treasurer and the General Board for the over-all performance of all Departments and activities of the Division.

(b) Work with the Committee on Church Programs of the General Board in studying the needs of the local church. Through the various departments of his Division, seek to guide in providing programs, literature, and leadership to help meet these needs. This will involve church community surveys and research in church programs, conferences with pastors and church leaders and co-operation with the various departments and facilities of the Sunday School Board and the various mission boards.

(c) Hold regular staff meetings of the department directors and all personnel in the various departments of the Division of Church Programs; correlate the work of church programs in such a way as to strengthen the local church; work with the department directors to prevent overlapping in meetings or emphases; and help create a spirit of team work as each department seeks to do its part in the total development of the local church.

(d) Meet in conference with the various department directors to develop a recommended budget for the Division. This recommended budget would then be studied by the General Secretary-Treasurer and presented by him to the Budget Committee for consideration.

(e) Participate in various district and state programs to help inform the people concerning the work of his Division and to help promote the entire Cooperative Program of Baptists.

(f) Work with and supervise the work of the following departmental directors: Sunday School, Church Training, Student Work, Church Music, Church Building Planning, Brotherhood, Camps and Retreats, Stewardship and North Carolina Baptist Assembly. In addition, he shall work in close cooperation with Woman's Missionary Union, helping to coordinate and correlate the work of that department with the other church programs, in ways that are mutually agreeable.

(g) Serve as Chairman of the Youth Program Advisory Committee.

(h) Promote the Church Administration Program of the Convention, including the training of Deacons.

(i) Coordinate and promote the Family Life Ministries of the Convention, in cooperation with the Administrative Assistant to the General Secretary-Treasurer, the Division of Christian Social Services, the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, and the Division of Missions.

d. Committee on Christian Higher Education.

(1) Function: To work with the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education in order to provide an effective program for the several Baptist colleges, without in any way hindering the independent operation of any one of them.

e. Committee on Christian Social Services.

(1) Function: To work with the Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Social Services in order to provide a well-integrated program for Children's Homes, Homes for Aging and the Hospital, without in any way hindering the independent operation of each.

(2) It shall be the prerogative of this committee to discuss the annual budget needs of each of the three social service institutions with the General Secretary-Treasurer and the Budget Committee of the General Board.

f. Committee on Christian Life and Public Affairs

(1) Function: To work with the entire Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs.

(2) To recommend to the Budget Committee an annual budget for the Council.

g. The Executive Committee

(1) Function: To serve in a dual capacity as the General Board and interim deciding on routine and emergency matters between sessions of the General Board, and as a survey and policy committee, reviewing, correlating and recommending policies and programs to the General Board. It will initiate and recommend matters concerning business management, budget and finance. The Executive Committee shall receive and act on all recommendations concerning the employment, supervision and retirement of personnel. Personnel may retire voluntary at age 65. They may continue on a year-by-year basis after a review by the Executive Committee with automatic retirement at age 68 as of December 31 of the year in which they retire.

(2) The Committee shall be composed of the President of the General Board, the vice-president of the General Board, the President of the Convention, the first vice-president of the Convention, the second vice-president of the Convention, the chairman of the six major committees, and five members-at-large from the General Board.

The Executive Committee as constituted the year previous shall remain intact until the January meeting of the General Board at which the Executive Committee will be re-constituted.

(3) The Executive Committee shall have three sub-committees to facilitate its work:

(a) Business Management (composed of five members of the Executive Committee) to work with the Business Manager-Comptroller and General Secretary-Treasurer on all routine matters of business in connection with the division of business management. Matters affecting policies, new personnel or new expenditures shall be referred to entire Executive Committee.

(b) Budget and Finance Committee (composed of six members of the Executive Committee) to handle program budget and finance matters and study, formulate and recommend general budget allocations. Final recommendation of budget will come from the full Executive Committee. Since the Executive Committee represents every division of the work of the General Board and all of the institutions and agencies, it is the proper committee to recommend budgets each year.

(c) Denominational Co-operation Committee (composed of the president, first and second vice-presidents of the Convention) to meet at such times as conditions warrant. They shall consider the work of the agencies and institutions of the state and Southern Baptist Conventions and recommend any policies that will improve co-operation with these agencies and institutions and Woman's Missionary Union.

(4) Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held as follows:

(a) Regular meetings at least once per quarter.

(b) Once each year, not later than September, the full Executive Committee shall invite heads of all agencies and institutions of the Convention to present written evaluations of their needs and requests for the next fiscal year. Following this meeting, the Executive Committee shall prepare a budget to be presented to the General Board at the pre-Convention session of the General Board. Any changes caused by Convention action, or later needs may be made at the January meeting of the General Board.

(c) The Executive Committee shall meet in special meeting on call of the General Secretary-Treasurer or the President of the General Board or both.

(5) The President of the General Board shall serve as chairman of the Executive Committee and ex-officio member of its subcommittees.

(6) The Executive Committee shall direct the work of the Business Manager and Comptroller whose duties shall be as follows:

1. Serve as the principal assistant to the General Secretary-Treasurer on all business activities of the General Board and its staff.

2. Supervise and direct all of the bookkeeping and accounting in connection with the Convention treasury and the work of the General Board.

3. In co-operation with the General Secretary-Treasurer execute the financial instructions of the General Board regarding the appropriations of all funds received by the Convention.

4. Supervise the work of the building superintendent, switchboard operator and receptionist, mail clerk, print shop workers, and maids and janitors.

5. Prepare and circulate manuals of administrative policies, procedures and practices to all General Board employees and supervise personnel activities such as length of vacation, sick leave, salaries, and expenses.

6. Prepare periodic financial reports of Convention receipts and expenditures for use of General Secretary-Treasurer, General Board and staff members and heads of institutions and agencies. Present financial reports to each regular meeting of the General Board and the annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention.

7. Be responsible for proper auditing of Convention financial records and for presenting such reports to the Convention and its General Board.

8. Assist the departments of the General Board staff in developing effective and economical procedures for the conduct of their work.

9. Establish and administer procedures to be used by staff members in making purchases of office supplies and equipment.

10. Make himself available to help any agency or institution of the Convention, at its request, to adopt better bookkeeping practices and work toward promoting a uniform method of bookkeeping for all agencies and institutions of the Convention.

V. The Council on Christian Higher Education

A. Duties. The duties of the Council shall be as follows:

1. It shall devise ways and means for the proper correlation of the work and programs in the several educational institutions supported by the Convention.

2. It shall study the needs of the institutions and their ability to meet these needs, and upon the basis of its findings shall recommend to the General Board allocations to the institutions of such funds as may be made available by the Convention or the General Board for Christian Higher Education.

3. It shall examine the budget requests made by each institution and present them to the General Secretary-Treasurer.

4. It shall formulate and promote plans for increasing the interest in and the support of these institutions and shall make reports in detail to the General Board upon all its work and findings.

B. Executive Secretary

(1) The Council on Christian Higher Education in co-operation with the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention shall nominate and the Executive Committee shall elect an Executive Secretary.

(2) Duties and responsibilities of the Executive Secretary of the Council

a. He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Higher Education, to the General Secretary-Treasurer, and to the General Board, and shall work in co-operation with all Divisions and Departments in an effort to secure full support for the Convention's program of higher education.

b. He shall, in co-operation with the Business Manager and Comptroller of the General Board, work toward promoting a uniform method of bookkeeping for all institutions of higher education in an effort to understand and interpret all their budget needs.

c. He shall work towards correlating the programs of the several educational institutions and securing their co-operation, and shall formulate plans for promoting an interest in and support of Christian Higher Education.

C. Meetings

The Council shall meet at the call of the Chairman at least three times during the Convention year; it may meet in special session at the call of the Chairman and Executive Secretary, or any five members.

VI. The Council on Christian Social Services

A. Duties: The duties of the Council shall be to consider problems common to all of the institutions, and keep the needs of these institutions before the General Board and the Baptist people of North Carolina. The Council shall examine the budget requests made by each of the institutions and present them with recommendations to the General Secretary-Treasurer.

B. Executive Secretary

1. The Council on Christian Social Services in co-operation with the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention shall nominate, and the Executive Committee shall elect, an Executive Secretary. The General Secretary-Treasurer will serve as acting Executive Secretary of the Council until the position is filled or when a vacancy may occur.

2. Duties and Responsibilities of the Executive Secretary of the Council. He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Social Services, to the General Secretary-Treasurer, and to the General Board, and shall co-operate with all the Divisions and Departments in order to create a better understanding of all the problems involved in providing for the needs of these social service institutions.

C. Meetings

The Council shall meet at the call of the Chairman at least once during the Convention year. It may meet in special session at the call of the Chairman and Executive Secretary, or any five members.

VII. Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs

A. Description of Emphasis and Activities

1. Objective

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall assist North Carolina Baptists in the propagation of the gospel by:

a. Helping North Carolina Baptists to become more aware of the ethical implications of the Christian gospel with regard to such aspects of daily living as family life, human relations, moral issues, economic life and daily work, citizenship, public affairs and related fields; and by

b. Helping them create, with God's leadership and by His grace the kind of moral and social climate in which the North Carolina Baptist witness for Christ will be most effective. This emphasis in the field of applied Christianity is to be pursued with the full awareness that the chief concern of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs is in the area of Christian social ethics which is understood to mean the application of Christian principles in everyday living. Its primary program assignment is in the area of Christian morality development among North Carolina Baptists.

2. Promotion

a. Makes systematic long-range plans for emphasis on Christian social ethics in the life of the North Carolina Baptist Convention and its agencies. These plans may include such things as suggested methods, suggested organizational patterns and suggested themes.

b. Plans and conducts specialized seminars in the field of Christian social ethics. Specifically, these seminars for leadership may deal with such subjects as family life, human relations, moral issues, economic life, daily work and citizenship. These seminars may be both statewide and regional as required by circumstances. Such plans for seminars should take cognizance of other North Carolina Baptist Convention agencies having interest in any of these areas.

c. Plans and conducts a Christian social ethics literature service, including pamphlets, tracts, booklets, posters, etc. This material is to be produced by the Division in co-operation with the Southern Baptist Christian Life Commission and Joint Committee on Public Affairs to assist in the implementation of the program of Christian morality development.

d. Plan and conduct seminars in the dangers of alcohol, provide literature and research and serve as the official channel of the Convention for needed action in reference to legislation or action on the question of sale or use of alcohol among our people.

e. Provide for a liaison committee or person that would work with our General Assembly of North Carolina and our national Congress on legislation on matters that may vitally concern the life and work of our Baptist people.

f. Plans and provides articles, mats, quotes, factual data, pictures and similar material on current pertinent moral and social issues for use by state Baptist papers and other mass media outlets in North Carolina.

3. Information

a. Assembles basic materials such as books, pamphlets, and articles so as to qualify as a source of authentic information on all matters pertaining to the field of Christian social ethics, including alcohol, gambling, pornography and other items.

b. Assists editors, scholars, teachers, writers, and other specialists in need of special information on Christian social ethics for the writing projects in which they are engaged.

c. Provides a mail answering service to North Carolina Baptists and others in search of information on social problems.

4. Study and Research

a. Maintains a program of study covering the field of Christian social ethics in order to provide reliable help to North Carolina Baptists.

b. Provides monographs, papers, and studies for North Carolina Baptist leaders, agencies, and institutions needing service in the field of Christian social ethics.

c. Determines by means of opinion sampling, interviews, etc., the thinking of North Carolina Baptists on moral and social issues so as to be able to render service where the need is greatest. The research survey facilities of existing agencies should be used when possible.

5. Consultative and Advisory

a. Provides associations and churches with ideas by which achievements in Christian social ethics can be measured.

b. Provides counsel as requested in the field of applied Christianity to other North Carolina Baptist agencies and departments.

c. Serves in a liaison capacity with non-North Carolina Baptist groups in the field of social ethics.

(1) Consults with organizations working in alcohol education, public safety, and other areas of social concern.

(2) Presents North Carolina Baptist insights for consideration in the planning of programs by the state government on children and youth, aging, housing, employment, public health, and other matters pertaining to social welfare.

(3) Brings to bear Baptist statements, convictions, and insights in the field of Christian ethics upon important policy making groups, compilers of yearbooks, various welfare organizations, etc.

d. Encourages the inclusion of Christian social ethics in the study programs of various Baptist groups, such as assemblies, encampments, conferences, colleges, or wherever the need may develop. It shall be the duty of this committee to study developments in the area of church-state relations, to be alert to developments within the state and nation which violate or compromise the historic Baptist position of a free church in a free state. It shall attend conferences and seminars where these matters are being discussed. It shall report to the Baptist State Convention on any developments in this area and otherwise keep our people informed. This Council shall recognize that its primary responsibility is to speak to our people rather than for them.

6. Relationships:

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs should work directly as a staff and service agency with the North Carolina Baptist Convention and its agencies. It may work directly with the Southern Baptist Christian Life Commission, the Joint Committee on Public Affairs and with other North Carolina organizations through whom it may render indirect service to the associations and churches and their leaders. Its staff may on invitation, conduct associational and local church conferences in order to validate plans and techniques. The Council may relate its emphasis on Christian social ethics to Baptist Associations, churches, and leaders through printed media. The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall designate nine of its members for nomination for Trustees of the Christian Action League. The Council shall cooperate with the Christian Action League in its efforts to combat alcohol and other social evils.

B. Makeup of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs
(16 regular members, 4 Ex-officio)

1. Eight members from the General Board. Chairman of this committee shall be one of the eight members of the General Board, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board and Chairman of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs.

2. Eight additional members elected from over the state on a four-year rotating basis to be named by the Committee on Nominations and elected by the Convention.

At least four from staff or faculty of Southeastern Seminary, North Carolina Baptist Social Service Institutions, and at least four members who have interest and understanding in the field of practical Christian living. Four ex-officio members: Chairman of the General Board, General Secretary-Treasurer, Editor of the Biblical Recorder and Editor of Charity and Children.

3. Representatives on the Council from the institutions will not have voting power in the allocation of funds. No member of the Council who occupies a salaried position with the Convention or its institutions or its auxiliary shall have a vote on appropriations that may be made to the institutions; and all appropriations agreed upon shall be subject to the approval of the General Board.

4. The Council shall have an Executive Committee with authority to carry on the work of the Council between regular sessions. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the Executive Secretary of the Council, the Chairman of the Council, and three members-at-large elected by the Council.

C. Personnel

1. The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs in cooperation with the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention shall nominate, and the Executive Committee of the General Board shall elect an Executive Secretary and other personnel, as needed. The General Secretary-Treasurer will serve as acting Executive Secretary of the Council until the position is filled, or when a vacancy may occur.

2. Duties and responsibilities of the Executive Secretary of the Council. He shall be responsible to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, to the General Board, and shall cooperate with all the Divisions and Departments in order to create a better understanding of all the problems involved in providing this Christian ministry.

D. Reports

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs shall make a full report to the October meeting of the General Board and to the Baptist State Convention in annual session in November.

E. Meetings

The Christian Life Committee of the General Board shall elect its chairman at the January meeting of the General Board. This chairman becomes a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board.

The Council shall hold at least two full meetings during the year, one during the spring months and one prior to the fall Convention. Additional meetings may be called by the Chairman and Executive Secretary of the Council when conditions warrant it.

F. Budget

Budget funds for the work of this Council will be recommended by the Council and approved by the Executive Committee of the General Board. Expenditure of budget funds will be supervised by the committee of the General Board, under the guidance of the General Secretary-Treasurer.

VIII. The Dismissal of Trustees of Institutions or Agencies

In the event that it should become necessary for the Convention to consider removal of a trustee, it shall be done in the following manner:

1. The Convention will automatically refer the matter to the Executive Committee of the General Board for consideration and action.

2. The Executive Committee will first seek to solve the problem through the regular elected Board of Trustees.

3. If it becomes necessary for the Executive Committee to act in behalf of the Convention, the trustee in question shall have charges presented to him in writing, given adequate time for reply, and be allowed counsel. . . .

4. The Executive Committee will report its action in full to the General Board subject to the approval of the Convention in its next annual session.

IX. Amendments to By-Laws

These By-laws may be changed or amended by a majority vote of the messengers present either the first full day or the second full day of the Annual Convention.

Convention Theme: "Jesus Christ—The One Way"

MONDAY EVENING

1. The 141st annual session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina assembled in Ovens Auditorium of Charlotte on the evening of November 22, 1971, with President John E. Lawrence, Raleigh, presiding. President Lawrence called the Convention to order.

2. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, Director of the Department of Church Music, led the Convention in singing "Glorious is Thy Name," and "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind," with C. A. Kirby, III, Statesville, serving as the Convention organist and Roye Lynn Kulik, Charlotte, as the Convention pianist.

3. Second Vice-President Carlos Young, Shelby, read Acts 4:24-33, 2 Timothy 2:22, and 1 Peter 3:8, and led the Convention in prayer.

4. A male quartet composed of Charles Storey, Winston-Salem; Marion Boling, High Point; Herman May, Charlotte; and Gerald R. Carter, Lexington, sang "The Solid Rock" (Mote).

5. First Vice-President Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn, led the Convention in a period of devotional meditation on the subject "The Wonder of Christian Unity." He attributed continuing Baptist progress, in contrast to retrenchment on the part of many other religious groups, to an effort on our part at continuing to experience unity inspired by the Holy Spirit, according to the pattern observable in the churches of the first century. This requires absence of pride and togetherness in prayer and in witnessing.

6. President Lawrence announced the following appointments for the COMMITTEE ON ENROLLMENT: Billy C. Beaver, Maiden; Howard H. Carlton, Charlotte; Fred C. Crisp, Dallas; Duncan L. Futrelle, Charlotte; Charles H. High, Stanly; James B. McQuere, Maiden; B. Clyde Simpson, Charlotte; Charles Summey, Gastonia; and W. Clyde Bearden, Charlotte, Chairman.

7. W. Clyde Bearden, Charlotte, Chairman of the Committee on Enrollment, reported that there were 884 registered messengers and 61 visitors as of 6:45 p.m. He then made a motion that the messengers now enrolled and those who shall subsequently be enrolled constitute this Convention. The motion was seconded and carried.

8. Frank R. Campbell, Statesville, Chairman of the Committee on Convention Program, stated that two proposed changes in the Constitution of the Baptist State Convention have been submitted for publication in the Biblical Recorder in accordance with the requirements of Article XIII of the Constitution, and after consultation with certain officers of the Convention, the Committee on Pharr, High Point; Gordon Pope, Granite Falls; Otto K. Pridgen, Wilmington; and Cecil E. Sherman, Asheville.

10. A. B. Bumgarner, Spindale, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, nominated the following to serve on the COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS: Thurman W. Allred, Concord; J. Stancil Baucum, Rocky Point; Mrs. R. Knolan Benfield, Morganton; Rexford R. Campbell, West Jefferson; Billy T. Cline, Asheville; E. Gordon Conklin, Greenville; D. Hoke Coon, Lexington; Mrs. J. Kyle Graybeal, Cary; James O. Hagwood, Robersonville; J. Dewey Hobbs, Jr., Marion; John W. Lucas, Cliffside; Miss Betsy Newton, Chapel Hill; James R. Rowles, Hickory; James B. Sides, Wadesboro; and Thomas A. Bland, Wake Forest, Chairman. A motion was made that these be elected; the motion was seconded and carried.

12. First Vice-President Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn, introduced

Worth Grant of Wycliffe Bible Translators, who introduced William Cameron Townsend who has done significant work in Bible translation over a period of thirty-five years.

13. Ernest Upchurch, Raleigh, Director of City and Metropolitan Missions, introduced Glen Eidelhart of the Home Mission Board, working in the New Jersey area.

14. President Lawrence presented W. Perry Crouch and Mrs. Crouch, and expressed appreciation for the special contributions made by Mrs. Crouch to the work of North Carolina Baptists.

15. General Secretary-Treasurer Crouch introduced new ministers (including pastors, music, and education) in the state since the time of the previous annual session of the Convention. Many of them were also accompanied by their wives, who had been invited to come to the platform with them.

16. President Lawrence recognized representatives of various agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention, as follows: Gray Rush, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, and Frank L. Durham, Senior Vice-President of the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

17. Albert McClellan, Nashville, Tennessee, Program Planning Secretary of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, addressed the Convention on the subject "The Work of the Southern Baptist Convention." He directed attention specifically to the Cooperative Program, which includes all the work of the Southern Baptist Convention with the exception of the Sunday School Board. He reported that a year ago we appeared to be headed for a bit of a decline in our total Cooperative Program budget, but now we see a new increase—more than 5 per cent above last year at this time. The Cooperative Program is more than a budget, however; it is a bridge from our church doors to doors of men around the world, carrying not only dollars, but also people who minister. It is a two-way bridge, bringing back to us the inspiration and Christian encouragement of our brothers. The Cooperative Program is a symbol of our unity, our compassion, and our wisdom in devising a workable strategy. It is also a partnership between Conventions and between churches. As such, it calls forth from us our best in response to the mercies of God.

18. President Lawrence recognized W. Harrison Williams, Charlotte, and Forrest Feezor, Black Mountain, former presidents of the Baptist State Convention.

19. The Singing Churchmen, a choral group composed of full-time Ministers of Music, presented a sacred concert under the direction of Charles S. Gatwood, Raleigh, Associate in the Department of Church Music of the Baptist State Convention, with James Reich, Monroe, as the organist. They sang "Brethren, We Have Met to Worship" (Moore); "God Is Our Refuge and Strength" (Philip Young); "Soul, Array Thyself with Gladness" (Handel-Coggin); "My Eternal King" (Jane Marshall); "Thou Didst Leave Thy Throne" (Matthews-Red); "Poor Wayfaring Stranger" (arr. Burroughs); "Rise Up, O Men of God" (Williams-Red); "Let All Nations Praise the Lord" (Leisring-Hoggard); "Ye Shall Have a Song" (Randall Thompson); and "The God Who Gave Us Life" (Randall Thompson).

20. First Vice-President Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn, presided and presented President John E. Lawrence for the President's Address.

21. President John E. Lawrence, Raleigh, delivered his President's Address, beginning by referring to "certain critical issues" which will be before the Convention, which he will not debate, but has decided he must touch upon. After reading John 14:1-6 and leading in prayer, he related a personal experience in defusing a bomb which would otherwise have put the aircraft carrier Intrepid out of commission at a time when it was desperately needed during World War II. He related this to the present issue concerning the proposed Constitutional amendment regarding the composition of the Convention and his great sense of concern for the Convention's health at this moment when we are desperately needed. He referred to the Convention Theme: "Jesus Christ—The One Way," saying that the only way for this kind of unity to be a reality among us today is for us to listen to Jesus, to learn from him, and to love him with a love that causes us to do what is well-pleasing to him. Such unity is not a matter of a monolithic structure, but is a matter of our oneness in response to the Lordship of Christ. In a time when the really central doctrines of our faith, including even the existence of God, are under serious attack, we cannot afford the luxury of an exercise in triviality. Such unity demands that we learn from Jesus, as shown in John 13:34-35, that there are degrees of priorities and that love must have such priority—as Paul also shows in 1 Corinthians 12-13. We are now caught up in a controversy in which some are extremely concerned about churches practising baptism of believers only by immersion only, while others are equally concerned about preserving the autonomy of the local church from every outside pressure, expressed or implied, while still preserving our ability to work together in spite of differences. The only way this can be possible is through the priority of Christian love. There is a time-fuse in our present society and the only hope of averting the impending destruction is for God's people to love him and do what is well-pleasing to him by declaring his gospel, not magnifying our differences but uniting ourselves in the crucial task. As a denomination we have very many reasons for true thanksgiving during this Thanksgiving week. God has entrusted us with great resources; our institutions are rendering an ever greater ministry; our Convention leaders are people who really love the Lord. There is so very much at stake if we should be immobilized; unity in Christian love is therefore all the more crucial. President Lawrence called the Convention into a time of repentance and of intercession for God's will to be done among us so that we may face our hostile world together.

22. The benediction for the Monday evening session was pronounced by Forrest C. Feezor, Black Mountain, concluded by the entire Convention singing "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

TUESDAY MORNING

23. The organ prelude was presented by C. A. Kirby, III, Statesville.

24. The Convention was called to order by President Lawrence, who asked that the doors be closed during the period of worship.

25. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, introduced the period of worship and led the Convention in singing "Crown Him with Many Crowns."

26. The Wingate College Choir, under the direction of James Blackwelder, sang "Credo" (Cousins).

27. Joe Lennon, Aberdeen, read I John 3:14-24 and led the Convention in prayer.

28. The Wingate College Choir sang "Glorious Everlasting" (Cousins).

29. Al Lineberry, Greensboro, led the Convention in a devotional meditation, speaking concerning God's revelation of himself through nature, through the changing of the seasons, and through men who are inspired by his Spirit so as to live for him effectively in every opportunity which daily life affords.

30. The Wingate College Choir sang "The Beatitudes" (Evans).

31. Ed Brandon, Raleigh, Chairman of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, called attention to the report of the Division of Christian Life and Public Affairs as found on pages 173-178 of this Annual. He spoke concerning various sections of the printed report, with special emphasis on the statement concerning the subject of Public Education. He moved the adoption of two recommendations on this subject, as found on page 176 of the Annual. The motion was seconded and carried.

32. President Lawrence read a resolution dealing with pastors who lose their pastorates, referred to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs by the 1970 Baptist State Convention (See Items 59 and 181 of the Proceedings in the 1970 Annual).

33. John T. Wayland, Wake Forest, a member of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, presented and moved the adoption of a substitute resolution on pastor-church relationships, as found on pages 176-178 of the Annual. The motion was seconded. President Lawrence gave opportunity for discussion of the original resolution. There being none, he gave opportunity for discussion of the substitute resolution. An unidentified messenger suggested the addition of the word "deacons" in Number 4 after the word "Associations," and this was agreed upon by common consent. The vote was taken on the substitute motion and it was carried. The vote was then taken on the original motion, as amended by the substitute, and it was carried.

34. General Secretary-Treasurer W. Perry Crouch called attention to the resolution of appreciation for the three years of service rendered by Ed Brandon, Raleigh, as the first Chairman of the Council. (The full text of the resolution is on page 178 of the Annual

35. J. Marse Grant, Raleigh, Editor and Business Manager of the Biblical Recorder, called attention to the report of the Directors of the Biblical Recorder as found on pages 198-200 of the Annual. He reported that Woodrow W. Hill would join the staff on January 15, 1972 as field representative, living perhaps in the High Point area.

36. Woodrow W. Hill, Thomasville, spoke concerning his work in various pastorates in North Carolina and his anticipation of his new work. He gave glowing words of testimony about the Biblical Recorder and the need of getting it into the hands of far more people.

37. President Lawrence expressed appreciation for the work of James M. Bulman, Oak Ridge, the Parliamentarian; Miss Ruth Williams, the office secretary of General Secretary-Treasurer W. Perry Crouch; Recording Secretary Lamar J. Brooks, Wake Forest; and Assistant Recording Secretary Ted W. Williams, Raleigh. He then recognized the three Royal Ambassadors who are serving as pages for the Convention, as follows: Ricky Webb, Waynesville; Coswell E. Gerrald, Jr., Greensboro; and Claude Bridges, Bladenboro.

38. The time for Miscellaneous Business having arrived, Wilbur A. Huneycutt, Valdese offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Whereas, notice has been given that an amendment to the Constitution of the State Baptist Convention of North Carolina will be submitted to this Convention, an amendment that points to one of our historic Baptist practices by requiring that no messengers be seated from churches that accept members without immersion, and

Whereas, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in their long history of struggle and testing have never had to so phrase doctrinal statements in the constitutions, which would establish a trend toward a dangerous ecclesiastical organization to overlord it over local congregations, and

Whereas, we would reaffirm our position on believer's baptism by immersion, which is a doctrine supported by all of our Baptist people, without altering the structure of Article IV in the Constitution of the State Baptist Convention of North Carolina,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the State Baptist Convention of North Carolina, meeting in Charlotte, this the 23rd day of November, 1971, endorse the statement adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Kansas City in 1963, entitled "The Baptist Faith and Message," which includes in paragraph 7 the definition of baptism as follows:

"Christian Baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper."

FURTHERMORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Convention encourage pastors and leaders in our churches to make the statement "The Baptist Faith and Message" available to all our people for study and guidance.

39. President Lawrence ruled this resolution out of order on the basis that there is already a proposed Constitutional change on the agenda which deals with essentially the same matter in the resolution.

40. E. Leon Smith, Goldsboro, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas for the past seventeen years our nation, particularly the South, has experienced a period of rapid social change in human relations as evidenced in a shift from a segregated to a desegregated public school system; and

Whereas our public schools have become the focus of such changes, having thereby been placed in the unprecedented role of initiating change and reconciling cultural and racial groups; and

Whereas in the last decade, from 1961 to 1971, we have witnessed the general fund appropriations for public school education in North Carolina drop from an approximate 59 per cent to an approximate 49 per cent, with teachers receiving fewer benefits than other state employees; and

Whereas public schools in America have historically had the support of Southern Baptists; and

Whereas Baptists, cherishing and espousing the time-honored tradition of church-state separation, have traditionally designated the education of the public to be a function of state government; and

Whereas a number of communities across the state have established private schools with the apparent goal of retaining racial segregation, attaching to some of these schools the adjectival modifier "Christian";

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention at this annual session reaffirm its commitment to our system of public school education as the best method of providing public education regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, or economic status; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Baptists of North Carolina call upon the Governor and legislators of our state to reverse the trend of lowering the percentage of the general fund appropriations for public schools, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Baptists of North Carolina urge leaders of private sectarian schools to put Christianity into practice and to comply with the law of the land as to its intent by opening such schools to all racial and ethnic groups, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention urge members of our churches to become involved in local and state-wide efforts to improve the quality of public education in our state, thus enhancing the possibility of a future of peace, understanding, and good will.

41. President Lawrence called attention to a telegram from R. H. Patterson concerning the alcohol problem in our society.

42. Ray W. Benfield, Carthage, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, the General Assembly of North Carolina has cost the state vast sums of money, in terms of time spent in discussing the liquor laws of this state in the past few years, and

Whereas, this state can ill afford the waste of time in the next General Assembly over the further liberalization of liquor laws, compared to the immense number of other pressing imperatives—such as ecology, drug abuse, transportation, crime, education, etc., and

Whereas, the two local option liquor-by-the-drink proposals for Moore and Mecklenburg counties have ended up as useless pieces of legislation, the measure being soundly defeated at the polls in Moore County and virtually destroyed in the courts in Mecklenburg County,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That this convention go on record urging messengers to return home and check to see if their local ABC Boards in their counties and municipalities are allocating seven per cent of their profits from the sale of alcoholic beverages as required by law to education, rehabilitation, detoxification centers, etc.,

2. That this convention go on record specifically requesting the next governor in advance to appoint a high-level Study Commission on Alcoholic Beverages to consider all aspects of the alcohol problem, including highway safety, rehabilitation, control of alcoholic beverages, etc.,

3. That this convention go on record to continue its open and concerted opposition to liquor-by-the-drink, and if any further legislation is contemplated in this direction in the 1973 General Assembly, that it be urged upon our legislators to favor a statewide referendum on liquor-by-the-drink, rather than a statewide bill permitting local option elections.

43. Michael C. Blackwell, Raleigh, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas the Executive Office of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention recently decided to withhold distribution of "Becoming," a Church Training quarterly designed for 14 and 15 year old youngsters, and

Whereas the stated and understood reasons for the withdrawal of the 160,000 copies of "Becoming" at a minimum stewardship loss of $8,000 was, according to Allen B. Comish, head of the Sunday School Board's Division of Church Services and Materials, because some of the textual material and a picture of two white female students and a black male student at Hamline College in St. Paul, Minnesota might be subject to misinterpretation and ". . . could have been construed as improper promotion on the part of the Sunday School Board of integration in the churches," and, according to Newsweek magazine, to appease "residual segregationist sentiments" within the Southern Baptist Convention, and

Whereas the editor of "Becoming" magazine resigned so soon after the quarterly was withdrawn, thus raising the question as to whether responsible editorial freedom is permitted at the Sunday School Board, and

Whereas the Executive Office of the Sunday School Board said, following the resignation of the editor of "Becoming," that all employees of the Board will either adopt the philosophies and objectives of the Board or "understandably" seek other avenues of fulfillment, and

Whereas many young people in our churches have voiced their disappointment and frustration that they have been denied the resources for an honest discussion of the race questions, and

Whereas this action has denied our Baptist people the precious right of deciding for themselves whether they will accept or reject a certain interpretation of the race issue, thus striking at the foundation of the Baptist belief that our people do have the ability to analyze all sides of an issue and then form a personal philosophy on the matter, and

Whereas, because of these and other reasons, North Carolina Baptists have been called on to rethink our denominational commitments concerning race relations, including the fact that the Sunday School Board in Nashville reportedly employs only one black person in a professional status, that of a staff artist,

IT IS THEREFORE RESOLVED by the 1971 North Carolina Baptist Convention meeting in Charlotte that it disassociates itself from the decision to withdraw the youth training quarterly "Becoming" from circulation for the stated reasons, and we express our regret that the decision, which is not in harmony with the message of the Church, was ever made.

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist Convention supports the statement of Mrs. Twyla Wright, the writer of the censored article, "A Ministry of Reconciliation: How Can I Discuss the New Testament Attitude Concerning Acceptance of Other Races?" that churches do have a responsibility "... to help break down racial barriers," and we reaffirm that the message of God's saving grace through Jesus Christ is a message for all men. Furthermore, we affirm that race relations is an area in which the local church can make a unique contribution to our communities, and the North Carolina Baptist Convention hereby voices whole-hearted support of its member churches as they exert courageous leadership in healing the wounds of our society.

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist Convention urges the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention to not only continue to provide education in the matter of race relations, but to actively engage in the promotion of better relations between all races, and we urge the Board to seek qualified blacks for positions within its professional ranks.

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist Convention commends its own General Secretary-Treasurer and the Secretary of the Department of Inter-racial Cooperation for their statements in opposition to the suppression of "Becoming," and we commend the conventions of Virginia, Kentucky, California, and the leadership of the Texas convention, and others who have voiced their disapproval of the withdrawal of "Becoming," while reaffirming the inherent worth and dignity of all men under God.

IT IS ALSO RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to Dr. James Sullivan, Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville, Tennessee and that copies be made available to the communications media covering this convention.

44. B. Elmo Scoggin, Raleigh, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas anti-semitism has been a serious problem for the church through most of Christian history, and

Whereas this very unchristian attitude on the part of many peoples has led to brutal persecutions of the Jews in different countries and societies, and

Whereas the most flagrant and cruel expression of this spiritual malignancy, the Nazi holocaust, transpired in our generation, and

Whereas latent anti-semitism lies barely under the surface in most western, Christian cultures today, and

Whereas most Christian communions and denominations, including our own, have failed to take a sufficiently vigorous stand against anti-semitism, and

Whereas it is clearly a moral and ethical question of the greatest magnitude, and

Whereas Baptists share with Jews a heritage of persecution and suffering for conscience sake, and

Whereas Southern Baptists are committed to Christian ethics at the highest level as an integral part of their purpose to act creatively and redemptively in all matters,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this Baptist State Convention of North Carolina put itself on record as opposed to any and all forms of anti-semitism; that it condemn anti-semitism as un-Christian; that we the messengers of this Convention pledge ourselves to combat anti-semitism in every honorable, Christian way; that we urge the literature producing agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention to keep all anti-semitic statements, inferences, implications and innuendos from our literature; that we covenant to work positively to replace all anti-semitic bias with the Christian attitude and practice of love for Jews, who along with other men, are equally beloved of God.

45. Arthur J. Herron, Raleigh, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Whereas the recent action of Dr. James L. Sullivan and Mr. Allen B. Comish in withholding distribution of the publication, Becoming, as a result of the art work, text, and approach to Christian race relations, has both shocked and disappointed members of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina; and

Whereas the Sunday School Board has published numerous other pieces of literature of the same quality and approach as this issue of Becoming, and

Whereas the action appears to be in contradiction to A Statement Concerning the Crisis in Our Nation which was approved by the Southern Baptist Convention on June 5, 1968, and consequently published by the Sunday School Board, when the statement says "We will personally accept every Christian as a brother beloved in the Lord and welcome to the fellowship of faith and worship every person irrespective of race or class. We will strive by personal initiative, and every appropriate means of communication to bridge divisive barriers, to work for reconciliation, and to open channels of fellowship and cooperation. . . . We will strive to resist prejudice and to combat forces that breed distrust and hostility," and

Whereas the Negro Baptist publishing house, The National Baptist Publishing Board, has adopted a statement saying the withdrawal of this quarterly has caused a serious "setback in our Christian endeavors," and

Whereas many young people in our college and university campuses are looking to the Church for a meaningful faith which would help them love all men, they must express because of this action their disappointment in the timidity of the Sunday School Board. In an official resolution, they stated: "This action appears to be an intolerable compromise of the Christian Gospel." This action was taken by the members of the Baptist Student Union during their Convention, November 3-5, 1971, and

Whereas the recent action has caused considerable doubt to be placed upon the work and witness of our Convention, especially work through our Interracial Department, and integrated churches throughout the Convention and their members, and

Whereas tension has been created for all who would work for Christian brotherhood in the State.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention in official session express our confidence in the Sunday School Board leadership as being Christian persons, and we express our deep regret, distress, and disappointment to Dr. James L. Sullivan and Mr. Allen B. Comish in withholding for distribution the above-mentioned issue of Becoming, and we encourage and request the staff of the Sunday School Board to publish material in the future which would realistically and openly appeal to members of all races who desire to live in Christian brotherhood with one another.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to Dr. James L. Sullivan and to Mr. Allen B. Comish, and the resolution be printed in full in the Biblical Recorder.

Upon the completion of the reading of this resolution, President Lawrence ruled it out of order on the basis that it deals essentially with the same subject as that of the resolution already submitted by Michael C. Blackwell (see Item 43 above).

46. Roger D. Sharpe, Raleigh, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

The North Carolina Penal Study Commission, organized at the request of the Honorable Robert W. Scott, Governor of North Carolina, and directed by him to conduct an examination of the State Penal System, made twenty-three recommendations to the Governor on March 15, 1971. Recommendations by the Penal Study Commission concerned facilities, rehabilitation, personnel, and sentencing, probation, and parole. The Commission stated:

"... With few exceptions, North Carolina is earnestly endeavoring to devise and operate a modern, 20th century correctional system with 19th century buildings and facilities. At almost all the units we have visited, we have found outmoded and run down buildings. We have found over-worked and under-paid personnel. . . . We conclude that these deplorable conditions are a direct result of an apparent century-old concept of inmate confinement or 'warehousing' as opposed to a concept of rehabilitation.

"We have also concluded that many of our laws and methods of committing an inmate into the correctional system are outmoded and should be changed. Emphasis of a correctional system should be on rehabilitation of the offender as well as punitive confinement. On no rational basis could it be considered that the improvements required to achieve these minimal requirements suggest any so-called 'coddling' of criminals."

In response to the leadership of Governor Robert W. Scott and Commissioner of Correction V. Lee Bounds, the recommendations of the Penal Study Commission, and most importantly, the teachings of Jesus Christ,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, in session at Charlotte, North Carolina, November 22-24, 1971:

1. that we as a Christian community endorse and actively support legislation in the North Carolina General Assembly to finance appropriate facilities and additional personnel in offering a more humane and responsible treatment for our brothers in prison;

2. that we as a Christian community become knowledgeable of the correctional facilities in our localities and the ways in which we can responsibly support its programs;

3. that we as Christians become involved in the lives of our brothers in prison that both parties might relate in a more mature understanding of each other; and

4. that we as Christians work with those who are released from prison in solving problems of community relations, employment, housing, and family.

47. Frank R. Campbell, Statesville, Chairman of the Committee on Convention Program, made a motion that we extend the time of the Miscellaneous Business five minutes. The motion was seconded and carried by a standing vote.

48. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

As a nation we are a people who live under law. As a church we are a people who live under grace. If order was God's first law, love and compassion are the fulfillment of the law. As the Fourth Gospel puts it, "The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ."

President Nixon has reminded the nation that we are now to move in the direction of decriminalization, that is, toward the removal from the category of crime of certain actions that have been described as "crimes without victims." As a fellowship of grace, the church, while never minimizing the high seriousness of wrong, is called upon to respond in the spirit of Him who said, "Neither do I condemn you." To this end,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting on November 23, 1971, in Charlotte, N. C.:

1. Request the General Assembly to remove those statutes that make public drunkenness a crime and which have the effect of convicting and jailing the drunk on the street corner while leaving intact the inebriate at the Country Club. The Convention calls upon the State to regard these victims of alcohol as in need of medical and psychiatric care rather than subject to criminal prosecution.

2. Request the General Assembly to remove those statutes that make the use of marijuana a crime subject to harsh and punitive penalties and to the police busts, surveillance, espionage, and harrassment that attend the enforcement of these statutes.

3. Urge the government to treat the users of hard drugs as victims in need of medical and psychiatric care and social concern, and to focus the energies and resources of law enforcement on the manufacturers and distributors of these drugs.

4. Call upon civil magistrates and law enforcement officers to protect and safeguard all citizens of all ages in their right of free assembly to petition for redress of grievances without the harrassment of unnecessary ordinances, arrests and excessive bail.

5. Remind all government that its essential function is in the areas of insuring justice, promoting the general welfare and guaranteeing domestic tranquility rather than the regulation of private morals.

6. Petition the President of the United States to grant amnesty, and so decriminalize, the hundreds of young men who have gone to Federal jails and the thousands and thousands of others who have fled to Canada and elsewhere because their consciences refused to let them fight in a war that is now widely regarded as immoral, unwarranted, and brutal. The Convention would remind the President and the people that the granting of amnesty is a tradition honored in the history of our nation and most memorably by President Andrew Johnson when he granted amnesty, not to those who refused to fight for their country, but to those who took up arms against their country. In so petitioning the President we recall our own Baptist heritage of a free and unfettered conscience and our faith that the release and return of these young men will bind up the wounds and make for the healing of the nation.

49. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "The Church's One Foundation."

50. James C. Cammack, Fayetteville, President of the General Board, introduced the Report of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, which is reprinted in full on pages 103-206 of this Annual, by the telling of a modern parable showing that we are all servants of the same King, whether on the General Board, the Convention staff, or in a local church, and thus deserve to be treated with respect. He then called attention to the fact that Cooperative Program gifts are now 7.19 per cent ahead of last year. He continued through the introductory pages of the report, commenting upon a number of items included in this material (see pages 105-106 of the Annual).

51. General Secretary-Treasurer W. Perry Crouch, Raleigh, expressed joy that we have even more recent information on the Cooperative Program than that printed in the report, with the result that the increase of this year over last year is now 7.7 per cent instead of 7.19 per cent. He then spoke of the work of the American Bible Society and the new arrangement for forwarding money to this agency through our Convention offices (see pages 109-110 of the Annual). He then presented James Edward Cunningham.

52. James Edward Cunningham, Lexington, Kentucky, addressed the Convention concerning the purpose and work of the American Bible Society, reporting more than 150,000,000 Bible and scripture portions around the world last year.

53. Leon P. Spencer, Raleigh, Director of the Division of Business Management, called attention to the "Report of the Business Manager" as found on pages 106-17 of the Report of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. (The final version of this report appears in the Annual on pages 488-525. A brief summary also appears on pages 110-111 in the introductory section of the General Board's report.) He called attention to a number of items in the report.

54. General Secretary-Treasurer W. Perry Crouch, Raleigh, spoke concerning the proposal for a Joint Committee on Interracial Affairs with the General Baptist Convention of North Carolina. He spoke concerning the new organizational chart of the Convention staff and commented on the present status of the new property purchased near the Baptist Building in Raleigh. He discussed the fire at Fruitland and the fine response in the State Missions Offerings. He gave notice that in tomorrow's session he will make a motion referring the matter of a loan for the building at Fruitland to the General Board for action, with a report to the next annual session, inasmuch as it cannot be done at this annual session because of an oversight in printing the request in three issues of the Biblical Recorder.

55. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, reported on the work of the Committee on Services Rendered (see pages 115-117 of the Annual) and spoke concerning the criteria used by the committee in determining what it will recommend in each instance to the Convention or to the General Board. He then presented the proposed budget for 1972, as found in Recommendation Number 1 of the General Board on page 119 of the Annual, and the more detailed statement found on pages 123-130.

56. James C. Cammack, Fayetteville, called attention to the nine recommendations of the General Board, as found on pages 119-123 and to the fact that action is scheduled on these tomorrow morning.

57. President Lawrence introduced the period of worship and those who are responsible for leading it.

58. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "The Doxology" (Old Hundredth).

59. The Gardner-Webb College Choir, under the direction of Phil Perrin, sang "Jubilate Deo" (Pfautsch).

60. A. B. Bumgarner, Spindale, alternate to preach the Convention Sermon, read Titus 2:1-15 and led the Convention in prayer.

61. The Gardner-Webb College Choir sang "He Comes to Us" (Marshall).

62. James R. DeLoach, Charlotte, preached the Convention Sermon on the subject "The Authority of the Word of God." He said that our unity is not to be found in any program of cooperation, but in our dedication to Jesus Christ as Lord. We are in great need of "adorning the doctrine of God" (Titus 2:10) by believing it, by behaving it, and by sharing it. This kind of belief involves accepting the Bible as the authentic and authoritative Word of God. This kind of behavior includes an attitude of love which enables us to contend for the faith without being contentious; it includes Christian character in every aspect of life. This kind of sharing involves the carrying out of the Great Commission of Jesus, which includes making disciples, immersing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and it involves resistance against all those who would subvert this effort. I am humbly proud to be a part of a great Christian fellowship such as this Convention, and one of the reasons is that this has been an evangelistic, soul-winning, missionary fellowship. But there is real reason to wonder if it will continue to be this kind of fellowship. We need to keep our hearts burning with soul-winning, evangelistic, missionary zeal. We need to realize that there are movements, nations and supernatural powers making every possible effort to lull us to sleep. We must rededicate ourselves to the doing of everything within our power to get the Gospel to as many people as we can, as quickly as we can, reassured and strengthened by the assurance, "Greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world!" (I John 4:4). He concluded by leading the Convention in prayer.

63. The Gardner-Webb College Choir sang "Rise Up, O Men of God" (arr. Shaw).

64. The benediction for the Tuesday Morning Session was pronounced by Recording Secretary Lamar J. Brooks, Wake Forest.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

65. The organ prelude was presented by C. A. Kirby, III, Statesville.

66. The Tuesday afternoon session was called to order by First Vice-President Thomas M. Freeman, who asked the ushers to close the doors during the period of worship.

67. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Have Faith in God."

68. Harry E. Poovey, Bladenboro, led the Convention in a devotional meditation based upon the statement of Jesus "I am the way, the truth, and the life." He spoke of experiences during five and a half years of missionary work in Taiwan, and of the faithfulness of some Christians in Red China under bitter persecution. He led the Convention in prayer.

69. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "I Know Whom I Have Believed."

70. A. B. Bumgarner, Spindale, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, presented the following nominations in addition to their previous report (see Item 10 above):

COMMITTEE ON CONVENTION PROGRAM: Jerreal B. Buchanan, Durham; James R. DeLoach, Charlotte; Charles T. Dorman, Fuquay-Varina; R. C. Foster, Thomasville; Mrs. Claude F. Gaddy, Raleigh; Baxter J. Leigh, Fayetteville; Seth Macon, Greensboro; A. Judson Rotan, Sylva; E. Murray Tate, Jr., Hickory; and J. Ralph Scales, Winston-Salem, Chairman.

Knight, Morehead City; George McCotter, Lillington; and Robert Shields, Rocky Mount (Note: In a subsequent action, the Convention elected Thomas C. Womble, Jr., Clemmons, as Chairman of the Committee on Nominations—see Item 198.)

COMMITTEE ON TRUSTEE ORIENTATION: For term expiring in 1974: L. H. Hollingsworth, High Point; Quinton M. Perreault, Charlotte; and J. Roy Robinson, Hickory (Note: In a subsequent action, the Convention elected Roger E. Williams, Kinston, as Chairman of the Committee on Trustee Orientation—See Item 198.)

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE: J. D. Fitz, Morganton; Mrs. Joe Gardner, Fayetteville; Claude O'Shields, Wilmington; Eugene White, Thomasville; Jim Wilson, Wilmington; J. Marse Grant, Raleigh, Chairman.

There being no further nominations from the floor, A. B. Bumgarner made a motion that these nominees be elected by acclamation. The motion was seconded and carried. (Other members of the Committee on Committees are listed in Item 9 above.)

71. President Lawrence announced that the time for Miscellaneous Business had arrived.

72. W. Clyde Bearden, Charlotte, Chairman of the Committee on Enrollment, reported that as of 12:30 p.m. there were 2,559 messengers and 205 visitors, making a total of 2,764 registrations.

73. Brock G. Henry, III, Mars Hill, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Many Baptists in North Carolina are conscientiously opposed to military service and war. Their opposition has its base in their religious beliefs. This is not to say that all Baptists share these beliefs; they don't. The Southern Baptist Convention strongly backs free choice in the matter. However, the present nature of the draft system restricts this freedom somewhat.

Baptists who find that the affirmation of their Christian faith impels them to be classified as conscientious objectors require support from the Southern Baptist Convention. At this point, the Convention is on record "as recognizing such right of a conscientious objection." This is not enough. The Convention must back its members who desire conscientious objector status more fully.

This is the purpose of this resolution. It will put the State Baptist Convention of North Carolina on record as supporting its members who seek conscientious objector status.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina go on record as endorsing conscientious objection as a valid form of Christian witness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina give support, counsel, and aid to Baptists desiring conscientious objector status.

74. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas we live in a time of moral confusion, spiritual apathy, and doctrinal uncertainty, and

Whereas Baptists have always sought to bear witness to a spiritual unity through personal faith in Jesus Christ, which provides for freedom in fellowship, diversity over matters not essential to salvation, recognizing the Lordship of Christ over each local congregation to lead it in the interpretation of the Scriptures as our rule of faith and practice, and

Whereas the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina would remain true to its purpose as an advisory body, not exercising authority over any other Baptist body, including its cooperating churches, and

Whereas the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina is concerned that all churches sympathetic to and cooperating with the work of the Convention remain strong in their witness to all Baptist distinctives, and is concerned to carry out its purpose to distribute sound religious literature,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in Charlotte, November 22-24, 1971, commend to all Baptist churches of North Carolina the serious study of "The Baptist Faith and Message," adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Kansas City, 1963, as a most helpful guide for the study of Baptist distinctives, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina make available to all our people sample copies of "The Baptist Faith and Message."

75. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas pornography has become a serious problem in our society, and

Whereas this flood of pornography does appear in so many forms in our society—in books, magazines, pictures, movies, live plays on the stage, and in moving picture advertizing in our daily newspapers, and

Whereas the North Carolina State Legislature passed a new law dealing with pornography and obscenity,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs study the law and bring forth a plan, legal and practical, whereby our people in our state, in the cities and communities, will be able to stop this flow of pornography,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we appeal to our daily newspapers throughout our state to refuse obscene ads of moving pictures, books, and plays that are pornographic in nature.

76. Frank Campbell, Statesville, made a motion to extend the time for Miscellaneous Business five minutes. The motion was seconded and was carried by standing vote.

77. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas the President of the United States, the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, has thrown his support back of the move to give public tax money to church schools in this country, and

Whereas this is in violation of the First Amendment of the Constitution,

NOW BE IT RESOLVED that this Convention call upon our President to not follow this course of action, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that our people strongly resist any attempt to turn our public tax money to parochial schools.

78. Thurman W. Allred, Concord, gave notice of a change in the Constitution of the Convention, Article IV, which he plans to propose at the 1972 Annual Session of the Convention, as follows

(the proposed changes appear in parentheses): "The Convention shall be composed of (1) Two messengers from each cooperating (Baptist) church, and one additional messenger from each church for every hundred members or major fraction thereof, beyond the first one hundred members; provided, that no church shall be entitled to more than ten messengers. No one shall be a messenger who is not a member of a (Baptist) church cooperating with the Convention, and messengers must be duly elected by their churches (and must have, upon their profession of faith, submitted themselves for baptism by immersion); a co-operating (Baptist) church shall be one that supports any object of the Convention and which is in friendly cooperation with this Convention and sympathetic with its purpose and work; and (2) The officers of the Convention, the members of the General Board, the editor of the Biblical Recorder, and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union.

79. M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia, made a motion that the following proposed change in the Constitution of the Convention be adopted: Article IV. Composition, shall be amended as follows: the lines—"a cooperating church shall be one that supports any object of the Convention and which is in friendly cooperation with this Convention and sympathetic with its purpose and work," shall be amended by the addition, after "purpose and work," of the following: "and which is Baptist, following the New Testament teaching of salvation by grace, and practicing believer's baptism by immersion only, thus consisting of immersed professed believers in Jesus Christ (excepting where a professed believer's immersion is prevented by physical disability)." He added that the proposal was also signed by Robert M. Tenery, Elkin, who was seconding the motion. President Lawrence pointed out that the proposal has already met the requirement of being published two times in the Biblical Recorder and that the Convention has already set a time for it to be the preferred order of business (See Items 8 and 162-173).

80. Recording Secretary Lamar J. Brooks, Wake Forest, read telegrams addressed to the Convention from Earl G. Hunt, Jr., Presiding Bishop of the United Methodist of Western North Carolina, and from Cecil Perry, a retired pastor now living in Asheville.

81. C. Gordon Maddrey, Raleigh, Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation, called attention to the report of the Foundation as found on pages 200-201 of this Annual.

82. R. Alden Angline, Asheville, in behalf of Joe Burnette, Charlotte, Chairman of the Committee on Place and Preacher, made a motion that Fayetteville be the site for the 1975 Convention (it having already been decided in previous sessions that the Convention will meet in Winston-Salem in 1972, in Asheville in 1973, and in Raleigh in 1974), and that the preacher for the 1972 Convention be Cecil E. Sherman, Asheville, with John M. Lewis, Raleigh, as the alternate. The motion was seconded and carried. Other members of the committee are: L. Thad Prevatte, Rich Square; Ben Parker, Pine Level; E. Glenn Holt, Fayetteville; Mrs. R. Homer Andrews, Burlington; Fred Sandusky, Wake Forest; Mrs. R. Knolan Benfield, Morganton; and J. Ned Beatty, Jacksonville.

83. The time having arrived for the election of officers, the floor was opened for nominations for the office of President.

84. James C. Cammack, Fayetteville, nominated Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn.

85. Floyd I. Enzor, Mount Airy, seconded the nomination, and the President stated that this was unnecessary from the parliamentary standpoint.

86. Jack Burnette, Mount Gilead, nominated J. Clyde Yates, Sr., Charlotte.

87. A motion was made from the floor, seconded, and carried by standing vote, that nominations cease. The Convention proceeded to vote by secret ballot.

88. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of First Vice-President.

89. Irby B. Jackson, Greenville, nominated Clarence E. Godwin, Oxford.

90. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, nominated Raymond H. White, High Point.

91. Thomas C. Womble, Jr., Clemmons, nominated Allen Bailey, Charlotte.

92. A motion was made from the floor, seconded, and carried by standing vote, that nominations cease. The Convention proceeded to vote by secret ballot.

93. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of Second Vice-President.

94. Woodrow Flynn, Murphy, nominated William A. Wallace, Charlotte.

95. J. Marse Grant, Raleigh, nominated Ray W. Benfield, Carthage.

96. A motion was made from the floor, was seconded, and carried by a standing vote, that nominations cease. The Convention proceeded to vote by secret ballot.

97. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of Parliamentarian.

98. James C. Huneycutt, Jr., Statesville, nominated James M. Bulman, Oak Ridge.

99. A motion was made from the floor, was seconded, and carried by a standing vote, that nominations cease and that James M. Bulman be elected by acclamation.

100. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of Recording Secretary.

101. Frank R. Campbell, Statesville, nominated Lamar J. Brooks, Wake Forest.

102. A motion was made from the floor, was seconded, and carried by a standing vote, that nominations cease and that Lamar J. Brooks be elected by acclamation.

103. The floor was opened for nominations for the office of Assistant Recording Secretary.

104. First Vice-President Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn, nominated Ted W. Williams, Raleigh.

105. A motion was made from the floor, was seconded, and carried by a standing vote, that nominations cease and that Ted W. Williams be elected by acclamation.

106. Second Vice-President Carlos L. Young, Shelby, presided and expressed his appreciation to the Convention for the privilege which has been his to serve in this capacity.

107. W. Amis Daniel, Kernersville, Chairman of the Social Services Committee of the General Board, introduced the representatives of the three social service institutions, explaining that the Baptist Children's Homes had a major time segment on the program last year, and the North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging will have such a segment next year, but that this year their presentations will be briefer so as to give more time for a presentation of the work of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital.

108. William A. Poole, Winston-Salem, Superintendent of North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging, spoke concerning the report on pages 196-197 of the Annual.

109. W. R. Wagoner, Thomasville, President of Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, spoke concerning the work of the Children's Homes as found on pages 195-196 of the Annual, and introduced Don G. Bryant, Charlotte, President of the Board of Trustees.

110. Don G. Bryant, Charlotte, President of the Board of Trustees of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, spoke concerning the work of the homes, stressing the importance of the Thanksgiving offering.

111. G. W. Bowling, Charlotte, Chairman of the Tellers, announced that the following have been elected as officers of the Convention: Thomas M. Freeman, President; Allen Bailey, First Vice-President; and Ray W. Benfield, Second Vice-President.

112. Thomas D. Long, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, spoke concerning the report the work of the hospital on pages 197-198 of the Annual and introduced several persons who spoke concerning various aspects of the work of the hospital.

113. Ray W. Benfield, Carthage, spoke concerning the benefits which have come to him in the pastorate as a result of participation in the Pastoral Care Program of the hospital.

114. William M. McKinney, Winston-Salem, Associate Professor of Neurology at Bowman Gray School of Medicine, spoke concerning medical research in heart, stroke and cancer. He then described a significant new area of research work at the hospital in the development of instruments and techniques for sonic detection and therapy.

115. Robert P. Crouch, Asheville, a doctor who is a graduate of Bowman Gray School of Medicine and a trustee of the hospital, spoke concerning the Long Range Development Program. The patient tower now under construction will increase patient space from 476 to 704, making the annual patient capacity approximately 11,000 more each year than the present capacity. With the completion of the ambulatory patient facility the annual out-patient load can reach about a quarter of a million visits per year.

116. Grady Brinkley, Lexington, described the care which was given to his son, Kenneth, during the year-long illness prior to his death from leukemia. He expressed deep gratitude for the Mother's Day Fund which made this treatment possible when no other financial help was open to them.

117. Calvin S. Knight, Winston-Salem, brought a report from the family of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Adams, whose daughters Betsy and Sallie were featured in the Mother's Day Offering last year. Betsy died last Friday while being rushed back to the hospital, but the family and the hospital continue to do everything possible for her surviving twin sister who still battles the rare disease of myasthenia gravis.

118. The benediction for the Tuesday afternoon session was pronounced by Budd E. Smith, Wingate.

TUESDAY EVENING

119. The organ prelude was presented by C. A. Kirby, III, Statesville.

120. President Lawrence called the Convention to order and asked that the doors be closed while the worship period was in progress.

121. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Glorious is Thy Name."

122. The Cherokee Reservation Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Jerri Kinsland, sang "Brethren, We Have Met to Worship" (Moore); "Surely Goodness and Mercy" (Peterson-Smith); "I Love Thee" (Young); and "Had It Not Been" (Goodman).

123. Mike Walkingstick, Cherokee, read John 4:20-21 in the Cherokee language.

124. June Welch, Cherokee, led the Convention in prayer, praying in the Cherokee language.

125. The Cherokee Reservation Choir sang "I've Found a Friend" (Lovelace); "No One Could Take His Place" (Freeman); "How Wonderful Is He" (Presley); and "Day Is Dying in the West" (Sherwin).

126. Corbin L. Cooper, Raleigh, Director of the Department of Interracial Cooperation, introduced O. L. Sherrill and spoke words of appreciation for his splendid work.

127. O. L. Sherrill, Raleigh, Executive Secretary of the General Baptist Convention of North Carolina, brought fraternal greetings from our sister Convention, commending the Baptist State Convention for its splendid work and expressing appreciation for Corbin L. Cooper and for the Department of Interracial Cooperation. He expressed public appreciation to General Secretary-Treasurer W. Perry Crouch for his forthright stand in recent weeks concerning matters which have transpired in the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board, which would otherwise have caused a great disenchantment among black Baptists.

128. James H. Blackmore, Wake Forest, Chairman of the Historical Committee, spoke concerning the report of the committee as found on pages 201-203 of the Annual, and moved the adoption of the six recommendations contained therein. The motion was seconded and carried.

129. Raymond H. White, High Point, presented the report of the Committee on Memorials, as found on page 203 of the annual, and moved that the recommendations contained therein be adopted. The motion was seconded and carried. (This included the dedication of the 1971 Annual.)

130. William C. McKinney, Jr., Lawndale, held up a beautiful red rose and spoke of it as a symbol of the beauty and meaning of the lives of those who are included this year in the list compiled by the Committee on Memorials. He then led the Convention in prayer.

131. Billy T. Mobley, Ahoskie, Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, assisted by several members of his committee, presented the report of the committee, as follows:

132. President Lawrence expressed appreciation to Arthur Smith, Charlotte, Chairman of the Committee on Local Arrangements, and to the entire committee, who are: Hoyle T. Allred, Gastonia; David M. Wooten, Charlotte; S. Lawrence Childs, Jr., Charlotte; Jack D. Weaver, Charlotte; Robert L. Cockerman, Charlotte; Duncan Futrelle, Charlotte; Mrs. Gene Moore, Charlotte; and Robert F. Hewitt, Charlotte.

133. Bill Hayes, Chapel Hill, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Whereas the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina represents churches, the majority of whose members are lay men and women;

Whereas the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, according to its Constitution, "convenes annually on Monday after the second Sunday in November at 7:00 p.m.";

Whereas few lay men and women attend meetings during the week;

Whereas the ministry of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina depends on the support and participation by lay men and women;

Whereas the Sunday of the proposed convention weekend might be used as a lay or youth Sunday in order to allow the pastors to attend the convention;

Whereas the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, according to its Constitution, "is empowered to change the time or place of meeting in case of emergency";

Whereas a definition of emergency is "a pressing need";

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting on November 22-24, 1971, feels that the lack of participation by lay men and women in the annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina constitutes a "pressing need";

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina requests that the Executive Committee of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina change the annual meeting time of the 1972 Convention to a weekend.

The motion was seconded. President Lawrence explained that the actual change suggested in the resolution would, in the opinion of the chair, require a change in the Constitution, which could not be accomplished as rapidly as the resolution requests, but that with this understanding the resolution will be referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

134. President Lawrence announced that the Convention was now entering an hour of Mission Emphasis under the general title "The College Scene and Evangelism," to be led by the Mars Hill College Choir, under the direction of Robert Rich, a college group known as the "Rhymes With Reasons," and Kenneth L. Chafin, Director of the Division of Evangelism of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

135. The "Rhymes With Reasons" sang "There's a Meetin' Here Tonight" (traditional folk song).

136. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Love Is the Theme."

137. The "Rhymes With Reasons" sang "The Song Is Love" (Stookey, Yarrow, Travers, Mason, Gold).

138. The Mars Hill College Choir sang "Amazing Grace" (folk hymn).

139. Robbie Parker, Ahoskie, a ministerial student at Campbell College, gave a personal testimony concerning his spiritual pilgrimage and the new peace he has found in Jesus Christ.

140. The "Rhymes With Reasons" sang "Tell It All, Brother" (Harvey) and "I Believe in Music, I Believe in Love" (Davis).

141. Charles Rosenfelder, Asheville, a recent student at the University of Tennessee, gave a personal testimony concerning the difference between having self upon the throne of life, and truly enthroning Jesus as Lord of life.

142. The "Rhymes With Reasons" sang "What the World Needs Now Is Love" (David; Bacharach).

143. Miss Bertie Barber, Cullowhee, a student at Western Carolina University, gave a personal testimony stressing the awareness of joy in life when Christ is on the throne. "What the World Needs Now Is Love" used to seem a very sad song, she said, because I saw mostly how much it is lacking, but now it seems to me a happy song because I know it really points me in the most challenging pathway life could offer.

144. The Mars Hill College Choir sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee" (Garner).

145. Kenneth L. Chafin, Atlanta, Director of the Division of Evangelism of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, read Acts 2:12-17, which applies to us so strongly because we too are seeing new and glorious manifestations of the Spirit and we don't know what to do with them either. There seems to be more openness to the gospel now than we have seen in many years. We see this in students, executives, blue collar workers, and others. There is also evidence that the same Spirit who is opening the hearts of so many is opening many church members who have something vital to share. The most exciting news in evangelism today is not in state evangelistic conferences but on college campuses and in high school groups who want to give an unapologetic witness and are willing to train themselves to learn how to do it effectively. They have a directness and an openness that many of us don't know what to do with. God is going to give America one more real chance to hear the gospel, and he is in no way bound to do it through Southern Baptists — and will indeed use someone else unless we are really open to his Spirit.

146. The Mars Hill College Choir sang "Abide With Me" (Garner).

147. The benediction for the Tuesday evening session was pronounced by Norman A. Wiggins, Buie's Creek.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

148. The organ prelude was presented by C. A. Kirby, III, Statesville.

149. President John E. Lawrence called the Convention to order.

150. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

151. Jimmy Morriss, Raleigh, Director of the Department of Communications, read Psalm 100 and led the Convention in prayer.

152. Miss Sherry Brabham, Rocky Mount, a student at the University of North Carolina in Greensboro, led the Convention in a devotional meditation. She presented James Weldon Johnson's poem, "The Creation," in sign language and dramatic speech.

153. Claude O'Shields, Wilmington, Eastern Area Representative of the Southern Baptist Radio and Television Commission, led the Convention in prayer and introduced a film presentation of the singing group, The Centurymen.

154. President Lawrence spoke concerning the gavel which he is using and urged the messengers to be in a prayerful spirit.

155. Joseph M. Sanders, Shelby, presented the following proposed change in the Constitution of the Convention: "Delete the last four words of Article XI, Section D, which reads, 'or its General Board'." He moved the adoption of the proposed change, and the motion was seconded. He then spoke in favor the motion.

156. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, Chairman of the Committee on Services Rendered, a committee of the General Board, spoke in opposition to the motion, referring again to the statement of the work of the committee as found on pages 115-117 of the Annual.

157. Joseph M. Sanders, Shelby, said he does not feel his motion would change the work of the Committee on Services rendered, except in requiring it to report directly to the Convention in Annual Session.

158. J. Boyce Brooks, Warsaw, a trustee of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital, spoke in opposition to the motion.

159. Norman Joyner, Statesville, spoke in opposition to the motion, stressing the complexity of such matters, a fact which has been impressed upon him by his experiences in the North Carolina General Assembly.

160. Joseph M. Sanders, Shelby, spoke again, expressing his confidence in the General Board, but again stressing his desire to have matters of this nature acted upon by the Convention.

161. First Vice-President Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn, spoke in opposition to the motion, telling of his very conservative approach to the entire matter of Federal Aid and the care with which he has participated as a member of the Committee on Services Rendered. The Convention proceeded to vote by secret ballot. Two different unidentified messengers asked for information concerning the balloting process, and the President answered their questions.

162. President Lawrence stated that in accordance with the action of the Convention (see Item 8 above), setting the change in the Constitution proposed by M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia (see Item 79 above) as a preferred item for this time, the motion which he made yesterday is now officially before us, Owens will have the first opportunity to speak, and time will be equally divided between opponents and proponents of the proposal.

163. M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia, spoke in favor of his proposal, listing various objections which have been lodged against it by persons who have opposed it, and stressing that this is the one place where we ought to start in applying the New Testament as our only creed.

164. Mrs. R. Knolan Benfield, Morganton, spoke in opposition to the proposal, stressing that it would weaken our significant work in the world at a time when we could ill afford to have this happen.

165. William H. Westphal, Greensboro, spoke in opposition to the proposal, stressing the vital nature of doctrine and the grave danger of creedalism. He also stressed the importance of the effect of this proposal upon our efforts in ministry in today's world.

166. James S. Potter, Charlotte, spoke in opposition to the proposal, stressing the aspect of local church autonomy and the spirit of love which we need.

167. Robert M. Tenery, Elkin, spoke in favor of the proposal, stressing that Jesus made no command about autonomy, but did command immersion.

168. Carlos Young, Shelby, spoke in opposition to the proposal, quoting R. G. Lee's remarks at the Southern Baptist Convention in 1950 regarding a similar issue.

169. Frank R. Campbell, Statesville, Chairman of the Committee on Convention Program, made a motion that the time for this order be extended ten minutes. The motion was seconded and carried by a standing vote.

170. James R. DeLoach, Charlotte, spoke in support of the proposal, bringing out various points concerning the effect upon the Mecklenburg Baptist Association of a similar issue in that association during the past three years.

171. Cecil E. Sherman, Asheville, spoke in opposition to the proposal, citing the history of the development of the modern Baptist practice, which first stressed believer's baptism by affusion and later became more unanimous in regard to the form of immersion.

172. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, spoke in favor of the proposal, citing the case of the Virginia Baptist Association in the Campbellite controversy.

173. J. Dewey Hobbs, Jr., Marion, a member of the Committee on Resolutions, spoke against the proposal, pointing out that later in the morning he will be bringing to the Convention from the Committee on Resolutions the resolution proposed yesterday by John M. Lewis (see Item 74) concerning the distribution of, and the commendation of, "The Baptist Faith and Message."

174. O. M. Burkhalter, Lilesville, began to speak, but was interrupted with the announcement that the time for the order of business has expired. Frank R. Campbell, Statesville, moved that the time be extended for two minutes to let O. M. Burkhalter finish. The motion was seconded and carried by a standing vote. Burkhalter then made a motion that the entire matter be referred to the General Board for a committee to be established, with M. O. Owens, Jr., as a member of the committee, to study the matter and report to the 1972 Convention. The motion was seconded and defeated. The time for discussion having expired, the Convention proceeded to vote by secret ballot on the motion of M. O. Owens, Jr.

175. Recording Secretary Lamar J. Brooks, Wake Forest, read a message of fraternal greetings from the Right Reverend Edmund McCaffrey, O. S. B. Abbot, and the monks of Belmont Abbey. President Lawrence asked the messengers to join him in an expression of appreciation for the ushers who have done such excellent work under the leadership of Whit Sloop of Hickory Grove Church, Charlotte.

176. M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia, made a motion that the Recording Secretary be authorized to send a message of sympathy to E. Eugene Poston, President of Gardner-Webb College, whose mother died on Monday. The motion was seconded and carried.

177. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know."

178. The time having come for action on the recommendations of the General Board, James C. Cammack, Fayetteville, President of the General Board, introduced the recommendations which are to be presented by various members of the Board.

179. John M. Lewis, Raleigh, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion to adopt Recommendation Number 1, involving a $7,750,000 budget for 1972, with distributions being made according to the following percentages: General Board Program, 30.22 percent; Higher Education, 25.30 percent; Social Service, 11.14 percent; and Southern Baptist Convention, 33.34 percent; with the further recommendation that a goal of $8,000,000 be adopted and that all over the $7,750,000 amount be distributed as follows: Christian Higher Education, 35.00 percent; Social Service Institutions, 16.66 percent; State Missions, 15.00 percent; and Southern Baptist Convention, 33.34 percent [see pages 123-130 of the Annual for the more detailed statement of this budget]. The motion was seconded and carried.

180. W. Amis Daniel, Kernersville, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion that Recommendation Number 2, giving approval for North Carolina Baptist Hospital to borrow $14,000,000, provided that the details of the loan be referred to the Executive Committee of the General Board for final approval before the loan is consummated, and provided that this permission shall supersede all previous permission for loans, be adopted [see page 207 of the Annual for the full text of the resolution]. The motion was seconded and carried.

181. A. LeRoy Parker, Greensboro, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion that Recommendation Number 3, giving approval to Gardner-Webb College to borrow a maximum of $2,000,000 for the construction of the John R. Dover, Sr. Memorial Library, the addition of the Webb Administration Building, the Craig Dormitory, and the remodelling of the present library building, be adopted [see page 208 of the Annual for the full text of the resolution]. The motion was seconded and carried.

182. James C. Cammack, Fayetteville, President of the General Board, made a motion that Recommendation Number 4, giving approval to Campbell College to borrow up to $250,000 to be used all or in part for the construction of a swimming pool field house facility, be adopted [see pages 209-211 of the Annual for the full text of the resolution]. The motion was seconded and carried.

183. General Secretary-Treasurer W. Perry Crouch requested unanimous consent for Recommendation Number 5, giving approval for a loan of not more than $275,000, not to exceed ten years, for the construction of a new classroom building at Fruitland, be adopted [see pages 211-212 of the Annual for the full text of the resolution]. The motion was made, seconded, and approved by a unanimous standing vote.

184. Billy H. Cline, Asheville, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion that Recommendation Number 6, authorizing the Baptist Children's Homes, Inc., to in crease the number of trustees from 18 to 30, and instructing the Committee on Nominations to make such additions over the next four years, beginning this fall, be adopted [see page 211 of the Annual for the full text of the recommendation]. The motion was seconded and carried.

185. Billy T. Mobley, Ahoskie, in accordance with the action of the Convention on this matter, nominated the following persons as Trustees of North Carolina Baptist Children's Homes, Incorporated, in addition to those previously elected [see Item 131]: Roy Poole, Kinston; Ted Purcell, Cullowhee; Samuel Wilson, Greensboro; and Douglas Brendle, Elkin. There were no further nominations from the floor, and Billy T. Mobley made a motion, which was seconded and carried, that the nominations cease and that these be elected by acclamation.

186. E. Hoke Coon, Lexington, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, moved the adoption of Recommendation Number 7, as follows: "that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the General Baptist Convention of North Carolina each create a standing committee to serve in an advisory capacity to the Department of Interracial Cooperation, and that this Joint Committee study and recommend periodically to their respective groups, areas of cooperative work, activities, and projects that will strengthen our common fellowship as well as advance the work of our Lord; and that this Joint Committee consist of six members from each Convention as follows: two members for a three-year period; two members for a two-year period; two members for a one-year period; plus the Executive Secretary and President from each Convention, Director of the Department of Interracial Cooperation, and one student from each Convention as ex-officio members." The motion was seconded and carried.

187. A. B. Bumgarner, Spindale, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, in accordance with the action of the Convention on this matter, nominated the following persons for this committee: One-Year Term: Robert E. Gray, Edenton; Mack Goss, Winston-Salem; Two-Year Term: Paul D. Early, Greensboro; Coy C. Privitte, Kannapolis; Three-Year Term: Edgar E. Ferrell, Jr., Black Mountain; John E. Lawrence, Raleigh. There were no further nominations from the floor, and A. B. Bumgarner made a motion, which was seconded and carried, that the nominations cease and that these be elected by acclamation.

188. J. Dewey Hobbs, Jr., Marion, a member of the Executive Committee of the General Board, moved the adoption of Recommendation Number 8, as follows: "that the Convention authorize the appointment of a Committee of 15 to study thoroughly the feasibility of a new plan of relationship between the Baptist Hospital and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and report back to the General Board and Convention by November, 1972, with recommendations." The motion was seconded and carried.

189. A. B. Bumgarner, Spindale, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, in accordance with the action of the Convention on this matter, nominated the following persons for this committee: Allen Bailey, Charlotte; James C. Cammack, Fayetteville; Ted Chandler, Hickory; Richard Corbett, Wilmington; Lin Fincannon, Elkin; Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn; Wilburn T. Hendrix, Winston-Salem; John H. Knight, Asheville; John M. Lewis, Raleigh; W. Thomas Lane, Franklin; Robert Philpott, Lexington; E. Eugene Poston, Boiling Springs; Mrs. Budd E. Smith, Wingate; William H. Westphall, Greensboro; and Cecil E. Sherman, Asheville, Chairman. There were no further nominations from the floor, and A. B. Bumgarner made a motion, which was seconded and carried, that nominations cease and that these be elected by acclamation.

190. First Vice-President Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn, Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws of the Executive Committee of the General Board, made a motion that the fourteen changes in the By-Laws specified in Recommendation Number 9 [see pages 120-122 of the Annual], be adopted, with the following changes: (1) under recommendation d, concerning By-Law II, B, 1, in the second paragraph thereof, that the words "on the second day of" be stricken and that the word "at" be inserted in lieu thereof; (2) under recommendation d, concerning By-Law II, B, 1, in the third paragraph thereof, that following the word "urged" there be added, "but not required,"; and (3) under recommendation f, concerning By-Law II, B, 10, the phrase "the state BSU President" be stricken and that the phrase "a college student" be inserted in lieu thereof. The motion was seconded and carried.

191. Second Vice President Carlos Young, Shelby, brought an additional recommendation of the Executive Committee of the General Board, as follows: "The Executive Committee, in session at Charlotte, Monday, November 22, 1971, voted to recommend to the Convention the appointment of a Convention-wide study committee of 9 persons, composed of 6 laymen and 3 church related vocations to make a thorough study of the prevailing salaries of pastors, church staff and associational missionaries in North Carolina and report back to the Convention in 1972 with such recommendations or suggestions as may seem helpful to our churches." Young made a motion that this recommendation be adopted. The motion was seconded and carried.

192. Robert L. Clegg, Sylva, a member of the Committee on Committees, nominated the following to serve on the Committee on Salaries Survey for Church Vocations: James Mattox, Rutherfordton; S. C. Ray, Greensboro; Charles Storey, Winston-Salem; Perry Langston, Buie's Creek; Mrs. Sue Applewhite, Jacksonville; Miss Frances Snelson, Mars Hill; Ivey Clayton, Raleigh; T. J. Baker, Wallace; and C. C. Hope, Charlotte, Chairman. There were no further nominations from the floor. Robert L. Clegg moved that nominations cease and that these be elected by acclamation. The motion was seconded and carried.

193. A. B. Bumgarner, Spindale, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, in keeping with the changes made in the By-Laws concerning the Committee on Resolutions [see Item 190 above), nominated the same fifteen persons who have served as the Committee on Resolutions at this 1971 Annual Session [see Item 10 above] to serve throughout the coming year and the 1972 Annual Session. There were no other nominations from the floor. A. B. Bumgarner made a motion that nominations cease and that these persons be elected by acclamation. The motion was seconded and carried.

194. Billy T. Mobley, Ahoskie, Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, made an explanation concerning an oversight on the part of the committee which involves the deletion of the name of Woodrow Flynn from Truett Association from a term on the General Board, since there is already one other member of the General Board in this association. He further stated that this matter has been thoroughly discussed with Woodrow Flynn. Mobley then made a motion to correct the previous action of the Convention [see Item 131 above] by the deletion of this name. The motion was seconded and carried.

195. The Chairman of the Tellers reported the vote on the two proposed changes in the Constitution, as follows: (1) on the proposed change in Article XI, Section D, concerning "Federal Aid," 521 for, 1,740 against; and (2) on the proposed change in Article IV, concerning "composition of the Convention," 1,245 for, 1,078 against. He announced that in the second instance the percentage was approximately 54 percent for. President Lawrence pointed out that changes in the Constitution require a two-thirds majority of the votes cast and stated that both proposed changes have therefore been defeated.

196. General Secretary-Treasurer W. Perry Crouch made a plea for unity of effort in the coming year.

197. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty."

198. A. B. Bumgarner, Spindale, Chairman of the Committee on Committees, nominated Thomas C. Womble, Jr., Clemmons, as Chairman of the Committee on Nominations and Roger E. Williams, Kinston, as Chairman of the Committee on Trustee Orientation. There were no nominations from the floor and Bumgarner made a motion that the nominations cease and these be elected by acclamation. The motion was seconded and carried.

199. Thomas A. Bland, Wake Forest, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, introduced Billy H. Cline, Asheville, for the first resolution.

200. Billy H. Cline, Asheville, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution originally offered by Ray W. Benfield, Carthage:

Whereas the General Assembly of North Carolina has cost the state vast sums of money, in terms of time spent in discussing the liquor laws of this state in the past few years, and

Whereas this state can ill afford the waste of time in the next

General Assembly over the further liberalization of liquor laws, compared to the immense number of other more pressing imperatives—such as ecology, drug abuse, transportation, crime, and education;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That this Convention go on record urging messengers who come from counties or municipalities which have the ABC system to return home and check to see if their local ABC Boards are allocating seven percent of their profits from the sale of alcoholic beverages as required by law to education, rehabilitation, and detoxification centers:

2. That this Convention go on record at this time specifically requesting the next governor soon after he assumes office to appoint a high level Study Commission on Alcoholic Beverages to consider all aspects of the alcohol problem, including highway safety, rehabilitation, and control of alcoholic beverages, etc.; and

3. That this Convention go on record to continue an open and concerted opposition to liquor-by-the-drink, and if any further legislation is contemplated in this direction in the 1973 General Assembly, that it be urged upon our legislators to favor a statewide referendum on liquor-by-the-drink, rather than a statewide bill permitting local option elections.

The motion was seconded.

201. President Lawrence read the original resolution offered by Ray W. Benfield [see Item 42] and asked if there was discussion on the original resolution. There being none, he asked if there was discussion of the substitute resolution.

202. R. D. Laws, Chapel Hill, inquired as to whether North Carolina law actually requires, or merely permits, local ABC Boards to allocate seven percent of their profits to education, rehabilitation, and detoxification centers.

203. Ray W. Benfield, Carthage, responded that it is his understanding that this is required by law. There being no further discussion on the substitute motion, the vote was taken, and the motion carried. Vote was then taken on the original motion, as amended by the substitute motion, and it carried.

204. Mrs. J. Kyle Graybeal, Cary, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, moved the adoption of the Resolution on Anti-Semitism, presented by B. Elmo Scoggin, Raleigh [see Item 44]. The motion was seconded and carried.

205. Thomas A. Bland, Wake Forest, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, expressed the feeling of the committee that the resolution of W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, on "Decriminalization" [see Item 48] has great merit and needs further consideration, as a result of which he made a motion in behalf of the committee that this resolution be referred to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs for in-depth study, with the findings of this Council to be reported to the 1972 Annual Session in Winston-Salem. The motion was seconded. Upon the instruction of the Parliamentarian, the entire text of the resolution was read. The motion to refer was carried.

206. John W. Lucas, Cliffside, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution originally offered by E. Leon Smith, Goldsboro:

Whereas Public Schools in America have historically had the support of Baptists, and

Whereas for the past seventeen years our nation has experienced a period of rapid social change in human relations as evidenced in a shift from a segregated to a desegregated public school system, and

Whereas our public schools have become the focus of such changes, having thereby been placed in the unprecedented role of initiating change and reconciling cultural and racial groups, and

Whereas in the last decade, from 1961-1971, appropriations for public school education in North Carolina dropped from an approximate 59 percent of the General Fund to an approximate 49 percent, with teachers receiving fewer benefits than other state employees; and

Whereas Baptists, cherishing and espousing the time-honored tradition of church-state separation, have traditionally designated the education of the public to be a function of state government; and

Whereas a number of communities across the state have established private schools with the apparent goal of retaining racial segregation, attaching to some of these schools the term "Christian";

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, at this annual session, reaffirm its commitment to our system of public school education as the best method of providing public education regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, or economic status; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Baptists of North Carolina call upon the Governor and legislators of our state to reverse the trend of lowering the percentage of general fund appropriations for public schools, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Baptists of North Carolina urge leaders of private, sectarian schools to comply with the law of the land as to its intent by opening such schools to all racial and ethnic groups, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention urge members of our churches to become involved in local and state-wide efforts to improve the quality of public education in our state, thus enhancing the possibility of a future of peace, understanding, and good will.

The motion was seconded.

207. President Lawrence read the original resolution offered by E. Leon Smith [see Item 40] and asked for discussion on the original motion. He asked for discussion on the substitute. The vote was taken on the substitute and it was carried. The vote was taken on the original motion, as amended by the substitute, and it was carried.

208. Thomas A. Bland, Wake Forest, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution originally offered by Michael C. Blackwell, Raleigh:

Whereas the recent action of the Executive Office of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, in withholding distribution of the publication "Becoming" as a result of the art work, text, and approach to Christian race relations, has both shocked and disappointed concerned Christians of all races, and

Whereas the Sunday School Board has published numerous other pieces of literature of the same quality and approach as this issue of "Becoming," and

Whereas the action appears to be in contradiction to a statement approved by the 1968 Southern Baptist Convention, published by the Sunday School Board, which said: ". . . We will personally accept every Christian as a brother beloved in the Lord and welcome to the fellowship of faith and worship every person irrespective of race or class. We will strive by personal initiative and every appropriate means of communications to bridge divisive barriers, to work for reconciliation and to open channels of fellowship and cooperation. . . . We will strive to resist prejudice and combat forces that breed distrust and hostility," and

Whereas the National Baptist Publishing Board (Negro) has adopted a statement saying the withdrawal of this literature has caused a serious ". . . setback in our Christian endeavor," and

Whereas many young people on our college and university campuses are looking to the church for a meaningful faith which would help them love all men, and have expressed their disappointment in this action in official resolution in their convention (November 5-7, 1971), and

Whereas tension has been created for all who would work for Christian brotherhood in this state,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED:

1. That we express our deep regret and disappointment to Dr. James L. Sullivan and Mr. Allen B. Comish in withholding for distribution the above-mentioned issue of "Becoming," and

2. That we express our deep regret over the resignation of Frank Grayum, the editor of "Becoming," but we honor the integrity of his Christian witness and express our continuing interest in his ministry of reconciliation;

3. That we express our good will to the leadership of the Sunday School Board and the fervent hope that this kind of incident will not occur in the future;

4. That we commend Dr. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-

Treasurer, and Mr. Corbin Cooper, Director of the Department of Interracial Cooperation, for their forthright statements with respect to this matter and for their ministries of reconciliation, and

5. That the messengers of our Convention, through personal commitment, give substance to the words and spirit of this resolution in redemptive living.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED:

That a copy of this resolution be sent to Dr. James L. Sullivan and to Mr. Allen B. Comish, and that the resolution be printed in the Biblical Recorder.

The motion was seconded.

209. President Lawrence read the original resolution offered by Michael C. Blackwell [see Item 43] and asked if there was discussion on the original resolution. He asked if there was discussion on the substitute resolution. The vote was taken on the substitute and it was carried. The vote was taken on the original motion, as amended by the substitute motion, and it was carried.

210. Thomas A. Bland, Wake Forest, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, read the resolution originally offered by Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, concerning pornography [see Item 75]) and moved to refer this matter to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. The motion was seconded and carried.

211. D. Hoke Coon, Lexington, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution originally offered by Brock G. Henry, III, Mars Hill:

Whereas the young men of this nation have continuously been confronted, since 1940, with the necessity to respond to the call to military service, and

Whereas the Federal laws permit options with respect to military service, including provisions for registration as conscientious objectors to war of those of draft age, and

Whereas Baptist bodies, including the Southern Baptist Convention and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina have recognized that some Christian young men make a conscientious decision to enter military service, while others, for conscience's sake, affirm their conscientious objection to war, and elect this form of Christian witness, and

Whereas Baptists have sought to minister to the young men who enter service and also to the conscientious objectors,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

That this Convention commend its Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs for the publication of the pamphlet "The Church's Ministry to Youth Facing Military Service";

That we urge the widespread distribution and use of this pamphlet as a practical aid to pastors and others who counsel, and by young men facing military service, and

That we further call upon ourselves and our fellow Baptists to respect the integrity of young people who conscientiously serve and those who are conscientious objectors, and

That we work for a climate of compassionate acceptance, without attaching a stigma to the conscientious participant or to the conscientious objector, and

Finally, that we join with all people of good will who work to remove the causes of war and who promote a just peace in this fateful era of human history.

The motion was seconded.

212. President Lawrence read the original resolution offered by Brock G. Henry, III [see Item 73] and asked if there was discussion on the original resolution. He asked if there was discussion on the substitute resolution. The vote was taken on the substitute and it was carried. The vote was then taken on the original motion, as amended by the substitute motion, and it was carried.

213. Thomas A. Bland, Wake Forest, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented the resolution originally offered by Bill Hayes, Chapel Hill [see Item 133]. In behalf of the Committee on Resolutions he commended the general idea of having Annual Sessions of the Convention on week-ends, and made a motion that the matter be referred to the Executive Committee of the General Board, as the resolution itself requests.

214. President Lawrence ruled the motion to refer, out of order on the basis that it was asking the Executive Committee of the General Board, and the General Board itself, to do something which would violate the Constitution of the Convention. [See also Item 221 below.]

215. J. Dewey Hobbs, Jr., Marion, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the resolution originally offered by John M. Lewis, Raleigh, concerning the serious study of "The Baptist Faith and Message" [see Item 74]. The motion was seconded and carried.

216. J. Stancil Baucom, Rocky Point, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following substitute for the resolution offered originally by Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, concerning public funds and non-public education:

Whereas the President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon, appointed a Commission on School Finance with a panel on non-public education within this Commission, ". . . with a mandate to examine the special strengths and weaknesses, the special needs and problems, of schools in the private sector," and

Whereas this action represents a new departure in that it sanctions at such a high level a pluralistic educational system in which non-public schools are seen as ". . . an integral part of the nation's educational establishment," and

Whereas the office of Economic Opportunity is seeking to implement a series of experiments with an educational voucher system which makes public funds available to all qualifying schools, public, non-public and parochial, and

Whereas supporters of many private and parochial schools are seeking public funds for the support of their schools, and

Whereas Baptists stand firmly for the religious liberty of all people, believe in voluntarism in religion, and support free public education for all children,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in session in Charlotte on this twenty-fourth day of November, 1971, that we reaffirm the right of religious people or religious bodies to create and develop institutions to achieve their religious objectives at their own expense, and

That we reaffirm the right of parents to send their children to non-public schools at their own expense, and

That we reaffirm our belief that the use of public funds for the support of non-public or parochial schools is contrary to the cherished principle of religious liberty, and

That we hereby record our opposition to the use of tax money to support such schools, and further

That we petition the government to honor the principle of religious liberty and the constitutional position of separation of church and state as set forth in the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and

Finally, be it resolved that we encourage our churches and our people to be vigilant observers of further developments and vigorous participants in the decision-making processes in order that these precious freedoms may be preserved and strengthened.

The motion was seconded.

217. President Lawrence read the original resolution offered by Woodrow W. Robbins [see Item 77] and asked if there was discussion on the original resolution. He asked if there was discussion on the substitute resolution.

218. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, discussed the substitute resolution offered by the Committee on Resolutions, commending it heartily. There was no further discussion. The vote was taken on the substitute and it was carried. The vote was taken on the original motion, as amended by the substitute motion, and it was carried.

219. Miss Betsy Newton, Henderson, President of the Baptist Student Union of North Carolina, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution originally offered by Roger D. Sharpe, Raleigh:

Whereas the North Carolina Penal Study Commission, organized at the request of the Honorable Robert W. Scott, Governor of North Carolina and directed by him to conduct an examination of the State Penal System, made twenty-three recommendations to the Governor on March 15, 1971, and cerned facilities, rehabilitation, personnel, and sentencing, probation, and parole, and

Whereas the Commission stated:

“... With few exceptions, North Carolina is earnestly endeavoring to devise and operate a modern, 20th century correctional system with 19th century buildings and facilities. At almost all the units we have visited, we have found over-worked and under-paid personnel. . . . We conclude that these deplorable conditions are a direct result of an apparent century-old concept of inmate confinement or ‘warehousing’ as opposed to a concept of rehabilitation.

“We have also concluded that many of our laws and methods of committing an inmate into the correctional system are outmoded and should be changed. Emphasis of a correctional system should be on rehabilitation of the offender as well as punitive confinement. On no rational basis could it be considered that the improvements required to achieve these minimal requirements suggest any so-called ‘coddling’ of criminals.”

In response to the leadership of Governor Robert W. Scott and Commissioner of Correction V. Lee Bounds, the recommendations of the Penal Study Commission, and most importantly, the teachings of Jesus Christ,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, in session at Charlotte, North Carolina, November 22-24, 1971:

1. That we the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina endorse and actively support legislation in the North Carolina General Assembly to finance appropriate facilities and additional personnel in offering a more humane and responsible treatment for those in prison, whom we also recognize as persons for whom Christ died;

2. That we as messengers to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina become knowledgeable of the correctional facilities in our localities and the ways in which we can responsibly support their programs;

3. That we as Christians become involved in the lives of those in prison that both parties might relate in a more mature understanding of each other; and

4. That we as messengers to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina dedicate ourselves to work with those who are released from prison in solving problems of community relations, employment, housing, and family.

The motion was seconded.

220. President Lawrence read the original resolution offered by Roger D. Sharpe [see Item 46] and asked if there was discussion on the original resolution. He asked if there was discussion on the substitute resolution. The vote was taken on the substitute motion and it was carried. The vote was then taken on the original motion, as amended by the substitute motion, and it was carried.

221. In response to a written inquiry which had been delivered to him, President Lawrence clarified his ruling in regard to the resolution offered by Bill Hayes [see Item 214], saying that it is the ruling of the chair that the term "emergency" as used in the resolution does not qualify as an "emergency" in the sense that this term is used in the Constitution of the Convention.

222. James R. Rowles, Jr., Hickory, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following resolutions, initiated by the committee:

Whereas the 141st Annual session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina approaches the conclusion of its fruitful meeting, challenged by the theme, "Jesus Christ, The One Way," and

Whereas we are indebted to the various committees and personalities for arranging and conducting the 141st session of our Convention, and

Whereas we express gratitude to the host city and its citizens for making available the physical facilities both for our deliberative assembly and for our personal accommodations;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

(1) That we commit ourselves to the theme, "Jesus Christ, The One Way,"

(2) That we be bound to Him as our personal Saviour and Lord, superseding any doctrine, ideas, or methodology that should divide us,

(3) That we seek the Balm in Gilead for our wounds,

(4) That in these days we close ranks, marching together as into battle against moral and spiritual depravity, not dissipating our strength through division,

(5) That we commend President John E. Lawrence for courageous, forthright leadership and statesmanship, together with our gracious General Secretary-Treasurer, Dr. W. Perry Crouch,

(6) That we commend in particular the youth in high schools and colleges in North Carolina for their response to the leadership of the Holy Spirit and their commitment to Jesus Christ, the one way, and the radiant hope they have given us for tomorrow's tomorrow; and

(7) That we thank the many citizens of Charlotte who have made the Convention enjoyable and convenient while here in Charlotte, and members of the press, radio and TV who have reflected our Convention through their media with wide coverage.

The motion was seconded and carried.

223. C. Elliot Hill, Seven Springs, rose to a point of personal privilege to express appreciation for the fine spirit in which the business sessions have been conducted.

224. T. Robert Mullinax, Raleigh, Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education, spoke concerning the report of the council as found on pages 178-195 of the Annual. He asked for, and received, common consent for including Coy C. Carpenter in the report of the Memorials Committee, as one to whom the 1971 Annual should be dedicated. He presented J. Ralph Scales, President of Wake Forest University and Moderator of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

225. J. Ralph Scales, Winston-Salem, President of Wake Forest University, spoke concerning Christian Higher Education. He said we cannot simply say the same things we said last year on such a topic, because this very year has brought to light so many new facets of the human problem. Schools are now overloaded because they are being expected to take over the vacuum left by home and church as the bearers of values to the emerging generation. Almost every person of ability in our society would give credit for his achievements in large part to a teacher or teachers, but the present situation makes it more difficult to keep it this way.

226. The Wake Forest University Choir, under the direction of Thane MacDonald, sang "God Reigns Over the Nations" (Cousins) and "A Blessing" (Martin Shaw).

227. President John E. Lawrence asked President-Elect Thomas M. Freeman to come to the platform, along with Allen Bailey, the new First Vice-President, and Ray Benfield, the new Second Vice-President. He congratulated them and transferred to President-Elect Freeman a cloth bag filled with gavels.

228. President-Elect Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn, expressed his appreciation and his confidence in the ability of the Convention to move forward together, as evidenced by our ability to resolve difficult issues in a Christian spirit.

229. Carl E. Bates, Charlotte, President of the Southern Baptist Convention, addressed the Convention. He told of an experience in Hawaii, in which Missionary Drew F. Stamps said he believed the first question God would ask him in heaven would be, "Why didn't you let me bless you more?" He said this was based on Isaiah 30:18, as related to the precious promise in Philippians 4:19. We often receive "out of his riches," but not "according to his riches." Our goals are forever too small; we hardly even need the power of God to accomplish what is being attempted in the average Baptist Church next week. God is calling us to true spirituality—not just to spiritual curiosity and not just to religious emotionalism. The Spirit will dwell in and empower every one of his children who, in keeping with 1 John 1:9, is willing to be open and honest before the throne of grace.

230. President Lawrence pronounced the benediction and declared the 1971 Annual Session to be adjourned.

[NOTE: The final registration was 3,163 messengers and 349 visitors, for a total of 3,512.]

GENERAL BOARD
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA

Including Reports of Institutions and Agencies of the Convention, Reports of Standing Committees, and the Report of the Woman's Missionary Union.

TO THE

ONE-HUNDRED FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL SESSION
OVENS AUDITORIUM
CHARLOTTE
November 22-24, 1971

I. FOREWORD

The year 1971 has been a progressive one for North Carolina Baptists. Cooperative Program receipts have shown a 5.81% increase for much of the year with Special Offerings showing a similar increase. We are pleased indeed with the cooperative support given by North Carolina Baptists.

There have been several events take place this year which I believe have greatly strengthened the overall work of the Convention. Briefly, I would like to mention a few of these.

First, our State Missions staff in Raleigh underwent mild reorganization. The purpose of these changes is to streamline the operations and to avoid any possible duplication of efforts. We are constantly aware of our stewardship responsibilities to North Carolina Baptists as we attempt to provide the best possible mission organization.

The new organization follows many of the suggestions of a Southern Baptist Convention committee which studied such matters for over a year. This committee worked with various state conventions concerning organization. The purpose of this was not to bring state conventions into conformity but rather to share management experiences with one another. We took these suggestions under prayerful consideration while planning our own reorganization.

The Baptist State Convention is now made up of three basic organization divisions: Church Programs, Mission Ministries, and Business Management. This follows the older structure with the exception of the Division of Stewardship and Promotion which was discontinued as a division, per se. The departments in this division were placed under other divisions. We feel that this change will indeed strengthen our total efforts across the state.

Besides the three basic organization divisions, there are two special emphasis divisions: Evangelism and the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. These divisions do not have multiple departments but rather work in cooperation with all areas of the Convention. Evangelism and Christian Life and Public Affairs are not areas that can be placed into exclusive divisions but rather they penetrate everything done in Convention life.

A second encouraging sign in 1971 involved the renewed spirit found among our Baptist institutions. These institutions—the colleges and social service agencies—have unanimously joined with the General Board in special Cooperative Program promotion. We believe that this active involvement on the part of the institutions will help Baptists across our state better understand the total work of Baptist missions, education and benevolences.

A third event in 1971 involved the growing number of churches that are now increasing their support through the Cooperative Program. Many of these churches began building programs shortly after World War II and have now paid off these debts. We encourage these churches to increase their support of the Cooperative Program now that they are freed from building indebtedness. The trend toward this increase of support is an encouraging situation indeed.

Generally, North Carolina Baptist life has grown during the year 1971. Most of our colleges have shown an increase in enrollment. Our Children's Homes have had another good year with the opening of two new facilities during the year. The Homes for the Aging received and matched a challenge gift that has helped them provide additional space for the sick among those who are residents of the home. The Hospital has had many problems, mostly financial, during the past two or three years but are now emerging on a new day with a bright future.

All of this work, however, is dependent upon the energy and commitment of you, North Carolina Baptists. The key to all of this is the word, "Cooperation." Our churches are very different in size, needs, background, and so forth. Yet out of the richness of this diversity we work together in a great mission program.

Let us continue to live by this word, "Cooperation." Let us never take our eyes off a needy world and begin to "compare ourselves with ourselves and measure ourselves by ourselves." Our strength and courage comes from the challenge of our mission and our belief in cooperation as the basis for our Convention. Let us continue.

Thank you for the privilege of working with you.

W. PERRY CROUCH
General Secretary-Treasurer

II. GENERAL BOARD REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Introduction

This year of 1971 has been an excellent one for North Carolina Baptists. From the very beginning of the year, we have shown a marked increase over the year before in our Cooperative Program giving and most of our special offerings. At the time of preparation of this report we are 7.19% ahead of last year in our Cooperative Program gifts. We are especially grateful for the response of our people to the appeal for our special offering for the new classroom building at Fruitland to replace the one lost by fire in August. More will be said about this item later in the report.

The General Board has had three meetings during the year and the Executive Committee has had nine meetings so far this year. At the January meeting the various committees were formed, and these in turn elected their own chairmen. These chairmen of committees plus five elected members-at-large, elected by the General Board, formed our Executive Committee for the year. This committee is listed below:

Officers

James Cammack, President General Board
John Lewis, Vice-President, General Board
John Lawrence, President, Baptist State Convention
Tom Freeman, First Vice President, Baptist State Convention
Carlos Young, Second Vice President, Baptist State Convention

Committee Chairmen

R. F. Smith, Chairman, Council on Christian Higher Education
Ed Brandon, Chairman, Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs

Dewey Hobbs, Chairman, Church Programs

Billy Cline, Chairman, Evangelism

Robert Clegg, Chairman, Missions

Amis Daniel, Chairman, Social Services

W. A. Huneycutt, Chairman, Stewardship

Members-at-Large

Hoke Coon

Charles Cranford

Norman Harris

LeRoy Parker

Marion Powell (Moved from association)

During the January meeting of the Board, Dr. J. Clyde Turner, formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church of Greensboro for more than forty years and Dr. Claud Bowen, present pastor, were presented plaques for their outstanding leadership of this great church. The first Baptist Church of Greensboro has led the state in mission gifts, and especially in gifts to the Cooperative Program for many years.

During our Convention of 1970 a suggestion had been made that we plan for another joint session with the General Baptist Convention soon. The Board appointed a committee of five to meet with a like committee of the General Convention to discuss possibilities of increased fellowship and new areas where cooperation could be increased. This committee met during the spring months and reported a unanimous recommendation that we create a standing committee in each Convention that will serve as an advisory committee to the Department of Interracial Cooperation and recommend from time to time new areas of cooperation to their respective Conventions. Such a committee is being recommended to you with suggested by-law changes to provide for such a committee.

Changes in Organization of General Board Staff

In 1970 the Inter-Agency Council of the Southern Baptist Convention appointed a committee to study and recommend a suggested pattern for the organization of state convention staffs, in the hope that some pattern might be found that would make it easier for Southern Baptist Convention Institutions and Agencies to relate to them. This committee made its report in December of 1970, recommending to state conventions that they organize on the division basis, with at least three major divisions represented as follows:

- (1) Business
- (2) Mission Ministries
- (3) Church Programs or Church Development.

Of course, there could be other divisions if they were needed, but they suggested that a division should be used only if there were two or more departments in the division.

This report caused us to reconsider our staff chart, and recommend some changes in it. No personnel who were serving, were eliminated. The major changes involved the elimination of the Division of Stewardship and Promotion and thus the elimination of the office of director of this division. That position was vacant at the time. The departments were transferred to other areas. We followed the suggestion of the SBC Committee in making the three main divisions the ones with multiple departments. The Division of Evangelism and the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs are divisions of special emphases, and we do not anticipate that they will have separate departments in them. These are areas, in other words, that are emphasized through all that we do. We believe the revised organization has simplified our work, and we include the chart in our report for your information. A full discussion of this action is included in this report.

Changes in General Board Personnel Follows:

Rev. T. Robert Mullinax became Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education, replacing Dr. Ben Fisher who became Executive Secretary of the Education Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Rev. David Langford became an associate in the Brotherhood Department, replacing the Rev. Tom Collins who returned to the pastorate.

Rev. Joe Fore joined the Student Chaplains to serve in that capacity at Western North Carolina University at Cullowhee. He replaced the Reverend Joe Clontz who was transferred to Chapel Hill.

Rev. Marvin Chapman joined the staff at North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Fort Caswell as administrative assistant with Manager Fred Smith.

Mr. Leo Williams, Jr., joined the staff of the General Board, working cooperatively with the General Baptist State Convention, the Baptist State Convention and the Home Mission Board. He will be related to the Interracial Department.

Mr. Robert Shehan became associate maintenance superintendent at Fruitland Bible Institute, and will succeed Mr. Junius M. Huggins who will soon be retiring.

Other staff changes are listed below:

Office Staff Employed

Mrs. James Saul, office secretary, Stewardship Development

Mrs. Steward Smith, office secretary, Administrative Assistant

Mrs. Betty Boggs, office secretary, Church Training Department

Miss Aileen Taylor, office secretary, City and Metropolitan Missions

Miss Ruth Lynn Gupton, office secretary, Brotherhood Department

Mrs. Gloria Whitehurst, literature Secretary, WMU

Mrs. Lynn Kirby, office secretary, Administrative Assistant

Office Staff Resignations

Miss Pamela Allsbrook, office secretary to Administrative Assistant
Mrs. Sylvia Sweeley, office secretary, Church Training Department
Mrs. Steward Smith, office secretary, Administrative Assistant
Mrs. Diane S. Wagner, office secretary, Brotherhood Department
Mrs. Mary Frances Head, office secretary, City and Metropolitan Missions
Mrs. Gloria Whitehurst, literature secretary, W.M.U.
Mrs. Lynn Kirby, office secretary, Administrative Assistant

Cooperative Program

We believe that one of the most important steps toward increasing the Cooperative Program was taken in March when the presidents and administrators of our institutions were invited to be present in a joint meeting with the chairman of our General Board, the General Secretary and members of the General Board staff to discuss an advance in Cooperative Program promotion. The institutional leaders volunteered to join in such an effort by providing some funds for additional promotion and by involving the personnel of their institutions in such promotion. We believe this close relationship of our institutional leaders with our General Board staff, and their help in contacting the people of our churches has been reflected in our increased Cooperative Program receipts for this year. We plan to continue this close relationship in the future. (One piece of promotional literature has been produced in cooperation with the American Bible Society and is being presented to you for the first time today.)

Sale of House Formerly Occupied by Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Huggins

Following the death of Dr. M. A. Huggins, former General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, Mrs. Huggins agreed with her children that it would be wise for her to move from the Convention owned house on Clark Avenue to an apartment. An agreement was prepared that guaranteed an apartment in the Wedgwood Apartments, or one jointly agreed upon by Mrs. Huggins and the Executive Committee, for her use during the balance of her natural life.

Following this agreement Mrs. Huggins was moved to the Wedgwood Apartments near Cameron Village. The house on Clark Avenue was sold for $34,000 and the net receipts from the sale are invested to provide rent for the apartment during the lifetime of Mrs. Huggins, in keeping with the original agreement with Dr. and Mrs. Huggins at the time of his retirement.

Our Cooperation With the American Bible Society

For many years our Convention has urged our churches to cooperate with the American Bible Society by taking special offerings or including the Society in their church budgets. This money was usually sent directly to the Bible Society. Recently the Society has requested that we encourage churches to send this money directly to the Convention office. The General Board has approved this request and many churches are now sending their offering to our business office, 301 Hillsborough Street in Raleigh. Our churches contributed about $25,000 to the Society during the past year. We urge our churches to continue their support for the distribution of the scriptures around the world.

The remainder of this report will be presented under four main divisions.

- A. Financial Report of the Convention.
- B. The Actions of our General Board.
- C. Request from our Institutions.
- D. Recommendations to the Convention.

A. Financial Report of the Convention

The financial records of the Convention offer some interesting details. In 1925 total receipts of the churches—local expenses and mission objects—are listed at $4,034,136. Of this amount mission objects received $843,395 and $362,732 was for the Cooperative Program. Total gifts for missions represented 20.9% of total offering plate income. There were 2,338 churches reported in the state that year.

Income fluctuated without appreciable change in church gifts until after 1940. By 1950 total receipts of the 2,915 churches reached $21,153,886. Cooperative Program income totalled $1,401,093 that year and total denominational objects received $3,532,443 or 16.7% of total receipts.

The number of churches had grown by 1960 to 3,369 and total gifts of $46,788,109 were reported. Denominational objects received $7,211,431 or 15.4% of the total. Cooperative Program income amounted to $3,884,405 that year.

Last year the total number of churches had increased to 3,428 and gifts reached $87,525,174. Mission objects received $12,698,532 or 14.5% of the total income received by the churches.

It appears that the offering plate income for 1971 will be $95,000,000. This amount, a conservative estimate, is based on the trend of income for the past several months. We shall expect to receive therefore, a minimum of $7,250,000 for the Cooperative Program this year. The sustained increase for the Cooperative Program in recent weeks over the same period in 1970 is most encouraging. The prevailing rate of increase has been about 6%.

For a number of years the Cooperative Program received approximately 8% of the total offering plate contributions and the Southern Baptist Convention received about 1/3 of this amount.

It is interesting to note that additions and improvements to our physical properties, including property purchased near the Baptist Building during 1971, have increased our investment during the ten-year span (1961-1971) from $1,655,076 to $4,670,411. Our debt in 1961 was $207,000; it is now $762,291.

We look forward to 1972 with optimism. The budget can be met with an increase of 6.9% over the projected income of $7,250,000 for 1971. If perhaps, we reach our budget goal of $7,350,000, an increase of only 5.44% is necessary to meet our proposed budget for next year.

Although our fire loss at Fruitland will make it necessary to obtain a loan to provide classroom space for the Institute we have reason to believe that the State Missions Offerings will be adequate to amortize the debt without seeking help from the Cooperative Program. At present the State Missions offering is providing $170,000 for the budget, $32,000 for interest and principal on the loan obtained for the Canipe Building, and the remainder of about $20,000 which has heretofore been identified as "State Missions Overage" which is disbursed by the Committee at various times for non-budgeted items or emergencies in North Carolina.

So, we approach 1972 with a note of optimism. Through continuing cooperation we can expect further growth in our program of World Missions.

B. Action of the General Board in 1971

Our General Board is divided into six committees, that keep in touch with all phases of our work. In addition the Executive Committee meets monthly to consider items that need attention immediately.

1. General Items

a. An item referred to the Executive Committee by the Convention last fall was a suggestion that we consider another point session with the General Baptist Convention soon. The Executive Committee believed a wiser course could be to appoint a Committee of five and request the General Baptist Convention to appoint a similar committee to consider jointly areas of possible cooperation between the two conventions. One result of the work of this committee was the recommendation that we create a study committee to meet regularly with a similar committee from the General Baptist Convention to consider areas of continued cooperation between the two conventions. The General Convention has already voted to create such a committee. There is a recommendation concerning such a committee in this report. We believe this can be a new bridge toward better cooperation between the two conventions.

b. Another general item considered by the General Board followed the action of the Convention in 1970 authorizing a loan of $300,000 to purchase land near the Baptist Building in Raleigh. This land was necessary to insure needed parking for staff and visitors in the building, and would be necessary for expansion in the future, or for sale of the property if the Convention decided to move. In the January Board meeting, Judge David Britt, chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee, reported the purchase of the Yelverton property and the Trotter property, just back of the Baptist Building for $265,000. In October the committee reported they had also purchased the Patterson property which was between the Yelverton property, and the Trotter property. A funeral home occupies the Yelverton property, and the home owners will pay rent until they finish a new home in another part of the city. A small brick building is also rented, and the proceeds are used to pay interest on the $300,000 loan. After the funeral home moves, the building will be razed and the land prepared for parking.

2. The Work of General Board Committees

You can read a full report from the various departments and divisions of the General Board elsewhere in the book of reports. It is our purpose here to summarize actions of the General Board that affect these various phases of our work. You have already read and heard a financial report. Other division committee reports follow.

a. Evangelism

The Evangelism year begins early with an excellent evangelistic conference in Greensboro. The main part of the conference was inspiring and well attended, but the outstanding item was Youth Night, attended by about 20,000 young people, with over fifteen hundred decisions for Christ. In January the Reverend Jimmy Hinson was elected to fill the vacancy of associate director in the division. W. C. Lamb, director of the division, and Jimmy Hinson, have been very busy during the year conducting lay witnessing clinics, associational and regional conferences, and directing the work of evangelism across our state.

b. Missions

Director Howard Ford, and the Department Directors and associates have had a busy year in Mission Ministries in North Carolina. In January the Mission Committee approved and recommended to the General Board the following items :

Urban Pastoral Aid

36 churches approved for a total of $39,960 supplement.

Urban Lot Aid

17 churches approved for a total of $23,000.

Rural Pastoral Aid

42 churches plus eight resort centers approved for a total of $43,806.

Rural Lot Aid

11 Associations or churches approved for a total of $10,000.

Aid for Associational Missionaries Salaries

54 Associations approved for a total of $73,696.

During the year three projects in Fayetteville and the New South River Association were approved as follows: — $500 for tornado relief; $750 mobile home ministry; $600 for work with drug addicts and youth in trouble.

A summer worker was approved for the French Broad Association and several other small summer projects.

Special help was granted for new resort ministry in many locations. Church loans were granted to the following churches:

Church	Town	Amount	Association
Memorial Baptist Church, Buies Creek.....		$5,000	Little River
Cherokee Baptist Chapel, Burnt Swamp.....		$1,500	Burnt Swamp
Lebanon Baptist Church, Winnabow.....		$5,000	Brunswick
Leland Baptist Church.....		$5,000	Wilmington
New Hope		$5,000	New River
Clarendon		$5,000	Columbus
Boiling Springs Lake First.....		$5,000	Brunswick
Currytown Baptist Church, Lexington.....		$5,000	Liberty
Oakland, Monroe		$7,500	Union
Northside, Burlington		$3,500	Mt. Zion
New Hope, Star.....		$7,500	Montgomery
Kellum, Jacksonville		$5,000	New River
Union Hope, Zebulon.....		$7,500	Tar River

These loans are made to small missions or small churches that could not secure a loan otherwise. The limit to any one church is $7,500. Several associations were aided in securing a part-time family and youth worker. These individuals work primarily as a liaison between the churches and the juvenile court—working especially with first offenders. A new social work program was authorized in the Mecklenburg Association in cooperation with that association and the Home Mission Board.

The Home Mission Board joined with our Convention in placing an Area Missionary in Regions Nine and Ten. Luther Osment, formerly with the State Brotherhood Department is serving in this very important work. He is working especially with the several associations in the area that do not have associational missionaries as well as serving as counselor for the Truett Camp at Hayesville. Mr. Osment is living in Sylva, North Carolina.

Perhaps the most distressing problem in this division was the fire that destroyed the Justice classroom building at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in August. The Executive Committee immediately authorized the increase in our goal for state missions to $300,000 for 1971 to help us move toward the replacement of this much needed building. At the time of the preparation of this report we have already received $264,314.78 toward this goal. We are grateful for the wonderful response from our people, and we hope we may go beyond the $300,000 by December 31.

A recommendation for a loan of $275,000 for the Fruitland building is included in this report. A new building and furnishings will cost between $350,000 and $400,000. We hope to repay the loan from the State Mission Offering of the next few years.

These actions are but a small part of the work of the division of Mission Ministries. Please read the mission report for a fuller account.

c. Church Programs

The 10 departments of the Division of Church Programs have had a busy year helping churches get acquainted with new literature and encouraging churches to meet the challenge of new problems and new opportunities.

One of the most encouraging items of our work has been the Youth Corps, involving our Church Training Department, our seven Baptist colleges, and local churches seeking some special help for youth work during the summer months. This began several years ago with a small group, but in 1972 we will be seeking 70 college young people for this service. In addition, other college young people will be used in several different areas of our state mission work.

Our Sunday School Department is doing an excellent work with area Bible conferences, teachers clinics, and training for Bible teachers and leaders in the local church. This department has a full staff for the first time in several years.

Our summer assembly at Fort Caswell had one of their best summers, and indications are that we will have had more than 10,000 in attendance by the end of the year. Several of the cottages and Lantana Lodge have been winterized and are now available for use by local churches and associations during the nine months of each year when the assembly is not in session.

During the year we were again able to render an assistance to the citizens of this area by allowing a ferry boat to land at our fishing pier, while an emergency bridge was being constructed across the inland waterway.

You will remember the town of Southport used some of our buildings for two years following a destruction of their school building by fire in 1968.

At the January General Board meeting a group of laymen working with our Brotherhood Department requested the privilege of conducting a low-key campaign to raise money for a much needed cottage for boys for Camp CaRAway. The goal of this campaign is $250,000. It was agreed that priority would be given to the construction of the swimming pool and the cottage for boys at an approximate cost of $45,000. Permission was granted and the men began setting up their committee to raise the money. In May Mr. Bullock, Director of the Brotherhood Department, reported that about half of the money needed for the swimming pool had been raised, and indicated his belief that the balance would soon be in hand. He therefore requested permission for the management at Camp CaRAway to proceed with the construction of the pool at an approximate cost of $28,000. Permission was granted and the pool was constructed in time for use by the boys attending the camp the latter part of the summer. We believe the men will continue with this program and provide money to pay for the completion of the cottage and the balance on the swimming pool by the end of the year.

We have been encouraged by the increase in the interest of laymen in the various types of special conferences and especially in deacons retreats. We hope and pray that this interest among our laymen will continue as North Carolina Baptists move toward greater lay-involvement throughout Convention life.

d. Services Rendered Committee

In adopting the report of the Committee of 20 in 1969, the Baptist State Convention authorized a "services rendered" committee to be established in the General Board to consider requests for Federal Aid on the part of our institutions in the Baptist State Convention. This committee has had a number of meetings and spent many hours in an honest attempt to determine whether or not the aid offered would come under our "services rendered" clause of the constitution of the Baptist State Convention. The following persons served on this committee: Tom Freeman, W. A. Huneycutt, Gordon Rhodes, Carlos Young and John Lewis, chairman. The chairman of the General Board, President of the Convention, and General Secretary served as ex-officio members. This committee presented the following report:

January 19, 1971

1. A recommendation to the January 19, 1971 General Board meeting that Campbell College be allowed to participate in two programs as follows:

a. Three National Science Foundation Programs for summer conferences involving high school teachers of science.

These are for the improvement of teachers and do not materially accrue to the benefit of the college.

b. A program to coordinate and better utilize the facilities and personnel of Campbell College and Lee Harnett Mental Health Center and other community institutions. This is authorized under Title I of the Higher Education Act of 1965 and is for the benefit of citizens of the community, without any capital improvements to the college.

2. Recommended that the General Board not approve the College Science Improvement Grant (COSIP).

The Committee felt that this program as a total package did not meet explicitly enough the constitutional requirement of "services rendered."

3. Recommended that Meredith College be allowed to participate in Title I of the Higher Education Act of 1965 in a program designed to provide "a summer day camp program for disadvantaged children." This is a program for the benefit of children of the community, with no capital gain for the college. However, funds were not available and the program did not materialize.

March 9, 1971

The Committee studied two requests of Campbell College as follows:

1. Request Title II A—1965, Library grants.
2. Request of Campbell College to participate in Title II for upgrading the Humanities Division.

Recommendation:

That both of these requests be denied as not meeting the specification of "services rendered."

October 13, 1971

The committee made the following recommendation to the General Board:

1. That Campbell College's request to participate in two National Science Foundation Programs as follows be approved:

- a. A Summer Institute in Earth Science for high school teachers of science.

- b. Cooperating college-school Science Program for high school teachers of science. The college will have no capital gain.

2. That the request of Mars Hill College to apply for a grant under Title VI of the Higher Education Act of 1965 be denied.

It was the opinion of the committee that the program did not meet specifically enough the "services rendered" requirement.

3. That North Carolina Baptist colleges be allowed to participate in the Act of the North Carolina Assembly providing scholarship funds for needy North Carolina students in private colleges. We recommend that our North Carolina Baptist colleges be urged to fulfill this responsibility to needy North Carolina students by seeking to enroll more of them in our Baptist colleges, and acting as administrative agent for this program of student aid, much in the same manner as the G.I. Bill, student loan program and work grant program.

4. In reference to the Supreme Court Decision of June, 1971, concerning Federal Grants to private colleges the Services Rendered Committee will continue to study the meaning, interpretation and far-reaching implication of the Supreme Court's decision in the Tilton Case.

Therefore, in the light of the complexity of the decision, its relation to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention's constitution which contains its own specific guidelines relative to the use of public funds by our institutions; and particularly in the light of the need for further clarification of the court's criteria for determining eligibility of particular schools, the committee strongly advises our schools not to consider applying for such funds until the committee concludes its study.

The General Board approved the recommendations of the Committee on Services Rendered and commended this committee for the thorough study on these matters.

e. Our Budget for 1972

Our proposed budget for 1972 is the result of many hours of work by the budget committee of the Executive Committee and the General Board. This budget reflects only modest increases for State Missions work. For the last several years, in fact, there seemed to be a squeeze on our State Missions Budget. After a careful study, it appeared that several items affecting all of our institutions and agencies had been placed in the State Missions Budget. These include retirement plan for pastors and staff workers, convention expense including the printing of the Annual, the historical collection at Wake Forest University, the budget of the Baptist Foundation and the supplement to the Biblical Recorder. These general items had increased more than $125,000 in five years. It became very apparent that it was going to be necessary to change the percentages to the institutions slightly in order to distribute the increased cost of these general items. In spite of these percentage decreases it is anticipated that these institutions will get more dollars in 1972 than in 1971. The suggested changes are as follows:

General Board Program.....	30.22%
Colleges	25.30%
Social Services	11.14%
<hr/>
Total State	66.66%
*SBC	33.34%

* You will note there is no suggested change in the percentage to SBC objects.

To help this percentage loss to the institutions, we recommend that all Cooperative Program receipts above $7,750,000 be divided as follows:

Colleges	35.00%
Social Service	16.66%
State Missions	15.00%

We further recommend that we set a goal of $8,000,000 for the Cooperative Program for 1972, and urge all of our people to help us meet this goal.

See page 19 for the recommended budget for 1972.

C. Requests from Institutions

1. March, 1971, the Baptist Hospital requested the privilege of phasing out their Paramedical Schools, including the School of Nursing. They indicated this had become necessary because:

a. They were currently running a deficit in their operating budget.

b. The banks were not interested in completing their permanent loan until they had improved their financial situation.

c. The national trend of hospitals is to turn the training of nurses and technicians to community colleges where they could get state and Federal aid for such training.

The Executive Committee believed this to be a major change of policy, requiring approval of the Convention or its General Board. A special meeting of the General Board was called for April 6, 1971. However, questions arose that required more time for study and the special meeting was cancelled. After many conferences, final approval was given to the Hospital Trustees in October to phase out all Paramedical Schools, including the School of Nursing by 1974.

In the meantime, the Hospital found it necessary to increase the amount of their loan request from $10.5 million granted in 1970 to $14 million. This increase had become necessary in order to get an FHA Loan guarantee that would cover loan requests for the past several years, cover closing costs, and the prepayment of some interest. In the meantime, the Hospital administration reported a much improved operating budget position with most of the deficit removed. With the saving of $800,000 per year on the Paramedical and Nursing School, the Hospital seemed to be in a position to repay the loan.

However, their request for the loan contains permission to change their charter if necessary to secure the loan. Thus, the General Board recommends to you that you grant permission for the loan with the proviso that the administration of the Hospital report all conditions of the loan and any necessary charter changes to the Executive Committee of the General Board for final approval before the consummation of the loan.

Because so many complications are involved in connection with these loans, the relationship of the Hospital with the Medical School and the Convention, it seemed wise to recommend the appointment of a special Committee of 15 to make a thorough study of the future relationship of the Hospital with the Convention and report back to our Convention in 1972.

2. Chowan College requested the privilege of conducting a campaign for $1,000,000 for a much needed science building.

3. Campbell College requested the privilege of borrowing up to $250,000 to be arranged through the sale of bonds for construction of an indoor swimming pool. An additional $150,000 is already provided from other sources. These bonds will be secured on the swimming pool building only and will not affect the balance of the campus.

4. Gardner-Webb requested the privilege of borrowing up to $2 million for the construction of a library building, an addition to the Administration building, a men's residence hall and the remodeling of the present library building for a classroom facility. The administration of the college reports that they have already received several pledges to cover this anticipated loan.

5. The Children's Homes requested the privilege of increasing their number of trustees from 18 to 36 over the next four years. The purpose is to secure longer representation and participation in the increased program of the Children's Homes.

They report the opening of the Broyhill Home near Waynesville and the Baptist Maternity Home (unwed mothers) in Asheville.

6. The Homes for the Aging report that they have secured $80,000 in matching funds for the York challenge gift to enlarge the infirmary at Winston-Salem. This construction has now been completed.

We are listing below the decisions of this committee and their recommendations to the General Board.

D. Recommendations to the Convention

1. Budget for 1972

The General Board recommends the adoption of a $7,750,000 budget for 1972 and that distributions be made according to the percentages listed below:

General Board Program	30.22%
Higher Education	25.30%
Social Service	11.14%
SBC	33.34%

We also recommend that a goal of $8,000,000 be adopted and that all over $7,750,000 be distributed as follows:

Christian Higher Education	35.00%
Social Service Institutions	16.66%
State Missions	15.00%
SBC	33.34%

2. Baptist Hospital's Request to Borrow

We recommend that the North Carolina Baptist Hospital's request for a loan of $14,000,000, which will supersede previous permission for loans, be granted.

3. Gardner-Webb Request to Borrow

We recommend that the request of Gardner-Webb College to borrow a maximum of $2,000,000 for the construction of the John R. Dover, Sr. Memorial Library, the addition of the Webb Administration Building, the Craig Dormitory, and the remodeling of the present library building, be granted.

4. Campbell College Request to Borrow

The General Board recommends that Campbell College be authorized to borrow a sum up to $250,000 to be used all or in part for the construction of a swimming pool field house facility.

5. Request to Borrow Funds to Rebuild Classroom Building at Fruitland

The General Board recommends that the Baptist State Convention be authorized to borrow up to $275,000 to be used for construction of a new classroom building at Fruitland Bible Institute.

6. Change of Number of Trustees for Baptist Children's Homes, Inc.

The General Board recommends that the Baptist Children's Homes, Inc. be authorized to increase the number of trustees from 18 to 36, and that the Nominating Committee be instructed to make such additions over the next four years, beginning with this fall.

7. Joint Committee on Interracial Affairs

The General Board recommends to the Convention that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the General Baptist Convention of North Carolina each create a standing committee to serve in an advisory capacity to the Department of Interracial Cooperation, and

That this Joint Committee study and recommend periodically to their respective groups, areas of cooperative work, activities, and projects that will strengthen our common fellowship as well as advance the work of our Lord; and

That this Joint Committee consist of six members from each Convention as follows:

- two members for a three-year period
- two members for a two-year period
- two members for a one-year period
- plus the Executive Secretary, President from each Convention, the Director of the Department of Interracial Cooperation and a college student from each convention to serve as ex-officio members.

8. Committee of 15 to Study Relationship Between Hospital and Convention

The General Board recommends that the Convention authorize the appointment of a Committee of 15 to study thoroughly the feasibility of a new plan of relationship between the Baptist Hospital and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and report back to the General Board and Convention by November, 1972, with recommendations.

9. By-laws Changes

The General Board recommends the adoption of the proposed by-law changes as printed below:

a. In the heading of each section of the By-Laws, delete the word, "Article."

b. By-Law I, D, 4

At the end of the word, "Assistant," delete the remaining portion of the paragraph and add the following:

"the Director of the Office of Statistics and Survey, the Director of the Office of Public Relations, and the Director of the Office of Cooperative Program Promotion."

c. By-Law II, Duties of Committees, 4th Paragraph

Delete the word "four" and replace it with the word, "three."

d. By-Law II, B, 1 (Omit the entire section and replace with the following:)

"B. Those to report at the next regular session of the Convention

1. The Committee on Resolutions consisting of fifteen members shall be nominated by the Committee on Committees and elected by the Convention, to serve during the succeeding year and to report at the next regular session of the Convention. It shall be composed of at least five members from the General Board with at least two of the five from the Executive Committee, to be named by the Executive Committee after its organization meeting in January of each year.

All resolutions presented to the Convention shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the second day of the Convention, the rules may be suspended and a resolution be taken up for immediate consideration.

Those who plan to present resolutions to the Convention for consideration are urged to submit a copy of the resolution to the Committee well in advance of the Convention. This will not only give the Committee more adequate time to consider the resolutions, but will also make it possible to print the proposed resolutions in the Book of Advance Reports."

e. By-Law II, C becomes II, B, and By-Law II, D becomes II, C. II, B, 1 should become I, B, 2, and renumber the remaining part of II, B accordingly.

f. II, B, 10 will be added as follows:

"The Committee on Interracial Cooperation consisting of 6 members, two of whom shall be elected for a three year term, two for a two year term, and two for a one year term. The General Secretary-Treasurer, the President of the Convention, the state BSU President, and the Director of the Department of Interracial Cooperation shall serve as ex-officio members. These shall form a Joint Committee with a comparable group from the General Baptist Convention. This Joint Committee shall study and recommend periodically to their respective groups areas of cooperative work, activities, and projects that will strengthen our common fellowship as well as advance the work of our Lord. The Joint Committee will serve in an advisory capacity to the Department of Interracial Cooperation.

COMMITTEE TO STUDY SALARIES OF PASTORS, CHURCH STAFF MEMBERS AND ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONARIES

In 1965 the General Board appointed a Committee of Laymen to make a careful study of pastors salaries in North Carolina and make their study available to the churches of the Convention. This study was very helpful to our church leaders, and was widely used.

Since that time, our economy has shown a continual rise, and in many cases the salaries of pastors, church staff members and associational missionaries have not kept up with the increased cost of living. We believe another study is very much needed at this time.

Therefore, the Executive Committee in session at Charlotte Monday, November 22, 1971, voted to recommend to the Convention the appointment of a Convention-wide study committee of nine persons, composed of six laymen and three from church related vocations to make a thorough study of the prevailing salaries of pastors, church staff and associational missionaries in North Carolina and report back to the Convention in 1972 with such recommendations or suggestions as may seem helpful to our churches.

It is understood that this report will be for the information and help of our church and associational leaders, if they want to use it.

I. RECOMMENDATION CONCERNING PROPOSED COOPERATIVE PROGRAM BUDGET FOR 1971

Upon the recommendation of the Budget Committee, the Executive Committee and the General Board we now present to you for your consideration the proposed budget for 1972.

From anticipated income of $7,750,000 through the Cooperative Program we recommend that 33.34 per cent be allocated to the Southern Baptist Convention, 25.30 per cent to Christian Higher Education, 11.14 per cent to Christian Social Services (Hospital, Children's Homes, and Homes for Aging), and 30.22 per cent to Convention-wide items and State Missions (General Board Programs).

An overall goal of $8,000,000 is proposed and from the income in excess of the base budget of $7,750,000 we recommend the following allocation of funds: 33.34 per cent to the Southern Baptist Convention, 35.00 per cent to Christian Higher Education, 16.66 per cent to Christian Social Services, and 15.00 per cent to Convention-wide items and State Missions (General Board Programs).

III. PROGRAMS OF WORK

A. ADMINISTRATION

1. Cooperative Program Promotion

R. TOM GREENE, Director

The development, production, and distribution of materials for the promotion of Biblical church stewardship through Cooperative Program enlistment and the special offering for State Missions is the basic function of this department. The work during the past twelve months may be divided as follows:

I. LEAFLETS

We have developed and distributed leaflets as follows:
 284,000 basic Cooperative Program leaflets and posters
 571,000 other leaflets, programs, and booklets on stewardship,
 State Missions and the Cooperative Program

II. SEMINARS

We held Mission Advance Seminars for leaders from each association. During the seminars we:

1. Explained and distributed latest materials for scriptural church stewardship through the Cooperative Program.
2. Received the wise suggestions from these leaders.

III. WORKSHOPS

Mission Advance Workshops were held for the pastor and treasurer of each church in three associations. A speaker was secured on the Cooperative Program on the following Sunday in each church requesting this service. The purpose of each of these workshops was:

1. Give a broad view of materials available to help these church leaders in developing a greater outreach for the church.
2. Answer any questions concerning the Cooperative Program.
3. Give encouragement to these leaders and offer our services to the limit of our time and talents to aid these leaders in their aim of mission advance through the Cooperative Program for the benefit of carrying out the commission of the church they serve.

IV. ARTICLES, ART AND REPORTS

We wrote articles, developed art and furnished pictures on Cooperative Program for the Biblical Recorder in cooperation with Mr. Marse Grant, editor.

We published in the Biblical Recorder Cooperative Program giving of each church as well as the division of the Cooperative Program dollar.

We wrote articles on the Cooperative Program for Charity and Children each week in cooperation with Mr. Eugene White, editor.

We wrote an article each month on the Cooperative Program in cooperation with the Superintendents of Missions, Moderators, Cooperative Program Chairmen and the Convention's General Board members for publication in their bulletins.

V. COOPERATION OF THE TEN BAPTIST INSTITUTIONS

The ten Baptist institutions (seven Baptist colleges, Baptist Childrens Homes, Homes for the Aging, and Baptist Hospital) offered their services to one or more of the leaders in fifty churches toward their aim of increasing their outreach by greater sharing through the Cooperative Program. We co-ordinated the selection of the fifty churches each and offered the colleges our services and the materials which we had which would be of benefit. Thus, the colleges use their talents and time to benefit 500 churches in our state.

VI. REGIONAL COOPERATIVE PROGRAM CONSULTANTS

The Regional Cooperative Program Consultants offered their services to each association in the state, each pastors conference and each church in his own region.

The ten Regional Cooperative Program Consultants, without pay, met for two days in Raleigh in a workshop on the Cooperative Program and in addition to the letters referred to above, led many individual conferences, group conferences, made hundreds of telephone calls to pastors and/or other church leaders, spoke in pastors conferences, spoke in other associational meetings and did many other things to enhance the work of the Kingdom through the Cooperative World Mission Program.

The ten Regional Cooperative Program Consultants for 1971 were: Rev. Norman B. Harris of Hertford, Rev. Gordon Conklin of Kinston, Mr. Russell Davenport of Fayetteville, Rev. Lewis Beal of Angier, Rev. W. Amis Daniel of Kernersville, Rev. Marion Parker of Troy, Rev. Henry Morgan of Wilkesboro, Rev. James Rowles, Jr., of Hickory, Rev. James Langford of Canton and Rev. Fred B. Lunsford of Murphy.

VII. REGIONAL MISSION ADVANCE RALLIES

Mission Advance Rallies and workshops were held in three of the regions. In each case they were promoted by the Regional Cooperative Program Consultant. The purpose of each of these rallies was:

1. Give a birds-eye view of worldwide involvement of the churches who give through the Cooperative Program in the spreading of the Good News of Christ around the world.

2. Answer any questions from any person present concerning the Cooperative Program.

3. Give materials to meet the needs and to give encouragement to these church and denominational leaders in their aim of leading their respective churches in a greater outreach for Christ by increased giving through the Cooperative Program.

VIII. ASSOCIATIONAL AND CONVENTION OFFICERS

The associational Cooperative Program Chairmen, with the aid of the Superintendents of Missions, Moderators, and the Convention's General Board members and officers contacted each church in most of the associations offering their services to the limit of their time and ability in aiding the leadership in each church to advance their aim of a greater outreach in preaching the gospel of Christ around the world through the Cooperative Program. They did this through telephone parties, letters, associational meetings, and other face to face contacts.

IX. OTHER AREAS OF WORK

We have answered the requests of many churches needing special help in the area of developing a greater outreach on the part of their church by increasing Cooperative Program giving.

Dr. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer of our Convention, the staff of the Convention, have given wise counsel and help in all the work of this department. Mrs. Lacy Coates and Mrs. Toby Saul, office secretaries, have given valuable help in our common task.

To those above, plus each pastor, plus many other volunteer helpers, we express our genuine thanks for their cooperation.

2. Pastor-Church Relations

The office of Pastor/Church Relations has been in operation since 1964, and is related to the office of the General Secretary-Treasurer.

Pulpit Committees seeking biographical information concerning prospective pastors contact this office daily. This biographical information is shared with the requesting committee only.

At any given time, as many as 10-12% of our 3,455 churches may be without a pastor. During times of waiting on the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the committees seek basic factual information so that they may contact men in their comparable fields.

Counseling and guidance with pastors and staff personnel is a continuing procedure of this office.

Since the inception of this work, Robert H. Bruhn has served as the Administrative Assistant directing the office of information.

3. Public Relations

WILLIAM H. BOATWRIGHT, Acting Director

The Office of Public Relations was authorized by the General Board at its June meeting at Chowan College. This Office is part of the Administration of the Baptist State Convention and is directly responsible to the General Secretary-Treasurer.

This past year the Office of Public Relations worked with the various State Convention departments in promotional and editorial responsibilities. Specifically, the Office assisted the General Secretary-Treasurer in editorial needs, worked with the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, promoted the State Missions Offering through special materials and an 8-page insert in the Biblical Recorder, and directed a special Cooperative Program/American Bible Society emphasis. The Office also helped in other areas, upon request, with promotional and publicity needs.

At present, the Office of Public Relations is headed by Mr. Boatwright, who works part time while in Graduate School at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

4. Statistics and Survey

TED W. WILLIAMS, Director

The basic responsibilities of the office do not change from year to year. These responsibilities include: keeping of current mailing lists preparing the Baptist Diary and supervising its distribution; supervising the publication and distribution of the Convention Annual; editing the Newsletter and supervising its distribution; conducting, upon invitation, conferences for associational clerks and church clerks; conducting certain statistical studies, and assisting, upon invitation, churches and/or associations in planning and tabulating various types of surveys.

The office keeps in close touch with the Research and Statistics Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville and with the clerks of the various associations. This cooperation results in fast and efficient gathering of data for inclusion in the Convention Annual. The office recognizes its dependence on the clerks in the associations and is especially grateful for their spirit of cooperation.

The office is constantly endeavoring to improve its efficiency and service. Mrs. Lafata Lusk and Mrs. Avenelle King are the office secretaries.

B. DIVISION OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

(See Auditor's Report in the back of the Annual)

C. DIVISION OF MISSION MINISTRIES

HOWARD J. FORD, Director

Compassion for people has been a goal of Mission Ministries this year. We believe our cooperative mission endeavor has moved through necessary organizational structures to become people oriented and Christ honoring.

We have continued the responsibility of working with Baptist associations in arranging World Missions Conferences (Schools of Missions) for seven (7) associations. A total attendance of approximately 85,000 attended these conferences. There were 25 conversions and 46 commitments to full-time Christian service. The Division also joined Woman's Missionary Union and the Brotherhood in sponsoring World Missions Week at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly. A total of 852 were enrolled for five days of conferences, inspiration and recreation.

We continue financial supplements to the salaries of 55 Associational Missionaries. A total of 69 associations now have someone serving as Associational Missionary or Superintendent of Missions. We regretted to lose Ben Broadway in the Wilmington Association and Malvin Swicegood in the Elkin. Mrs. Winfrey Luffman is serving as Interim Missionary in the Elkin and the Reverend Paul Kesterson, former Associate in the Sunday School Department of the Baptist State Convention, is the new Missionary in the Wilmington.

The Convention sponsors a December conference for Associational Missionaries. A summer conference for them at Fruitland is financed by the Convention with program structure arranged by a committee selected by the Associational Missionaries.

During the year the General Board made some changes in our area of work. We are now to be officially known as the "Division of Mission Ministries." Department Secretaries have become Department Directors. Two other departments have been brought into the division. We are happy to welcome the Annuity Department and the Department of Communications to the Division of Mission Ministries. We are blessed with secretaries in each office who carry on efficiently while Department Directors are working throughout the state.

The work among Orientals continues in the New River, Atlantic and New South River Associations. We now are assisting in Spanish Language Work in Charlotte. A cooperative ministry with the Home Mission Board is carried on in the Cherokee and Burnt Swamp Associations. The Child Care Center at Cherokee has had a successful year. Mrs. Robert Christopher recently became an Associate to the Director. Enrollment has been most encouraging.

The Department Directors have the responsibility of presenting the broad scope of their varied ministries. Their reports follow.

1. Chaplaincy Ministries

JOE WATTERSON, Director

The Chaplaincy Ministries Department of the Division of Missions of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, works also with the Chaplains Commission of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. My work lies in the same four chaplaincy areas as does that of the Chaplaincy Commission, i.e. Military, Hospital, Business and Industrial and the Institutional Chaplaincy. The Institutional Chaplaincy is the chaplaincy in Correctional Institutions of the state.

In the year just ending the work has shown a steady, healthy growth. Our mailing lists for the four areas total 125, 69 full-time and 56 part-time, with many of the part-timers working without pay. The largest group of chaplains in the state is made up of full-time and part-time Hospital Chaplains, including full-time student interns, some without pay. They number 30 full-time and at least 8 part-time. This does not take into account the growing number of hospitals where there is an organized ministry furnished on a rotating basis by members of local ministers associations.

Baptist Chaplains in Correctional Institutions now number 11 paid, 4 of whom work full-time, and 16 unpaid, all on part-time basis. Again, this does not include the growing number of local jails where there is a planned and directed ministry by local ministers associations and by Brotherhood and WMU organizations.

In Business and Industry there are 6 full-time and 5 part-time Baptist Chaplains.

My work with these chaplains consists in part of helping them to view and accomplish their work with a denominational perspective, to support the churches in the state, each in his own particular field of service. Specifically in keeping with my job description, I work within the Division of Missions and within the framework of our General Board program. I am liaison between all Baptist Chaplains in the Military Centers in North Carolina and the Baptist State Convention. I encourage good relations between Military Chaplains and local Baptist churches, and encourage all Baptist churches to keep in touch with members who may be in the Military service.

Further, my job description states that I will establish good relations with all Baptist Chaplains now serving in industry, and will encourage industrial leaders to consider the position of chaplain for their establishments. This is increasingly being done.

I serve as advisor to hospitals interested in securing chaplains, working in close relationship with the School of Pastoral Care of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital. I work with other convention staff members, associational superintendents of missions and pastors to promote the total work of the Convention. I recommend and supervise all part-time and full-time Chaplains employed by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention for work in Correctional Institutions now seven in number.

THE FORWARD LOOK

One man recently joined the staff of an industry in Fayetteville, and several others are distinctly possible within the coming year.

Two new Hospital Chaplaincies have been established in the state and at least two others are immediate prospects, one definite for January, 1972.

The Commissioner for Juvenile Correction has asked the State Legislature for money for a Chaplain for each of his units throughout the state. This was not done in this legislative term, but the seeds are sown for future development, and may well bring forth fruit in 1973. Meanwhile we have added one, making a total of seven Chaplains employed by you to help in rehabilitating prisoners of all ages.

Thus progress is being made, and seeds are being sown and will be sown toward the widening of our Chaplaincy work in all four areas. We proceed with clinics, conferences, work-shops, and fellowship hours toward increasing the Chaplaincy in numbers and effectiveness, and toward the training of ministers who desire it for better pastoral work in hospitals, institutions and in military areas.

Specific plans include a luncheon for Baptist Chaplains in which we will discuss formation of a North Carolina Chaplains Association. Also a Chaplains and Wives Retreat in October 1972 and 1973 for fellowship instruction and planning. A Pastor/Chaplains workshop is planned for February. Further, a workshop or clinic for each of the other three Chaplaincy areas is in our plans though not yet dated. Finally, we will offer such conferences for promotion as may seem fitting for specific geographical or work areas, such as conferences for information and feasibility studies.

The consolidated report from the 6 Institutional Chaplains paid by the Convention and supervised by this office shows:

Messages Delivered	136
Visits Made	195
Counseling Sessions	136
Prayer Services	29
Conversions	86
Classes	32
Tracts & Periodicals Distributed.....	3,675

2. City and Metropolitan Missions Department

ERNEST C. UPCHURCH, Director

The City and Metropolitan Missions Department continues to work with associations, churches, special committees and/or agencies in studying mission opportunities, analyzing trends, developing growth studies, discovering new cooperative adventures and coordinating urban mission interest in these areas.

During the year of 1971 several major achievements have been made in three phases of the work—

I. ASSOCIATIONAL AND URBAN CHURCH MISSIONS

A. The State-wide Metropolitan Missions Conference was held at the Hayes Barton Baptist Church, Raleigh, N. C. March 1-2, 1971. Outstanding speakers for the event were Dr. Thomas H. Bland and Dr. E. Luther Copeland of Southeastern Theological Seminary, Dr. Seltz Mayo of North Carolina State University, and Home Missions Board personnel with other outstanding men and women appearing on the program. The church people from urban areas throughout the state were on hand for the event.

B. An Urban Seminar was held July 12 through August 6 in cooperation with Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and the Home Mission Board. Dr. E. Luther Copeland, professor of missions, directed the cooperative event. Twenty-eight theological students and pastors were privileged to attend. Each student prepared a written paper on the urban work in the city of Raleigh. This was an outstanding ministry in research and field ministry activities.

C. The Shopping Center ministry was continued in the North Hills area with a new theological student this year. New achievements have been made here in stabilizing the work and in its outreach ministry. New areas of shopping center work are being considered.

D. Pastoral Aid — The department assisted 35 churches with pastoral assistance in the approximate amount of $40,000. The following statistics reveal some accomplishments of the work: Sermons preached 1,420; other addresses 461; visits 5,338; baptisms 215; additions by letter 145; conversions 272; restorations 35; church membership 4,424.

E. Lot Aid — The department assisted 17 churches with lot aid assistance amounting to $25,000.

II. CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES

(directed toward rural and urban areas)

A. Associational Christian Social Ministries — There are five full-time associational Christian Social Ministries programs in our State. They are found in the following associations: Dan Valley, New South River, Gaston, Raleigh and Pilot Mountain. Other associations could profit from such ministries. The Associational Christian Social Ministries includes work in the following areas:

(1) Church Community Weekday Ministries — This ministry involves the preschooler and continues through the aged.

(2) The Baptist Center program — Centers and modified centers can adapt this program.

(3) Youth and Family Services — This program is designed to assist troubled youth and their families. This ministry majors on the juvenile delinquents, their families, drug addicts, alcoholics and ex-prisoners.

(4) Literacy — The literacy work is designed to reach the non-reader and the functional nonreader in our State. According to the 1960 census report there are approximately 380,000 such adults (25 and up) in our State. Coupled with this approach is a helping ministry for the youth underachiever in school with a tutoring ministry.

(5) Migrant — The migrant travels primarily in the agricultural areas of our state harvesting crops and moving on to new areas of work. Approximately 12- to 15,000 pass through North Carolina annually.

(6) Disaster Relief — This phase of Christian Social Ministry is designed to assist in emergency needs in the association and state.

B. Baptist Centers — The Baptist Center programs in Eden, Raleigh and Winston-Salem have had wonderful ministries this year.

The Eden (Dan Valley) Center had a guest church youth group this summer from First Baptist Church, Kannapolis, North Carolina. The Youth Group directed by Dr. Charles Coffey, pastor; and staff associates, Rev. Norman Brisson and Rev. Carl Beard; did a wonderful job in assisting in the teaching and training aspects of the ministry; plus a camp program and a musical program in local churches in the evening.

The Patterson Avenue Center (Winston-Salem) directed by Mrs. Rachel Swearingen has had a good year. The center was remodeled by local church group help. Student summer help assisted in the program. Also, a number of students from Wake Forest University assisted in the program.

The Raleigh Baptist Center had a change in personnel during mid-year. Mrs. Rachel Swanson, an able director, resigned in mid-year. Mrs. Swanson was replaced by Miss Elizabeth Ann Wootton. Miss Wootton brought to this position able know-how and fine dedication in working with children and youth.

The Gaston Baptist Center — Gaston Association moves along nicely under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Strickland and Mrs. Kitty Keaton. A new bus has been purchased for a mobile ministry in this area.

C. Youth and Family Service — Directors are located in several areas of the state. The following associations have part-time directors: Catawba River, Rev. Fred Morris; Central, Rev. Robert Canipe; Kings Mountain, Rev. Fred McGehee; Mt. Zion, Rev. E. J. Barbour; South Yadkin, Rev. R. C. Johnson. These men work as church-related liaison men with the district courts to counsel and assist youth in trouble.

Full-time directors of Youth and Family Services are in Raleigh and in Yates Associations.

III. INTERFAITH WITNESS

The Interfaith Witness is an outgrowth of the non-evangelical work. It is designed as a ministry with other faiths and internationals in our State.

One endeavor of outstanding significance this year was the Baptist-Catholic Conference held at Daytona Beach, Florida, this past February under the auspices of the Home Mission Board. Many North Carolina pastors and missionaries attended and found it to be most rewarding.

Two conferences in Interfaith Witness are being planned for North Carolina during 1972.

V. CONCLUSIONS

1971 has been a great year for Urban Missions Ministries. Many achievements have been made. Yet, there remains much challenge before us in 1972. For the achievements we say, "Thanks to God, the Convention's administration, the associations and the churches, the field staff—full and part-time associates, to office secretaries and all of whom have contributed to these accomplishments. To God be the glory."

3. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute

Although off to a good start on August 24 with a fine enrollment of 197, the Institute suffered a disastrous loss by fire in the early morning of August 30. The Justice Class Room Building burned beyond repair in a fire set by an arsonist. Due to the excellent generosity and cooperation of the members of the Fruitland Baptist Church, classes were continued without interruption in the church building.

Expressions of sympathy and a determination to rebuild soon began to be in the minds and hearts of Baptists throughout North Carolina. Many Fruitland graduates who now serve in other states have also called or written to express concern and have declared their intention to lead their churches to have a part in the rebuilding program. For this kind of spirit we are deeply grateful to God.

Concerning the academic work of the Institute, a new session was added in 1971 to the existing schedule. In addition to the nine-month session, a one-month period of study was offered during the month of June. A total of 15 students took advantage of this concentrated period of study. Both the faculty and student body were integrated as the Institute continued its effort to reach more Baptist pastors who can benefit from study at Fruitland. For making a fine summer faculty possible, we are deeply indebted to Wingate College and Gardner-Webb College.

As a matter of general information, a survey summary of the present Bible Institute student body is included in this report.

4. Insurance and Annuity Department

GUY S. CAIN, Director

A dream came true at the Annuity Board in 1971! For the first time in its 53 year history, the Board is able to place in the hands of Southern Baptist Protection Program members a personalized statement showing their benefits and coverage in the retirement and insurance programs.

The Statements of Member's Accounts report total payments credited to the member in 1970. They also provide two estimates of annual retirement benefit at age 65. One estimate computes the benefit should the member make no further payments; the second computes the benefit if the member continues to make payments as he did during 1970.

There are 24,756 employes of Baptist churches and agencies actively participating in the Board's basic Plan A. Active members in the supplemental Plan B number 11,690, and there are 4,276 in the variable Plan C. These members represent 18,583 churches and associations and 195 agencies in 33 states.

In 1971, $4.8 million have been paid in benefits by the Board. In 53½ years the total benefits paid have amounted to $86.9 million.

Age retirement, disability, widow, child, education and variable benefit recipients number 7,183. There are 422 persons receiving relief grants which amounted to $68,869 during the first six months of 1971.

Persons actively participating in the Board's life insurance and disability income protection plans number 23,430. A total of 21,949 persons enrolled in the health insurance plans.

Death claims paid for 67 members during the year amounted to $799,416.12. There have been 22 disability claims requiring $30,-895.33.

In North Carolina there are 1,960 churches and associations with 2,310 employees currently participating in the Southern Baptist Protection Program. In this state convention, the number of new members enrolled in Plan A during the first six months of 1971 is 54.

There are 13 state Baptist agencies which have some members in the Program which include: Baptist Children's Homes of N. C., Inc., Biblical Recorder, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Campbell College, Chowan College, Gardner-Webb College, North Carolina Baptist Homes, Inc., North Carolina Baptist Hospital, North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Meredith College, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest University and Wingate College.

5. Interracial Ministries

CORBIN L. COOPER, Director

An important event of the past year was to welcome the Reverend Leo Williams, Jr., to the staff as Director of Christian Education. He is a part of the expanding cooperative ministries sponsored by the General Baptist State Convention and the Baptist State Convention.

This summer a record number of 30 young people and adults were appointed to serve in a variety of places throughout the state. They have ministered primarily to young people in Bible camps, week-day programs, day-care centers, and Vacation Bible Schools. From the mountains to the coast they have ministered in churches of both conventions, reaching the youth of all races.

For the first time applications for summer work were rejected because funds were not available. The summer of 1972 may result in the same problem unless additional resources are provided. We are hoping that individuals and churches will see fit to help provide funds for this project.

Another objective of the department is to provide programs and materials to General Baptist churches and associations upon request. This is another way whereby the various departments may cooperate in reaching, teaching, and training people. Leaders of the General Convention are invited to reciprocate by providing messages and materials to aid individuals and churches in the Baptist State Convention. This exchange of talents and information helps us to get the best from both conventions, while improving relationships between the races.

As our young people become better acquainted in public schools, colleges, and in the military, they are placing greater demands on their churches and denomination to be racially inclusive in their ministries. We are eager to help pave the way for those congregations who believe that the Great Commission involves a challenge to reach all people with the gospel.

During this year we have welcomed two predominantly black congregations into the fellowship of the Baptist State Convention. The First Baptist Church of 508 Apple Street, Burlington, the Reverend H. J. Cobb, pastor, joined the Baptist State Convention and the Liberty Baptist Church, Sylva, the Reverend J. H. Smith, pastor, joined the Tuckasegee Association.

Those who serve within these cooperative ministries are especially happy to provide their services to churches and associations of both Baptist state conventions. In addition to the Director they are Mrs. Mary E. Washington, Office Secretary; C. C. Craig, Jr., Raleigh; Leo Williams, Jr., Raleigh; J. Z. Alexander, Raleigh; Benjamin Daniels, Winston-Salem; and Mrs. Alcovia O. McCall, Asheville.

6. Town and Country and Seminary Extension

ROY J. SMITH, Director

The objective of the Town and Country and Seminary Extension Department is two-fold: (1) Work with small town and rural churches in a program of overall church development; and (2) Promote the state-wide ministries of Resort Missions, Mountain Missions, Weeks of Christian Study and Fellowship, and Seminary Extension.

The Rural-Urban Department of the Home Mission Board and the Seminary Extension Department of the Southern Baptist Convention participate in the ministry of this department.

Mrs. Nan Jones is the office secretary.

SEMINARY EXTENSION

The Seminary Extension program continues to expand in North Carolina. During 1971 four associations organized Seminary Extension centers for the first time. This past year hundreds of students were enrolled in centers from the mountains to the sea. One of the largest centers was in the Avery Association, taught by Reverend Henry Powell. One hundred and two people were enrolled in the new course, Understanding the Bible.

Seminary Extension is designed for pastors, church leaders, and church members who are interested in enriching their spiritual lives through the discipline of indepth study and training. Courses are offered in Biblical Interpretation, Theology, Religious Education, Church History, and Missions.

In June of this year, Southeastern Seminary and Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute cooperated with this department in providing a week of special training for Seminary Extension teachers.

Financial assistance in the form of scholarships and teacher's honoraria is provided where needed.

PASTORAL AID—LOT AID

Forty-two churches and missions in twenty-four associations received pastoral aid during 1971. Eight of these mission pastors are students and four are serving fields of two or more churches. Several of these men receive aid for one church, but have other churches.

Nine churches in six associations received aid on the purchase of church lots. These mission grants ranged from $500.00 to $1,500.00.

In the allocation of the mission funds, priority is given to churches joining together in a field of work, student pastors, and churches with unusual missionary opportunities.

TRUETT CAMP

Truett Camp in Hayesville has just completed the best season in recent years. Four capital improvements are worthy of note.

1. In keeping with the long range plan of development, a cabin with a capacity for two counselors and fifteen campers and a new central bath house were constructed.

2. An office building, constructed out of the logs which were in the original George W. Truett home has been completed.

3. The central barracks was renovated and new motel type beds were purchased.

4. An outdoor chapel is to be constructed early next year.

The Truett Camp Committee has employed a resident Manager-Director who will live in the Truett Home.

The churches in Region 10 and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina share in the development and operation of Truett Camp.

The renovated and refurnished Truett Home continues to attract hundreds of visitors each year. The home is open to visitors at stated hours each day.

WEEKS OF CHRISTIAN STUDY AND FELLOWSHIP

The annual Week of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill had an enrollment of 475. This week makes it possible for pastors and their families to come aside for worship, study, and recreation. A comprehensive program is provided for ministers, their wives, and children, Nursery through Youth age.

Program personalities this year included Fred Kelly, Minister of Music; Henry Turlington, Bible Teacher; and Dr. Eugene Poston, Dr. E. L. Spivey, Reverend Guy Cain, Dr. Charles Boddie, and Dr. Perry Crouch as preachers for the week. Dr. Donald Moore led the conference for the ladies. Special conferences for the youth were led by Dr. Donald Moore and Fred Kelly.

Meals are the only cost to those attending. Mars Hill College and the Town and Country Missions Department provide lodging facilities and the program.

A Week of Christian Study and Fellowship was held at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly in conjunction with Vacation Week in August of this year. One hundred and fifty-eight people were enrolled for this week. Dr. Raymond Brown was the Bible teacher for this week and special speakers for the week were John Lawrence, Coleman Kerry, and Nathan Brooks. Special activities were provided for the children and youth.

We plan to make this an annual endeavor at the Assembly.

RESORT MISSIONS

Resort Missions continues to be one of the fastest growing missions ministries in North Carolina. Forty million out of state tourists visited North Carolina this past year, ranking our state third nationally in the matter of tourism.

Baptists conducted ministries at more than fifty-five resort areas during the past year. The ministries are varied and flexible, reflecting the imagination and creativity of local leadership and the desire to meet the needs of each given area. The Home Mission Board appointed four summer missionaries to work in resort ministries at Cherokee, Tanglewood Park, Carolina Beach, and Wrightsville Beach.

MOUNTAIN MINISTRIES

One of the highlights of this department this past year was the election of an area missionary to serve in western North Carolina.

On May 4, 1971 the Executive Committee of the General Board activated the position of Area Missionary to Western North Carolina by electing Luther Osment to fill this post. Mr. Osment began his duties July 1.

The task of the area missionary includes working with the 1,200 churches of this area in the fields of evangelistic outreach, church development, leadership training and cooperative ministries. Also direction is given to the work of Truett Camp.

From an office in Sylva the area missionary works in twenty mountain associations, giving special emphasis to the seven associations in the area that do not have missionaries.

7. Deaf Ministries

JERRY POTTER, Director
NEAL PEYTON, Associate

The year of 1971 could be called a year of continuance. In our work of overseeing the ministry to the deaf over the state, Neal Peyton and I have been in many World Missions Conferences, RA and GA camps, deaf camps, the conference for teachers and interpreters, revivals, conferences with the Home Mission Board on matters important to the deaf work, plus weddings, funerals, and other services directly with the deaf.

A unique feature at our conference for teachers and interpreters, was our production of a mock court trial to give the interpreters some experience with legal language before they actually are called on to provide that type of service. An actual attorney played that role, while other interpreters and deaf people were involved in the trial.

Our television ministry is being broadened in the sense that the Home Mission Board is filming some of our television programs and using them in ministering to deaf people all over the Southern Baptist Convention. The program can be seen weekly in eleven states.

We are continuing to help the churches in every way possible in their ministries to the deaf. Our purpose is to assist the local church in ministering to the spiritual need of those who cannot hear. We need the prayers of God's people as we seek the best way to win the deaf people of N. C. to Christ.

8. The Department of Communications

JIMMY MORRISS, Director

The Department of Communications promotes the total Baptist program through the divisions of the General Board, agencies, institutions and associations. Program promotion is carried out through assistance to the departments of the General Board as well as statewide news releases and radio and television productions.

I. AUDIO VISUAL AIDS

A. Film Library

During the past year, the department booked more than 10,979 free rental films. We estimate that approximately 65 per cent of the churches in the Convention are using audio-visual aids regularly. An increasing number of kindergartens and day-care centers are making use of the film library in their teaching programs. The department encourages planning for a basic library of audio-visuals at both associational and church levels, with supplementary titles provided by the department library. At present, this library has over 2,600 titles covering every aspect of denominational endeavor. More than 6,247 orders have had to be refused because films requested were already booked and therefore not available. The department provides a complete catalog to churches containing all film titles and audio tapes.

B. Film Production

Among the films produced this year are: CONCERN FOR PEOPLE, a 53 minute sound color motion picture, depicting state mission ministries through the Division of Church Programs, promoting the annual State Missions offering; a Bible study film in sound and color featuring John Bunn of Campbell College, teaching "The Letters of John"; two 30 minute filmed programs of A LIGHT UNTO MY PATH, in sign language and sound, produced for the Home Mission Board to be used in areas where missionaries to the deaf and regular television programming are not available. The department also produced some 400 color slides and 500 black and white pictures illustrating the various ministries of the state Baptist program. The department works closely with all Convention divisions in compiling news releases and pictures for state missions emphasis.

C. Communications Conferences.

A number of diversified conferences were held at the request of the associations and churches. Conferences to assist the churches and associations in radio and television programming procedures were held in Mecklenburg Association and at Merrimon Avenue Church in Asheville and at Caswell, an audio-visual conference was held at Fruitland, and conferences to help set up campus radio networks were held at Gardner-Webb, Chowan and Campbell.

D. Audio Aids

More than 3,000 messages were reproduced at the request of pastors and churches this year. Major messages of all the conventions and conferences were recorded and placed in the central tape library, bringing the total of messages available for reproduction to more than 375.

II. GRAPHIC ARTS

Over 250 individual lay-outs were designed and prepared for printing this year. These included posters, programs, folders, forms and stationery.

III. NEWS SERVICE

Our responsibility to provide news coverage of state Baptist work to some 485 newspapers, radio and television stations and all associational missionaries, culminated in some 30 articles for state-wide release.

IV. TELEVISION AND RADIO

The department continues to produce the network series, A LIGHT UNTO MY PATH, a mission work of the Convention, designed to reach the deaf, the aging and the unchurched. The program is presented over a statewide network of stations including WRAL-TV, Raleigh; WLOS-TV, Asheville; WFMY-TV, Greensboro; WBTV, Charlotte; and WNCT-TV, Greenville. Also providing coverage for North Carolina is WIS-TV, Columbia, S. C. The series is carried by 10 other stations outside the state, sponsored by a church or convention in that state.

Produced this year were a series of drug spots for both radio and television for the Baptist Childrens Homes, which are currently being aired over 9 television stations and 30 radio stations in the state. The department produced a segment of the area-wide Cerebral Palsy Telethon in sign language for the deaf. The entire cast of this program for the deaf is to be responsible for associational programs: "M" Night at Elkin and the annual Sunday School Convention for the Deaf at First Church, Fayetteville.

New productions on a sustaining basis include LISTEN, AMERICA, a 30-minute color telecast presenting young people in music and testimony currently being produced every two months on a statewide network and the annual Community Thanksgiving Service which incorporates all races and faiths in an interdenominational effort to represent the Thanksgiving season to the greater Raleigh area through television.

Also produced on a sustaining basis are BIBLE STORY TIME, a weekly color telecast for pre-school children, CHURCH OF OUR FATHERS, a weekly 30 minute news program, and LIGHT FOR LIVING, a daily brief meditation which is carried over WRAL-TV, Raleigh; WNCT-TV, Greenville and WSOC-TV, Charlotte. The department also, in cooperation with the Sunday School department, produces a weekly INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON carried on 8 stations in the state. RELIGIOUS NEWS SCOPE a weekly 4-5 minute news broadcast featuring the religious news of the state is currently being produced and carried over 78 stations in the state. New projects underway include a series on basic Baptist history and doctrine to be aired weekly and a weekly hymn program. The department also works closely with the Radio and Television Commission.

V. DRAMA

Assistance in two church dramas was undertaken this year in an initial effort to include the dramatic arts as an effective tool in communicating the Gospel message. More efforts in this line are on the agenda.

VI. OTHER AREAS

The department has two summer workers at the assemblies showing more than 300 films and special sound presentations each session. Equipment and supplies for the season at both Fruitland and Caswell are provided through the department as are those used at Caraway and Mundo Vista. We assisted the Department of Town and Country Missions in the presentation of filmed presentations in five resort areas this year. The department also provides audio-visual equipment for each staff member of the General Board for field use.

D. DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

WILLIAM C. LAMB, Director

JIMMY D. HINSON, Associate Director

The Executive Committee of the General Board elected Rev. Jimmy D. Hinson of High Point as Associate Director of the Division of Evangelism effective March 1, 1971. Because of his dedication to Christ, education, and mature experience for sixteen years as Minister of Youth, Pastor and Evangelist, he is already making a significant contribution to the total work of the Division of Evangelism.

25TH STATEWIDE EVANGELISM CONFERENCE

"Evangelizing in Openness and Freedom" was the theme of the 25th Statewide Evangelism Conference at War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro, February 1-2, 1971. Dr. J. C. Canipe was recognized as Honorary Chairman. The speakers were: Carl E. Bates, Pastor, First Church, Charlotte and President, Southern Baptist Convention; F. G. Sampson, Pastor, Mount Lebanon Church, Louisville, Kentucky; William M. Pinson, Associate Professor of Christian Ethics, Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas; Ralph W. Neighbour, Executive Director, Evangelism Research Foundation, Houston, Texas; James L. Pleitz, Pastor, First Church, Pensacola, Florida; W. D. Lawes, Associate Director, Division of Evangelism, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Georgia; Bill Glass, Evangelist, Dallas, Texas and Leon Kilbreth, Evangelist, Greensboro, N. C. Miss Joe Ann Shelton, Director of Program Music, Radio and Television Commission, Fort Worth, Texas was guest soloist and Miss Loen Bushman of Fort Worth, Texas was pianist. Several other pastors and laymen participated on the program. A half night of prayer was held in the Immanuel Church following the Monday evening session.

YOUTH EVANGELISM NIGHT

The closing session of the Evangelism Conference was a Youth Evangelism Night on Tuesday evening, February 2, 1971. Almost 20,000 youth and adults were present in the Greensboro Coliseum and War Memorial Auditorium. This tremendous attendance was indeed a miracle of God. 1,519 decisions of various types were made by these youth. Specific follow-up work with regard to these persons who made decisions was assigned to pastors in many cities across the state. The speakers were: Bill Glass, Evangelist, Dallas, Texas; Leighton Ford, Evangelist, The Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, Charlotte; Miss Joe Ann Shelton, Soloist. Joseph O. Stroud, State Music Secretary, and his staff enlisted the 4,000 voice Youth Choir. Phillip Landgrave, Professor, Church Music School, Southern Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, directed this Youth Choir. Other youth participated on the program.

WIN MATERIALS AND LAY EVANGELISM SCHOOLS

There is tremendous interest in North Carolina and the entire Southern Baptist Convention with regard to the new thrust on lay witnessing with the use of the new WIN materials and emphasis on the one week Lay Evangelism Schools. Hinson and Lamb are already involved with over forty associations in various stages of planning toward a one week Lay Evangelism School in their areas of the state. The first Lay Evangelism School sponsored by the Division of Evangelism in this state was November 1-7, 1971 in the Mecklenburg Association. Jesus reminded all Christians of our task in Luke 24:48—"And ye are witnesses of these things." Thousands of laymen and youth will respond if they are properly challenged and trained.

INNOVATION IN EVANGELISTIC COOPERATION

The Division of Evangelism and the Brotherhood Department in cooperation with the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church sponsored four Regional Evangelism Conferences for Baptist and Methodist Men as follows: October 18, 1971—Fayetteville; October 19—Rocky Mount; October 21—Durham; and October 22—Hickory. The theme was "Laymen Involved in Witnessing." The speakers were: Ralph W. Neighbour, Executive Director, Evangelism Research Foundation, Houston, Texas; Ed Beck, Pastor, Warren United Methodist Church, Denver, Colorado; and Robert Gibbons, Soloist and Song Director, Roxboro, N. C. Twenty laymen shared on the program in the different cities.

The 26th Statewide Evangelism Conference will be February 7-9, 1972 at the Cumberland County Memorial Auditorium in Fayetteville.

* * * *

The next Statewide Youth Evangelism Night will be on Friday evening, August 18, 1972 at Greensboro Coliseum.

Remember to pray earnestly for the non-Christians in North Carolina and around the world that through our efforts together the Holy Spirit may lead many persons to commit their lives to Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

E. DIVISION OF CHURCH PROGRAMS

NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR., Director

A growing "team spirit" has characterized the work of the division. Enough staff members have worked together for a long enough period of time for some of the rough edges to have disappeared. While individual personalities have not been submerged, a deeper sense of oneness in the service of Christ has developed.

Staff meetings, individual commitment, and a desire to assist the churches in a correlated and integrated program of worship, witness, education and ministry, have all contributed to personnel development. The central focus is people in relationship to Christ in all that the staff undertakes.

Changes in personnel within the departments are reflected in their reports. The reorganization implemented by the General Board has removed the Fruitland Baptist Conference Center from this division to the Division of Mission Ministries. This division will still cooperate with Fruitland in the development and promotion of summer programs.

The Department of Stewardship, with its personnel, has been placed in the Division of Church Programs. A closer tie with the various church programs should enhance stewardship development in the future.

The next year will find an additional Youth Week at Fort Caswell with the emphasis upon evangelism, vocational guidance and church recreation. Also, the Sunday School Week of the past will become a Bible Conference for youth.

The major emphases of the next year will be upon Bible teaching, outreach, leadership training, family life ministries, and youth involvement.

1. Youth Ministries Service

DAVIS BOWEN, Coordinator

The Youth Ministries Service is an intra-departmental effort to coordinate youth involvement in the churches. It attempts to guide youth and youth workers into a better understanding of Christian relationships and responsibilities.

It hopes that churches will realize that each organization is working with the same youth. This means that each organization can supplement and add to the programs of the other organizations. Workers in Sunday School, Church Training programs, Acteens, Pioneers, and Youth Choirs need to work together in order to meet the needs of youth.

The Youth Ministries Service is interested in helping churches develop a ministry with youth. At the request of churches its members are available to come and help in the planning and the execution of youth programs and activities. It is suggested that a representative group of youth in the church be chosen to plan, correlate, promote, and evaluate the activities of the members in this age group. Involving youth is the best way to become aware of their needs and interests; to train them to be leaders; and to lead them to accept responsibility.

The Youth Ministries Service is interested in assisting churches in developing Youth Councils; planning retreats, dramas, fellowships, and banquets; and interpreting Bible study and outreach through mission action projects and activities.

The Youth Advisory Committee, composed of persons responsible for the Youth Division in each department, works to plan, coordinate, and sponsor various youth activities. During the year several state-wide and area meetings are planned to involve youth. Each year there is at the present time a State Youth Council Retreat, High School Seniors' Retreat, the Baptist State Youth Convention, three Youth Conferences at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, and State Youth Leadership Conferences.

2. Sunday School Department

BURREL F. LUCAS, Director

The Sunday School Department has sought to lead Sunday School leaders to see that Bible teaching should take place each day of the week. Sunday School is one of seven Bible teaching opportunities during the week. The Bible Teaching Program of the Church includes more than that which takes place on Sunday morning.

Extension Activities are those activities which take place other than Sunday morning. These activities are: Vacation Bible School, Fellowship Bible Classes, Bible Conferences, Week-Day Bible Study, Bible Study Courses, and New Sunday schools. At the general officers level there is a person called Extension Activities Director who is responsible for directing these studies.

There must be an increase in scope and effort in response to the challenge to teach all men God's word. The Bible Teaching Program of the church has four significant tasks to be performed: 1. Teach the Biblical Revelation, 2. Reach persons for Christ and church membership, 3. Perform the functions of the church within its membership, and 4. Provide and Interpret information concerning the work of the church and denomination.

PERSONNEL

A new staff member, Mr. Jack Clark, formerly of the Eastlawn Baptist Church, Burlington, N. C., joined our staff January 1, 1971, to be responsible for Associational Planning and Promotion and Consultation with Youth Workers. Other staff includes Mr. W. Harry Clarke, Consultant in Adult work and Teacher Training; Mrs. Myra S. Motley, Consultant with Children's work, VBS, and Week-day education; Miss Hilda Mayo, Consultant with Preschool work, Church Library, and Kindergarten and Day Care. The dedicated help of two office secretaries make possible a greater ministry. These are Mrs. Charles Chason and Mrs. John Boggan, Jr.

The Sunday School Department depends very heavily upon its capable group of Special Workers. These assist in a variety of ways. They are: General Officers and Adults: Thurman Allred, Melvin Anderson, Hugh Borders, Norman Brisson, Mrs. Charles Burchette, Joe Burnette, Preston Capps, Jr., Lawrence Childs, Robert Clegg, W. T. Cockman, Harold Craig, Bart Dorr, Garland Early, William Goble, Jr., James Hagwood, Fritz Hemphill, Woodrow Hill, Miss Laura Mae Hilliard, Ralph Knight, H. E. 3. Church Training Department

SAM H. O'NEAL, Director

Someone has aptly said, "If the Christian Church is going to come out of the fragmentation and the confusion of these days with any honor, she simply must train and develop her people in the art of being Christian." This could be used as the undergirding theme and the motivating force giving guidance and adding concern to the ministry of the Church Training Department. There is encouragement in the belief that the broader scope of the Church Training Department's educational ministry is being accepted by our leadership and thereby undergirding the ministry of the church.

With this challenge facing the Christian Church it is imperative that North Carolina Baptists re-examine their concept of and commitment to the local church's educational ministry. The Church Training Department is seeking to make real and implement this educational ministry through the use of current curriculum materials, flexibility in the use of these materials, educational, approaches meeting the needs of people in today's society, and training opportunities which will equip church leaders in communicating the message of Christ.

PERSONNEL

The Church Training Department consists of a very fine, efficient, and dedicated staff. In addition to the department director, the staff is as follows: K. Maurice Cooper, serves as director of Association and Adult work. In addition to these responsibilities he gives guidance to the division of New Church Member Training and works with the department director in the area of general administration. Rick Traylor, serves as director of the Youth division and the Baptist Youth Corps. Miss Judy Hendrix, is director of the Children's division; and Miss Doris Morgan is director of the Pre-school division.

The department is served by two office secretaries, Miss Diane Averitte and Mrs. Betty Boggs. Mrs. Boggs joined the department as office secretary and receptionist May 1, 1971.

The department has a corps of special consultants strategically located throughout the state who work with us in special assignments. This corps of special consultants enables the department to accept more assignments and "multiply ourselves" throughout the state.

1971 ACTIVITIES

Nineteen seventy-one seems to have been a year of "settling down" and moving with confidence into the future with positive approaches, new programs and exciting innovations for the future. This has been very helpful since we moved into the seventies with so many changes which also brought many frustrations.

To recite every activity during the past year would be an impossible task. However, some of the activities are as follows:

1. Ten regional Church Training Convention planning meetings
2. Ten regional Church Training Conventions where the Scripture Exploring Drills were conducted and new tournament activities for the future were announced
3. State wide Preschool Leadership Workshops jointly with Sunday School, and WMU
4. Two Church Training Assembly weeks
5. One joint Church Training—Sunday School Assembly Week
6. Two Youth Conferences at the assembly
7. Ten briefing meetings for Associational Officers
8. Twenty Associational Leadership Schools
9. Numerous one night Leadership Institutes or Workshops
10. Church Training Department Staff members and/or Special Consultants ministered in fifty-two of the eighty associations in North Carolina during 1971.

BAPTIST YOUTH CORPS

The Church Training Department offers through the Baptist Youth Corps ministry a far reaching cooperative program with our Baptist Colleges, individual churches and the Baptist State Convention. Rick Traylor, Associate, Church Training Department gives a great portion of his time to directing this particular program. During the summer of 1971 there were 57 students serving throughout our state with varying and challenging opportunities for the churches and their youth. Following the orientation week for the workers at Fruitland, June 7-11, the students were assigned to churches across our state and then climaxed the Baptist Youth Corps program with two great Youth Conferences at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly.

SOME GOALS REALIZED

During 1971 the Church Training Department saw some goals and dreams realized. A complete set of "free help materials" was printed and made available to the churches for the first time. The helps for the age division are called the "Help Series." These include: "Help for General Officers in Church Training," "Help for Adults in Church Training," "Help for Youth Leadership in Church Training," "Help for Workers with Children in Church Training," "Help for Workers with Preschoolers." This series also includes "New Church Member Training." These were compiled by the department staff members and can be extremely helpful to the church needing basic help in beginning a Church Training Ministry. Also, the Cooperative Leadership Training Guide was developed in cooperation with the other departments in the division of Church Programs. This is a leadership training tool designed specifically for the Church Council to use in providing specialized leadership training for organizational leaders throughout the year.

Nineteen seventy-one saw the demise of the old concept of the regional convention and the tournaments as we have known them in the past. Replacing these will be three opportunities in 1972 with the "Festival of the Creative Arts" for ages six through Adults, and the "Bible Blitz," Bible activity for youth. The Scripture Exploring Drill for Children, Ages 9-11, will be a continuing activity.

FUTURE PLANS

Nineteen seventy-two will be a year for implementing some of the challenging and innovative activities in Church Training. There will be a Festival of the Creative Arts exhibit and Creative Leadership Conferences at the Following places:

September 15-16, First Baptist Church, Wilson

September 29-30, First Baptist Church, Greensboro

October 27-28, First Baptist Church, Morganton

The department will continue to give strong emphasis to the study of the Guidance and Understanding series of books, as well as studying the new Church Training Administrative books. These emphases will be realized through several associational leadership schools already scheduled, two Church Training Assembly weeks, two Youth Conferences, and ten briefing meetings for Associational Officers.

There will be a special workers training institute at Camp CARAWAY April 13-15, 1972. This will include specialized training for age group consultants, as well as training a corps of growth consultants in preparation for conducting Director-Led Church Training Growth Campaigns in the Associations.

If the calendar for 1972 is any indication, the Church Training Department Staff will be very busy. Many activities are already scheduled. More and more requests for help are coming to the Department. It is good to have the opportunity to serve North Carolina Baptists.

4. Department of Student Work

JAMES Y. GREENE, Director

I. MINISTRY ON CAMPUS

Baptist Student Union and the ministry of the staff of the Department of Student Work are a specialized focus of the denomination as it seeks to work with those in the academic community. In the various settings this campus ministry finds varying organizational expressions but each unit operates within a basic philosophy and guidelines decided upon by the Convention.

The building of Christian community is perhaps the major emphasis of the campus ministry. Worship, study, service, witness and fellowship are other major facets of the work.

II. MINISTRY ON STATE LEVEL

1. Chaplains' Seminar: Held January 10-15, 1971, at In-the-Oaks Conference Center, Black Mountain, 16 chaplains and student department personnel participated in worship, discussion, lectures, and program planning. Program personnel included: Charles R. Sanks, Jr., First Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.; William Estes, Consultant, Vocational Guidance, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee; Charles Roselle, Secretary, National Student Ministries, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee; Dr. Cecil Sherman, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Asheville; Dr. W. Perry Crouch, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Raleigh.

2. Area Retreats: (1). Eastern Area Retreat, held January 29-31, 1971, at Camp Caraway and involved 5 schools with approximately 65 in attendance. Will D. Campbell of Nashville, Tennessee, was guest speaker.

(2). Western Area Retreat, held February 19-21, 1971, at Lake Junaluska and involved 4 schools with approximately 35 in attendance. Will Allred of Brevard College and the Reverend Ted Purcell, Pastor, Cullowhee Baptist Church were the program guests.

3. All Sports Week-end: Held March 12-13, 1971, at Shaw University, Raleigh, a basketball tournament involved 6 boys teams and 4 girls teams. Shaw University won the boys' division and Appalachian State University won in the girls' division.

4. Spring Conference: Held at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Southport, April 16-18, 1971, with approximately 300 students and staff in attendance. The theme for the week-end was "Keep the Ball Rolling" with students from East Carolina University presenting a theme interpretation on Friday evening. Campus ministers led small Bible study groups based on The Gospel According to John, chapter 14. Small encounter groups stressed "talk-back" sessions following the guest speakers' presentations. Charles Wilson, Chaplain, N. C. Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, spoke on "Check Out Your Mind," James Z. Alexander, Shaw University, Raleigh, spoke on "Getting It Together." Miss Nell Magee from the Department of National Student Ministries, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee, led in a leadership training workshop for student leaders in schools where there was no full-time chaplain. In addition to these activities there was election and installation of new officers; a charge to the summer missions teams; a creative worship service on Sunday morning led by the outgoing state BSU president, Penny Smallwood; and some time for recreation.

5. Summer Service Programs:

(1) LISTEN (Mission Fund — student supported) contributed $250.00 toward the expenses of a Wake Forest University student who was a member of a team of students working in Israel, June 11-August 16, sponsored by the Foreign Mission Board's summer missions program; $300.00 toward the expenses of Apostoloi; and $900.00 toward expenses of the Folk Group and the Beach Ministry project.

(2) Apostoloi: A team of 4 students worked for 10 weeks in local churches in North Carolina. Eight of these weeks their efforts and energies were concentrated in the Carolina Association working with smaller churches with a ministry to youth through drama and music. A weekly youth rally was held for 7 weeks and also an association-wide "Jesus Rally" was held on the courthouse lawn.

(3) Beach Ministry: A team of 11 students and two chaplains (and their families) lived and worked at Morehead City during the summer, 1971. Living in the old parsonage of the First Baptist Church, Morehead City, the students did secular work to support themselves and participated in a ministry to people wherever and whenever needs were found. Students helped in the Koinonia House (coffee house), initiated a recreation program for Blacks in the community where they lived, maintained a "listening ministry" to service men and youth (especially youth involved with drugs), ministry to the "beach population," and ministry to youth and churches in the surrounding area. This work was done in cooperation with the Bogue Banks Ministry and the Resort Ministry of the Town and Country Department.

(4) Folk-Rock Group: "Rhymes with Reasons," a team of 5 students and a coordinator-director worked for 8 weeks traveling across North Carolina scheduling one-week engagements in resort areas, presenting concerts with music and personal testimony and relating to people in these resort areas. They made 108 singing appearances during the summer. This ministry was done in cooperation with the Resort Ministry of the Town and Country Department.

6. State Officers' Workshop: Met at Camp Caraway September 17-19, 1971, with approximately 90 students, chaplains and state department staff making broad plans for the coming year. Group awareness exercises, leadership and listening techniques, Bible centered discussion groups, committee meetings for planning, and worship comprised the week-end activities led by the state officers and chaplains. Osofo McDonald, Campus Minister, Durham Business College and pastor of the Northside Baptist Church of Durham; Dan Keels, Director of Student Affairs, Allied Health Programs of the N. C. Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem; and William H. Junker, National Student Ministries, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee, were special guests.

7. Fall Convention: Held November 5-7, 1971, at Camp Mundo Vista, Asheboro, students and leaders considered the theme Spiritual Revolution: Copout or Encounter." The purpose of this theme was to communicate Christianity in such a way as to lead persons into a personal encounter with Christ, to experience greater insight and enlightenment in what is happening within the spiritual revolution—to discover the reality of Christ. Leading were: Walker Knight, Editor of Home Missions, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Georgia; Lloyd E. Dees, United Campus Christian Minister, Raleigh; and Dr. Richard Humphrey, Department of Religion, Appalachian State University, Boone. Following the addresses students formed small groups for discussion and communication. A theme interpretation was presented by UNC-Chapel Hill, and choirs from A & T State University, Gardner-Webb College, and Mars Hill College participated during the week-end. A business session and worship were included in the program with approximately 300 students in attendance.

8. International Student Conference: Sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Union and the Department of Student Work, International and American students met at Chowan College November 24-28, 1971, with approximately 100 in attendance. Dr. C. C. Thomas, Chairman, Area of Religion-Philosophy, Fayetteville State University, Fayetteville; and Dr. Whit Marks, Chairman, Department of Physics, Central State University, Edmond, Oklahoma, were the featured speakers. Small group talk-back sessions, recreation, talent show and cultural sharing, and a tour of Colonial Williamsburg were included in the activities planned.

9. Student Publications:

(1) The Peddler — a newsletter, serves to facilitate communications between campuses on various aspects and concerns of BSU's.

III. OTHER ACTIVITIES AND EMPHASIS

1. On-to-College Emphasis
2. Student Night at Christmas
3. Mission Conferences
4. Student Conferences at Ridgecrest and Glorieta

IV. PERSONNEL

The Department of Student Work is grateful for the following people who help carry on the ministry to Baptist students in North Carolina for the school year 1971-72:

Country Departments

5. Church Music Department

JOSEPH O. STROUD, Director

The Church Music Department has had a fruitful year. Much emphasis has been placed on training the leadership, choirs, and congregation. Twenty-three schools and workshops have been conducted using the Department Director; Charles Gatwood, Associate; Phil Perrin, Summer Worker; as well as the Regional Music Directors and age group consultants appointed by the Department. These schools have been attended by 1,942 persons from 90 churches. The Department has assisted other churches and associations in planning schools and workshops.

Four weeks of study were promoted at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly and Fruitland Baptist Conference Center. They were well-attended. Plans are already being made for these conferences next summer.

There was a good response to the festival program with 7,252 singers participating in the 32 Regional Festivals. The two All-State Youth Choir Festivals had a total attendance of 215 Senior High singers. Also, the Department worked with the Division of Evangelism in planning and promoting YOUTH EVANGELISM NIGHT in Memorial Coliseum, Greensboro. A choir of approximately 3,500 young people was enlisted to lead the music. This was one of the highlights of the year with approximately 20,000 persons in attendance.

Many calls came during the year to assist churches in securing ministers of music, choir directors, and organists. There seems not to be enough trained musicians for these church vocations.

The Singing Churchmen, a male choral group made up of full-time ministers of music, now has an enrollment of 66 singers. This organization provides the minister of music an opportunity to sing with other professional musicians and to use his talent in performance. Charles Gatwood, Associate in the Department, is the capable director of this group.

The North Carolina Baptist Church Music Conference conducted its second annual meeting at Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly in April. It was well-attended and plans have already been made for the 1972 meeting. The Music Department is the sponsor of this organization, but the Conference elects its own officers and conducts its own business. It provides a fine opportunity for fellowship and training for the ministers of music and other church music leaders.

The year 1972 will bring other opportunities for helping the churches and their music leaders. Listed are the statewide events—February 14-17—Associational Music School, Theron Rankin Association

February 28-March 4—Regional Choir Festivals. Goal: 400 choirs participating

March 20-23—Associational Music School, Columbus Association

April 7-8—First Statewide Handbell Festival, Greensboro, First

April 15—State Children's Choir Festivals, Raleigh, Hayes Barton; Asheville, Calvary

April 17-19—North Carolina Church Music Conference, Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly

April 22—Youth Celebration, Reynolds Coliseum, Raleigh

April 29—Statewide Children's Choir Festivals, Greensboro, First; Charlotte, Pritchard Memorial

May 5-6—All-State Youth Choir Festival, Winston-Salem, First

June 12-17—Children's Choir Camp, Fruitland

June 19-24—Children's Choir Camp, Caswell

July 10-15—Children's Choir Camp, Fruitland

July 24-29—Youth-Adult Music Week, Caswell

Four Methods and Materials Clinics are being planned for September, 1972. These four one-night clinics will be held in strategic locations and will provide church music leaders instruction for Preschool, Children, Youth, and Adult music methods and materials. They are being planned to reach both the large and small churches.

The Church Music Department, now in its 17th year, is designed to serve North Carolina Baptists.

6. Church Building Planning Department

RICHARD D. SMITH, Director

Churches are building. A good number of the churches have accepted the challenge to build to meet the growing needs for more space for Bible Study, for Church Training, for more people and varied programs in Church Music, for better recreational programs, and for fellowship needs. For some churches the new building has taken care of only past or immediate needs. Others have been able to build for some future growth. In almost all communities there are many members of the church that have not been attending, as well as a host of lost and unaffiliated Baptists who need to be provided for.

Church records indicated that church property was valued at $398,643,435 in 1970. $13,710,234 was spent on new or improvement construction. This was about $1,000,000 more than in 1969. There are many indications that this figure will be even larger this year. According to the statistical records of the Church Architecture Department in Nashville, Tennessee 485 churches in North Carolina sought assistance from the denomination's architectural services. This is second only to Texas in the Southern Baptist Convention.

Financing a building program is always a major consideration. Some Savings and Loan Companies and some Banks are making church loans. More churches, however, are selling Bonds and finding that this is a successful program for financing a building. As long as all bonds sales are invested in a local bank by the church, until construction payments are required bond programs should prove reliable and safe. There are a good number of people across North Carolina who feel that Church Bonds are an excellent investment.

The Stewardship Commission has developed a new program of raising money before building begins. This program is entitled, "Let Us Build." This is an effort by the church, directed by a Consultant, to raise funds from the congregation. This is an effort to raise designated funds for a building program over and above the church budget needs. Nine churches in the Convention have already committed themselves to contribute over $600,000 to building funds in their churches. This is evidence of churches wanting to help themselves before going outside their church for loans. In most instances, every dollar committed to the building fund means two dollars they will not have to borrow.

Due to more state regulations many of our churches are now being required to use the services of architects or engineers. It is evident that any public building of more than 2,000 square feet, or costing over $20,000, has to have the services of a registered engineer, or a licensed architect. This law offers protection in providing structures that are sound, structures that are fireproof, and structures that can be used safely by all people. In past experiences, churches that have procured the services of a sympathetic architect find him willing and able to work with the church building committee. The architect has proven himself to be a real friend to the congregation and in many instances has not only provided a better building for the church, but has saved the church in quality and cost far more than the actual fee charged for his services. The Church Architecture Department of the Sunday School Board in Nashville is interested in providing for any Baptist church a floor-plan sketch which will provide for the program needs after the church has furnished necessary information concerning these needs.

Churches interested in building are encouraged to attend one of the two State Building Conferences held each year. One is conducted in Raleigh in April; the other, in October in the western part of the state. Exact dates and places are listed in the Baptist Diary.

Churches that anticipate building in the future need to start early in the planning of the building. Far more time is needed in planning than in actual construction of the building. The Church Building Planning Department is ready to assist the churches in planning to meet these future needs.

7. Brotherhood Department

J. EDWIN BULLOCK, Director

One of the most encouraging factors about the Brotherhood program in 1971 was the privilege of beginning the year with the news that in 1970 there had been a statistical increase. There were more new units in the churches and more men and boys involved in the churches' mission program than ever before. Admittedly, statistics tell only a part of the story, but attendance in training sessions, retreats, Royal Ambassador activities, camps, correspondence, and all other measures that reflect growth seem to indicate a renewed and progressing interest in the Brotherhood program. Another vital factor is that there is a consensus among our people that one of the greatest needs of churches today is the involving of the laity in the work of the church. More specifically, this consensus goes further in suggesting that the church must find new and creative ways of bearing a Christian witness outside of the actual church building and the normal program provided for those who will come to the church house. The objective of the church Brotherhood program complements this consensus and thus makes this the hour of greatest challenge for Brotherhood. More specifically, that objective is the enlistment of the men and boys of the churches in mission study and mission action.

NEW ROYAL AMBASSADORS DURING 1971

First, second, and third grade boys became Royal Ambassadors during 1971. These boys were previously in the Woman's Missionary Sunbeam program. Many of the churches used husband and wife team counselors for this new Royal Ambassador unit. Most of the churches which began this new group have given it enthusiastic endorsement. The curriculum materials have proven to be excellent, and it has been a fast growing group as was indicated by the overflow attendance at the first encampment for these boys and their fathers at Camp CaRAway during the first weekend in October. With this sort of endorsement many other churches will likely add this unit in 1972 thus bringing thousands of new boys into the Royal Ambassador program.

NEW STAFF MEMBER

After losing two staff members during the year the Department was very fortunate in securing Mr. David Langford, Education and Youth Director at Madison Avenue Church, Goldsboro, as a new member of the Department staff. David, a 1970 Southeastern Seminary graduate, had previous experience with the Department having directed the Camp CaRAway program for two summers during his college and seminary days. David's specific assignments with the Department will have to do with the development, promotion, and direction of the summer Royal Ambassador camps and the state-wide youth age (Pioneer) Royal Ambassador programs.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

The Department has made a special effort during this year to strengthen its associational leadership. Planning and training sessions were conducted for associational leadership in regional training sessions and in two state training sessions. Almost one hundred additional men were trained as Specialists in various aspects of the Brotherhood program. These men were used in conducting thirty associational workshops and ten Regional Leadership Training Courses. There were also state leadership training sessions. In these sessions specialized training was offered for Baptist Men's officers, Royal Ambassador counselors, Foreign and Home Mission Study teachers, State Mission speakers, team Evangelism leaders, inmate ministers, probation and parole ministers, etc. Staff members and approved workers also answered the calls of hundreds of churches that requested special assistance in planning and leadership training.

MISSION EMPHASIS MEETINGS

The year 1971 was still another record breaking year in terms of men and boys attending special mission emphasis meetings. The State Men and Boys' Convention scheduled for Winston-Salem in March had to be canceled because of snow. However, it was held in May, and there were approximately 4,000 in attendance. As many as 5,000 men and boys set record breaking attendance at the "See College Days" with the largest number of 2,800 being at the Wake Forest University Day. The third State Royal Ambassador Track Meet was also well attended and enjoyed by all. Increased interest in the camps and retreats in the fall and spring caused the Department to add two weekend Royal Ambassador camps and the second Family Camping Weekend. These were all well attended.

The Business and Professional Men's Retreat was held at Camp CaRAway in September. This retreat had its best attendance ever and there was a consensus that it should be held at CaRAway again next fall.

CAMPS AND ASSEMBLIES

World Missions Week was observed again at the N. C. Assembly with some 750 in attendance. There was a very good response to that program. The Department planned and conducted the program for the three boys' weeks at Truett Camp. That program went well and again there was a capacity attendance.

Camp CaRAway for Royal Ambassadors had its most exciting summer. There was a record breaking attendance of almost 1,400. The camp had an excellent staff and a well received summer program. One hundred and fifty boys made professions of faith and there were several hundred other decisions such as the call to preach, missions, etc. Men's groups from across the state supported a Department request to provide scholarships for boys that otherwise could not have attended. There were twenty-five such scholarships given. There is every evidence that the camp program is making a wonderful impression on the lives of thousands of boys.

NEW SWIMMING POOL, CABINS, AND LAYMEN'S LODGE

By a special vote of the General Board the Department was given permission to raise money for (1) new boys' camp cabins, (2) a boys' camp swimming pool, and (3) a laymen's retreat type lodge. The Board recommended that this be a low key type program asking men and boys across the state to support the effort by giving from $1 to $10. The pool and the cabins were constructed with the idea that the men could raise the necessary $42,000 this year for these. The lodge is to be constructed later when the $200,000 is raised for such a lodge. The swimming pool and cabins were used and enjoyed by the boys during a part of this summer's encampment.

BAPTIST MEN'S CORPS

The year 1971 was the first year of a Department mission action orientated program called Baptist Men's Corps. This volunteer group of men have sought and will continue to seek to demonstrate what men can do working together in mission action. During this past year these men conducted a Christian witness film ministry at the N. C. State Fair, helped construct cabins at the boys' camp, and assisted churches in a dozen lay emphasis revivals. This will be a growing segment of the Brotherhood program and these men will be working in these same and many other mission actions during this coming year.

OTHER APPROACHES

The Brotherhood Department staff is continually seeking ways to promote the intensity of mission learning and mission activity among men and boys. In so doing staff members not only have to assist the SBC Brotherhood Commission in preparing materials to aid church leadership but a significant amount of the informational and promotional type materials are prepared by the Department staff. One of the most helpful pieces prepared by the Department staff is the quarterly Department newsletter. This is generally packed with help and news of help for church leadership. Department staff members are also most always out speaking in the churches and presenting different types of programs which hopefully promote the cause of missionary education for men and boys.

These and other type programs are being planned for 1972 and there is the hope that there will even be a greater measure of success.

8. Woman's Missionary Union

Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention

MRS. GILMER CROSS, President

SARA ANN HOBBS, Executive Secretary

Since 1888 Woman's Missionary Union has been identified with a supportive role. This was not an accidental casting but the calculated design of her organizers. The supportive role is related to the church. It is related to associational, state, home, and foreign missions. WMU leaders and members are committed to assisting the church achieve its tasks in the areas of teaching missions, engaging in mission action and supporting world missions through praying and giving. Although the language, in which the purpose and program are stated, has changed in the 82 years since organization, the purpose has not changed.

In 2,505 churches throughout the state 138,856 women, girls and preschool children are enrolled in WMU organizations.

To TEACH MISSIONS Woman's Missionary Union's periodicals offer regular study material. A home and foreign mission graded series of books are prepared annually by the respective Board for study by church groups. Woman's Missionary Union carries major responsibility for the planning and conducting these studies. Teaching missions is a church responsibility which by Convention assignment has been given to Woman's Missionary Union and the Brotherhood. Organizational patterns have been designed to give maximum exposure to missions information on the learning level of the member involved.

Special meetings featuring missions information to supplement the regular study program of WMU attracted approximately 5,615 WMU members. They are listed chronologically below:

Annual Session, Cumberland County Memorial Auditorium, Fayetteville, March 16-18—2,500

Day Camp Workshop, Mundo Vista, April 2-3—48

Mission Action Workshop, First Baptist Church, Lexington, April 17—245

Baptist Women Retreat, Mundo Vista, May 14-15—186

Baptist Women Retreat, Mundo Vista, May 21-23—108

World Missions Week, Caswell, June 14-19—500

Young Marrieds' Retreat, Mundo Vista, June 19-20—38

Acteens Camps (5 weeks), Mundo Vista, June 14-July 16—950

Girls in Action Camps (5 weeks), Mundo Vista, July 19-August 20—1,040

To SUPPORT WORLD MISSIONS THROUGH PRAYING Woman's Missionary Union reaches beyond the church locale through the observance of Baptist Women's Day of Prayer, the Season of Prayer for State Missions, the Week of Prayer for Home Missions and the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions. In North Carolina there is an additional prayer emphasis in the Week of Prayer for Associational Missions. These observances are designed to inform of need, induce response to needs and offer positive stewardship action to alleviate need. Thus a woman or young person studies materials presented in the periodical for her age group, involves herself in the prayer period, and gives to the respective special offering. The observance loses its impact if any portion is omitted.

Woman's Missionary Union suggests that the Baptist Women's Day of Prayer (a worldwide prayer emphasis of the Women's Department of the Baptist World Alliance) be interracial. Leadership of Black and White churches are urged to work together in making this a meaningful experience as they undergird their Baptist counterparts in all countries of the world.

The Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions in December and the Week of Prayer for Home Missions in March are observed church-wide by more and more churches. Woman's Missionary Union bears primary responsibility for planning and conducting these observances. A week-long prayer concentration on a particular area of mission work is the desired result of these weeks. Hearts are thereby prepared for generous giving to the offerings which are a part of these observances. Therefore, Woman's Missionary Union strongly promotes separate seasons and weeks of prayer for each of these.

In logical sequence SUPPORTING WORLD MISSIONS THROUGH GIVING follows these prayer periods. As tangible evidence of support for foreign missions the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering is taken. Last year in North Carolina the goal was $1,675,000 and the amount received $1,762,043. This was $87,000 beyond the goal and $119,265 more than the 1969 offering.

The goal for the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering taken as a part of the Week of Prayer for Home Missions was $460,000, the amount received by August 31 $500,624. Books close on this offering on December 31.

These two over-the-goal offerings are tacit testimony to the power of the prayer-stewardship combination, therefore, Woman's Missionary Union encourages each church to plan the full five-day observance of the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions with the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering taken as a part of it, and a five-day observance of the Week of Prayer for Home Missions with the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering taken as a part of it.

Camps, conferences, retreats and leadership institutes of Woman's Missionary Union are financed through the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering for WMU Promotion. Since 1967 an additional project, the building of Camp Mundo Vista, has been financed through this offering. A two-year program, entitled "Operation Payoff," was initiated to repay Wachovia Bank and Trust Company the total amount of $250,000 borrowed for construction.

The 1970 offering amounted to $73,027 and, although it represented an increase of $26,053 over the previous year, missed the goal of $1 per WMU member by approximately $65,773. Operation Payoff continues through 1971, the goal again being $1 per WMU member.

AREAS OF CONCERN

From April 1970 to July 1971 only one native North Carolinian was appointed as a career missionary by either the Home or Foreign Mission Board. Pastors as they preach and WMU leaders in the age-level organizations must present needs and seek to bring members to the point of commitment of their lives to alleviate these needs.

Woman's Missionary Union lost in membership again. The support and advice of pastors is needed to enlist the unenlisted and re-enlist the "dropouts." The pastor's enthusiastic support of mission study, mission action and mission prayer is essential for a growing, ministering Woman's Missionary Union.

In summary, through the years Woman's Missionary Union has drawn her purpose from the church's responsibility to a lost world. She is the organization out of which missions personnel should come. She is the organization through which church members should face their responsibility to back up missionaries with their gifts and prayers. She is the organization out of which women and youth should go to minister in the name of Christ in areas of special need and to people of special need. She replaces no other organization and competes with none. Her own success is measured in terms of the effectiveness of Southern Baptist missions throughout the 76 countries of the world. She is like the Biblical grain of wheat which, in her finest hour, dies to her own needs but lives in the heart of every person who believes in Christ through the work of Southern Baptist missionaries around the world.

9. Department of Camps and Retreats

B. W. JACKSON, Director

The work of this department has consisted mainly of managing Camps CaRAway and Mundo Vista, providing food services for the camps, and scheduling and providing food for off-season use of the camps.

The ten weeks of Royal Ambassador camps were attended by more than 1,300 campers. Off-season meetings, consisting of youth groups, deacon retreats, college groups, and various leadership meetings will bring about 5,000 additional people to the camp during the year. The camp has operated all except two weekends during the year and has had an increasing number of weekday schedules.

Through the efforts of the Brotherhood Department two major improvements were started. A beautiful and adequate swimming pool was constructed in time to be used for the last four weeks of Royal Ambassador camps. A four cabin-lodge type building was begun and used during the summer, even though the building is incomplete. The building, a winterized facility, will sleep and provide meeting places for seventy-six people, when completed.

Plans for the addition of a part-time secretary in 1972 will improve the quality of the service offered.

10. The North Carolina Baptist Assembly

FRED J. SMITH, Director

The attendance record for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly has increased each year, with this year being the largest. 13,911 people attended during the year. The purpose of the Assembly is to serve the Baptist people over the state and it is gratifying to know that the people are making such fine use of it.

The Lantana Lodge, which was remodeled at the beginning of the year, has added greatly to the comfort of the people who stayed there. The purpose of the Lodge is to serve as a place for meetings, conferences, etc., with banquet facilities all year round.

The plans for the coming year include: finishing the camp site; repairing all the buildings; and working on the grounds beautification.

The 1972 schedule is as follows:

June 12-16, Youth Ministries—Evangelism, Vocational Guidance, Church Recreation

June 19-23, Children's Choir Camp

June 26-30, Church Training Week

July 3-7, Youth Bible Conference

July 10-14, World Missions Week

July 17-21, Church Training Week

July 24-28, Youth and Adult Music Week

July 31-Aug. 4, Youth Conference

August 7-11, Youth Conference

August 14-18, Vacation Week

Anyone who desires information about the facilities or wishes to make reservations should write to Mr. Fred J. Smith, Manager, North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Southport, N. C. 28461 (Telephone 919-278-5495).

11. The Department of Stewardship

HAROLD M. WHITE, Director

This has been a year of change for the Department of Stewardship. The change has not been in emphasis but rather in organizational structure. Following approval by the General Board, the Division of Stewardship Promotion has been discontinued and this department is now in the Division of Church Programs under the direction of Nathan C. Brooks, Jr. The 1972 budget will reflect the change.

The Department of Stewardship serves churches and associations by assisting them in stewardship education and budget promotion. The latest stewardship and church finance techniques, methods and materials are used to enable churches and associations to increase their budgets and to find larger financial resources to meet local and world missions needs. By conviction and design the stewardship materials and methods which are used are created to develop Christian stewards first and to raise money second.

Conferences and training sessions in the Forward Program, Growth in Christian Stewardship, Tithers' Enrollment Week and Weekend Stewardship Revivals are the primary channels through which assistance is given.

In addition to promoting stewardship through associational workshops and training sessions in local churches, personnel has been engaged in conferences with local leadership and stewardship sermons in churches and associational meetings.

The staff has worked closely with the General Board's Committee on Stewardship, The Stewardship Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, and has cooperated with other staff members in the development of a total stewardship program.

A continuing goal in 1972 will be to encourage more churches to elect a church stewardship chairman. A new planning guide has been developed and is available from the office to help the church stewardship chairman plan a balanced program of stewardship enlistment in the local church.

To assist churches in determining their tithe potential, information has been furnished on the per household gross income for every county in North Carolina and for cities above 10,000 in population. Free stewardship tracts and pamphlets are also available from the office upon request.

This department is ably assisted by E. Cleve Wilkie, Kinston, Associate in Field Promotion and Mrs. Dorothy Smith, office secretary.

Last year Mr. Wilkie travelled in excess of 25,000 miles and spoke at least once in 102 churches, and multiple times in several of them in various week-long programs, making a total of over 225 sermons and addresses. Twenty-four other church related meetings were attended in such places as restaurants and cafeterias, with participation in most of them. Also, contacts were made with over 200 pastors and church leaders.

F. COUNCIL ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

This report summarizes the activities of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs for 1971 and presents to you for your consideration and action at least three recommendations pertinent to the Baptists of North Carolina. It will also give you an idea of what we have scheduled for 1972 as well as the direction in which our Council hopes to move in the years just ahead.

Pamphlets Published

Perhaps most significant among the accomplishments of the Council was the publication of two complete pamphlets which will be of help to both our churches and institutions. The first was "The Church's Ministry to Youth Facing Military Service." This publication was in response to an earlier instruction of the Baptist State Convention. It should be of great value to the youth who face military service, their parents, and the pastors and other leaders in our churches and institutions who counsel with both youth and parents.

We have already started distribution of this pamphlet to pastors and institutional leaders. A broader distribution is planned to insure that everyone with an interest will have a copy available. This pamphlet, along with others, is available at the Council booth in the Exhibit Hall. We commend the booth to you as being worth your attention and a visit.

Another pamphlet issued, and actually the first in chronological order, was "The Church's Ministry to Families." It was appropriate that we led off with this publication since our special emphasis this year and next year will be on Family Life. Our purpose in pamphlet and later programs is to strengthen family life in face of social transitions and the weighty pressures and tests of these times.

Other study papers which have been prepared but are not yet ready for publication as a formal pamphlet include one entitled "What Can the Church Do To Strengthen Family Life." Another is "Preparing Young People for Marriage."

Family Life Conferences

As an important part of our emphasis on the family during 1971 and 1972, a series of eight Family Life Conferences has been scheduled for 1972, beginning in April. Refer to your Baptist Diary for the date in your area of the state. These will be one-day conferences designed to provide you and your church with inspiration and guidance for family life emphasis on the individual church level. You will be reading a special series of articles in the Biblical Recorder on family life preliminary to the conferences.

We have also studied and written in the areas of drug abuse, pornography, ecology, alcohol's influence on family life, public education, and the growth of a leisure-oriented society as it replaces a work-oriented society.

Work-Oriented Versus Leisure Society

With regard to the last topic above, Dr. Stewart Newman provided the Council with a provocative theme and a thought that will get further Council attention as we try to develop church programs that meet the contemporary problems of all Baptists. Christianity has a traditional association with the "work ethic." We are turning from a work-oriented society to a leisure-oriented one. We face the fact of industrial sophistication whereby we get increasingly greater production for less work, hence our leisure times will be extended. We already feel the long weekend, idle time, and vacation virus in our church programs. The Christian in western culture has not known the rigors of authentic Christian morality under conditions of leisure. As urbanization and industrialization continue, more and more of our congregations will feel the effect of a leisure-oriented society on both attendance and active participation in church programs. This is especially evident already in urban and industrial areas of our state.

The dangers to our church life in a leisure-prone society are subtle and virtually invisible. Our churches are challenged to meet more closely than ever the needs of individuals and families within the scope of our ministry.

We need to provide a more equitable balance between our evangelistic and social concerns. We need to contribute a more convincing idea of the stewardship of vocation. We need to restudy our role in the social complex if we are to meet the physical and spiritual needs of the leisure society.

It just may be that the provisions to the individual of an altar of worship, an efficient program of instruction, and a humane perspective may be the area of greatest service by the church in the 21st century.

Public Education

Almost every community in our state, in the past several years, has experienced a period of rapid social change in human relations and cultural patterns most evidenced in a shift from a segregated to a desegregated public school system. The orderly manner in which this change is being accomplished throughout the state is attributed both to the wise and responsible leadership of our public school officials and to the basic good will of the citizenry. This effort to achieve a unitary system of public school education without regard to race, color, or creed has sharpened, however, the need for more progress in human relations and better communications among the various segments of our society. Our churches have not been separate and apart from this time of change in the past and can never be isolated from the changes that will continue to occur all around us.

Since our public schools have become the focus of the social changes sweeping our state and nation, public school personnel have been placed in unprecedented roles as initiators of social change and reconciliation. When the battles were over and the court decisions were handed down, it was still the responsibility of local school systems to effect the changes. The demand for qualified and sensitive public school personnel has thus increased in a time when these traditional vocations have become less desirable. Christians should be concerned with this development and become involved in ways that will strengthen our schools and improve the quality of our public school education.

It is regrettable that within ten years (1961-1971) the general fund appropriations in our state for public schools have dropped from 59.29% to 49.40%. This trend has taken place in a time of increasing burdens being placed on our schools. If this trend is continued, it will result in less qualified persons being placed in these strategic roles of social reconciliation. It becomes obvious that making public school education a top priority in our state is not only the best investment for a future of prosperity but also the best investment for a future of peace and understanding. Members of churches are called upon to urge state government to recognize the needs of our public schools and to give them top priority in its financial planning. The principle of separation of church and state has been a hallmark of American democracy. In order for this principle to continue as a reality, it must be respected by both church and state. The education of the public has traditionally been designated as a function of government. Whenever the establishment of private schools weakens the public school system, the state has been hindered in performing its function. One observes with regret a number of communities across the state where private schools have been established with the apparent goal of retaining racial segregation and thus failing to comply with the law of the land as to its intent. The name "Christian" has been attached to some of these private schools. Christians should oppose the use of such designations since their faith knows nothing of racial discrimination and narrow sectarianism. If leaders of such private schools are concerned to offer education to the public from a Christian perspective, let them demonstrate their Christianity by opening such schools to all racial groups.

Concerned Christians are urged to support the government as it seeks to accomplish its function of educating the public. Whenever changes are deemed necessary, it becomes the duty of Christian citizens to follow the normal channels for effecting such change.

Recommendations

In view of this report the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs makes the following recommendations to the Baptist State Convention:

1. That the Baptist State Convention commend the public school teachers and administrators of North Carolina in their efforts to maintain a strong public school system in very trying and difficult conditions.
2. That North Carolina Baptist Churches be cautioned against starting private schools at this time with the stated or unstated purpose of circumventing the laws of the land.

Resolution on Pastors Losing Pastorates

The 1970 Baptist State Convention referred to the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs a resolution concerning pastors who lose their pastorates. This resolution has been considered in great depth at several meetings of the Council and its committees. Dr. John Wayland, a member of the Council, will present the recommendation of the Council in this regard.

A SUBSTITUTE RESOLUTION ON PASTOR-CHURCH RELATIONSHIPS

WHEREAS, a broken relationship between pastor and church does immeasurable harm to both parties and the Kingdom of God at large, and

WHEREAS, unfortunately, many of our churches and pastors are experiencing strained and disruptive relations.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina respectfully request that all pastors and churches make a special effort during these unsettled times to increase mutual understanding, appreciative concern, and loving care of church for pastor and pastor for church:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the following steps be taken to alleviate the problem and to improve church-pastor relationships:

1. That churches calling a new pastor strongly recommend to their Pulpit Committees the reading of material designed to help them in the carrying out of their very important and vital duties, such as "When a Church is Seeking a Pastor," by Garland Hendricks, and Your Work on the Pulpit Committee, by Leonard Hill. Such preparation for a very difficult and most important task would prevent most of the careless and uninformed calling of a pastor—the main reason for poor relationships.

2. That a pamphlet be prepared by the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs on improving pastor-church relationships, giving guidelines and suggestions as to the roles to be played by the pastor and the church in their working together for Christ and His Kingdom:

3. That the Convention suggest to the churches that a personnel committee be elected by the church made up of respected and faithful Christians committed to the effort of keeping their pastor-church relationships healthy;

4. That meetings of Associations, Pastors' Conferences, and the State Convention feature from time to time addresses or reports on church and pastor roles and relationships;

5. That when relations between pastor and people seem strained, that they seek help and advice from leaders of sister churches or of the denomination, acceptable to both parties;

6. That if the termination of the pastor-church relationship is deemed inevitable that the following steps be agreed upon:

(a) that the office of the Administrative Assistant to the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention be asked by the pastor for help in his re-location,

(b) that the pastor offer his resignation to the church to take effect in three to six months, as seems best for the church, with the privilege of termination of the pastorate at any time he is called to other service,

(c) that the church promise to pay his salary for at least three months and perhaps as much as six months, or until he leaves for other gainful employment, whichever is shorter,

(d) that the question of his continuing in active service during the intervening months be determined largely by what seems best for the church; and

7. That the editor of the Biblical Recorder and editors of publications of the several church program organizations (Sunday School, Church Training, Brotherhood, WMU) be asked to write articles designed to promote better church-pastor relationships, so that understanding and appreciation will pervade the minds and hearts of our people, and the Holy Spirit will have a willing and intelligent people ready to follow His leadership in promoting prosperity and health in the churches. (The article entitled "The Parish Ministry,

A Plea for Help," The Baptist Program, August, 1971, is an excellent example of such material.)

Resolution Concerning Mr. Ed Brandon

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs has been most fortunate to have Mr. Ed Brandon as the first chairman. This able and dedicated layman has served very effectively for three years.

At the meeting of the Council on September 16, 1971, it was noted that Mr. Brandon's term on the General Board would expire at the end of this year. The Council directed that a vote of genuine appreciation be made a part of this year's report to the Convention.

Mr. Brandon has given many hours to the work of the Council. He has attended national conferences sponsored by the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs and by the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. He has, through attendance at these meetings and by means of study, thought, and reading, succeeded to a remarkable degree in becoming acquainted with issues and developments affecting the Council's work. It is with genuine gratitude to God and to this devoted leader that we take note of the ministry of the retiring chairman, W. E. Brandon.

G. COUNCIL ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

R. F. SMITH, JR., President

T. ROBERT MULLINAX, Executive Secretary

ENROLLMENT

The following enrollments in the North Carolina Baptist colleges and university were reported as of September 22, 1971, by the college registrars:

Campbell College	2,401
Chowan College	1,547
Gardner-Webb College	1,451
Mars Hill College.....	1,494
Meredith College	1,368
Wake Forest University.....	3,734
Wingate College	1,711

Total 13,706

COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP

The Council on Christian Higher Education encourages and coordinates the institutional cooperation of the seven North Carolina Baptist colleges. Begun twenty-six years ago, the Council is one of the oldest educational cooperatives in the United States. Council membership is made up of the presidents, deans, and chairmen of boards of trustees of the colleges, and sixteen members of the General Board's Committee on Christian Higher Education. Ex officio members of the Council are Dr. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention; Dr. John Lawrence, President of the Baptist State Convention; Dr. James Cammack, President of the General Board; and Mrs. Gilmer Cross, President of the State Woman's Missionary Union. The Council meets in January, June, and October of each year.

The following new members were elected from the General Board to the Council membership last year: R. Lewis Beal, Rexford R. Campbell, Charles B. Deane, Jr., Thomas M. Freeman, Mrs. W. K. McGee, Henry Morgan, Maurice Pickler, and Ernest P. Russell.

NEW EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

On March 1, 1971, T. Robert Mullinax assumed the duties of executive secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education. A graduate of Gardner-Webb College, Wake Forest University, and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Mr. Mullinax had served as pastor of the First Baptist Churches of St. Pauls, Cary, and Laurinburg, N. C. He follows the able leadership of three men who previously served as executive secretary of the Council: Mr. Claude F. Gaddy, Dr. A. Harold Cole, and Dr. Ben C. Fisher.

MEREDITH PRESIDENT RESIGNS

Dr. E. Bruce Heilman, president of Meredith College since 1966, has accepted the presidency of the University of Richmond. Dr. Heilman's administration at Meredith was marked by progress and growth, and a deep sense of involvement with our Baptist people. The University of Richmond is to be commended upon their selection of a new president. Appropriate recognition of the services of Dr. Heilman were given by the college presidents in May, and by the full Council in June. Dr. C. Allen Burris, Academic Dean of Meredith, has been appointed acting president until a new president is secured.

BAPTIST COLLEGE DAY

The Baptist College Day theme for 1971 was "Christian Education: Seedbed for Community Leadership." The contribution of our colleges to strong lay leadership in all walks of life was emphasized. The following quotation from the Baptist Education Study Task appeared on the bulletin inserts that were distributed in many North Carolina churches on Baptist College Day:

"1. Christian higher education is a vital aspect of the Christian witness which has been generally accepted by Southern Baptists. This conviction is reflected in the following statement: 'The cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is coordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.'

"2. The privately supported higher institutions of learning enjoy certain freedom in their search for and interpretation of truth that are not universally enjoyed by public colleges and universities. This is not to say that church-related colleges are free from pressure at the hands of the supporting religious body. Because a private institution is usually free to determine its own processes in teaching and research, it serves in some degree as a bulwark against undue pressures and influences that tend to limit the search for knowledge and truth. It is vital to the life and witness of Southern Baptist colleges to continue this freedom from undue pressures either from church or state or other groups.

"3. As conceived by Baptists, the truth for which we search and with which we deal is a revelation from God. Christian education consists of the search for any and all truth with the conviction that the author and revealer of truth is God as He has made Himself known supremely through Jesus Christ. Christian education differs little from any other type of higher education except in terms of that commitment and its implications.

"4. In view of the commitment by Baptists to promote the Christian message through effective witnessing, Christian education is not an optional interest of the church, but an important function of its mission. Baptists have established and they continue to support colleges because the colleges share with the church in the ultimate purpose of the redemptive plan of God for mankind.

Because no effective substitute has been found for the genuinely Christian college, Baptists must continue to nurture and support adequately their Christian institutions of higher learning."

DEPARTMENTAL FACULTY MEETINGS

Once every two years all of the teachers in the same discipline in the North Carolina Baptist colleges are brought together for two days of personal and professional sharing on one of the campuses. These meetings create understanding, encourage communication among the faculties, and are characterized by professional excellence.

BAPTIST YOUTH CORPS

The Baptist Youth Corps is a joint venture between the Baptist colleges and the Church Training Department. The interest remains high among the students and the response is enthusiastic among the churches. Through this program churches may apply for a trained young person from one of the colleges to serve under the pastor's direction during the summer months. The total cost is shared by the colleges, the Church Training Department, and the local church. This year there were fifty-seven young persons serving as Youth Corps workers. An increase of up to seventy has been approved for 1972.

Baptist college students are eager to serve in places of vital ministry in local churches and in denominational programs. Many invest their lives in Summer Assemblies, Brotherhood Department, Woman's Missionary Union, Vacation Bible Schools, Audio Visual Aids, Department of Work with the Deaf, Town and Country Department, and Interracial Cooperation Department.

NATIONAL CRISIS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

The Carnegie Commission on Higher Education reports that more than 1,500 colleges and universities, two-thirds of our public and private institutions, are in financial difficulty, or are headed for financial trouble. Increased costs of operation have far exceeded the normal cost of living increase and have not been offset by increased income from foundations, sponsoring bodies, and individual donations. Fortunately, none of our colleges has been forced to operate at a deficit thus far. This is eloquent testimony to the efficiency which the presidents and financial officers employ in the administration of the total life of these institutions. There is unanimous agreement among the Baptist college presidents that the contribution of Baptists through the Cooperative Program continues to make it possible for them to operate the schools within their income. There is now a pressing need to increase the level of denominational support for the North Carolina Baptist colleges.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM PARTICIPATION

During this year the seven North Carolina Baptist colleges joined the Social Service institutions, at the request of the General Secretary-Treasurer, in special support of the Cooperative Program. Funds totaling $30,000 were made available by these institutions for special promotion of the Cooperative Program. In addition, each institution agreed to engage actively in the encouragement of individual churches to increase Cooperative Program giving. This cooperation was given willingly and enthusiastically, and underscores the spirit of cooperation which continues to exist between the Convention and the institutions. The colleges recognize the Cooperative Program as the one essential source of annual income which enables them to continue their Baptist witness through higher education.

1. Campbell College

NORMAN A. WIGGINS, President of the College

Campbell College began her eighty-fifth year on August 23, 1971. The total student enrollment for the fall term of the 1971-1972 academic year was 2,401. Represented in the student body were 13 foreign countries, thirty-two states, and seventy-eight North Carolina counties. Of the total enrollment 1,568 were men students and 843 were women. We are pleased to report that the enrollment was up 194 from the previous year.

The auditors' report for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1971 showed a total gross operating income of $5,246,462.85, with a net operating income of $3,874,954.16. With complete cooperation from all members of the college family, we came through the year in the black with the budget balanced. This was done, we think, without impairment of the quality of our educational programs. In the midst of the many difficulties now facing private education we are encouraged by the support and benevolence of our many friends. For restricted capital purposes during the fiscal year 1970-1971, not including the all-important support we received from the North Carolina Baptist State Convention and not including National Defense Student Loan Funds, Campbell College received in gifts from alumni, industry, foundations, individual friends, and other sources the sum of $1,521,000. Financially speaking, this was the best year in the history of the College. We are daily continuing our efforts to upgrade our business management procedures to insure a healthy financial position. Present assets of the College at book value total $15,265,000. The College employs 461 full-time employees with 361 student assistants. The annual payroll is in excess of $3,000,000.

In addition to her financial programs, we are thankful and humble in saying that we feel that as a fine Christian college Campbell College continues to make substantial progress in her academic programs. During this fiscal year a visiting accreditation committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools came to our campus to study the quality of our work after ten years of operation as a senior college. As a result of our follow-up self-study and the visit by the visiting committee, at their annual meeting held in December, 1970, the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools gave Campbell College a good report and reaffirmed her full accreditation. This means that we have successfully operated as a senior college for the past ten years. During the past year Campbell College added a computer science educational department under the direction of Professor Vernon Jones. In addition to the computer science educational program, the 1130 IBM Computer now in use at the College is being used for all data processing, and we are in the process of transferring to the computer many other administrative programs and functions. Campbell takes her place as the center of cultural activities in the County of Harnett. Through her professors, ministers, students and administrators, she continues to contribute many services to the community and state by providing programs for churches, outstanding musical concerts, and theater productions for the area. The college family also assists civic groups, clubs and other organizations.

We continue our efforts to raise funds for use in the construction of a classroom building to replace the religion building that was destroyed by fire in 1968. There is immediate need for a fine arts building. In physical education a field house-swimming pool is being planned to become a part of the much-needed athletic complex that we hope to build in the near future. Through a cooperative effort with Harnett County the College has under construction a waste water treatment plant designed to meet the needs of the College and the community for the next twenty-five years. The College also has under construction a 301-capacity men's residence hall designed to replace obsolete residence hall facilities. In addition, sixteen three-bedroom faculty apartments are under construction.

On the day prior to Thanksgiving, Campbell College, the State of North Carolina, and our Nation, lost an outstanding educator in the death of Dr. Leslie Hartwell Campbell who served our college for almost a lifetime. For thirty-four years he served as President, and during this time our college experienced unprecedented growth. Like his father and others before him, Dr. Campbell believed that one should commit his life to Christian service and his service was Campbell. His accomplishments are an inspiration to all of us.

On August 25, 1971, we were saddened by the death of Mr. J. Paul Hatley of Raleigh. The passing of this honored trustee, Christian gentleman, and generous benefactor, brought grief to the entire Campbell College family. During the year the College was greatly saddened by the untimely passing of a loyal and devoted member of her staff, Mr. Herbert Ingle, who served as assistant librarian from September, 1963 to his death on May 10, 1971.

Campbell College is acutely aware of the importance to her survival and well-being of the financial support being received through the Cooperative Program, and acknowledges this generous support with deep appreciation to all North Carolina Baptists. We believe that in these times the Christian college is more needed than ever before and that North Carolina Baptists should take great pride in their investment in seven fine Baptist colleges. The College desires to be always in the will of God and solicits the prayers of the churches and each North Carolina Baptist.

2. Chowan College

M. E. VALENTINE, SR., Chairman, Board of Trustees

BRUCE E. WHITAKER, President

Chowan College began her 124th year of service as an institution of Christian higher education in August 1971, with an enrollment as follows: 551 sophomores, 949 freshmen or transfer students, 15 enrolled in the final phase of the 33-month nursing program at Duke University, 2 medical secretarial interns, and 28 "special" students (enrolled for less than 12 hours of college credit work). Thus, the total enrollment is 1,545, with a full-time equivalency enrollment of 1,533.

Serving the student body is a highly-qualified faculty-staff of 102 persons, excluding secretarial assistants, residence hall counselors, and maintenance personnel. Of this number, 83 are teaching faculty: 70 full-time; 13, part-time. One additional professor has been employed in the Department of Fine Arts for the academic year 1971-72, with all additional faculty members being replacements for either those who have resigned their positions with the college, or who are on leaves-of-absence to pursue further graduate study.

The academic year 1970-71 witnessed the up-dating of Chowan's "Master Plan," designed as a guide for the orderly and purposeful growth of the campus complex over the next 10-20 years, both in terms of physical plant and curricular offerings. The Master Plan anticipates the immediate strengthening of facilities (physical and curricular) in terms of providing for an enrollment of approximately 1,500 over the next few years. This Master Plan—drawn up by an ad hoc committee composed of members of the Board of Trustees, members of the Board of Advisors, members of the faculty-staff, students, and alumni—was approved at a joint meeting of the Board of Trustees and Board of Advisors on September 27, 1971.

The College entered a one-million-dollar development campaign in early autumn for purposes of underwriting the cost of construction of a much-needed science-engineering facility. It is anticipated that this building will cost approximately $1,500,000, furnished. It will replace the outmoded science facilities in Green Hall, which was constructed in 1956, and designed to serve a student body of 300-400. While it is understood that the College will not solicit funds through or from the local churches, the attention of individual Baptists throughout the State is called to this urgently needed facility. It is hoped that construction on the project can commence not later than January 1972.

The indebtedness of Chowan College as of May 31, 1971 stood as follows:

1.	12/1/59	$235,000.00	3 1/8 %	East Hall (Men's Dorm, 118 beds) ..	$ 198,000.00

In the first three instances, loans were made from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, covering a 40-year period and carrying interest charges indicated. Each is self-liquidating. In the fourth instance, the loan was from the U. S. Office of Education. In the sixth instance, the loan was from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, for purposes of constructing a new 280-bed dormitory for men. The loan for additional land is by arrangement with the original owner who, for tax purposes, would not agree to be paid other than over a period of approximately 12 years; approximately 115 acres immediately adjacent to the main campus is involved. Moreover, by actions of the 1968 and 1969 Conventions, Chowan has been granted permission to borrow up to $950,000.00 for purposes of constructing a new science-engineering facility which is expected to cost approximately $1,500,000.00 equipped.

The College continues to explore ways of providing maximum service to the Baptists of North Carolina within the context of its purpose and abilities as an institution of Christian higher education. Letters were sent in early October to all pastors of Baptist churches affiliated with the Baptist State Convention (as per the roster of pastors in the 1970 annual), urging the opportunities of Chowan College to the young people of their churches and communities, and asking aid in recruiting North Carolina Baptists. The Baptist Student Union at Chowan maintains youth revival teams which are anxious to assist the churches in weekend revival emphases. The Office of College Relations operates a Speaker's Bureau, whereby individuals from the College can appear before church or civic groups. This year Chowan is working closely with the Division of Stewardship Promotion of the Baptist State Convention in urging the claims of the Co-operative Program to greater financial support among all the churches of the Convention.

"Chowan College-Mission Possible!" is the theme of the current development campaign at Chowan. That theme, however, expresses more than the immediate goals of a development project. It is expressive of the attitude and outlook of the entire campus community towards its total mission as an institution of Christian higher education. An optimistic outlook on the future, hard work on the part of a dedicated college community, and the continued support of Baptists throughout North Carolina enable us to realize — to effect — that mission in the lives of numbers of youth who begin their higher educational venture at Chowan College.

3. Gardner-Webb College

LLOYD C. BOST, Chairman, Board of Trustees

E. EUGENE POSTON, President of the College

Gardner-Webb College granted her first Baccalaureate Degrees in May of 1971. There were 242 of them. Seventy-three more Baccalaureate Degrees were awarded in August of 1971. A total of 37 Associate in Arts Degrees were also awarded in May and August of 1971. Even though the college has reached senior status two-year programs are still available in Business and Nursing.

The 65th year of operation is already underway. A student body of 1451 is being taught by 89 faculty members. This is a ratio of 16 to 1. Thirty-two of these faculty members have the earned doctorate. Six other faculty members are on leave of absence working on their doctorates.

The 1970-71 campaign to raise $1,500,000 has surpassed the goal and has reached a total of $2,200,000. The trustees and the administration are continuing the campaign to reach a challenge goal of $3,500,000.

The college is making valuable use of her IBM 1130 Computer. A four-year major is being offered in Computer Science. At the same time internal programs are being put into the Computer regularly. Gardner-Webb College is primarily a liberal arts school. The wide range of majors include: the Bachelor of Arts degree to students majoring in Biblical Languages, English, French, History, Music, Religion, Religious Education, Social Science, Spanish, and Theatre Arts; and the Bachelor of Science degree to students majoring in Biology, Business Administration, Data Processing, Early Childhood Education, General Science, Health Education and Physical Education, Intermediate Education, Mathematics, and Psychology.

The college is happy that the number of ministerial students and other church-related vocational majors are on the increase. There are 121 ministerial students and 74 other full-time church-related majors enrolled during the present term. One of the great needs is an adequate financial aid program for these students. The fellowship of Christians United in Service and the Christian Service Foundation made up of students, faculty, and administration, are making progress on a student aid program.

The Dover Memorial Library has 57,270 volumes and a new building is in the planning stages. Construction should start this year. The J. R. Dover, Jr. Memorial Chapel is under construction, and should be finished by the spring of 1972. Plans are being developed for an addition to the Webb Administration Building and for a new dormitory to be named in memory of Mr. Hubert Maxton Craig, Sr. There is a definite need for an auditorium-arena to meet the needs of an expanding physical education department, athletics, and convocations.

The Gardner-Webb College Endowment increased by $98,000. The Endowment portfolio is valued at $2,163,000 (including an irrevocable trust). The physical plant value is now $8,800,000. As of June 30, 1971, Gardner-Webb College owed a debt of $879,846 to the First Union National Bank of Charlotte, North Carolina. This is being amortized at the rate of $11,000 per month plus interest.

Gardner-Webb College is proud to be a part of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. We realize that the Cooperative Program is the lifeline for Christian Education, missions, and evangelism, and all the other work of Baptists. We pledge to support the Baptist cause throughout North Carolina, the Southern Baptist Convention, and the Baptist World Alliance. It is our desire to help every Baptist within the range of our ability.

Gardner-Webb's purpose is clear and concise: "To develop quality Christian students who will think for themselves and who will dedicate themselves to the Christian way of life in the vocation of their own choice." We shall strive to fulfill this purpose in every phase of the life of the college.

4. Mars Hill College

CECIL LEE PORTER, Chairman, Board of Trustees

FRED B. BENTLEY, President

This year 1970-71 at Mars Hill College was filled with evaluation and restructuring to provide for us the base for a new emphasis within the College curriculum and auxiliary programs. Our cumulative enrollment for the academic year was 1,587 students, with a fall enrollment of 1,494 students of whom 691 were women and 803 were men. One of the real encouraging factors is that we had 61% of our students, or a total of 972, coming from North Carolina. The remainder represented 22 of the states, four foreign countries and the District of Columbia. The total enrollment for the fall semester, 1971-72, is 1,494.

The College Development Program experienced continued success during 1970-71. It was during the course of this year that we exceeded the $1 million mark which places the College near its goal within the cash and pledge sector of the campaign. Our efforts now will be turned to planned giving through wills, bequests and other forms of deferred giving. It is because of the success of the campaign that the College is now beginning the construction of two new buildings, not to expand the capacity of the College, but to replace outmoded buildings. The first to be constructed will be a new classroom-faculty office building which will accommodate the departments of Religion and Philosophy, History, Sociology and Political Science, Modern Foreign Languages, English, and Business Administration. The second facility, which will be under construction at the same time as the classroom-office building but will be completed some time later because of the size of the facility, is a new college union building. This structure, more commonly known as a student union building, will provide auxiliary services to our students, faculty and community.

The real excitement for the year came in our visit from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The Southern Association was here to reaffirm our accreditation which was granted four years ago. The College should receive final word of its status during the month of October when the Evaluation Committee looks at our report. As a part of the planning for the visitation, the faculty, under the leadership of Dr. Richard Hoffman, Vice President for Academic Affairs, engaged in a total re-evaluation of our curricular structure. We are now committed to a new system known as the "4-1-4" plus our summer term. Within this new curricular structure, we will have added flexibility through inquiry courses, interdisciplinary courses, short terms in January and June as well as independent study, guided readings and other individual development kind of courses.

For the fourth year, Mars Hill College received a substantial grant ($65,000) from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation. This year's grant was to launch a new program in teacher education in which elementary education majors will spend a junior year internship within a school system. It is our hope and belief that students spending a full year in the classroom, with College professors assisting them, for which they will receive a full year's college credit, will have a better knowledge of the responsibilities of teachers and the many requirements laid upon them. This will also afford the student an opportunity to return to the college in the senior year and further enhance his training to make him a better teacher.

During the summer months, the College was host to some 2,500 conferees involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the Week of Christian Study and Fellowship, Superintendents of Maintenance With the Public School System, Student Council Congress, and numerous other special workshops, institutes and conferences. Hopefully, each of these visitors left Mars Hill with a better understanding of the campus, the program and that which can be realized in a Christian college environment.

In May, the college graduated 222 seniors; in August, 66 were graduated, for a total of 288 graduates for the year.

The replacement value of the total campus plant is approximately $12,000,000. As of May 31, the total indebtedness on these facilities was $265,000. This indebtedness will be amortized on a short-term schedule so that the College will be totally debt free by November, 1972.

It must be understood that Mars Hill College could not look with enthusiasm and optimism to the future except for the outstanding support the Baptists of North Carolina provide through the Co-operative Program and the Baptist College Day offering. We are deeply appreciative of the efforts of each person who has had a role in our emphasis on excellence.

5. Meredith College

C. C. CAMERON, Chairman, Board of Trustees

C. ALLEN BURRIS, Acting President

Meredith College has continued to build upon the strength of her heritage during the past year and is a stronger institution as a result of the combined efforts of many. The college has restated, reinforced and revitalized her mission so that she may continue to fulfill her potential successes in service as a Baptist, senior, liberal arts college for women.

During the year, Meredith was cited by a Carnegie Commission study as one of the colleges in the nation which was "not in financial trouble." This citation is a result of the decision to limit the purpose and scope of the college and to gain maximum utilization of educational resources. The college has continued its tradition of offering high quality liberal arts education in the Christian atmosphere.

The Carnegie Commission report clearly indicates Meredith must maintain its present impetus in acquisition of educational resources. With the ever present trend of "hard times" before many colleges, the continued support of the many friends of Meredith is essential.

Dr. E. Bruce Heilman who served as fifth President of Meredith resigned effective August 31, 1971, to assume the Presidency of the University of Richmond. A presidential selection committee of the Board of Trustees has been seeking a competent replacement. Dr. Allen Burris, Vice President and Dean of the College, will serve as acting President until a new president is elected.

At a time when the national trend has been for decreasing enrollment in private colleges, Meredith's enrollment has been stable and actually increasing in accordance with the college's long range plans for reaching an optimum enrollment of 1,200 students. The 1971-72 fall semester enrollment reached 1,205 degree candidates and 85 special students for a total enrollment of 1,290. The college also continues to serve the community through music instruction for approximately 125 students.

At the May 1971 commencement 216 Bachelor of Arts degrees were awarded and one Bachelor of Music.

During the year a seventh residence hall was completed at a cost of $895,000.00.

Distinguished Alumnae Awards were presented to Miss Lillian Lu of Taipei, Taiwan, who was an alumna in residence and also to Mrs. Annie Laurie Overton Pomeranz of Sanford.

Meredith continued to participate with the five other colleges in Raleigh in the Cooperating Raleigh College Program.

Faculty and students continue to be active in community and church activities and projects.

Total assets of the college for the year ended June 30, 1971 were $16,000,000. The indebtedness as of that date included a loan, $528,000 from the Housing and Home Finance agency for Poteat dormitory and Delia Dixon Carroll Infirmary and a $684,000.00 loan from the Department of Health Education and Welfare for the Carlyle Campbell Library and $730,000.00 for a new residence hall. These are 40-year loans with three per cent interest which can be amortized through current fund receipts.

Four of the five major new facilities included in the Meredith College Advancement Program have now been completed and the final building, a College and Continuing Education Center, is under construction. Total physical improvement commitments since 1966 are approaching $5.6 million.

Gift income of $746,275.21 was received during the year, including $260,121.59 through the Cooperative Program of the Baptist State Convention.

The Class of 1971 established Meredith's first endowed professorship through contributions of over $8,000 and named it to honor Dr. Lillian Parker Wallace, former chairman of the Department of History. Shortly after the naming of the professorship, Dr. Wallace died.

Meredith College has ambitious, yet realistic, plans for meeting the demands and challenges of the future. The key to her success is the continued understanding and support of North Carolina Baptists in the fulfillment of her quest to provide high quality education in the Christian context.

6. Wake Forest University

JOSEPH BRANCH, President, Board of Trustees

JAMES RALPH SCALES, President

Wake Forest University began the 1971-72 academic year with a new curriculum, a new dormitory, a record enrollment, and a new graduate school of management.

The revised curriculum, known as the 4-1-4 plan, gives a one-month winter term in which students will have the opportunity to do concentrated study and research in one field or to take part in off-campus projects.

The new women's dormitory, which houses about 300 students, was completed at a cost of $2.1 million in time for the opening of the fall semester.

The 1971 fall enrollment was 3,715, which is 389 more than last year. This includes 2,794 students in Wake Forest College, 280 in the Graduate School, 61 in the Babcock Graduate School of Management, 290 in the School of Law and 290 in the Bowman Gray School of Medicine. The increase in undergraduate enrollment was made possible by the construction of the new dormitory.

The first students in the Babcock School were enrolled in the fall of 1971. The school offers two-year MBA and Master of Management programs and a special MBA-Executive program which allows the working manager to attend classes one day a week over a 20-month period. The School has attracted more than $3½ million in permanent funds toward its target of $6 million, the amount required to support the growth to 200 students and 25 faculty members over a five-year period.

The Medical Center, which includes the Medical School and North Carolina Baptist Hospital, is into the final phase of construction on a $40.8 million development program. Four buildings, three of them academic, have been completed and are in use. The new facilities permit a 37 per cent increase in enrollment at the Medical School over four years. The Medical School has been named as one of 13 specialized centers of research on arteriosclerosis in the United States. The center is being established through a $3 million, five-year grant from the National Heart and Lung Institute.

The Law School also is gradually increasing its enrollment. Plans have been made for a $500,000 addition to the law building, which will allow the School to enroll 440 students by 1975-76. A $25,000 gift from the United States Steel Foundation is being applied to the much-needed addition.

Last fall marked the beginning of doctoral study on the Reynolda campus when the Department of Biology began a program leading to the Ph.D. degree. Last April the Trustees approved doctoral programs in the Departments of Chemistry and Physics. Present plans call for the admission of a few students in September, 1972.

The University is grateful for the confidence and support of the Baptist State Convention, which this year contributed more than $450,000 through its Cooperative Program.

The University received a number of generous gifts during the 1970-71 year. Among them are $500,000 from the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust to establish an endowed professorship at the College; $200,000 from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation to be used for faculty salaries; and $100,000 donations to the Babcock School and the School of Law by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. Total alumni contributions were near $500,000. The Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation and the Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation continued their long-standing support, contributing $770,000 and $448,830 respectively.

The budget for the 1971-72 fiscal year for the entire University is over $24 million. Of this amount $10,776,797 is for the School of Medicine.

Four beloved and distinguished former members of the Board of Trustees died during the year. They are Irving Edward Carlyle of Winston-Salem, William J. Conrad of Winston-Salem, Judge Johnson J. Hayes of Wilkesboro, and Dr. Robert Lee Humber of Greenville. Messrs. Carlyle, Conrad and Humber were former presidents of the Board.

Following is an analysis of the University's outstanding loans as of June 30, 1971:

Date	Original Amount	Interest Payable	Purpose	Dates of Maturity	Security Pledged	Principal Balance
3- 1-55	$3,000,000	3¾ %	Construction of Dorms	10-1-75	Dormitories	$ 825,000

7. Wingate College

H. CONRAD BRIDGES, President, Board of Trustees
BUDD E. SMITH, President

For the year 1971-72 the enrollment of Wingate College is approximately 1,700. The enrollment has more than 700 sophomores, approximately 950 freshmen, and special students and evening class students to make the total. Fifty-six percent of the students are members of Baptist churches and eighty-two percent of them come from North Carolina. Approximately twenty states and twelve foreign countries are represented in the enrollment.

The budget for 1971-72 is $3,742,084.

Listed below is shown the total indebtedness of Wingate College:

Principal Balance	Date	Interest Rate	Purpose	Maturity	Security
$ 5,694	11-1-56	2¾ %	Housing	11-1-76	Dormitory
$150,000	7-1-64	6 %	Housing	7-1-74	Dormitory

The average compensation for teachers at Wingate is approximately $9,800 for nine months. Fringe benefits for teachers and staff members include hospitalization, insurance, retirement, social security, tuition payments for graduate study, fellowship, moving expenses, free tuition for children of employees, travel expense to professional meetings, and extended disability coverage.

Wingate has just recently completed the renovation of the Burris Classroom Building, constructed in 1936. This facility would require a minimum of one and one-half million dollars to replace today, and through careful planning we have been able to renovate the structure for slightly more than $200,000. This is like a new building with new roof, new electric wiring, new lighting fixtures, air conditioning, electric heat, wall-to-wall carpet on the floors, and a completely new structure that houses classes in Social Science, Religion, and English. The dormitories have been reworked during the summer so as to make possible comfortable housing for every student. Every resident's room on the campus has running water and excellent facilities for study and enjoyment. The college has cooperated with the town in many progressive projects such as a new lighting system for the town and particularly around the campus, a reworking of streets, and sewerage for the community.

The addition to the library will be constructed during the next year and should be ready for use during the 1972-73 school year. The Wingate College Library now has 52,000 volumes and continues to be an outstanding junior college library. Plans are that the new addition will make possible 125,000 volumes. A new professional librarian has been added to the staff making a total of four professionals working with twenty-two student assistants in the operation of the library.

During the year Wingate has lost the greatest benefactor the college has ever known in the passing of Mr. Charles A. Cannon of Concord. Between the years of 1956 and 1971, Mr. Cannon gave Wingate College approximately nine million dollars for capital improvements and endowment for specialized programs. He was always willing to give to Wingate when other people participated, and his gifts have been on a challenge basis through these years. Truly every Baptist of North Carolina is grateful to him for his interest in the college and what it is doing to serve young people.

Miss Bessie Gaddy, professor emeritus of social science and mathematics, passed away during the year.

Mr. Joel C. Herren, bursar of the college, passed away in July of 1971 after an extended illness.

Mr. Carl Jarrell, a young man of age 36 and chairman of the computer science program of the college, died of a massive heart attack. He had developed the computer science program at Wingate, and Wingate was one of the first colleges in the country to have an effective two-year program. At the beginning of the program there were no textbooks, and Mr. Jarrell prepared his own. He developed the program at Wingate with machines contributed by the Remington-Rand Corporation, and every student was given an opportunity for basic understanding of computer science language where he could move into the business world and be a contributing member.

Mr. Emory B. Funderburk, a long-time friend of the school and honorary trustee, passed away during the year.

The passing of Trustee Homer V. Lang of Charlotte was indeed a loss to Wingate. Mr. and Mrs. Lang had established the Lang Trust as an endowment for professorships at the college. He had been a wonderful friend of the college through many years. He was a member of the Myers Park Baptist Church, and it was Mrs. Lang who first brought women from the church to the campus at Wingate in 1953 and 1954 to initiate a growing interest from that church.

The history of Wingate College by Dr. H. I. Hester is scheduled to be off the press in May of 1972.

The campus of Wingate College is now valued at more than fifteen million dollars and is composed of forty permanent buildings and sixty acres of land in the eastern part of Union County.

H. DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICES

1. Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated

DON G. BRYANT, Chairman, Board of Trustees

W. R. WAGONER, President

The lives of more than 3200 people were affected in a significant way by the services of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina during the past year. The Homes provided care and related services to a total of 1322 children. Of this number, 1003 received continuing services, while 319 received casework, counseling and referral services.

While working with children, members of the staff maintained a close working relationship with 1880 adults. These, in the main, were parents and custodians of the children involved. This figure includes foster parents and parents of the children in day care in the Child Development Center at Mills Home.

Casework and counseling services are provided adults in an effort to strengthen wholesome family life. In some situations this is done to prevent family breakdown—to help families stay together—to avoid placement of children away from home. When the breakdown has already occurred assistance is directed toward family rehabilitation, hopefully that children can be returned to strong restructured families. Through the Child Development program and the Foster Home program adults are helped to be better parents.

Services to children and their families are provided throughout North Carolina from three primary centers of operation, namely: Mills Home at Thomasville, Kennedy Home at Kinston and Broyhill Home at Waynesville-Clyde. In addition to the above named group care facilities are regional social work centers at Asheville, Charlotte, Raleigh, Fayetteville and Pembroke which are likewise vital to the network of services.

After many years of careful planning the Broyhill Home for children in Haywood County, between Waynesville and Clyde, was opened during the summer of 1971 with the completion of two cottages for children. These facilities were dedicated in services on October 10, 1971. Other buildings dedicated during October and November were the Henry S. Stokes and Eloise Brown Stokes Cottages; the Spurgeon J. Craver Cottage and the Doyle McFarland Administration Building on the Mills Home Campus. Likewise, three buildings were dedicated on the Kennedy Home Campus: the W. H. and Lula Bostic Jones Infirmary, the C. I. and Jessie I. Robinson Recreation Building and the W. C. Reed Memorial Gymnasium.

Thousands of people make possible the ministry of the Children's Homes through their interests, prayers and support in many ways. These, too, have been blessed through a larger stewardship of life. It is against the backdrop of this devotion that the Homes continue to grow in influence and outreach of ministry. It is the dedicated purpose of the agency to keep faith with those who express confidence and trust in what is being done for neglected, dependent and homeless children.

2. North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging

WILLIAM A. POOLE, Superintendent

Our North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging celebrated their 20th anniversary in March of this year. During these two decades, the story of our Homes has been one of faith and the abundant blessings of God upon this special ministry to older people. God has brought us from one Home, and one resident in 1951, to five Homes and a Nursing Care Unit, with total accommodations for 160 residents and 63 patients. Two of these Homes, Resthaven and the Hayes Home, and the Nursing Care Unit are located in Winston-Salem, and the other three Homes are located in Albemarle, Hamilton, and Yanceyville. In these Homes, our residents are loved, and we feel that there is no greater security that they could have and no better care that they could receive.

The past year has been one of the best ever, and we are rejoicing in the blessings that have come from God through our Baptist people. Support for the Homes from the churches, through the Cooperative Program and the Special Day Offering, has been most encouraging. For the last three years, the Homes have had an alarming deficit and have operated in the red. We have not yet reached the point of operating in the black, but let us say, with hopeful optimism, that we are approaching this time. The deepened concern of our Baptist people and the increase in gifts have been strong contributing factors to the success of the past year.

At least 80% of the people who live in our Baptist Homes are financially needy persons and benefit directly from the love gifts of North Carolina Baptists. They simply could not be maintained, and the Homes could not be operated without the Special Offering, designated gifts from the churches, and the Cooperative Program. We would urge our Baptist people, therefore, to remember how dependent these dear older people are on them and would challenge them to give more liberally than ever and to see that their gifts are a real life-line in the on-going of this ministry.

Of unusual interest during the past year has been the construction of the new addition to the Nursing Care Unit in Winston-Salem. It is anticipated that this new facility will be ready for occupancy by October 1. It will make available 18 additional beds and bring the total capacity of the Nursing Care Unit to 63. This addition was made possible by the generous challenge gift of $80,000.00 from Judge and Mrs. William York, of Greensboro. The trustees accepted the challenge and raised an additional $80,000.00.

Pray for your Baptist Homes for the Aging and remember that any ministry to an older person in the name of Christ is a direct ministry to Him.

3. North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc.

THOMAS D. LONG, Chairman, Board of Trustees

REID T. HOLMES, President and Chief Executive Officer

From the small 80-bed general hospital which opened in 1923, North Carolina Baptist Hospital has grown in size and service until today it is a relatively large and complex medical center. There are three main aspects of its present ministry: research, education, and patient care.

Some of the finest medical specialists in the nation work at our Center. Many of these are engaged in research for the purpose of understanding better the causes and cures of various diseases. Their discoveries, together with those made in other research centers and mutually shared, are helping to prolong life and enable people to enjoy better health.

There are approximately 700 students on our Medical Center campus this year, enrolled in eleven different schools. These include the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, the School of Nursing, the School of Pastoral Care, and several Allied Health Schools for training various types of health personnel.

The main aspect of the Medical Center's ministry is still patient care. In 1970, 17,557 persons were admitted to the hospital for a total of 150,174 days of care. In addition, there were 51,563 visits to the Outpatient Clinics, including 17,241 to the emergency room. Approximately 90% of these were "referral" cases—persons who were referred to Baptist Hospital by their local physicians because they had specialized medical problems which Baptist Hospital is staffed and equipped to handle. This specialized medical care is possible because of the relationship between the Hospital and the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University.

The Hospital is making an encouraging recovery from the financial crisis through which it has gone during the past few years.

The daily operations are now "in the black," and the operating deficit has been erased. The administration looks upon the current financial situation with cautious optimism.

Progress continues with the Medical Center Development Program. The new patient tower is expected to be ready for partial occupancy by late 1972. The 14-bed coronary care unit was opened last month. A decision has been made to erect a new two-story unit to care for outpatient and emergency services, since necessary renovation of present facilities would cost approximately the same as the new structure. A state-wide campaign to help finance the development program was initiated in the Spring with pledges from hospital employees which totaled $177,182. This campaign is now moving toward successful completion.

The Mother's Day Offering shows an increase over last year. Some new procedures for administering the Mother's Day Fund have been adopted in order to give greater assurance that the money is used where the need is most urgent.

In July, 1971, Dr. Andrew Lester was appointed Director of the School of Pastoral Care. Dr. Richard K. Young, founder and first director of the school, resigned in May, 1970. Dr. Lester has been a member of the faculty of the school since July, 1969. The school continued its 23 year history of training ministers, with 34 ministers receiving certificates in Clinical Pastoral Education during 1971.

The school through its Pastoral Counseling Center also provided counseling to many people with a wide range of concerns. During the year they provided more than 4,000 hours of individual and marriage counseling and about 1500 hours of group counseling.

The Trustees of your hospital are a group of highly competent and dedicated Baptists who carry their responsibility seriously, they are deeply concerned for our ministry of healing, and they give generously of their time and counsel. They and the administration of the hospital want to express their great appreciation to North Carolina Baptists for your understanding, your prayers, and your support through these recent difficult years.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

As this report reveals, circulation increased 4,765 in the past year. This is one of the sharpest increases the Recorder has ever experienced in one year. Most of the increase has come in churches which voted to send the Biblical Recorder to every resident family.

Another reason for this significant rise in circulation is the fact that the Recorder continues to take a stand on important issues. Readers seem to appreciate such stands and offer their encouragement in many ways.

In addition to the support of its readers, the Recorder deeply appreciates the continued assistance of the Baptist State Convention of N. C.

With rising printing and mailing costs, a price increase in the Church Budget Plan may be needed in the future. Even with a small increase, the Recorder will still be available to every resident family of a church for only 4¢ or 5¢ a week. No other expenditure can bring so much good for so little money.

V. REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION, INC.

C. GORDON MADDREY, Executive Secretary

The annual report of The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc., shows that the liquid assets as of June 30, 1971, were $631,783.95. These assets include securities, notes, and principal cash. As of June 30, 1971, income collected on these assets amounted to $32,848.14. This represents a yield for the fiscal year of 5.2%. The average gross annual yield for the five-year period, June 30, 1967, to June 30, 1971, is 5.7%. This yield on the assets is determined after deducting the unproductive real estate from our assets. When we count the unproductive real estate assets and our liquid assets, the total funds for the Baptist Foundation are in the neighborhood of $1,250,000.00. At the present time, this indicates a very healthy growth of the Foundation during the past ten years. The total amount received in cash during the past year amounted to $13,553.44.

The general activities of the Foundation during the past fiscal year have been varied such as: sale of timber on the tract of land that the Foundation has in Yanceyville; sale of lots in Salisbury given to the Foundation by Mrs. Callie Bingham; there were three new accounts that were established during the past fiscal year during the lifetime of the donors. Mr. and Mrs. Eric J. Bell set up a memorial fund of over $3,000.00; Mount Hermon Baptist Church in Durham set up a cemetery fund of $1,000.00; a husband and wife established a memorial fund of $3,000.00 for the Cooperative Program of the Baptist State Convention. These actions are significant in that so many of our people believe that one can only use the Foundation through one's will; whereas, they can establish memorial funds for designated or undesignated objects during their lifetimes. Many of our gifts during the past year were sums added to memorials already established. One fund in particular, THE KELLY MEMORIAL FUND, was recipient of $5,000.00 from the estate of the late Raymond D. Kelly. When a memorial fund has been established, either during the lifetime of the individual, or through his or her will, then it may be added to whenever an individual desires to do so.

In November, 1970, the attorney for the Foundation, Mr. R. N. Simms, Jr., died at the Baptist State Convention meeting. He has been succeeded by Attorney Gale Parker of Raleigh.

The Foundation has mailed many tracts to individuals in the State, concerning the work of our organization. Practically all of the associations have been visited by representatives from the Foundation office or friends who have volunteered to help us. Many miles have been traveled to conduct "Will Clinics," to speak in the churches on the work of the Baptist Foundation, and to inform our Baptist constituency of services the Foundation has to offer. Pastors and other Christian workers have aided the promotion of Foundation work in a very fine way, and we wish to express our appreciation to each of them.

The Foundation believes that a man's witness can live forever as those won by him in turn win others throughout the ages. Some things are eternal. Stewardship is eternal. A man earns and lives and dies and he is a steward. He is a steward in the way that he earns and a steward in the way that he dies. For good or bad, stewardship is eternal.

VI. REPORT ON CONVENTION COMMITTEES

A. HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

Too often and too long have we, Baptists, depended upon others to record and to interpret our history.

But this is changing. Churches, associations, institutions and conventions are becoming conscious of their past and are learning to use it as a spring-board for greater service to our Lord and to His Kingdom.

Dr. W. W. Barnes' History of the Southern Baptist Convention (1954), the Baptist Encyclopedia (1958) and Dr. M. A. Huggins' North Carolina Baptists (1971)—to cite a few examples—are significant contributions to the understanding of our history and are stimulating further interest and effort in preserving our history.

The Baptist Historical Collection at Wake Forest University, a joint project of the Baptist State Convention and of Wake Forest University, continues to grow under its able director, Mr. John R. Woodard. During the past year (July, 1970-June, 1971), 317 new titles were added to the collection; five churches have had their records microfilmed, and six churches have placed their original records with the collection. Three books of the histories of churches and many sketches and brochures have been donated. Private collections of materials were established for James William Denmark, John Alexander Oates, Robert I. Devin, Charles Bennet

Deane, Sophia Lanneau, Charles J. H. Anderson, S. A. Hatley, John D. Whitford and Anna Jane Hunter. The largest groups of materials received were the W. R. Cullom papers and the Odus M. Mull papers. The 1823 journal of William Hooper and the additions to the N. C. Female Seminary (Oxford) papers were outstanding. The pilot indexing of the Biblical Recorder of 1968 has been completed and printed; it totals 148 pages and contains 6,394 entries.

The Historical Committee heartily endorses Mr. Woodard's plea to the churches for their cooperation in microfilming their church records and in contributing significant materials to the Baptist Historical Collection. Also we join him in seeking to complete the files of associations' minutes and in securing biographical data on Baptist ministers and prominent laymen and laywomen. We commend Mr. Woodard and Mrs. Jeanette Smith for the pilot project of indexing the Biblical Recorder (Vol. 134) of 1968 and hope that the indices of the other years will be forthcoming.

We commend the Broadman Press and the editors of Volume III of the Baptist Encyclopedia for the significant contribution this volume will make to the understanding and appreciation of our Baptist heritage. Also we commend Dr. Reymond Hargus Taylor for his history of the Baptist Church at Cashie and the First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem for its centennial celebration.

The Historical Committee expresses the hope that Dr. James M. Hayes' history of the North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging will be published soon and congratulates Campbell College upon the plans for writing its history. The Rev. Harry Fowler is commended for his efforts to preserve and restore the old Conoho Baptist Church building (Oak City), and the committee appeals to the South Roanoke Association to take steps to save the fabric of this historic building.

In anticipation of the 150th anniversary of the Baptist State Convention in 1980, we recommend to the convention:

1. That we direct the celebration of the founding of our convention to the glory of God and the advancing of His Kingdom on earth.

2. That the agencies, institutions and churches in the convention be encouraged to undertake new and creative ways of achieving the purposes of the celebration.

3. That a steering committee be appointed or elected by the executive committee of the convention to coordinate and direct the celebration.

4. That a historian be chosen to bring up to date the history of North Carolina Baptists and that an annual appropriation of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) be made toward having this history printed in 1979 and toward giving the writer an appropriate honorarium.

5. That the help of our Baptist colleges be solicited in completing the indexing of the Biblical Recorder under the supervision of the director of the Baptist Historical Collection and that one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) be appropriated annually for the cost of project and for the printing of the index when it is completed. (We suggest that the goal be 1980.)

6. That the committee be authorized to continue its cooperation with the Department of Archives and History of North Carolina in getting highway markers placed at sites of significant Baptist history.

B. MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

Better well done than well said!

The wife of the late Civil Rights leader, Medgar Evers, spoke of her husband's untimely death: "I have magnificent memories. Medgar didn't belong just to me . . . he belonged to so many, many people everywhere. He was so willing to give his life that I feel his death has served a certain purpose."

Most men do at least one or two unforgettable things in their lives . . . things that will be remembered long after they pass from the scene. Quite often, these things seemingly are small and insignificant, and may not be thought important at the time. Most often, it is such contributions men do for others that immortalize them. It is truly hard for anyone to ever forget the heartfelt kindness of another, especially a stranger or someone apart from their daily living.

"We serve because we love" has been the silent motto of men such as these whom we commemorate at this Convention. The love they represented and shared is remembered as much as the service they rendered. Life is a long road to eternity, and we pass many brothers on the way. We believe these brethren have heard the Master say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

It is both fitting and proper that this Convention should pause this day to honor the memory of those who have transferred their membership from this vineyard to their Father's house. We recommend that our Convention list the names of all deceased ministers and leaders of our State Baptist Convention for the 1971 Convention year and that this list be recorded in the Convention annual.

We also recommend that the annual be dedicated to Mr. Irving Carlyle, Dr. Leslie H. Campbell, Dr. M. A. Huggins, and the Reverend J. C. Pipes.

C. COMMITTEE ON TRUSTEE ORIENTATION

In keeping with the responsibility assigned by the Baptist State Convention to this committee, the Committee on Trustee Orientation planned and conducted a two-day program for all of the trustees of our institutions and agencies. The meeting was held at the Downtowner Motor Inn of Durham, N. C., January 8-9, 1971. A number of the institutions had meetings of their trustees during the afternoon. The program began with a dinner meeting at 6:00 p.m. Dr. Raymond Stone, chairman of the Committee, presided.

Program personalities and subjects were as follows:

Dr. William Van Alstyne, Professor, School of Law, Duke University speaking on the subject "Legal Aspects of Student-Institutional Relationships."

Dr. W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, speaking on the subject "Outlook for North Carolina Baptist Institutions."

Dr. Ellen Winston, Former Commissioner of Welfare in North Carolina; now with Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D. C., speaking on the subject "Government and Church Activity in the Social Service, Where We are Headed."

Dr. Benjamin Fisher, formerly Executive Secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education in North Carolina, now Executive Secretary of the Commission on Christian Higher Education of the Southern Baptist Convention speaking on the subject "A Parting Shot."

Mr. Gus Johnson, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Florida Baptist Foundation, speaking on the subject "Working together in a Sacred Stewardship."

The meeting was well attended and the program seemed to be very helpful to all present. Many expressed appreciation for a meeting that brings trustees of all of the institutions together for study and fellowship. This encourages cooperation in the Baptist family.

FULL TEXT OF THE RESOLUTIONS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL BOARD ON PAGE

Resolution to Borrow Funds for North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc.

Whereas, The Trustees of the North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc., in cooperation with the Trustees of Wake Forest University and Bowman Gray School of Medicine, are engaged in a major program of expansion and renovation of medical center facilities; and

Whereas, The Baptist State Convention has heretofore authorized borrowings by North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. and Bowman Gray School of Medicine in the amount of $10,500,000.00 for medical center buildings and equipment, and has authorized borrowings up to $1,250,000.00 for the Paramedical building, and has also authorized a working capital loan in the sum of $400,000.00; that the total authorization heretofore granted for said expansion programs are in the amount of $12,150,000.00; and

Whereas, It is in the best interests of the hospital and the medical school that the former borrowings and authorizations be consolidated into one loan program with an FHA insured loan as available through the National Housing Act, Title 2, Section 242 in cooperation with possible Hill-Burton funds grant, and that the loan fees, discounts, and other necessary loan costs and expenses be included in the borrowing;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in session in the City of Charlotte, North Carolina, on November 22-24, 1971, authorize the Trustees of North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. to borrow a sum up to $12,150,000.00 (which includes $10,500,000.00 previously authorized North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. and Bowman Gray School of Medicine; $1,250,000.00 previously authorized North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. for the Paramedical building; and $400,000.00 authorized as a working capital loan) to be used for the Medical Center Development Program; that in addition to the borrowing up to $12,150,000.00 said Trustees be authorized to borrow and include as a part of such loan such amounts as may be necessary to pay all loan fees, discounts, and closing costs incurred in connection with the FHA loan program and all interim construction interests and costs, for a total loan up to $14,000,000.00.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the corporate officers of North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. be and they are hereby authorized to execute and enter into all necessary mortgage documents included but not limited to regulatory agreements, notes, and loan agreements, and that the Trustees of North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. be authorized to execute such amendments of the charter as required pursuant to the existing rules and regulations of the National Housing Act.

RESOLUTION ON BORROWING

Gardner-Webb College

Gardner-Webb College finds it necessary to add additional library facilities, administrative facilities, student housing, and classroom space in order to more fully meet the needs of the student in an accredited senior college program. To accomplish this goal the college is in the process of completing plans for construction of the new library building to be known as the John R. Dover, Sr. Memorial Library, an addition to the Webb Administration Building, a new men's residence hall to be known as the Craig Hall, and the remodeling of the present library building for use as classrooms. Therefore, the Trustees of the Gardner-Webb College present the following Resolution to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Whereas; Gardner-Webb College has just completed a successful campaign resulting in cash and pledges of $2,600,000, and

Whereas; Gardner-Webb College is in the process of becoming an accredited four-year college, and

Whereas; the College needs a new library facility, additional administrative, classroom and student residence facilities

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in session at Charlotte, North Carolina, November 22-24, 1971:

1. That the Board of Trustees of Gardner-Webb College be empowered to borrow a maximum of $2,000,000 for the construction of the John R. Dover, Sr. Memorial Library, the addition to the Webb Administration Building, the Craig Dormitory, and the remodeling of the present library building.

2. That it is the intention of the Board of Trustees of Gardner-Webb College to build within their ability to pay without reducing the efficiency of the educational program.

3. That repayment of the loan be made as soon as possible from funds to be received from pledges and gifts made in the above mentioned campaign and future gifts to be made by interested donors.

4. That no part of any indebtedness which may be incurred by Gardner-Webb College under the authority of this Resolution shall in any respect be deemed or held to be the indebtedness or obligation of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, nor shall the General Board assume any responsibility whatever for the repayment of such loan or interest thereon.

RESOLUTION ON BORROWING

Campbell College

Whereas, In order to successfully conduct its many and growing summer programs and to more effectively produce a fully accredited intramural and athletic program during the regular academic school year, Campbell College finds itself under urgent and constant pressure from its students and faculty to provide a swimming pool and field house facility suitable to house the pool and dressing accommodations; and

Whereas, Campbell College finds itself presently engaged in a serious promotional effort to provide funds for use in the construction of a multi-purpose classroom building to replace the Math-Religion Building destroyed by fire; and

Whereas, It is the feeling of the administration that it cannot now turn from its program and serious efforts to raise funds for its classroom building to that of raising funds for a swimming facility and suitable field house building in which it is to be housed. Neither does the administration feel that it can afford to delay construction of the swimming facility building until the successful completion of the multi-purpose classroom building promotional program; and

Whereas, A preliminary investigation by the administration has determined the cost of the swimming facility building to be approximately $400,000; and

Whereas, The family and friends of one of our former students have offered to give an initial sum of slightly more than $100,000 to be used for the construction of the swimming pool and the facility in which it is to be housed; and

Whereas, It is the opinion of the administration that once the construction of this swimming facility is under way, that other special gifts will be forthcoming to the extent the administration feels that at least $50,000 in additional funds will be available before the end of the construction period; and

Whereas, The administration has received a tentative offer from a bond purchasing firm in Atlanta, Georgia to purchase on an up-to-twenty-year retirement schedule a bond issue of Campbell College not to exceed $250,000, with the agreement that the net proceeds from the sale of same would be used in the construction of a swimming facility building on the campus of Campbell College; and

Whereas, The Administration recommended to the Campbell College Board of Trustees that it be authorized to proceed as follows:

1. Issue and sell bonds totaling $250,000, preferably in denominations of $12,500 each, to be retired on the best negotiable annual combination of interest and principal repayment schedule available, with the agreement that such bond issue may be retired in full at the option of the College at the end of the first five years of the repayment schedule, at the end of which time under its present debt retirement schedule the College will be completely free of its present short-term indebtedness which has been reduced from $1,369,000 to $540,000 within the past four years; issuance and sale of bonds to be subject to the necessary approval of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

2. Authorize the administration to give as bond payment security to the purchaser of the bonds a first mortgage lien on the swimming building facility and the land on which it is situated, and pledge from the first of its student fees each year the annual amount necessary to meet the debt service retirement requirements of the indenture agreement of the proposed swimming building facility bond issue. It being felt by the administration that the amount required annually to retire the bond issue debt service requirement would be reasonable annual rent for use of these additional now needed facilities by the students, and that in this way the facility can now be provided without interrupting the multi-purpose Math-Religion classroom building program or seriously effecting the sound financial position of the College.

3. Proceed at once to develop working drawings. Such plans to be subject to approval of the Campbell College Board of Trustees Committee on Business Affairs and the administration of the College; and

Whereas, The Campbell College Board of Trustees did, on the fourteenth day of June, 1971, unanimously approve the above resolution subject to the approval of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and recommended that the same be approved by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina at the 1971 November meeting of the Convention.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA IN SESSION NOVEMBER 22-24, 1971.

1. That the Trustees of Campbell College, Incorporated, be authorized to borrow a sum up to $250,000 to be used all or in part for the construction of a swimming pool field house facility;

2. That the sum actually borrowed, together with the interest thereon shall be repaid over a period not to exceed 20 years, said payments and interest to be paid in annual installments with the understanding that nothing herein stated shall prevent the College from agreeing to retire the total indebtedness within a ten-year period or pay the indebtedness in full at the end of any period during the life of said loan;

3. That the proper officers of Campbell College, Incorporated, be and are hereby authorized and empowered to execute, or cause to be executed, in the name of Campbell College, Incorporated, and on its behalf, a first mortgage lien upon the lands upon which the swimming pool field house building is to be located, together with the approaches thereto, provided however, that such mortgage shall not in any way encumber any other property owned by Campbell College, Incorporated;

4. That no part of any indebtedness which may be incurred by Campbell College, Incorporated under the authority of this resolution shall in any respect be deemed or held to be the indebtedness or obligation of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina; nor shall the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina assume any responsibility whatsoever for repayment of such loan or any interest thereon.

RESOLUTION FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES
BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.
ENLARGEMENT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

That it is desirable and for the best interests of the accomplishment of the purposes of the Homes to add additional persons to the membership of the Board of Trustees. That, therefore, request is hereby made to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and to the General Board of the Convention, and to the Nominating Committee of the Convention that an increase in the number of the Board of Trustees may be authorized to enlarge it from 18 persons to 36 persons, such additional members to be added over a three-year period. That the Nominating Committee should make nominations for the November, 1971, State Convention to fill the vacancies of the five Trustees whose terms will expire in 1971, and to add six additional nominees, and at the next two following State Conventions, to add an additional six nominees each, to bring the total Board of Trustees to 36 members in a period of three years.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE GENERAL BOARD TO THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION CONCERNING THE APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE OF 15 TO STUDY THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE CONVENTION AND THE HOSPITAL

In view of the following circumstances the General Board recommends the action stated below:

1. Because of the recent action of the Hospital Trustees in discontinuing all Paramedical Schools including the School of Nursing, and

2. The change in the manner in which patients are admitted to the Hospital, (for example, prepayment requirements, minimum guarantee of ability to pay, etc.), thus altering the pattern of free care of past years, and

3. The complex financial situation at the Baptist Hospital involving many Federal loans and grants, and

4. The indication that the Federal government is moving in the direction of National Health Insurance;

The General Board recommends to the Baptist State Convention that the Convention authorize the appointment of a Committee of 15 to study thoroughly the feasibility of a new plan of relationship between the Baptist Hospital and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and report back to the General Board and Convention by November, 1972, with recommendations.
